TOONA .- Last week the WATCHMAN an- departed this life Friday morning, Janunounced the critical illness of Frank Mc- ary 26th, at the home of her son-in-law. Clain, at his home in Altoona, but even at Lycurgus R. Lingle, at Earlystown, one that time that gentleman had passed away. mile south of Centre Hall. The funeral His death occurred at 5:20 last Thursday took place Monday forenoon, interment morning from affections of the heart and being made in the cemetery at Centre the other day.

The deceased was born in Sinking valley, a few days. Tyrone township, Blair county, the 15th of The deceased was a widow of James C. June, 1833, and was 66 years, 7 months and Boal, who was justice of the peace for a 10 days old at time of death. He was a son number of years prior to his death, near of Stephen and Mary McClain who were five years ago. Her maiden name was ing regular shipments all winter. early settlers in that section. In his boyhood Miss Tamer Barr, a daughter of Samuel Frank McClain, like many others of his Barr, of Lewistown, where her marriage to at Rebersburg the other Sunday. The Luthgeneration, received his education, as far Mr. Boal took place. The children sur- eran charge is vacant at that place. as he secured it, in the schools within the viving this union are Mrs. Sallie Kline and walls of a log school house. When he was Mrs. Lycurgus R. Lingle, both of whom 18 he went to work as a farm hand, but he make the old homestead their home. A did not follow the occupation of a farmer son died in infancy. for a long time and soon came to Belle- Mrs. Boal was a life long member of the fonte, where he learned the trade of car- Presbyterian church and her pastor, Rev.

tled in Davenport, Ia., and happened to of her in the most touching manner. see the first railroad train that was run out For some months Mrs. Boal had been in of that place. For eighteen months ne uv- delicate health from a complication of dised in that Iowa city, and then he returned eases. She had the best possible care by to Centre county and served as forman in her children during her illness, who were the erection of the present State College present at the time of her death, together from a severe attack of catarrhal fever. main building.

ished he engaged in the mercantile busi- Mrs. Margaret Harper, and a niece, Mrs. ness at State College, in 1862, and for three Atlee, of Tyrone, Mrs. James Lingle, of years he was postmaster at that place. Milesburg, and E. P. Lingle and wife, of

In 1866 he removed to Bellefonte and be- Lemont, were present at the funeral. came a member of the firm of Valentine, Blanchard & Co builders and contractors. which erected Bellefonte's first planing sight of two familiar names in a newspaper mill. At the end of two years Mr. McClain aroused the editor of the Tyrone Herald retired as one of the firm's members and to the following reminiscent paragraph. became a partner of D. G. Bush, in the George Stroop, on Monday evening last firm of Bush & McClain. They built the burg for auditor of that town. The appear-Bush house and the McClain block in ance of Mr. Stroop's name in print recalls the greatest conflagration that ever occurred in Bellefonte.

In 1871 Mr. McClain went to Altoona swept out of existence almost all the build-again and disposed of all his business inter-In 1871 Mr. McClain went to Altoona which he afterwards erected the present McClain block Since 1880 he was engaged extensively as a contractor and builder. He helped to of Mr. Noll recalls many incidents of the build the Altoona hospital.

On June 15th, 1860, Mr. McClain married Margaret Caldwell, daughter of Thos. | nia cavalry. Caldwell, of this place. Two children were born to this union one'died in infancy, and May, who died in 1885 at the age of 10 has not been near the interest manifested years and 10 months. member of St. John's Catholic church and house, so quietly has the work progressed. prices. was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The list of cases taken up and disposed Aside from his own particular line of busi- of has been as follows: ness he was interested in the financial af- The case of Lehigh Valley Coal Co., vs years as a director of the Fidelity bank. al. Ejectment, plea "Not Guilty" He was a man of energy and enterprise and continued by consent of council. was thoroughly conversant with every fea- The case of Lehigh Valley Coal Co., vs ture and detail of the different lines of bus- | George Lucas, et. al. Replevin plea, "Non iness in which he so actively and success- cepit and property;" same vs Mary I. Arfully engaged. He is survived by his wife dell, et. al. Replevin, plea, "Non cepit and and one brother, David McClain, of Altoo- property;" same vs. A. J. Griest. Replevin

Interment was made from St. John's tinued.

DIED IN WILLIAMSPORT .- Quick consumption caused the death of Howard I. Barnes in the hospital in Williamsport last Thursday morning. He was a resident of Bellefonte and his body was brought here Saturday for interment, which was made | Mr. Valentine. that afternoon from his late home on Bishop street; Rev. Dr. W. A. Szephens, of the Methodist church, having officiated.

Deceased was born at Pleasant Gap, July 14th, 1850. He was a son of John Barnes. one of the well known men of that locality tile business after which he went to building. His whose with the following chileph, Charles and Coesier survives him. sisters : Rober of Pleasant Gap; George, of Tyrone: J. W. of Jonestown; Mrs. John F. Harrisch and Mrs. Charles, Moore, of Bellefonte: Mis. Mary Hodson and Miss Tamazine Barnes, of Philadelphia.

-- Mrs. Sarah Randa relict of Wil- ant. liam Raudill, died at the home of her Samuel F. Diehl, at Mt. Eagle Saturday morning. She was 84 years old, her death having been largely six w very she had been a conscientious member of the Methodist church at Martha S. A. Price vs Geo. V. Price. Furnace. The funeral took place Monday morning; interment having been made at Curtin's Works.

1 1 -Mrs. Irene Smith wife of Sanford C. Smith, who died at her home in Tyrone on Monday afternoon with blood poison- Nolle prosequi entered. ing, was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Calderwood and was born at Hannah Furnace, in this county, thirty-two years dine Butler. On motion of district attorago. Her husband and fi e children survive her, also three sisters. Mrs. Joseph Heberling, of Pennsylvania Furnace, being one of them.

Daniel and Mrs. Klinger, died at the Barger and the granting of an absolute diparental home west of Bellefonte, on Thursday morning, of softening of the brain. In- J. Bryan. terment was made in Shiloh cemetery Sunday afternoon.

A FORMER BELLEFONTER DIES IN AL- MRS. TAMER BOAL.-Mrs. Tamer Boal Hall. Her age was 63 years, 8 months and

Christine, performed the funeral rites. He In 1854 he went to Altoona, that city be- was assisted by Rev. J. M. Rearick, of the ing then in its infancy. He stayed there Lutheran church, who was formerly a for a short while and then went west, set- neighbor of the deceased, and who spoke with Mrs. Eliza Barr and Mrs. Samuel

AWAKENING REMINISCENCES. - The

Tyrone. It was on the 8th of July, 1880, and from Walton's to the City hotel, and from the stroyed and never replaced. The Herald office over the room now occupied by Atlee's store | spirits. was almost a total wreck. At the same time George Noll was nominated for inspector of civil war when he and the writer hereof served together almost from start to end of that desperate struggle, in the Second Pennsylva-

THE SECOND WEEK OF COURT .- There

plea, "Non cepit and property" all contin-

Catholic church in Altoena on Monday In the case of Robert Kinkhead vs Rose morning at 9 o'clock, interment being in L. Pierce, assumpsit. Plea, "Non assumpthe Catholic cemetery in the Mountain city. sit." Case continued before court on account illness of defendant, Mrs.

> The cases in which Robert Valentine is defendant and the Commonwealth Iron Co., and A. M. Smith are the plaintiffs, was continued on account of the illness of

The following cases were then continued generally: Austin Swisher vs John Bruss et. al. Ejectment, plea, "Not Guilty." J. B. Barber et. al. trading under the firm name of Platt. Barber & Co... s the Clearfield Traction Co. Assumpsit, and his early life was up at a see me can-plea, "Non assumpsit, set off payment, payment with leave, etc. Commonwealth of dren, William Homer Hovey, Daisy, Jos- Lyon, Gust Lyon, W. A. Lyon, S. M. Odenkirk, R.; tax collector, W. A. Sandoe. He also I as the following brothers and assumpsit." Thomas L. Eland vs Charles ford, D., W. H. Bartholomew, D.; A. R. Johnson, capius ad respondendum in slander. plea "Not Guilty."

Nittany Valley R. R. Co., vs The Empire Steel & Iron Co., asumpsit, plea non assumpsit. Judgment was confessed in open court for plaintiff for the land described upon payment of $4 00.00 to defend-

In the case of Sandy Ridge Fire Brick Co., vs Mattie S. Twigg, ejectment, plea, "Not Guilty."

Supenas in divorce were awarded in the sides of advaced years. For following cases: Mary Frank vs August Frank ; George E. Royer vs Hannah Royer;

> Journal, of Millheim, Pa., was settled by the parties.

Commonwealth vs Frank Harris, assault and battery. Prosecutor, Geo. Stine.

Commonwealth vs David R. Thomas and Mary Thomas, perjury. Prosecutor, Burney leave was granted to enter a nolle prosequi on payment of costs. Among the outside business incidental to the trial of cases was the appointment of Thomas J. Sexton Esq. to be auditor to -Harry, the nine months old child of distribute the funds in the estate of John vorce to John Bryan from his wife Amelia

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Centre Hall.

Henry Potter, of Linden Hall, has purchased ex-sheriff Spangler's house on east Church street.

Byron Gearis' house is nearing completion the glass, etc, having been put into position Rev. Kerschner's appointments for the eleventh will be at Centre Hall at 10 a. m.; Tusseyville at 2 p. m. W. J. Mitterling shipped a car of fine cow beginning of this week. He has been mak-

Rev. J. W. Wagner preached a trial sermo

The foundry hall has been put in good con dition all round and will be he reafter occupied by the Sons of Veterans and the Grand Army.

John Kline will move to the Gilland farm in the spring, and John Freed, of Siglerville, Mifflin county, occupy the Mc Nitt farm after April 1st.

A theatrical society has been organized in town in which the best talent among the young folk has been enlisted. That is a proper movement and the only way in which home talent can be brought out.

been seriously ill for some time. Milton Sny- tax collector, H. D. Rossman (renominated); der's little daughter is gradually recovering auditor, Wm. Goodheart; town clerk, H.

After his work in that capacity was fin- Barr, sisters-in-law, of Tyrone. A sister, Monday where he has secured a position on assessor - Ne ese; for West precinct C. E. successful.

near Potters Mills recently and will move every respect and its election is a foreg one onto it in the spring Mr. Durst will become | conclusion. a resident of Centre Hall and occupy Clem Luse's new brick house until his own is put peace, C. E. Royer (Democrat-acceptance

Miss Emma McCoy is operating the Commer- F. S. Musser; road Sup., Andrew Corman cial telephone switch board at Lock Haven. (Democrat) and John Albright; tax collector, Tomlinson, of Harrisburg, were the guests Miss Emily Alexander is home from Al- R. D. Musser; auditor, A. Allison; town clerk of W. K. Alexander last Friday. toona, where she has been for some time. Miss I. W. Bair; judge of election for West Grace Smith has returned from Williamsport. precinct, D. H. Ruhl; inspector, J. N. Leitests in Bellefonte, and engaged in the mercantile occupation at the corner of Eleventh avenue and Fourteenth street. Two years after his arrival he purchased the land on Los Angeles, California, writes to bis family very fair ticket, but in this Democratic (ii)that he is holding his own in health. It is raltar its entire defeat is inevitable. will be able to return in good health and

> In addition to being a photographer T. L. Bartges is a printer and has purchased the printing establishment! of J. M. Goodhart and will remove it to a room adjoining his photograph gallery in Kreamer's building. In the spring Bartges will occupy part of Dr. Hosterman's double house as a dwelling

Bran and shorts and all farm seeds can be had of S. W. Smith at the lowest cash prices | Hall, was a guest at the parsonage. in court this week that there, was last. Of in any quantities desired. Ton rates on feeds Frank McClain was a Democrat in poli- course the cases are all civil ones and none are very low and the seed prices are as low as tics but took no active interest in the affairs of them are of such a nature as to attract can be purchased from any seed man in large of the party. At one time he owned an in- attention. A stranger can scarcely discov- lots. All grades of fertilizer are also handled terest in the Altoona Times. He was a er any unusual activity about the court by him, and baled hay bought at the highest

> The Evangelical Association will hold a musical convention beginning February 12th, closing on nights of 15th and 16th with concerts. Prof. E. W. Crawford will be in charge and will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Will Bassler, of Freeburg, the former a basso and the latter a soloist of note. Mrs. J. Frank Rearick, of Spring Mills, will preside at the organ.
>
> Potter township was well represented at the Democratic caucus, and the ticket is as the Democratic caucus, and the ticket is as the must for badly frozen fingers. He must have slept with that hand out from under the covers on last Tuesday night, as that is when it happened.
>
> We are sorry to note the serious illness of Maggie wife of Elmer Corl, of Pine Hall, who has been sick most of the winter with that dread disease consumption. Her maiden the covers on last Tuesday night, as that is school rooms. The program] has not been definitely arranged but great efforts are being put forth so that the event will doubtless be an enjoyable one.
>
> The primary elections of both the Democratic ticket is as follows. At thence along said lot south 50 dedrees west 190 feet to an alley: thence along said lot No. 12: thence along said lot No. 12: thence along said lot No. 12: thence along said lot No. 13: thence along said lot No. 14: thence along said lot No. 15: thence along sa uncle, Dr. Will Keller. He has been away turn to see his friends again. He will return in ten days and take the WATCHMAN were fully spent. with him in order to be well informed of the happenings in Penns-valley.

Victor Auman: school director, C. W. Slack. P. B. Jorden; tax collector, Alfred Hosterman; overseer of the poor, D. L. Bartges; bered. town clerk, John Heckman; justice of the peace, W. M. Grove.

The Democrats and Republicans met in caucus on Saturday evening and nominated the following ticket for the borough. Burgess, John Riter, D., George S. Clemens, R.; judge of election, John Krumbine, D., Andrew Moyer R.; inspector, Olie Stover D., Wilbur Hen- ent and everybody and all their fri ney R.; school directors, D. A. Boozer, D., S. Penna., Ex-Relations Rose Lyon vs Moyer W. Smith, D., George M. Boal, R., W. A. Buck and A. Allison assumpsit plea, non D., J. O. Deininger, R.; council, W. F. Brad-Krape, R., John Sanders, R.; overseer of the poor, F. E. Arney, D.; hi gh constable, Louis

Sunday, D., Howard Fetterolf, R. Rev. G. W. Kerschner, of Fayette, N. Y., the newly elected pastor of the Pennsvalley Reformed charge, will arrive on Friday of next week to take charge of his new field of work. The members of the various congregations of which he is pastor have arranged to give him a royal welcome. The principal speaker on this occasion will be Prof. John D. | maker house on the Y, April 1st. Meyer, who in his happy way will welcome the shepherd on behalf of the flock. Refreshments will also be served, and the whole will be a social affair of no small proportions. When these people enter upon a project they always carry it through in the best of style The case of J. H. Reifsnyder vs Raine & and this will not be an exception to the rule. Hosterman, publishers of the Millheim W. B. Mingle Esq., is in charge of the program. The frescoing and scene painting in the Grange Arcadia is nearing completion. W. B. Barton is executing the work in good style, and in payment for his labor and material the grange committee will give him the use of the hall for two nights-February 15th and 16th, during which time a "Merchant's Business Carnival" will be held. Barton is a wonder worker is feats of necromancy and black art. The Amazon march, executed by twenty young ladies, will be one of the attractions. Dr. Lynn's decapitation act in which a man's head is actually cut off in full view of the audience, is another feature, as are also beautiful plastic groupings by ten young ladies. Colored lights will be used for young ladies. Colored lights will be used for these groupings. This is only a part of the program, but enough to show that the enter-tainment will be well worth the admission of fifteen and twenty five cents. Five complete acts of scenery have been painted. The stage equipments of Grange Arcadia are now the best. Arrangements have also been so that Spring Mills.

The weather for the past few days has approached the Spitzbergen order. On Wedne lay evening the mercury sank to zero.

Edwin Ruhl has just received a'fine lot of fresh fish, also some blue point oysters. Bivalves of that quality are not often to be had in this locality. Mr. Ruhl always has the best of everything in his restaurant.

Mrs. Green Decker, of George's valley, left few days since for an extended Western trip. She went direct to Randolph, Nebraska. On returning will visit relatives and friends in Iowa and Illinois. Mr. Decker says he will be obliged to play bachelor for several weeks.

At the banquet given by the Millheim Castle Knights of the Golden 'Eagle on Tuesday evening last, the following members of Spring Mills Castle were present as guests: John Smith and daughter, Miss May, W. H. Smith and wife, R. U. Bitner and wife, D. H. Ruhl and wife. W. P. Alexander and wife, and J. I. Condo and daughter, Miss Ida. They report having had a delightful evening.

At a largely attended Democratic caucus on Saturday last, the following gentlemen were nominated. Justice of the Peace, M. B. Hering; school director, Jerry Heckman and the poor, C. J. Fink-Geo. R yder's has le; road Sup. John Breon and James Foust;

M. Sm udge of election for east precinct, James Sandoe went to Philadelphia on J. C. Condo; inspector, —— Erdly; register a trolley line. He will spar for the place of Royer; judge of election, (also renominated conductor, and his friends hope he will be by the Republicans for justice of the peace); inspector, W. H. Smith; register assessor, C. John Slack purchased Alfred Durst's farm C. Bartges. This is an excellent ticket in

The Republican nominees are for justice of very doubtful); school director, J. W. Hazel short visit to his home in Saxton, Bedford Miss Roxanna Brisbin is at State College. and James Kennelley; overseer of the poor. county, last week. Dr. J. F. Alexander, who is at present in zell; register assesser, T. C. Kenly. This is a

Pine Grove Mention.

After an enjoyable visit with Centre county relatives and friends Luther H. Smith has returned to his home in Johnstown where it is reported he is one of the bond holders of that prosperous city.

Rev. C. T. Aikens was down at Duncannon the fore part of the week on business pertaining to the division of a charge down there, as he is president Synod. During his absence Mrs. L. H. Osman, of Pine

Since our Republican friends have put in get out the vote

Johnson home on Water street on last Tues- E. Harter; high constable, Ed. Musser.

The district Sunday school convention will Frank Colver. sions, morning, afternoon and evening. An to a greater or less extent as far as borough excellent program has been arranged and officials are concerned. will be carried out to the letter. Several prominent orators have promised to be prescordially invited to attend.

On Thursday the 25th, the marriage of Miss Alice Cronemiller, second daughter of George Cronemiller, of Pine Hall, and Harry Grenoble, oldest son of Samuel Grenoble, of the same place, was solemnized at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg by the Rev. A. A. Black. The day following a splendid dinner was given them at the home of the groom's brother, Philip, at Pine Hall. The bride is an estimable young lady in every way qualified to make a good wife. The groom is an industrious hustling fellow who knows how to make a steam thresher hum. They will go to housekeeping in the Shoe-noon William H. Boyer, of State College, answered his last roll call and entered into the presence of the great Commander. He had been sick for more than a year with an affection of the liver but had been cheerful and about until ten days before his death when he was obliged to take his bed. He was born in Lebanon Jan. 14th, 1845. His ago he came to State College and has been a and a sister Mrs. Riley Pratt, of Unionville. man who was ever loyal to the Democratic party and principles. He was buried on Wednesday from his late residence with Rev.

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.-On Monday

Whew! but it's cold. Mercury has been hovering down near zero for several days. Teacher Will Keller is gaining notoriety as a whaler on account of the way he handled the kirch on Tuesday of this week.

Arthur Kline, one of Oak Hall's push farmers, and Albert Nearhood, the man of hammer and tongs, at Centre Hall, with Inquire of 45-4-tf. their best girls spent Sunday with friends in and about town.

Harry Koch, of Fairbrook, is enjoying a drive down to Spring Mills behind a pair of reason to think that the license list was to have an addition soon.

On Feb. 7th the marriage of Miss La ura, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. solemnized at the home of the brides parents.

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE—Letters testamentary d.b. according to the brides parents. The wedding is to be a secret affair sprung on the public as a surprise and we promised our informer not to breathe it to anyone, not even our better half.

On the evening of the 20th. The officers elect of Tussey council No. 515 J. O. U. A. M. were duly installed into their respective chairs by Past councilor G. E. Harper. They are councilor, O. G. Martz; vice councilor, E. H. Martz; recording secretary, W. B. Ward; assistant secretary, M. M. Smith corresponding secretary, J. L. Murphy; 44-5-6t treasurer, J. A. Decker, warden, S. A. Dunlap; conductor, A. Bubb; I. S. S., J. K. Johnson: O. S. S., A. F. Corl: trustees, F. B. Krebs, A. Reiber, C. H. Martz; chaplain; F. B. Krebs; representative to S. council. George Harper. The council is in excellent working order and the accounts audited show $550 on the red letter side of the ledger. as well as many new members in the las Millheim.

J. F. Raine, editor of the Journal,

Bert Bayard, of Bellefonte, and Edward

The number of girls in town has been in creased by two midgets who, respectively. took up their residences at the homes of NOTICE IN DIVORCE.

C. H. Morris, the druggist, has, for the past few years, been raising fancy chickens for both pleasure and profit and has been meeting with considerable success. Heretofore buff leghorn stock had been his hobby, but lately he has added to these a breeding—pen of fine white wyandottes of a breed which took first prize at the Boston poultry, pigeon an pet exhibition, which was held in January, 1898.

J. Edgar Watkins, late of Centre Co., Pa. Whereas Sarah M. Watkins your wife has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, to No. 1, November term 1899, praying for advivore against you, now you are hereby notified and required to appear in said court on or before Monday the 23rd day of April next, to answer the molation of the said Sarah M. Watkins and show cause if any you have why the said Sarah M. Watkins should not be divoreed from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you, and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divoree granted in your absence.

CYRUS BRUNGART,

Acting upon the resolution adopted by the teachers at the county institute last December the schools of town will give an entertainment on the twenty-second of this SHERIFF'S SALES. month to celebrate the anniversary of the nomination a township ticket some of our birth of our first President. This matter candidates have gotten an extra hustle on will not be taken up by each school inand gone over into Harris township to elec-dividually, as was first intended, nor will the tioneer. Be of good cheer gentleman you entertainment be held in any of the rooms will all be elected by big majorities if you in the school building, but, making a common issue of the affair they will make use of John Driblebis is now on the hunt of a the town hall, which has a greater seating patent medicine which is guaranteed to take capacity and which also has larger stagefairs of Altoona, and served for a number Co., John Ardell, Jr., et certs. Prof. E. W. Crawford will be in charge frost out of badly frozen fingers. He must space than would be afforded by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the offet No. Me there are a larger said by any of the larger said by an follows: judge of election, D. C. Keller; in name was Halderman and both of her pallows: Burgess, Samuel Weiser; councilmen, spector, George Condo; registration assessor, rents died several years ago while her broth- J. C. Smith and J. W. Stover; tax collector. er succumbed to the disease last summer, W. E. Keen; school directors, E. H. Auman that in all probability her days are num- and E. B. McMullen; overseer of the poor, W. S. Maize; auditor, F. O. Hosterman There was 1'to an excitement at the judge of election, A. P. Maize; inspector, R.

Will Keller, son of P. F. Keller, of this day evening, when it became known that The Republican ticket: Burgess, H. C. place, is home from Munson Station where Miss Nettie Johnson had taken a dose of Rothrock; councilmen, J. Spigelmyer and RINK he has a position in a drug store with his laudanum by mistake. The proper antidotes F. E. Guetilius; tax collector, J. A. Mille r; were administered and he was kept on a school directors, Geo. E. Springer and John from home for some time and was glad to re- quickstep about the room until 3 o'clock Schleiffer; overseer of the poor, Joseph next morning when the stupefying effects Cantner; auditor W. H. Hartman; judge of election Stephen Mover: high constable be held in the Presbyterian church in this Although Millheim is a Democratic strongplace on Feb. 15th. There will be three ses. hold, local issues have wiped out party lines

High Valley

John Galer, of Ingleby Station, lost al fine

The saw mill at Siding 36 has shut down on account of the cold spell.

mare by death one day last week.

John Frankhouser has just taken a contract for 30,000 ft, of mine plank to be shipped in February. Henry Eisenhuth, the big lumber dealer from Ingleby has advised John Frankhouser not to deal in mine planks, as they are a losing venture. At least he says he lost $30 on one car. The WATCHMAN's recent lists of old people in various sections of the county have been very interesting, but High Valley is not going to take a back seat for any of them. We have William Eisenhuth, who will be 89 years old next June, and he went out to vote last fall and expects to be able to put another X in the circle for W. J. Bryan.

THE FEBRUARY CENTURY .-- The last of the "body" youth was spent attending district schools will doubtless attract the most attention. This is articles in the February Century is the one that in winter and working on a farm in summer. When the civil war was declared he tracts from the private diary of Dr. B. E. O'Meara, enlisted in company H, 195, Penna. Reg., Napoleon Bonaparte's physician at St. Helena. and at the expiration of his enlistment re- The editor has evidently had in mind the multienlisted in Co. A, 1st Penna. Cav., and served tude of visitors to the French Exposition in oruntil the close of the war. Twenty years ganizing the series on "Paris of To-day," by Richard Whiteing, author of "No. 5 John Street" ago ne came to State College and has been a helper and janitor there ever since. In the Castaigne provides a running pictorial comment fall of '85 he married Mrs. Sortman who on the text. The West as the Eastern author with two bright boys mourn the death of a sees it, and the West as it actually is, are the kind husband and an indulgent parent. He theme of a trenchant essay by E. Hough, author UMBRELLAS AND POCKET BOOKS. is also survived by one brother in Fillmore of "The Story of the Cowboy." In "Midwinter in New York." Jacob A. Riis tells incidentally He was a genial, obliging and kind hearted how the American metropolis looked to him from his native Denmark. Other contents of the number are a group of poems, "The Hoosier Youngster," an anonymous article on "The Military Element in Col. Waring's Career," a poem, "War-Noble, of the Methodist Episcopal church, ing," by Helen Gray Cone; and the last instaltraveling companies using special scenery can officiating. Interment was made in the use them to the best advantage.

Interment was made in the ment of Cap't. Joshua Slocum's narrative of his Houserville burying ground.

New Advertisements.

WANTED.—A capable and willing girl

OR SALE.—A desirable double frame dwelling house on east Bishop street.
of WILLIAM UTZ, Bellefonte, Pa.

WANTED.-Hickory and ash handle wood. Write for particulars to J. B. LEATHER'S SONS. Mt. Eagle, Pa.

cautioned against meddling with the nousehold goods of Mr. and Mrs. George Kustaorder, which I purchased at sheriff's sale and nave left the goods in their possession.

5-4-3t WM. H. FRY, Pine Grove Mills.

testamentary d b n c a on the estate of late George L. Odenkirk, of Potter Twp. d. having been granted the undersigned he eby notifies all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate settle-ment thereof and those having claims to present same properly authenticated for payment. 45-3-6t WM. B. MINGLE, Centre Hall, Pa.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. — Letters testamentary on the estate of Anna Krebs. tamentary on the estate of Anna Krebs, deceased, late of Ferguson township, having been granted the undersigned they hereby notify all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate settlement thereof and those having claims to present same, properly authenticated, for payment.

H. M. AND N. F. KREBS, Executors.

445-6t

Pine Grove Mills, Pa.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. — The undersigned executor under the last will and testament of Emanuel Sunday, late of Ferguson township, Centre Co., Pa., deceased, hereby notifies all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate settlement thereof and those having claims to present same, properly authenticated for payment.

REV. CHAS. T. AIKENS, Executor, 45-3-6t

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. Bellefonte, Pa., January 1st, 1900. Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between James Harris and James H. Potter, trading under the firm name of James Harris & Co., has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, and that a partnership has this day been formed by James H. Potter and Edward L. Hoy, trading under the firm name of Potter & Hoy, and that this last named partnership will Hoy, and that this last named partnership will succeed to the business of James Harris & Co. All claims and payments in settlement of the affairs of James Harris & Co., are to be presented and paid to

JAMES HARRIS, JAS. H. POTTER

Chas. Musser and George Mensch, the liveryman.

Chas. Musser and George Mensch, the liveryman.

Sarah M. Watkins of Centre county, vs No. 1, November Term, 1899.

J. Edgar Watkins

CYRUS BRUNGART. Sheriff of Centre count Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 31st, 1900. 44-5-3t

By virtue of Sunday writs of Scire Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre unty, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exsed to public sale, at the Court House, in the rough of Bellefonte, Pa.,

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3rd, 1900. at 10:30 o'clock a.m., the following described real All that certain piece or lot of ground situate in Beginning at a post in Foster avenue: thence

TERMS:-No deed will be acknowledged until ase money is paid in full,
Sheriff's office CYRUS BRUNGARD. onte Pa., Jan. 17, 1900

Pure Beer.

45-5-3m

PURE VOLKS-BREW EXPORT LAGER BEER.

The purest and most healthy drink you can et. Home-made-guaranteed pure, and furnish-d at the Bellefonte Brewer.

NO DRUGS, NO DOCTORING.

It is absolutely Pure and because it is so, it is the only kind of beer you should use.

MATTHEWS VOLK.

Proprietor Bellefonte Brewery, Jewelry.

CEASONABLE SELLERS.

We have still many novelties left from the Holiday season and are ready with

DECORATIVE ARTICLES IN

DIAMONDS,

for useful and

FANCY CLOCKS, JEWELERY

WATCHES.

SILVERWARE, ETC.

F. C. RICHARD'S SONS,

High St. BELLEFONTE PA