Fresh Troops Are Needed in the Philippines.

Reports are alarming and the President may ask Congress for New Volunteers. Man are Broken Down. Filipinos are Showing More Activity and Are Preparing for a Vigorous Guerrilla Campaign.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Reports from the Philippines are so alarming that the President may ask Congress for authority to call for more volunteers. Within the past few days the news from there has been exceedingly disturbing. It is no longer denied by officials conversant with the situation, in their private conversation, that one or two things are certain—either General Otis has mismanaged the campaign or his men, enervated by their long sojourn in the hot climate, are no longer capable of the physical activity required to push the war to a successful conclusion.

Either of these conditions would be fatal to a speedy peace, which Mr. McKinley is greatly desirous to bring about. He has been told in these dispatches, decided to recall General Otis at an early date, but he is now troubled with the other fact, that the army in the East is inadequate to the task which it has been assigned.

The press cablegrams published today only corroborate advice which have been in the possession of the War Department for some time and which, been in the possession of the President upon a change of commanders. He now finds it is said, that he will have to go still further to make American control of the islands supreme, and is seriously considering the advisability of asking Congress to come to his aid. Army officers say that he has ample reason for such a request.

Great Britain keeps her soldiers garrisoned for the period of one year in tropical climates, and in India they are sent to the hills during the hottest months. The American soldiers in the Philippines have all during their stay there, been in active service, and the sufferings incidental to the climate have been accentuated by the tension which naturally comes from almost constantly facing the enemy. They have been decimated by bullets and disease and those who are left are in but poor condition during their stay there, been in active service, and the sufferings incidental to the climate have been accentuated by the tension which naturally comes from almost constantly facing the enemy.

The men which the President is considering the advisability of asking for would be to supplement this sorry force. It is true that it will not be long before our troops in Cuba will be ordered from that island, but they are already in somewhat the same plight as the Philippine soldiers, and would scarcely be available for the vigorous campaign needed to put down the insurrection.

The two-year term of enlistment of volunteers now in service will end in July, 1901, so that it will be necessary for Congress to act anyhow, if the men are to be well seasoned and ready for business, leaving the whole matter of calling for volunteers to the discretion of the President.

MANILA, March 4.—Reports reach here from various sources, including army officers, of continued activity among the insurgents, who are planning to continue the insurrection with guerrilla warfare on a larger scale when the rainy season begins. A person holding a position second only to that of the Governor General says that he is convinced that the insurgent organization has been remarkably rehabilitated during the last month. He says they have a secret organization, even in the strongest garrisoned towns, affording perfect means of communication, and that the machinery is managed from Manila, some of the leaders being Filipinos pretending to be supporters of the American Administration.

Two correspondents dealing with the insurrection in the Philippines for a month in Benguet and Ilocos says the people make no secret of their sympathy with the insurrection. While many of the insurgent municipal officers were continued in office on taking the oath of allegiance, reserving their faith in their adherence to their promises. All the civil officials of Tarlac, numbering eleven persons, have been arrested and charged with plotting, and two insurgent agents have been captured at Malaban, with incriminating papers and $4000 collected from the natives.

Some of the municipal governments appear loyal and efficient. On the other hand one American general declares he believes that the majority in his province are agents of the insurrection. FILIPINOS TO CONTINUE THE INSURRECTION ON MORE FORMIDABLE PLANS.

MANILA, March 5, 9:55 p. m.—Reports reached the Associated Press from various sources, including army officers and the heads of commercial houses with agents throughout the islands, of continued activity among the insurgents, who are endeavoring to keep alive the armed opposition to the United States and are planning to continue the insurrection with guerrilla warfare on a larger scale when the rainy season begins.

Two Americans Killed. One of Them Was Lieutenant John B. Gallagher of the Fourth Regiment. MANILA, March 5, 4-15 p. m.—General Bases' expedition to southern Luzon, consists of the Fortieth and Forty-fifth regiments, a total of 3,000 men, has occupied Nueva Caceres, province of South Camarines; Daet, province or North Camarines, and the neighboring smaller towns. The enemy responded at one point and two Americans were killed including Lieutenant John B. Gallagher of the Fortieth regiment.

On Feb 20 the expedition arrived at San Miguel bay, landed and in three columns immediately pushed inland, converging upon Nueva Caceres and attempting to control the enemy's routes of retreat. At Libmanan, northwest of Nueva Caceres, the enemy was concealed in the rice fields and resisted a battalion of the Fortieth regiment, which engaged them at close quarters with bayonets.

After forty minutes fighting the enemy fled and Libmanan was occupied. The American buried sixty-four of the enemy, whose total loss in killed and wounded is estimated at 140. From Libmanan the expedition proceeded to Nueva Caceres' the gunboat Paragua arriving ten minutes ahead of the troops. The town was found practically deserted. The Americans daily scouting in the vicinity, report that the enemy have retreated into the mountains.

The insurgents around Legaspi and Albany, province of South Camarines, are harassing the Americans nightly. Forcigners doing business at Legaspi are living on ships in the harbor or in the American barracks. Ladysmith's Condition is Deplorable. LONDON, March 6.—Surgeon Treves cables from Ladysmith that the condition of the town is most deplorable, and that there are 800 cases of typhoid fever. Supplies of comforts are now in the place, however.

Lord Roberts Still Pauses.

In the Neighborhood of Ofontein. Stores, Remnants and Fresh Troops Stream Toward Him. The Boer Forces are Increasing Continually on Roberts Front. The Latest Estimates of Their Numbers Give the Boers From 8,000 to 10,000.

LONDON, March 7.—4.10 a. m. Lord Roberts still pauses in the neighborhood of Ofontein, while stores, remnants and fresh troops stream toward him from the Cape. The British position also continues to improve in the minor spheres of the campaign. Natal is clear of Boers and Cape Colony is nearly so.

The Boers seemingly are pursuing the course commended by the strategists and are concentrating to resist the British main army. Various messages from correspondents with Lord Roberts report that the enemy are increasing continually on his front, extending, as one correspondent writes, eight miles, and another says eighteen miles. The latest estimates of their numbers give the Boers from 8,000 to 10,000, with smaller bodies moving north and south of the British lines. Each army is on both sides of the Modder river. Although the Boers have mounted eight guns on the top of kopjes and appear to be too far away, from inspection, the British scouts report that they are diligently using pick and shovel. Military opinion is that the present position merely seems more easily defended ones desired in the region.

None of the military experts endeavor to fashion Lord Roberts plans, but it is suggested that he is quite willing to give the Boers time to assemble all their men in the order to deliver a smashing blow more effectively. The round robin in favor of the annexation of the Transvaal and the Free State, which is being promoted by the supporters of the government in the House of Commons continues to receive signatures. The signatories of the memorial to Mr. Balfour affirm that the time has arrived for plain speaking inside and outside of parliament and that Lord Salisbury's words are being construed into a pledge against annexation and Lord Roberts' proclamation into a promise of non-consolidation of Boer property.

The Transvaal agency at Brussels threatens a rising of the Cane Dutch in the event of annexation, though why the Dutch should rise then rather than now is not explained. Mr. A. G. Hales, the Daily News correspondent, who was captured by the Boers on Feb. 9th, was released at Bloemfontein and has returned to the Cape near Sterksfontein. He reports that the Boers are civilized and that they have been treating the British wounded splendidly.

Boers Again Routed. London, March 8.—Lord Roberts wired yesterday morning from Ofontein and in the evening from Poplar Grove, 14 miles eastward. By an application of the elementary principle of strategy the Boer positions, 15 miles long across his path, have been divided and their holders have been obliged to retire in confusion consequent upon hasty withdrawal.

Nothing was done by Lord Roberts to disturb the symmetry, the deadly ingenuity, of the Boer trenches in front of him. He marched out infantry estimated, from the commands named, at 20,000 men, and sent 10,000 horsemen to retire in confusion consequent upon hasty withdrawal. Lord Methuen now commands only volunteers and the local forces at Kimberley, some of whom have gone toward Mafeking.

The Boers do not yet appear to appreciate the mobility of Lord Roberts' army. They were so struck so swiftly in this affair that the enemy had to abandon a gun, much forage and a large quantity of camp equipment. The Standard cautions Englishmen against "rising to a height of serene contentment which the actual position does not justify," and thus measures the situation:

"A large number of the Boers are still in the field. They have a wide range of country over which they can operate. Although their morale is somewhat damaged, it would be too much to say that they will not stand again. Indeed, what we want them to do is to stand again, for it is only in a real stand up fight that we can inflict those losses which would eventually lead the defeated to sue for peace. Lord Roberts has gained a success, but it must not be regarded as a signal victory until we know what damage has been inflicted and what prisoners have been taken."

The Dutch risings in the northwestern districts of Cape Colony are the only cloudlet visible in the sky of British prospects. The military authorities have decided that General Cronje and the other Boer prisoners shall be sent immediately to the island of St. Helena, there to remain until the end of the war. Lord Roberts has chosen Lord Bathurst, colonel of a militia regiment at the front, to command the escort to St. Helena, which was last month placed in cable communication with Cape Town and London.

It is also asserted that the cabinet has resolved neither to propose nor to entertain a proposal at the present juncture for an exchange of prisoners. A Compromise in New Foundland. St. John's, N. F., March 8.—Messrs. Bond and Morris, the chiefs of the Liberal factions in the colony, have compromised their differences, united forces and formed a government, absorbing Messrs. Callahan and Woodford, assemblymen for St. John's, and the Morine wing of the Winterite party, who bolted from the Conservative ranks a fortnight ago and upset the winter ministry. A Boer cabinet is likely to be announced on Saturday. Mr. Bond taking the premiership and the portfolio of finance and Mr. Morris the portfolio of justice.

To the Democracy of Centre County. Many of the leading and active Democrats of Centre county, as well as of the State, having expressed personally or by letter a desire to see me returned to the Legislature, it is but proper to say that I appreciate their kindness and wishes, and that I will be a candidate. If chosen, I shall endeavor to honestly and faithfully perform the duties devolving upon me.

Experienced in legislative work and well acquainted with the exigencies of that body, I am confident that I am prepared to serve you in an acceptable manner. There should be no reduction in our public school appropriation. The recent report of the State Treasurer proves that the cut made by Gov. Stone was not a necessity, but a plan by which certain corporations would be exempt from taxation. I shall endeavor by all means in my power to secure better election laws, a new registration act, a new primary election act. All of which will give the people an honest election and a fair count.

ROBERT M. FOSTER. The following speaks for itself: Brookville, Pa., Feb., 17th, 1900. HON. R. M. FOSTER, State College, Pa. My dear sir:—Till this morning I have been absent from home for two weeks, hence I did not receive yours of the 3rd inst., till now. I do not know what your party usages are in Centre county, and therefore cannot advise you intelligently. But if the party usages do not bar you from a renomination, it would be desirable that you should be returned, for your experience and knowledge relating to useful legislation could not be fully supplied better by any other. These are your energy and vigilance, with the need and the next session. By all means do not let Centre county get a Member who is not a Democrat, straight and true. I am yours truly, GEO. A. JENKS.

For the Curtin Monument Fund. MR. EDITOR:—The first contribution to the Curtin Monument fund, so far as I know, was made by Charles McCaffery, December 24th, 1894, and was deposited the same day to the credit of "The Curtin Monument Fund" in the First National bank. It remained the only deposit to that fund until only a few days ago, when I received from Mrs. R. Ferguson, Atchican, Kan., one dollar for the same purpose which has been deposited to the same fund. I have since received two contributions of one hundred dollars each.

The receipts to date, so far as they have come into my hands, are as follows: Charles McCaffery $100.00, H. H. Benner 1.00, Mrs. R. Ferguson 1.00, Hon. M. S. Quay 100.00, Dr. R. C. Curtin 100.00. If there are any other contributions of a like character, I would be glad to know it, and it may be proper to say in this connection that the fund is now open and that I shall be glad to acknowledge from time to time any contributions which may be made to it. The funds for the soldiers' monument and for the Curtin memorial in connection with that monument are to be kept distinctly separate, both in the minds of contributors and in the funds themselves. Now that there is a solid foundation for both of these funds it is hoped that those who are interested in either will make their contributions promptly and liberally. Very respectfully, JAMES A. BEAVER.

County Commissioner Riddle is Dead.

County Commissioner Matthew F. Riddle died at his home at Pleasant Gap yesterday morning from the effects of an acute attack of heart trouble, superinduced by bronchitis. He had been ill only since Saturday, February 24th, which was the last day he was in his office in the court house. He had been annoyed with a bad cold for several days previous to that time, but it was not until the 27th that he was compelled to remain at home. All that medical skill could do was done to give him relief, but a trouble of long standing with his heart became so aggravated by the development of acute bronchitis that he drifted rapidly beyond hope.

He was a son of William Riddle, a well known carpenter in the early days at the Gap, and was born there Dec. 30th, 1845, making his age 54 years. His early life was spent about home and when only nineteen, on Feb. 25th, 1864, he enlisted for service in the Civil war. He was attached to Co. A, 45th Penna. Vols. and was soon raised to the rank of corporal, and subsequently became a color guard of the Regiment. His service was nearly all with Grant's command and before being mustered out, July 17th, 1865, he had been in sixteen battles, the most important of which were those of the Wilderness, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor and the Siege of Petersburg.

About twenty years ago Mr. Riddle married Anna Peters, a daughter of Emanuel Peters, who survives him with their four children, Arthur, George, Marion and Ralph. He has a brother Frank living in Kansas and Hugh Riddle, of this place, is a half brother. Mr. Riddle was a man whom everyone could like, because he was genial in his disposition and ever ready to respond to the demands of those in need.

For years the voters of Spring township had made him their assessor, the office his father had filled before him, and in 1896 he was elected a Commissioner of the County; having been re-elected as the minority member of the board at the election last fall. Immediately upon being informed of his death president Heckman of the board called a special session and after a resolution of regret had been spread upon the minute book of the office the body adjourned until next Monday.

Matthew Riddle was popular in Bellefonte, as well as in all parts of the county in which he was known. He gave his best efforts to the performance of his duty and was a good citizen at whose bereavement a sincere tear will fall. Funeral services will be held in the Lutheran church at the Gap Sunday morning. Friends will meet at the house at 10:30.

A VENERABLE RESIDENT GONE.—Chas. Brown Sr., one of the oldest residents of the town, died at his home on Pine street, on Tuesday evening, having been bed-fast for a long time, because of infirmities of advancing years. In the early days of the town he was one of the best known citizens and at one time was appointed by the County Commissioners to collect the state and county taxes. Deceased was born in Londonderry, Ireland, March 10th, 1801. He emigrated to America in 1838, following his trade as an axe maker until he became engaged in running the old hotel that stood where Blackford's restaurant is now located on Bishop street.

He was a pleasant old gentleman, imbued with an honest and gracious heart and had many friends who will remember him and his pleasing personality as long as they live. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Ellen Kane, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Sias C. McCallister, of Philadelphia; Mrs. L. L. DeHaas, of Howard Boro; Geo. W. Mapledoram, of Philadelphia; W. S. Musser, of Millheim; Tompest Slinger, of Philadelphia; Joseph Peters, of Philadelphia; Dorsey P. Meyer, of Bellefonte; Harry C. Yeager, of Bellefonte; A. L. Nearhood, of Rebersburg; D. C. James Beck, of Philadelphia; W. R. Haines, of Snow Sho; Orrin Vail, of Philadelphia. JOHN C. MULLIGAN, DISTILLERY. Spring Twp. Noah W. Eby, of Haines Twp. BREWERY. Matthews Volk, of Benner Twp.

David Chambers' application for a wholesale liquor license at Clarence was held over, as was that of Benjamin Copperthwaite for a tavern license at Sandy Ridge. The court remarked that information to the effect that hotels in Philipsburg are keeping open later than 10 o'clock p. m. had reached him and announced that all must comply with the 10 o'clock requirement or stand in danger of a refusal of license at the next application.
