Ways of the Ostrich.

Observed on the Second Largest Ostrich Farm in

The Phœnix herd of ostriches inhabits an alfalfa pasture of forty acres, 3 miles north of Phœnix, Ar. The herd is second in size in America, numbering 175 birds the largest herds being at Fullerton, Cal., numbering 300 birds.

The first birds brought from South Africa to America for breeding purposes came to California in 1882. In 1888 fourteen chicks from this herd were brought to Phœnix for exhibition, and were bought by Josiah Harbert, who proposed to breed them. The purchase was made during the summer and Mr. Harbert put the young birds in coops with cloths to keep out the sun, and drove out to his home in Alhambra. All the birds but two were smothered to death during the trip. It being impossible to distinguish between the sexes in young ostriches, and fearing he had no male bird, Mr. Harbert purchased one of the male birds brought from Africa. The 175 birds constituting the present herd are his descendants. He has been honorably retired with the dignity befitting his patriarchal position as he knocks the stuffing out of everything that comes within his reach. It was not long ago that he engaged Mr. Pickerell, president of the Arizona Ostrich company, in an impromptu "scrap," and while Mr. Pickerell is a husky old bird himself and was armed with a wooden pitchfork, old "Oom Paul" hit him one welt and knocked him out for several The ostrich is a monogamist. At least he has but one wife at a time. The match making is arranged by the human keeper, who puts each pair of birds in a separate corral. Mr. Ostrich is likely to consider the question of marriage for some days after he is introduced to his partner, and much thought on the question colors his shins and beaks a bright red. When he finally determines that a family should be reared he digs a nest in the ground. He then drives his mate up to the nest and outnumbers those of every other State. calls her attention to it by giving her a They are a mighty host in nearly 10,000 kick. Annual Report of the Pennsylvania Audubon Society.

The Pennsylvania Audubon Society has now issued its third annual report, and is able to give a good account of itself. The membership has grown from 3300 to 5000 since issning the second annual report, and membership has spread to nearly every county in the State.

The society issues on a separate leaflet a picture of a scalp of egret plumes, and a New words respecting the subject of egret slaughter. Some time ago the Audubon societies gave publicity to the accounts of slaughter of herons and egrets for the sake of their plumes. This knowledge effected the sensibilities of women, and so affected the millinery trade. Reports have been recently circulated that these birds were not really killed to obtain their feathers, Pa.; or address Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general but that they cast off their plumes, which were then picked up from the ground by

The Pennsylvania Audubon society now declares that, first, in all cases which have been investigated by the American Ornithologist' union committee on bird protection there is no truth in the reports.

Second. The condition of the cast plumes is rarely such that they would find any market value, and, furthermore, a large proportion of the commercial plumes have a part of the skin of the bird attached. Third. Every reported egret farm has turned out to be purely a myth. Fourth. The latest advices from collecting grounds in tropical America state positively that all the birds are being shot

Cold Air is Healthy.

Winter is About the Best Stimulant one can Have. Many persons regard the winter season as an unfortunate visitation. It is consid ered both uncomfortable to the body and harmful to the health. This is an error. Cold is a most potent agent for the restoration and preservation of normal activity on the part of the organs of the human body It is a wise plan of Providence which give us a change of seasons. The winter cold comes as tonic to repair the injuries done by the enervating heat of summer. Summer, it is true, has many wise uses in the matter of health. It induces outdoor life, rids the system of poisons through copious perspirations and through the scorching rays of the sun destroys germ life.

Winter is the great bracer of the system It stimulates activity in every organ. When cold attacks the surface of the body the blood is set into more free circulation as a means of bodily warmth. It is through the circulation of the blood that the human anatomy is kept in a state of repair. When the food has been digested and converted into liquid form it is taken up by the blood and carried the rounds of the system for the purposes of repairing the waste places. When the cold causes increased circulation it also brings about more perfect nutrition. Man's face and hands illustrate how waterproof the body becomes when exposed to air. Continued activity in circulation on the surface caused by the air coming in contact with the skin, tends to nourish and thicken the skin. Thus man's skin grows thicker in winter just as animals are supplied with a double coat of fur. The savages who dwell bareheaded in the open air are seldom, if ever, known to be afflicted with bald heads, while with the civilian who shields his scalp from air, baldness is

AFTER HALF A CENTURY

HOW MRS. JEWETT WAS CURED AFTER 50 YEARS OF SUFFERING.

The Metuchen Inquirer, Metuchen, N. J. The following statement is made by the wife of Mr. J. E. Jewett, the well known religious publisher of 77 Bible House, New York City. Mr. Jewett's pretty suburban home is at Metuchen, N. J., and Mrs. Jewett is a member of the first Reformed Church of Metuchen, and is highly esteemed in the community. She says:

"I was taken with Rheumatism when I was twenty years old, and endured awful suffering from the disease for nearly fifty years. During that time I was treated by regular physicians, and consulted the best specialists in New York and Philadelphia, but found no permanent relief. The pain was all in my knee joints, and was at times almost unbearable. I was unable to go out of doors, and could only hobble about the house with a cane. I finally bought some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pill for Pale People, and before I had used the first box I noticed an improvement. After I had taken two boxes I could walk without a cane, and went out of doors freely. Well, I continued using the pills and by the time I had taken thirty-six boxes I was entirely well, and suffered no pain at all. (Signed) Mrs. J. E. JEWETT.,, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People expel impurities from the blood, and supply the material for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues. It has performed hundreds of almost miraculous cures in severe cases of Rheumatism, many times after doctors had given up hope.

WHAT THIS BELLEFONTE CITIZEN SAYS

ONLY CORROFORATES THE STORY OF THOUSANDS.

If the particulars related by this representative citizen of Bellefonte indirectly were not similar to hundreds of others in this city, the reader might have some cause to doubt them, but when there are scores of people, all anxious to tell about the benefits received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, the greatest skeptic in Bellefonte must be convinced. Read this:

must be convinced. Read this:

Mr. James Rine, of No. 2 Thomas street, employed in the planing mill, says: "I can speak as highly now of Doan's Kidney Pills as I did years ago and my case is pretty good evidence that the cures made by them are not temporary. I have not had any of the severe pains in my back since I used Doan's Kidney Pills while before, I suffered intensely. I used to be so bad that I could not put on my shoes and could hardly drag myself around. Though I have had slight touches of backache it never amounted to much. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to hundreds of people and I know of these who have had the greatest relief from suffering by using them. I can say that they are reliable and permanent in their effects."
