THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—Mountain fires are again raging in this vicinity.

—John M. Young, of Romola, has had his pension increased from $6 to $8 per month.

—Andrew Whitehill, of Lemont, has picked 800 bushels of winter apples from his orchard.

—Miss Jane Furst entertained "The" card club at her home on West Linn street Tuesday evening.

—Bellefonte had a regular London fog on Wednesday and the "Burnham" golf links were clangous with joy.

—As a result of his hunt on Tuesday, Harry Jackson brought home a wild turkey, a squirrel and a pheasant.

—"The Sidewalks of New York" comes to Garman's, next Monday night, Oct. 30th, for one performance.

—George Moore Jr., had his arm badly torn recently while working a fodder cutting machine near Port Matilda.

—The new livery barn erected for Jesse Cox, on the Stewart property at the rear of this office, is under roof.

—Bellefonte girls were running around on Tuesday in white piques, dimities and lawns, as if it had been a July day.

—John I. Thompson will close his home at Lemont this winter and the family will take apartments at the Inn at State College.

—The change in the atmosphere, on Sunday, was so marked as to convert a crisp fall morning into a balmy August evening.

—Mrs. Anna Dolan is lying at her home on south Pine street in a very discouraging condition. She is suffering with tuberculosis.

—J. H. Tebbes, of Howard, raised 25,000 pickles on a quarter of an acre of land and 140 bushels of tomatoes on one half an acre this season.

—The serious illness of Miss Maggie Cooney at Bradlock called her sister, Mrs. Mary Fox, of east Bishop street, and her father, Mr. Lawrence Cooney, to that place on Friday.

—Charles Atherton stood 156th among the 210 players in the National base ball league as a batsman. He played sixty-three games, stole five bases and had a batting average of 240.

—Lieut. Geo. L. Jackson, of the 47th U. S. Inf., is reported to be very sick in the hospital at Camp Meade, with a probability that he will not be able to accompany his regiment to Manila.

—Mountain fires are burning on the Alleghenies, Muncy, Nittany and Tussey mountains. The same tracts were burned over in the spring so that there will scarcely be anything left alive on the fire swept areas.

—The ladies of the Coleville Methodist chapel will serve a supper in one of the houses in the "Collins Row," near the Bellefonte furnace, on Monday evening. Proceeds for the chapel. You are all invited.

—The Pennsylvania State College football team was defeated by the naval cadets, at Annapolis, on Saturday, by the score of 6 to 0. State scarcely expected a victory because of the crippled condition of her players.

—W. H. Harrison Walker Esq., was among the huntsmen who left Bellefonte for the woods on Friday. There is a rumor afloat that he will be gunning for the congressional nomination from this district some day.

—The merchants and other Bellefonte business people who declined to subscribe to the shirt factory will doubtless be eager enough to gobble up their full share of the trade that such an enterprise will bring to the town.

—It is a bit of history that of the twenty-four members of the Democratic standing committee for Centre county, in 1856, only two are living to-day. They are Capt. John A. Hunter, of Stormstown, and J. Smith Barnhart, who is now residing in Iowa.

—While standing on a ladder that he had leaned against the barn so as to better reach the apples on a nearby tree John Dinkleberger, of Pleasant Gap, met with an accident that might have injured him seriously. The ladder broke; precipitating him to the ground. He suffered no more than being stung for awhile.

—There was such a small attendance at the meeting in the arbitration room in the Court house, on Friday evening, that the agricultural fair project was dropped until some future time. The object of the meeting was to devise ways and means for the organization of a county fair, but there were so few people at the meeting that it was abandoned until spring.

—Capt. Mullen of the disbanded Co. M, 21st Regt., N. G. P. has just received a letter from Adj. Gen'l. Thomas J. Starnat expressing regret that the conditions of reorganization of the Guard had necessitated the mustering out of his company and also congratulating him on the very excellent manner in which the government property in his charge had been turned in and the carefulness with which all details had been looked after.

NO DISEASE LURKING IN BELLEFONTE WATER.

While the name Bellefonte is almost synonymous with good water there are a few pessimists about who start up a great hue and cry once in a while and try to frighten our people into hysterics by holding up to them pictures of the myriads of horrible crawlers that are to be found in the flow from the "Big Spring" when any of it is put under a powerful glass. While it is admitted that some very unsightly specimens of the lower orders of animal life are shown up in most any water that isn't distilled, and Bellefonte's is not an exception, we never have believed that the water that comes from the spring that gives the town its name is impure.

Flowing clear and pure, day in and day out, it has never been known to vary an inch in volume in the driest or rainiest season, nor has it been known to change, by half a degree, its temperature in the hottest or coldest periods. The spring is simply marvelous in its out flow, one of nature's rarest gifts and certainly Bellefonte's most precious treasure.

Several weeks ago the Board of Health suggested that some of it be analyzed in order to set at rest the qualms of the skeptical. Accordingly 5 gals. of it were sent to Dr. G. G. Pond, head of the department of chemistry at The Pennsylvania State College, and after a thorough examination he has made the following report of it.

STATE COLLEGE, OCT. 27th, 1899. Henry C. Quigley Esq., Secretary Board of Health, Bellefonte, Pa. Following is my report of analysis, of water from the Bellefonte spring sample collected personally by myself, October 11th, at the pumping station, at the spring: Total solid residue.....12.5 parts per million Lost on ignition.....85.0 parts per million Leaving fixed residue.....7.5 " " " Color: None. Poisonous metals: absent Odor: None. Nitrates: absent Taste: None. Nitrates: trace. Chlorine.....836 parts per million Free ammonia.....0.00 parts per million Albuminoid ammonia.....0.00 parts per million Oxygen required for combustion.....0.13 parts per million In view of the above data, I unhesitatingly pronounce your water supply to be of most excellent quality at the time when sample was taken. Respectfully submitted, G. G. POND, Ph. D.

NEARLY ASPHYXIATED.—Miss Mabel Boal, a daughter of Capt. Geo. M. Boal, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. C. H. Meyer, formerly of the same place, and both well known here, narrowly escaped death from asphyxiation at Millersburg last week.

Our representative at Centre Hall furnishes the following details:

Miss Boal was in a state of asphyxiation from 5:30 o'clock a. m. to 8 p. m. on Tuesday of last week while she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Meyer, at Millersburg. The family retired as usual, and at about 5:30 a. m. Mr. Meyer awoke and found his wife too ill to get up to prepare breakfast. When he arose he noticed a strong odor of gas which escaped from the range down stairs, but thought nothing of it and called his sister-in-law to attend to family offices until his wife would recover. In a short time he heard a sound in Miss Boal's room as though she had fallen, and hastily going to her apartment found her prostrate on the floor in the condition above named. A physician was summoned and work of resuscitation was at once begun. For hours all efforts seemed to be fruitless, but finally the patient was restored by the application of a dozen and a half mustard blisters checked over her body. When called in the morning she arose in bed and that was the only thing she remembered until that night. She returned home Friday. Mrs. Meyer was unable to leave her bed all day from the effects of the gas, but there were no serious results. Miriam, a little daughter, seems to be the only one that braved the storm without injury.

A GENERAL COMMITTEE ON THE CURTIN MONUMENT APPOINTED.—Gen. James A. Beaver, chairman of the committee of the Centre county Veterans' club that is looking after the erection of a monument to the memory of the late A. G. Curtin, has announced the following general committee to solicit subscriptions in their respective parts of the county.

D. F. Fortney, captain S. H. Williams, Bellefonte; captain C. T. Fryberger, captain John Gowland, major A. J. Graham, Philipsburg; captain W. C. Patterson, Dr. Theodore S. Christ, State College; captain W. H. Fry, Pine Grove Mills; captain Geo. M. Boal, professor W. A. Krise, Centre Hall; captain C. P. Stonerode, Milesburg; captain S. H. Bennison, Abdera; captain W. C. Van Vailin, Fleming; captain J. A. Quigley, Blanchard; captain Thomas E. Royer, Rebersburg; W. A. Tobias, Millheim; Dr. James A. Thompson, Stormstown; John G. Uzzle, Snow Shoe; Ed. P. Jones, Port Matilda; captain John A. Daley, Romola; Jerry Condo, Spring Mills; Daniel Weaver, Wolf's Store; Frank I. Wallace, Henry Heaton, Milesburg; W. V. Beckwith, Hannah; general John Q. Miles, Martha; Reuben Grimm, Madisonburg.

An open letter will be sent to each G. A. R. post in the county describing the exact work to be done by the committee and how the public will be expected to co-operate in it.

—Owing to despondency caused by ill health Mrs. John Hanna, the wife of an iron worker in the Jenkins iron and tool works at Howard, attempted to take her life at her home in that place Monday morning. While her daughters were busy washing she went up stairs, under the pretext of lying down for awhile, and they discovered her later with several dangerous gashes cut in the region of her heart. She had used a razor, but had not cut deep enough to cause death. At this time her condition is regarded as critical.

—A pheasant flew through the window of the bake house at the rear of A. E. Howe's home, in Philipsburg, on Monday morning, killing itself.

—Tomorrow State and Dickinson will play football on Beaver field, at State College. The game will be called at 3 o'clock p. m. and will be a good one.

—Pheasants are being shot on the streets of Lock Haven. It is supposed that the mountain fires have driven them into the city from the surrounding forests.

—While we heard a few people remark that "The Irish Alderman" at Garman's Monday night, was "right good" it is our unbiased opinion that it was right bum.

—J. M. Malloy, the Philipsburg installment house manager, and a very clever gentleman, was married to Miss Maggie Quigley, at Osceola, at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning.

—The attraction booked for Garman's next Monday night is "The Sidewalks of New York," a spectacular comedy drama depicting the everyday life of the great metropolis.

—Thomas Lauer, of Boggs township, and Miss Martha McCloskey, of Curtin township, were married by Justice W. H. Messer at his office in this place last Saturday.

—Benjamin F. Hoffer and Miss Vera B. Devinney were married by the Rev. George Bright, in Philipsburg, on Monday evening. The groom is a son of the late H. O. Hoffer, formerly of this place.

—On Saturday the second school football team of Philipsburg defeated the Clearfield eleven by the score of 23 to 0. During the game Charley McCausland made a goal from a drop kick, the first one ever seen on a Philipsburg ground.

—Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal and, since the death of Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, the foremost American journalist, will be here during institute week to deliver one of his lectures.

—Leslie McCully, a former Philipsburg, who was arrested for burglary in Philadelphia recently, plead guilty to seven indictments and was fined $700 and sentenced to seven years in the eastern penitentiary. He has served time in the pen before for similar crimes.

—It is reported that a citizen of Tyrone has received a letter from Andrew Carnegie, dated Scob Castle, Scotland, in which the latter gentleman offers to give $50,000 to the town of Tyrone for a public library; providing the citizens of the place furnish a site and subscribe $3,000 a year to maintain it.

—Tomorrow's football game at the College between Dickinson and State, will probably be the most interesting one to be played on the home grounds this season. Inasmuch as Dickinson is unusually strong this year and State is very much crippled the result will be very close with a probable victory for the blue and white.

—Geo. B. Uzzel, W. R. Haynes and Don Grow, of Clarence, gave ball before square Sandford, in Philipsburg, in the sum of $200 each, for their appearance at the November court to answer the charge of illegal hunting. The men were charged with having four pheasants in their possession before the opening of the season.

—Talk about strong horses, strong wagons and strong men why half the people are not in it with that "old Hickory" Democrat, Orrie Nason, of Martha, and his teamsters, Millard Lucas and Bud Richards. One day recently, with one team and on one wagon, they hauled 25,000 No. 1, 18 inch pine shingles from the Nason Locomot mills to Martha at one load. Beat that if you can.

—The demands on the Clinton county fire brick works at Mill Hall have become so far in excess of the capacity of that plant that the firm contemplates building another plant. The new one will be located at Monument, where the clay for the Mill Hall works is secured, and will have a capacity of 40,000 brick a day. A boarding house for the accommodation of the forty men it will employ is also to be built at once.

—The women of the Methodist church gave one of their excellent chicken and waffle suppers last Thursday evening in Bush Arcade and if every one was not bountifully served it was not because there had not been plenty provided, but because too many people wanted their supper at five or half-past five o'clock instead of at six when the waffles were plenty and the crowd was expected. They took in $61.20 which netted them $55.80, to be used for repairs for the church.

—"The Sidewalks of New York" will come to Garman's next Monday night. It is a spectacular comedy drama, telling a realistic and thrilling story and showing pictures of life in a great city. It is presented with imposing scenic settings and the latest mechanical effects. Chief of the pictorial features is the picturesque Herald Square scene, with its realistic array of the typical characters of upper Broadway and an entertaining ensemble of amusing specialties. A soul stirring sensation is supplied in the shape of a dive for life by the dantless Paul J. Tustin, the champion high diver of the world, who plunges heading thirty feet into a tank of water but three feet deep.

THE ACADEMY FAILED TO EVEN IT UP.

The Academy foot-ball team went to Altoona, on Saturday, with the determination of getting even with the High school boys of that city, who had defeated them here on October 7th by the score of 10 to 0. They did their best, but it wasn't quite enough to bring home a victory though they were able to hold the score down to 5 to 0.

The High school played an excellent defensive and offensive game, its interference being especially fine. Good gains were made on guards back formation and by bucking the line, while on the delayed pass Farabaugh and Wheeler made long end runs.

At no time was High school's goal in danger, most of the game being played on the Academy territory. For Bellefonte Miller played well at quarter and J. Twitmore made some fine runs.

The game was devoid of unnecessary roughness and there was no wrangling over the decisions of the referee. The line up was as follows:

A. H. S. Left End..... Miller Right Guard..... Van Tassel (Capt.) Right Tackle..... Blair Quarterback..... Palmer Fullback..... W. Twitmore Halfback..... J. Twitmore Kick..... Curtis

Summary—High school 5, Academy, 0; touchdown, Wheeler, 1; umpire, Bush; referee, H. Wheeler. Time of game, one 20 and one 15 minute half.

THE GRANGERS DOING CHARITABLE WORK.

That it pays to belong to some good social or fraternal organization was nicely illustrated within the past week over in Penns Valley.

George Gingerich, one of the most active and enthusiastic members of Progress grange, at Centre Hall, was stricken with typhoid fever several weeks ago and he became so ill that his fall work was being neglected without his supervision. Seeing this a party of his Granger brothers went to his home last Thursday and husked all of his corn in the field. The grateful act was not only a great help and possible saving to Mr. Gingerich, but it was a genuine pleasure to those who participated, to be able to do something more material than the mere expressing of sympathy for their stricken friend.

They were so elated with the good they had accomplished that on Wednesday, most of the party, with many recruits, went to the home of N. B. Shaffer and did the same service for him; because he has been handicapped with his fall work by the illness of Mrs. Shaffer and his inability to secure help.

Such acts as these are the ones that show the true spirit of brotherhood and proclaim the superior blessing of deeds over words.

IT COST EIGHT CENTS TO GET THREE CENTS.—An idea of the completeness of detail to which business is carried out by large corporations can be had by a recent transaction to which the N. Y. C. and Bellefonte Central railroads were parties. While the transaction, itself, was a losing one for both companies, yet it had to be gone through with under the ordinary business routine.

The Bellefonte Central Co. owed the N. Y. Central a balance of .03 on their September business and in sending a statement of it the former company was required to send 2cts for postage; then the N. Y. C. returned the statement, approved, and asked that the balance of .03 be mailed at once, this letter requiring a 3ct postage stamp. The B. C. R. R. mailed the balance of .03, thus spending 2cts more for postage and the N. Y. C. acknowledged the receipt of it, running the expenditures for postage, without the stationery or trouble, up to 2cts to collect a bill of .03, about which there was dispute.

SUCCESSFUL GUNNERS.—On Thursday of last week C. H. Hoffman, an attaché of the maintenance of way department of the Pennsylvania railroad in Philadelphia, and Nerchew, of Vineland, N. J., were arrivals in this place with their guns and dog. They came to spend a few days with J. L. Will Conley, of Logan street, and, incidentally, to hunt. John Trafford and Charley Heiser joined them on several little expeditions to the ridges of Bald Eagle and Nittany valleys and when the gentleman started back for the city, on Tuesday, they had 27 pheasants, 37 quail and 2 squirrels.

Such a record would seem to indicate that small game is plentiful up here, but the real reason was that the men behind the guns could hit the birds that their remarkably trained dog put up.

PROBABLY A NEW CATHOLIC DIOCESE.—The subject of erecting a new Catholic diocese from portions of the dioceses of Harrisburg, Erie and Pittsburgh in this State is now being agitated. If the new diocese is formed it will probably be called the Altoona diocese. It is stated that in a recent conference archbishop Ryan and the bishops of the dioceses named had decided that the counties of Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon, Centre, Clinton Clearfield, Cameron and Elk should form the new diocese. It is also stated that the report asking for the change has already been sent to Rome and is now awaiting the approval of the pope.

—While gunning on the Nittany country club's preserve recently David Martin, of Philadelphia, accidentally shot a dog that he valued at $1,000. The wounds were not fatal, however, and it will get over them.

—The government supervising architect has asked for $62,500 for Altoona's new public building.

—Mrs. D. K. Tate, of west Bishop street, with her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Temple, of Salem, Mass., spent a few days recently visiting their son and brother D. Kirk Tate in Philipsburg.

—J. H. Miller, of Rock Springs, was in town for a while on Saturday and dropped in for a little chat on the political outlook. Mr. Miller spoke quite hopefully of his section of Ferguson township.

—Serg. Richard Taylor, Co. D, 4th U. S. Inf., was home to spend Sunday with his mother in this place and to bid farewell to his friends before starting to the Philippines with his regiment.

—Phil. D. Waddell express messenger on the Central, went to Philadelphia last Thursday, to spend part of his ten days vacation. While away Ed. Robb, of Nittany, is taking his runs on the road.

—John P. Harris Sr., was in Philadelphia, on Saturday, as a member of the state committee that named Judge John I. Mitchell as the successor of Justice Adams for Superior court judge on the quay ticket.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sankoy, of Putnes Mills, were in town on Saturday on their way home from a two months pleasure trip through Kansas, Iowa and Illinois. Both were looking unusually well after their journey.

—George Bayard went up to Tyrone yesterday evening to accept a position in Pfeiffer's drug store in that place. We congratulate the Hon. Jm in having secured the service of such a general and efficient pharmacist.

—Supt. F. C. Williams, of the Edison Co., went to Altoona, on Saturday afternoon, to spend Sunday with his father-in-law George Kauffman and to bring his family back home from their three weeks' stay in the Mountain city.

—Chas. P. Hewes Esq., of Erie, was an arrival in town Wednesday morning and attended to some legal business here, while his family visited at the home of E. R. Chambers Esq., on Linn street, until yesterday afternoon, when they returned to Erie.

—James B. Noll, of Milesburg, was a caller on Saturday afternoon, but he was on the fly and had time only to stay long enough to drop a little coin and depart. Of course his visit was very agreeable, but it would have been more so had he had more time to waste.

—Ed. Kittell, whose two years absence from Bellefonte was by no means enough to cause him to be forgotten here, was back for a few days' visit last week. While in town he was a guest at the home of Thomas Shoemaker, with whom he is as closely associated in railroad building and other heavy contracts as he was with the Collins men.

—Edward P. Butts left for his home in Hartford, Conn., on Monday evening, where business necessities called him before he was ready to leave his old friends here. He is a member of the engineering firm of Butts and Crosby and it is not out of place here to say that he has installed the first really successful tide water power plant ever put up anywhere.

—Miss Myra Holliday left for Philadelphia last evening on the Central and her departure marks the beginning of the preparations for closing the Spangler home on north Allegheny street. She went down ahead of her sister in order to be with her mother when the apartments for herself and Miss Holliday are selected. The others will go shortly after the election to spend the winter in the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCarger arrived in town on Saturday afternoon, via the overland route from New York. They started at once to look for a house and having found one on east Bishop street, they will take their furniture out of storage and make a home here for the winter. Mac has been doing the New England States for several months and Mrs. McCarger has been with him, both enjoying the driving from place to place in true Nomadic fashion.

—Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston has returned from a month's stay in Pittsburg, where she has been visiting her son Harry, who was so seriously hurt by a fall from a building out there some time ago. It will be remembered that Harry's feet were so badly injured that it was feared he would never be able to walk again, but the brings home the encouraging information that he may not be so seriously affected when the plaster casts are removed. It is expected that he will be home about the holidays.

—Col. E. P. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, of New York, were guests at the home of former commissioner Frank Adams, on east High street, over Sunday. Though the Col. has climbed very high in railroad circles in Bronx and the duties involving upon him annually increase they are not sufficient to strain the senses of his boyhood about Milesburg and he has to come back, at least one year, to satisfy that longing that is told so prettily in the ballad "Mid the Green Fields of Virginia Long Ago."

—Hon. A. O. Furst, John M. Dale and J. C. Meyer are among the Bellefonte attorneys who are in Philadelphia this week trying cases before the Superior court. Messrs. Dale and Meyer are both interested in the defense of former sheriff John P. Condo against the administrator of Emma C. Goodman for the burning of the Ellinger house at Woodard in March, 1898. While no able, but the reason was that the men behind the fire, yet everyone feels that it is the greatest injustice to try to hold sheriff Condo responsible for losses sustained while doing his duty.

—Grant Hoover, the hustling insurance agent, had a quest in town last week in the person of H. C. Cowland, special agent of "the Washington," one of Grant's crack companies. Mr. Cowland is from Cincinnati and while he had often seen Bellefonte on his map he had no idea of what a pretty and substantial town we have, nor of the thrifty villages in Pennsylvania where Grant does so much business for his company, until he saw them. He took in everything down to the Methodist chicken and waffle supper, where he seemed to have his hands in quite as well as making up insurance schedules.

—Ellis Shaffer was up from Miles township, on Saturday, to talk over the political situation with his friends here. While Mr. Shaffer was not talking for publication we take the liberty of using that much of his conversation as pertained to his position on the shirlevy contest. He said: "If any one imagines that we are not all for Brungart down our way all they need to do is to wait and look at the returns when they come in. I intend to put in two solid weeks working for the white ticket before the election and Cyrus will be worked for just as hard as any of the rest, because we understand each other thoroughly and also understand the scheme some people have been trying to work to create a difference between us, but they can't do it." It was just as we expected. Mr. Shaffer is too good a man to be caught by such flimsy political lumps as some people have been trying to pass off on him.

WITH THE SICK.—Ex-sheriff D. Z. Kline, whose health had so improved that he was able to be out on the porch or yard most of the summer, has had a relapse which has caused his family much anxiety in the last week. Miss May Taylor, one of the teachers in the stone building, and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, has been seriously ill for several weeks with peritonitis. Mrs. Anna Dolan, of Pine street, is quite low with lung and throat trouble. Mrs. Robert Kline, of Bishop street, has gone to Philadelphia for hospital treatment. And Mrs. F. Peebles Green is so ill that her sons have been summoned from Altoona and Erie.
