Generals of the Hour.

Men Who Command the British Relieving Columns Clery, Hildyard' Methuen. Sir Redvers Buller's Army Heads in South Africa. All Men of High Character. Experiences and Popularity.

Now that Sir Redvers Buller's advance may be said to have commenced, public attention, says the London Mail, naturally fixes itself on the Generals who command the relieving columns.

Sir Francis Clery, K. C. B., who is now marching to Ladysmith, is a hard working soldier, with long service on the staff. His regimental life was spent entirely in the Thirty-second Foot (First Battalion Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry), which he joined just after the Indian mutiny. His first experiences of the battlefield were against the Zulus; he instantly won distinction, for he was present both at the ever and were simply mowed down. It Isandhlwana and Ulundi, and was warmly mentioned in dispatches. His next campaign ing was in Egypt in 1882, when he acted as treat an inch. The Boer fire was horribly brigade major at Alexandria. Then he took his share of arduous toil in the sad Sudan. He fought at El Teb and Tamai, and won a brevet colonelcy and a C. #### GENERAL HILDYARD.

General Hildyard, who commands at Estcourt, is an officer of singular ability, with a remarkably varied career. He commenced to serve the Queen in the Royal Navy. After five years on board battleships he obtained an ensigncy in the Fighting Fifth (the Northumberland Fusiliers; next he became a Highlander-by birth he is a Nottinghamshire man; and he was adjutant of the Seventy-first Highland Light Infantry for nearly seven years. Subsequently he joined the Somersetshire Light Infantry. General Hildyard saw active service in Egypt under Lord Wolseley in 1882, and, after fighting in Kassassin and Tel-e-Kebir was mentioned in dispatches and made a brevet lieutenant colonel. As commandant of the Staff College he has helped to bring forward some of the most rising staff officers of the day, and is, withal, a well prac-

GENERAL LORD METHUEN.

Lord Methuen, who is marching to the relief of Kimberley, is so familiar a figure that it is scarcely necessary to recall his por-trait; the spare, stalwart, erect frame, his fair handsome face, the bonhomie so pleasantly mixed with the old world courtesy, have won "Paul" Methuen troops of friends in every class in and out of the service. He is one of the best type of modern hardworking Guardsmen, devoted to his profession, ever eager to join in the fray, and having considerable practical ability in troop leading.

At the head of his Irregular Horse-Methuen's Horse-in Sir Charles Warren's Bechuanaland expedition he won golden opinions from all alike, and in the Tirah expedition of 1897 he gave further practical proof of his marvelous tact and good judgment when he filled the thankless office of press censor, and was eulogized no less by the press than by Sir William Lockhart.

A Terrible Slaughter in Modder River Fight.

Both British and Boers Lost Heavily in That Battle. Details of the Battle. The Daily Chronicle publishes the following dispatch, dated Wednesday, Nov. 20th, from its correspondent at Modder River

"The severest engagement our column has yet had, and probably the severest of the whole campaign, was fought yesterday on the banks of the Modder river. The battle was waged fiercely for nearly fourteen hours.

"The enemy occupied a strongly intrenched position, their front extending five miles along the bank of the stream. They were well supplied with artillery and fought desperately.

Onr force consisted of the Second battalion of the Colstream guards, the First battalion of the Scots guards, the Third battalion of the Grenadier guards, the First battalion of the Northumberland fusileers, the licans had no losses. Second battalion of the Yorkshire Light infantry (the King's Own), a part of the First battalion of the Loyal North Lancashire regiment, the Ninth lancers, the mounted infantry, three batteries of field artillery and the First battalion of the Argyll and Sutherlands Highlanders (Princess Louise's). "The latter reinforced us from Genera Wauchope's brigade and arrived just in daybrake, our guns shelling the Boers' left. The enemy replied with artillery, Hotcha brief lull in the enemy's operations, of which the general immediately took adesponsibility for the fraudulent December jury panel did not develop much sensational testimony, aside from what has heretofore been known. The jury wheel was opened and it was found that all of the seventy-four names announced for the grand and petit juries were fraudulent, they hav-ing never been in the wheel. Matt Savage admitted on the stand that he wrote the telegram sent by J. L. Krage to W. F. Daly, of DuBois, one of the parties alleged to have been in the conspiracy. He also admitted meeting Daly at midnight at his house on the night the fraudulent list was being investigated in the prothonotary's office. Both W. F. Daly and L. V. Daly, who from the first have been mentioned in the conspiracy, have left and their whereabouts are unknown. It was testified that subpænæs could not be served upon them. The inquiry will be resumed to-morrow, there being over sixty witnesses to call yet.

A force of 100 insurgents yesterday attacked near Baliuag a wagon train escorted by thirty men of the Sixteenth infantry. A sharp engagement followed. The Filipinos lost eighteen in killed and and nine in captured. During the recent attack by the insurgents upon Vigan the Filipinos obtained possession of the plaza and of a church in the centre of the town, from which the American dislodged them. It seems that the escaped Spanish prisoners obtained guns and fought with the Americans against the insurgents.

Gen. Gregorio Del Pilar, commanding ing Aguinaldo's bodyguard, was killed by Peyton C. March's battalion of the Thirtythird infantry, in a fight eighteen miles northwest of Cervantes, December 3rd, according to reports which General Young obtained fram escaped Spanish prisoners at Vigan, several days ago. Major March left the coast, where he was pursuing Aguinaldo and encountered Gen. Del Pilar on a fortified trail. They fought for four hours, during which time several Filipinos were killed or wounded. The American loss was one man killed and six wounded. Spaniards report that Major March is still pursuing the insurgents.
