A GERMAN BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A letter, recently published in an exchange, from a lady spending the season in the Tyrol, says : "The morning of our arrival we were awakened by the sound of a violin and flutes under the window, and, hurrying down, we found the house adorned as for a festival—garlands over the door and wreathing a chair which was set in state.

"The table was already covered with gifts brought by the people whose music we had heard. The whole neighborhood were kinsfolk, and these gifts came from uncles and cousins in every far-off degree. Upon all some little message of love was pinned. "Is there a bride in this house?" I
