-It is reported that Wm. A. Mann, of Mill Hall, will erect an ax factory for himself within a year. Although he has secured an option on a site at Mill Hall he has not definitely determined to locate his plant there. Mr. Mann expects to build a factory in order to meet an increased demand for some special brands of axes he

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

Edwin L. Markle, of Hublersburg, and Eva K. Bierly, of Parvin, Clinton county,

Charles W. Burd, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Margaret C. Baker, of Lock Haven. Alfred Lucas, of Axe Mann, and Grace Folgar, of Walker.

James Justice and Bessie E. Shaffer, both of Benner Twp.

James W. Lucas, of Howard Twp., and Lillie Sharp, of Curtin Twp.

Pine Grove Mention.

D. L. Dennis' new home has been brightened up with a fresh coat of paint.

Farmer Stine Walker lost a valuable cov last week with dry murrain.

Mr. David Rider, of whom we made mention last week, is not any better. Information has been made against several of our citizens by the school board for violating the compulsory school law. R. D. Gillian, of Union county, with a crew of lumbermen are engaged in preparing for shipment, to Hamburg, Germany, three car loads of walnut logs from this station. Mr. James Dreese and his bride returned to their Adamsburg home, last Friday, perfectly delighted with the hearty reception tendered them in this section while on their bridal trip. J. A. Weaver is holding a band concert this evening in the old church at Pennsylvania Furnace. All lovers of good music should attend and hear a big blow out. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Baileyville band. As J. Wm. Kepler has his camp on Tussey mountain completed, lumber operations will be commenced at once. Many cords of pulp wood will be cut at once and employment will be given to many bread winners the entire winter. Mrs. S. A. Young, of Bellefonte, spent several days visiting here, last week, and in addition to making glad the heart of her aged mother she had the pleasure of meeting several old friends she had not seen for twenty-five years. Mr. Jacob Markle, one of our noted nimrods, can consider our hat off for that goodly portion of savory meet and honey. He captained the college hunters who come out of the Bear meadows with four fine deer on the last day of the hunting season.

Butcher Jim Decker has thus far butchered seventy-five porkers. Sam Martz has the blow hog of the season so far but as there are others to hear from we will not mention weights now. Decker says Lowel Smith could not hit the side of the barn but as for hitting a pig he simply makes it squeal and that when it was sleeping soundly too. Ike Martz aiming for he missed the pig also and Mr. Gillian of Union county was called up to do the final act. Lowel has hit the hind leg of a beef when he aimed at its head and he frankly admits that shooting is not in his

Centre Hall.

Waterson's lecture will be heard by many from this side.

The public schools will close to-day for two week's vacation. James Durst and Andrew Crotzer took a trip to Mifflin county on Monday on business. Miss May Rhone is home on a short vacation from New York where she holds an important position. James Knoffsinger went to a Philadelphia hospital to have an operation performed for a cancerous growth. Louise and Marion Spangler, little daughters of Howard Spangler, are spending some time with their aunt, Mrs. Van Pelt. The youngest daughter of Milton Snyder, who was seriously ill for a week or more is improving under the care of Dr. Glosser.

J. H. Lohr, who holds an important position with the Pennsylvania railroad in Broad street station, was here this week spending a part of his vacation.

Hon. L. Rhone, Mrs. Rhone, Miss Florence Rhone, and J. J. Arney are among those who attended the State Grange at Lock Haven, this week.

W. D. Shoop is second assistant to postmaster Geo. M. Boal, having been installed last week. He is a young man well fitted for the position; being active, obliging and correct.

It appears that there are any amount of men wanting to engage in a pursuit that "don't pay"-farming. One hundred farms could be rented in this valley-one day; and the next day, as many more.

Sumner V. Hosterman, who is reading law in Lancaster, is here for the Christmas season. Hosterman is a close student and is being tutored by one of the best law firms in Lancaster.

Gross W. Mingle will spend ten days in Philadelphia after Saturday the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, 2058 West Boston avenue. He is kept close to business in the bank and no doubt will enjoy in an unusual way his vacation in the city.

C. F. Deininger is home from New York on a ten day's stay, and possibly may take up quarters in Philadelphia thereafter. Deininger was one of the borough water champions while a citizen and councilman of Centre Hall, for which he is to-day cussed by few and praised by many.

The live mercantile firm of Wolf & Crawford will have a novel display in their show window during the Christmas season. A Ferris wheel, ladened with Christmas goods, will be run by a turbine water wheel. The water fall, power wheel and all machinery will be in full view and all will be made look as real as possible.

T. De Witt Talmage, in the Sunday Times of recent date, touched on the question of public schools in a rather forcible manner. His words are applicable to the conditions that exist in this borough. Dr. Talmage is not reckoned a fool, yet he had the hardihood to say:

nto imbecility; so that connected with many literary establishments there ought to be an asylum for the wrecked. "It is push, and crowd, and cram, and stuff, and jam, until the child's intellect is bewildered, and the memory is ruined, and

"Tens of thousands of children educated the health is gone. * * * *

"It is one of the saddest sights on earthan old manish boy or an old womanish girl.
Girls 10 years of age studying algebra? Boys 12 years of age racking their brains over trigonometry! Children unacquainted with their mother tongue crying over their Latin, French, and German lessons! All the vivacity of their nature beaten out of them by the heavy beetle of a Greek lexicon! And you doctor them for this, and you give them a little medicine for that, and you wonder what is the matter with them. They are finishing their education!'

With complaints coming from every side the school board, the principal, and higher authorities of whom better things were thought, turn a deaf ear. The excuses for their wrong-doing range from ignorance and bull-headedness to pandering for further supportat the public crib. Dr. Talmage holds these views, and it appears that he wasn't defeated for school director. Strange!

Millheim.

Dr. J. F. Harter, of State College, was in town Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mrs. J. R. Van Ormer, of Coatesville, visited her friends and relatives in Millheim last Mrs. Calvin Weidensaul, of Laurelton, was the guest of Mrs. Ella Bumiller, Saturday and Sunday last. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Duck left for Lock Haven Tuesday to attend the state Grange

Mrs. John Tonner, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Templeton Cruse, of Bellefonte, are the guests of W. S. Musser. The Commercial telephone company has just planted the last pole of the line between Millheim and Rebersburg. As soon as this line is completed an exchange will be put in at this place.

Rev. E. D. Keen, of Nescopeck, and Rev. M. I. Jamison and wife, of Baltimore, Md. were called to Millheim last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Christopher Alexander. The Rev. Keen is a brother and Mrs. Jamison is a sister of the deceased. The board of trade at its last meeting took up the subject of the shirt factory for final consideration, and finding that the necessary amount of capital could undoubtedly be raised they have called a meeting of the subscribers. This meeting is to be held Monday, the 18th, in the town hall, and its purpose is to organize the new company and to elect all the necessary officers.

BUSINESS FACTS FOR CHRISTMAS BUYERS.

If every man got every cent he earned and every man earned every cent he got there would be a different distribution of incomes.

If every man paid for what he got and every man got what he paid for, there would be a different distribution of trade.

If these propositions are correct the question of price would govern, and would be the sole basis of all mercantile transactions. Quality and price would be so completely merged that a child could safely buy a diamond ring, or a gold watch from any dealer at any time and at any place. But these conditions unfortunately, do not exist, consequently you see advertised and have watches offered you at prices below the melting value of the gold alone, to say nothing for the work of making the case and the cost of making the movement. You see and hear of diamond rings at a price which is ridiculous when you recall the fact that a glazier diamond in the rough, uncut and unpolished, of the same size is worth more. The answer to this is simple and that is a glazier diamond must be a diamond and nothing else or it won't cut glass. We could quote you prices on honest goods from twenty-five cents up to a hundred dollars, but they would mean little to you without an inspection of articles referred to. Although every thing in our line has advanced from one-fifth to one-third yet we haven't raised the price on a single article in our stock in fact we are lower in some instances than last season on account of buying in large quantities and placing our orders last summer.

Ebony goods are entirely new to many people and are made in many different ways, some are made of Imitation.

EBONY—some are made with a thin back of ebony glued on imitation ebony and comes apart when put in water. Some brushes are made with inferior bristles or bristles mixed with quills or wood fiber, the best are made of Genuine black African ebony, solid backs and Russian Bristles. This is our leading kind. It will not turn white and the bristles will not come out after coming in contact with water. In our estimation there is only one reliable fountain pen made and that is the Parker Jointless, its the Pen used in signing the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain. Some say it wasn't a good treaty for the United States and blame it on the pen, this is hardly fair although we must confess that if they had used one of the other kind that won't write when most needed, things might have been different. But there are lots of people who blame the Parker pen for all the trouble we are having arising out of that Come in and let us tell you other facts before you make your Christmas purchases. F. P. BLAIR & CO.
