Hastily entering and explaining his predicament to the taxidermist, that worthy placed a tray of animals' eyes before him, among which he finally found one that fitted and the mirror, he paid his bill, and pulling Saturate the spots with the spirits his billycock hat well down on his forehead entered the waiting hansom and to the station. Upon his arrival there he handed the driver his legal fare, whereupon the cabby, who had evidently expected a larger amount, treated him to a torrent of billingsgate. Johnson's Tavern.

Johnson's favorite tavern was the Mitre, which lay, and still lies, between King's Bench walk, at the east end of the Temple and Fleet street. But when Boswell first made his acquaintance they often dined or had supper at the Turk's Head, a tavern in the Strand-not the Turk's Head in Gerard street, where the club met—and kept "by a good, civil wo-man, who had not much business."

The 25th of June, 1763, was the memorable day on which Boswell first met Johnson at the Mitre. They had both been dining at Clifton's, an eating house in what was then Butcher row, at the for its mutton chops, and they arranged to meet later at the Mitre. "We had a linseed oil should, however, be kept at he was, found the doctor rather too giving much relief and greatly assisting much for him.

They often sat up till 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning drinking port, and Boswell diciously to children under 2 years was obliged to admit that those noctes coenaque even in the company of the gods affected his nerves for some time afterward. On the 6th of July he gave a supper at the Mitre to Johnson, Gold-smith, Tom Davies, Dr. Ogilvie and some others, on which occasion the doctor ut tered his memorable witticism about the noblest prospect which a Scotchman ever sees. - Black wood's.

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN.

Every housekeeper has had discouraging experiences with stains, and a few hints or ow to remove them may be of value.

Stains from acids may be removed from any color known to be fast by applying ammonia, to the spots. White goods, on the other hand, should first be washed in clear water and then dipped into chloride of lime water to remove any acid stains. Wine stains may be removed by holding the spots in milk while it is boiling. Medicine stains may be cleaned from sil-

BELLEFONTE IS LEARNING THIS.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They're for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill. Here is Bellefonte evidence to prove it:

Mrs. J. Cowher, of Bishop street, says: "I was veryload with my back and head. I suffered pain, in both and was very restless nights besides being so tired all the time that I could hardly keep myself about. I was very lame across my kidneys and bending over or being on my feet much was extremely painful. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills and seeing them so highly recommended for these troubles I procured them from F. Potts Green's drug store. They gave me positive relief, caused me to sleep well, stopped the pains, removed the lameness and invigorated me generally." generally."
