Bellefonte, Pa., March 30, 1900.

Correspondents.-No communications pu shed unless accompanied by the real name o

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

---The old Lock-up is being moved to its new location.

--- The centennial executive committee will meet this evening.

-E. B. Shaffer, a son of Ellis Shaffer, of Madisonburg, has gone to attend the Bloomsburg Normal.

--- The regular spring inspection of Co. B, N. G. P. will be made in this place on Wednesday, May 23rd.

-A freight wreck at Bald Eagle Monday evening involved eleven cars and traffic was delayed all night.

---The spring vacation at the Pennsylvania State College began on Wednesday and will continue until next Wednesday

---- Mrs. Archie Allison entertained number of ladies at dinner Tuesday evening at her home on north Allegheny street.

---The singing class which commissioner P. H. Meyer has been conducting at Hublersburg will close at the next session.

-James K. Morris, of Colver, has recently been granted a $2 increase in his pension. He will get $10 per month in the future.

-Joe Cushing, the C. R. R. of Pa. engineer who had his leg broken in the accident in Kline's meadow several weeks ago, is able to be out on crutches.

-Burgess Blanchard is certainly doing the right thing by calling the public attention to certain ordinances that are violated daily. Let us hope that he will not do the wrong thing by failing to enforce them.

-The Aid Society of the Bellefonte Evangelical church will give a chicken and noodle supper on April 5th, 1900, from 5 to 8 p. m., in the corner room in the Bush Arcade. The price of the supper will be

---Burgess Edmund Blanchard entertained a party of gentlemen at his cabin on Nittany mountain last evening. Among them were Robert Morris, Randolph Breeze, F. C. Williams, H. C. Quigley Esq. and John McGinley.

---The week beginning Monday, August 4th, has been selected as the one on which the annual encampment of the N. G. P. will be held. This insures no conflict with the date set for the Centre county centennial, July 25th and 26th. There will be a divison encampment this year.

-A large doe was an unexpected sight on Philipsburg streets Monday morning. It had evidently been chased into town by dogs, but it didn't tarry long enough for Eskridge, McCausland, Holt or

-On April 1st O. M. Sheets will close be consolidated with the F. B. Stover market, the two being run as one in the future. The consolidation is being made because Alvin Stover intends to move out onto his father-in-law's, John Rishell's, farm, to give his future attention to husbandry.

- Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Thal. of Roopsburg. have had erected on the main avenue of St. John's Catholic cemetery in this place a handsome granite cross bearing a figure of Christ in representation of the crucifixion. The cross is 10 feet high and rests on a base 11 feet. It is purely an ornament for the cemetery and a splendid view of it is had from east Bishop street.

---One night last week burglars entered the grist mill at Linden Hall, but secured nothing more than Mr. Diehl's razor, they next visited the railroad station but were frightened away; then they went to the office of the Linden Hall Lumber Co., which was broken into and manager Dagle's over-coat and gloves taken. The latter company has received its new seventy horse power engine.

---On Saturday night George and Edward Cunningham and R. B. Taylor left hurriedly for New York in response to a telegram announcing that their brother Merty Cunningham, was hopelessly ill with typhoid pneumonia. Their worst fears were not realized, however, for Merty rallied later and at last report was gathering strength so rapidly as to bring him out of immediate danger. He is married and living in that city.

--- This evening the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a sociable in the chapel to which everyone is invited. It will last from 7:30 until 10 o'clock and during the evening refreshments will be served and an interesting program carried out to all of which there will be no charge. Several of the best numbers of the recent successful juvenile performance of a "Day in History" at the Academy are to be introduced there.

-The condition of Sup't James Conroy, of the Bellefonte Glass Co., who is in Philadelphia under treatment of Dr. Curtin, is reported to be anything but encouraging. In truth, the latest reports bear the sad information that very little hope of his children of that family among whom were been effectually broken up and it is only recovery is entertained. His brother-in- Moses, Jack and William. His body was reasonable to suppose that there will soon law Thomas Jennings went down to Philadelphia yesterday to be with him for a few days. While treatment of his case seems to completely baffle the physicians we hope they might finally succeed in mastering it and restoring him to good health was buried from St. John's Catholic church tection will be extended to all parts of the been the most elaborate function tendered and his friends here.

on the 24th and 25th and rarer still that suffered with it for some time. three such old people should make up death's harvest.

had once been a rugged constitution so Noah Hipple, of Fairview, also survives. that her death was caused by length of years more than anything else. Mrs. Zones was a sturdy, true, christian woman munity for her many virtues. Her hus- faithful member of that denomination. band, John Zones, died ten years ago, but surviving her are their nine children, one great grand children.

It is seldom that it is allotted to a morcrats and all of her four daughters married

The children are John N., Daniel, Ginley and Mrs. Jane Adams.

Mrs. Eliza Holt, another of the oldest was 71 years old and is survived by nine noon. children. Rev. Craig officiated at her burial, which was made at Julian on Monday afternoon.

Old age caused the death of Mr. Sara Harner, who died at her son's home in Altoona on Saturday. She was 80 years and 6 months old. Most all of her life had been spent in Julian. Her burial was Store. made in Altoona.

MRS. VAN DYKE .- The death of Mrs. Hannah McCoy Van Dyke, widow of the late Henry Van Dyke, a prominent and well known citizen of Lock Haven, which occurred at her home in that place yesterday morning, was not unexpected as she had been critically ill for many months with cancer and had lived her allotted three score and ten years. A native of Potter township, this county, she was a daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth McDowell McCoy and is the last of her family.

January 15th, 1863, she was married to Henry H. Van Dyke who was engaged, at that time, in railroad building and contracting. They went to housekeeping in built. An intelligent, well informed axe maker and will take his bride to Mill woman she was highly esteemed by every Hall, where they will go to housekeeping. one who knew her as well as admired for Mapledoram, the crack (?) deer slayers of her practical ability and energy. Mr. Van Dyke died in 1895 but she retained her home in Lock Haven and has had a companion or nurse with her constantly. She his meat market on High street and it will was an active member of the Presbyterian church and had been loyal to its interests since childhood. An adopted daughter, Mrs. William Etsweiler, of Philadelphia, survives her and will inherit most of her property. Her funeral will be held on Saturday at 11 o'clock at her home in Lock Haven where interment will be made.

> THE VENERABLE JAMES M. PACKER.-Another of the well worn links that connected the present of Centre county with its interesting past was broken when James M. Packer, of Curtin township, expired, with heart disease. He was in his 76th year and everyone of them was spent in Marsh creek, back of Howard.

Deceased was a member of one of the retirement

Surviving him are his widow and ten bury his victims. children: among the latter being Nathan, David, Lorenzo, Irvin, Hensyl and Cora. The other daughters are married and residing in distant parts.

Burial was made at Romola yesterday

-On Monday evening Claire Thomthe beginning of a useful life seems sad in- traverses. deed. He was 26 years old and is survived by his sorrowing parents and one brother, B. C. Thomas, of "the Branch." Interment was made at Boalsburg on Wednesday; Rev- Leshler officiating.

March 17th. He had been an invalid for buried in Arlington.

home of Abram Baird, near Pleasant Gap, sportsman's League and through its instruon Tuesday evening, with dropsy. She men ality this work of game and fish pro- by the Havana Daily Herald as having in this place yesterday morning.

DEATHS OF THREE OLD LADIES AT MRS. DENNIS MEWSHAW .- An affection JULIAN.—It is seldom that the deaths of of the heart caused the death of Mrs. Denthree people follow in quick succession as nis Mewshaw at her home on Ridge street er heavy-set man, apparently 35 or 40 years was the case in the little village of Julian early last Thursday morning. She had marriage and was born at Fairview Oct. wanted to buy eighteen head of horses. Mrs. Mary Zones died at the home of her 7th, 1850. Surviving her are her husband son-in-law, Henry Hale, on Sunday, and these children: Mrs. Alfred Tate. She was 80 years and 2 months old and her Mrs. Thos. Caldwell, Elizabeth, Susan, long tenure of life had worn away what Pearl, Fannie and Bertha. One brother,

Interment was made in the Union cemetery on Saturday afternoon; the Rev. G. I. Brown, of St. John's Episcopal church, and was beloved by everyone in that com- having officiated. Mrs. Mewshaw was a

I see see la o -Nellie Vaux died at the home of twenty-three grand children and twenty- her father, George Vaux, near the Philipsburg cemetery on Saturday evening. She was 16 years old and had been an invalid tal being to look over such a posterity as for several years. Rev. Dr. Clerc, of the was hers. All of her five sons were Demo- Episcopal church, held services over her remains on Tuesday afternoon

-Thomas Bennett, aged 71 years, George, William, Musser, Mrs. Katharine died at his home in Port Matilda, on Fri-Murphy, Mrs. Nancy Hale, Mrs. Ellen Mc- day morning. Surviving him are his widow, one daughter Mary at home and four sons, Rev. Tallhelm preached her funeral ser- all of whom are married and living in othmon on Wednesday and interment was er parts. Burial was made Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

-John, the six year old son of Wilresidents of Julian, passed away on last liam Noll, died at his home at Pleasant Saturday; her death having been caused Gap on last Friday evening with convulby old age at the home of her son. She sions. Burial was made on Sunday after-evening at 5 o'clock. She was the widow of the late James Dolan, of this place, and old Rankin, now John Hobson farm, south had been ill since last Easter time with ofthat place. consumption.

-Measles are prevalent about Wolfe's ---The office of the Atlantic Refining

Monday night and two pairs of trousers belonging to C. U. Hoffer were stolen. -The members of his congregation at Rebersburg gave Rev. Dubbs a surprise last Friday night. In addition to the social pleasure of it they pounded him with lots of provisions and dry goods. Lientenant McNarney, 36th U. S. V. Inf., has just been notified that the war records will show acknowledgment of dis-

a Serg. in Co. H, 10th Reg., at the battle of Santiago, Cuba. --- D. L. Miller, of Mill Hall, and Miss the house now occupied by Mrs. Mary Martha E. Himes, were married by Rev. Butts, on North Allegheny street, and F. L. Bergstresser, in Tyrone, on Tuesday made this their home while the Snow Shoe afternoon. The wedding was celebrated at and Bald Eagle valley roads were being the home of the bride. Mr. Miller is an tinguished services rendered by him while

-On Wednesday the property of the iff's sale to William B. Given, of Columbia, for $26,100 subject to a mortgage of $9,600. The road is to be improved, a company of local capitalists interested in its reorganization and a summer park fitted up to induce more travel over its lines. The gross receipts for 1899 were $16,800.

-The Bellefonte Academy will open its spring term on Monday, April 16th. Special attention will be given to teachers of the country who wish to pursue their studies for a few weeks, or to students attending schools which close in the early spring. Students tickets at reduced rates are offered on all the railroads. The school schedules are arranged to suit those of the railroads.

---Two more black spirits were hustled the county. He was born and raised along into eternity on leaden missiles over at Tunnelton, the railroad operation near Spruce Creek, on Monday evening. Robcounty's most representative families and ert Hamilton got on a tear and went after was a distant relative of former Governor Lewis Ayres with a double barreled shot William F. Packer. He was a farmer by gun; whereupon the latter pulled a revolver occupation, but when the call to arms came and dropped his assailant so speedily that in '61 he left the plow and went to the there was evidently no excitement in it, for front where he served with distinction. he immediately fired upon John Davis, a The latter years of his life were spent in would-be peace maker, then he boarded a passing freight train and left Tunnelton to

---Senator J. K. Robison, of Mifflin town, was here in his capacity as a deputy factor inspector on Wednesday and in making his rounds of the various industrial plants in Bellefonte he was particularly impressed with the property of the Pennsylvania Match Co. Senator Robison said that the sanitary and general safety aras died at the home of his father Lewis rangements there are about as near perfect Thomas, of Shingletown, with heart trou- as they can be made and that the employees ble. He was a very exemplary young man of that concern have advantages that are and that he should have been taken just in equaled nowhere in the six counties he

-While fishing near the Jenkins and Lingle machine shops, a few days ago, John Morgan caught a 13 inch trout. He was after suckers and couldn't be censured because the trout fastened itself on his hook. for he threw it right back into the stream -Dr. James Thompson died at his but just to show what a diligent officer deapartments in Washington on Saturday, tective Rightnour is making John says it wasn't half an hour after he made the catch many years. Deceased was a son of John that the officer bore down on him to exand Elizabeth Thompson and was born at amine his string. In this connection it is "the Branch" above Lemont, this county. not out of place to say that the destructive He was the last to die of the well known practice of fishing with nets about here has almost depleted streams. Detective Right- Havana, on the night of March 15th. All -Bridget McCormick died at the nour has the hearty endorsement of the new

A HORSE BUYER DISAPPEARED MYS-TERIOUSLY .-- On Thursday evening a rathold, arrived in town and registered at Haag's hotel as J. L. Motter, Harrisburg, Pa. He Deceased was Susan Hipple before her said he had driven in from Huntingdon and

> The next day, Friday, he visited the Bellefonte sale stables and the Gentzel and Beezer corral and selected thirteen head. Then he drove out to see John Yearick's big team, partially dickered for it; telephoned up to College township to William Carson to bring his team of blacks down and wound up the day's work by practically deciding to take one of Abe Baum's horses

All of the horses were to be delivered in this place on Monday morning for shipment East. William Carson brought his team down on Saturday, but after his arrival he failed to locate Mr. Motter. The search revealed the fact that the visitor had disappeared from Haag's hotel Friday evening and was not seen afterwards.

After supper Friday evening he left the hotel and went down to Baum's stable. where he talked awhile and remarked that he was "going to get shaved." Well, so far as any further knowledge of him is concerned he must be getting shaved vet. He hasn't been seen since and proprietor Newcomer, of the Haag hotel, is out a board bill and Abe Baum a day's carriage hire.

Motter seemed to know a great deal about horses, so the horsemen who had deals on with him say.

A FIRE NEAR ROCK SPRINGS .- Soon after mid-night last Friday the heavens in -Mrs. Anna Garret Dolan died at the the vicinity of Rock Springs were illuminhome of her mother, on Pine street, last ed by the lurid glare of fire which proved to be at the home of Claud B. Hess, on the

The family barely escaped with their lives, so far had the flames encroached upon them by the time of their discovery. They caught in the flue of the kitchen and had spread well when one of the family was Co., in Philipsburg, was burglarized on awakened by the smoke and aroused the others just in time for them to get down the stairs, which were already in flames.

The house was a combined stone and frame structure, one of the most substantially built in the county. It was partially insured in the Potter agency in this at Holyoke, Mass., now. place, but Mr. Hess didn't have a cent on his household goods and is left with-

The timely arrival of neighbors saved the barn and out buildings from destruc-

TO START A RELIEF FUND .- The emoloyees of the Bellefonte Furnace Co., expect to start a relief fund association soon and representative men among them are meeting now for the purpose of effecting a will soon disappear. working organization, by which such a scheme can be brought into useful opera-

15th. At that time each of the two hun- doesn't venture far from home and this was his dred employees will pay into a general depository the sum of 25cts and on each payday thereafter a like amount, making the monthly assessment 50cts.

The association is to include only Furnace Co. employees and membership in it will be voluntary.

The amounts for weekly benefits in case of accident or sickness have not been | Cooke and their baby daughter had been here settled vet.

The officers of the association are: President Wm. Wilkins; treasurer, L. T. Munson; secretary, Wm. Frank.

A PRETTY WEDDING .- On Monday afternoon a pretty and auspicious wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jenkins on High street, when their daughter, Susie E., was united in marriage to Mr. Benjamin D. West. The affair was entirely devoid of show or ostentation, but fornia soon. all the arrangements were so cleverly planned and executed that everyone present enjoyed the event and it was as merry as the proverbial marriage bell. Rev. Dr. Laurie ing to live in retirement now and enjoy a period of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony at 3:30 o'clock and the bridal couple departed on the 4:44 train for a short his guest with him on a business trip to Snow

Both Mr. and Mrs. West are natives of Vermont and although comparative strangers in the town they have quite a number of friends and acquaintances who join in congratulations and kind wishes for their future. The bride is a fair young woman, attractive and accomplished. Mr. West is employed at the Standard Scale Works in the moulding department and is ambitious, as well as energetic. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping on Bishop street in Mrs. Kelly's house opposite Haag's

HAPPILY MARRIED .- On Wednesday, March 28th, at the home of John W. Biddle, near Martha Furnace, Celia S., his daughter, was married to James G. Stiver in the presence of a few invited guests. The ceremony was performed by justice O. H. Nason; the groomsman being Wilson Stiver and the bridesmaid Miss Ella Mc-

Among the guests who were present were Mrs. O. H. Nason, Misses Lula Williams, Mary Stiver, Blanche McDouald, Ester Spotts, and Harriet Mays and Messrs. Thomas Stiver and Charles Biddle.

-Hon. J. N. Casanova, formerly of Philipsburg, but now in Cuba rehabilitating his extensive properties on the island that were devastated during the war, gave be a noticeable increase of fish in our now a banquet to Secretary of War Root in the civil and military dignitaries on the island were there and the affair is reported the visiting Secretary of War.

News Purely Personal.

-Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, spent

-Edgar T. Burnside returned from a short tri New York city on Sunday morning.

-J. Mitchell Cunningham, who is employed as nanager of Waple's Central hotel in Tyrone, was ere to spend Sunday with his family. -Miss Mary Butts, of Winber, Somerset county vas in town over Sunday to visit her mother he returned Monday afternoon. -Capt. W. A. Simpson, of Lock Haven, and fom Baldridge Esq., of Hollidaysburg, were disinguished visitors in town during the fore part

-Mrs. William Shortlidge and her daughter, Mrs. John Walker, returned home Saturday from a ten days' visit with the Sterretts in Washinging. D. C.

-Isaac Harpster, of Gatesburg, a well known young farmer from that end was in town on Tuesday representing west Ferguson in the county

-Mrs. Sarah Furey Waltz, who has been visit ing old friends here for the last two months, has eturned to her home in Pleasant Gap much im-

-'Squire J. H. Reifsnyder, of Millheim, was in own yesterday looking quite well. He has so far regained his health as to take up active business -John M. Ward Esq., of New York, was here between trains on Sunday; having come over on account of the serious illness of his aunt. Mrs Philo Ward, of Penn street. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walz, of Bishop street, went down to Philadelphia on Wednesday, where

Mrs. Walz will enter the Howard hospital to undergo a delicate surgical operation. -Samuel Harnster Jr of Gateshurg and his ousin National G. Gates, of Loveville, were in town on legal business on Wednesday, and it is seldom you run across two brighter young -Mr. J. F. Rummell who will have charge o the Leiberman clothing store that is to be located in the Arcade has arrived in town to prepare for their opening, which will be made about April -Mr. and Mrs. E M. Griest were down from Unionville to take Sunday dinner with former register Geo. W. Rumberger and his family on east Bishop street. The Rumbergers expect to move to Unionville on Monday. -Among the throng of strangers in town on Tuesday was E. P. Lingle, of Lemont, but as we failed to see him mixed up among the Democrats had other business than attending the county con-

-Edward P. Butts, who is making such reputation as an engineer down East, was in town during the fore part of the week, looking after some business pertaining to his father's estate, the late D. M. Butts, of this place. He is located

-James Chambers, of Dubois, is in town on account of the serious illness of his mother Mrs. Mary A. Chambers, with conjestion of the ungs. He arrived Tuesday night. Mrs. Elsie Chambers came up from Lock Haven Wednesday and the other members of the family have been

-George Keichline, of Rock Springs, was Bellefonte visitor on Monday. He was looking very well, but his condition belies his looks for the Paris Exposition. fr. Keichline was feeling anything but comfort able. Exposure at sales this spring has had something to do with his trouble which we hope

-Henry Royer, one of our old patrons from down at Spring Mills and a gentleman whom we don't often get to see, dropped in for a little call on Tuesday. We were sorry to learn that Mr. It is proposed to begin the fund on April | Royer has been in such poor health that he rst visit to the county seat in six years

-Miss Eliza Jane Mattern, who has been visiting Mrs. George Van Tries, on Linn street, for the past week, left for her home in Spruce Creek, Iuntingdon county, on Monday. She is wonderfully well preserved and wide awake for a woman of her years and has just been enjoying a three months stay with relatives in Half Moon valley.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cook left for their home in Jeanette on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs since her trip to New York with her sister, Mis-Snyder, and Mr. Cooke came on Tuesday morning, to take them back home. Hazel, their sweet little daughter, will continue her prolonged stay with grand-ma Snyder in this place.

-Alfred G. Osmer, who has been visiting at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Osmer of Willow Bank street, since New Years, left for his home in Lincoln, Neb., on Saturday. His untiring energy and thrift have counted since going West and his investments insure him a comfort able income, yet the spirit of progress is on him and he is now contemplating going to Cali-

-Mr. and Mrs. Newton Brungart and their son Victor were in town during the fore part of the week visiting Mr. Brungart's brother, the sheriff. Newton has had sale of his farm effects and is goof ease. They came on to attend Benj. Gentzel's sale on Tuesday. Mr. Gentzel and Mr. Brungart are brothers-in-law and vesterday the sheriff took

-D. R. Thomas, of Snow Shoe, was in town or Wednesday. Mr. Thomas is a young farmer and has a nice property along the Beech Creek pike, just out side of Snow Shoe. He is one of thos alert fellows who is interested in most everything. but his long suit just now is roads. He was elected a supervisor out there in the spring and is conscientious enough to give the work of proper road making hard study. While in-town he took the preliminary steps in joining the county Sports-

-Robt. Reed, of Benore, dropped in for a call last Saturday and we were very sorry to find that he is suffering with a crippled right arm. He injured it by a fall some time ago which! he didn't consider serious at the time, but when it began to grow stiff and callous he became alarmed and sought treatment. The result has been that the injury had grown beyond immediate relief and now his arm is almost useless. Such an affliction might just suit a lazy fellow but for an energetic man like Bob it is a great calamity.

-Our old friend Jacob Shaffer was upl from Zion on Wednesday, enjoying the bright sunshine and dropping cheerful greetings to his many friends hereabouts. As he stood on the bridge and looked down at old Spring creek babbling along towards the sea he wondered how it was possible for such a harmless looking stream to get on a tear like that of several weeks ago. Mr. Shaffer said he wasn't feeling just in the best of health, but as he realized that complaining wouldn't do it any good, he didn't believe in bothering anyone with tales of woe.

-Rev. Dr. W. A. Stephens, whose three years pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place was most successful and whose ser mons and executive ability were thoroughly ap preciated by the church people of all denominations, has accepted the conference secretaryship of the Twentieth Century Thank Offering Fund with head quarters at Carlisle. The position is a sense, even if it does retire him from active ministerial work. And neither Dr. nor Mrs. Stephens will regret that, since they will be able to be with their son Harry, who is an instructor at Dickin-

-Edward Valentine, of Philadelphia, with Mrs. Valentine and their baby are guests at the home or his aunt, Mrs. R. V. Pugh, on Curtin street.

-Rev. Wilford P. Shriner, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, arrived in town yesterday with Mrs. Shriner and their three daughters. During the evening a reception was given them in the lecture room of the chi

-D. C. Stine, of north Thomas street, was a visitor to Tyrone on Friday and while there he gave his friend Henderson, who has an idea of being a candiate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket a tip that it would only be time and money thrown away unless he felt reasonably certain of combining the Democrats and prohibit

-Mr. and Mrs. William P. Rothrock, with their child, were arrivals in town on Monday morning. They came from Chicago, where Will had beer in the employ of the Illinois Steel Co., and are visiting his father, David Rothrock, up Buffalo run. They expect to make their future home in Pittsburg, where Mr. Rothrock will have charge of the drafting department of the Ft. Pitt Bridge

-Mr. and Mrs J. Kennedy Johnson arrived me Monday evening, after their sojourn of several weeks at the former's parental home near Mt. Eagle. Mr. Johnson was looking much improved by his stay in the country, but his condition is not yet what his friends hope it will be soon. It is not to be expected that after an illness as long as Mr. Johnson's has been that convales cence could be anything but correspondingly

-E. C. Poorman, of Tyrone, dropped down with the snow on Monday morning looking as serene as if he had been in attendance at five church services the day before. But talking about the snow It was white. It nearly always is white, but there s something else that is white too, that we know of, and it is the ash of those strictly hand made stogies that eleven men are rolling thousands of every day in Mr. Poorman's factory in Tyrone. They make a smoke "for fair" and some of these days Clayt will become so famous as their manufacturer that he will have use for all those Tyrone "Indians" as sions

-The residence of Congressman James K. P. Hall, at Ridgway, in under quarantine, the danger sign having been posted on the door last Sunday evening. It reads: "Small Pox !" The Dubois Express states that the Congressman's son came home from Yale college a few days ago being ill at the time. The physicians diagnosed his case and the result was that the sign announcin the Court house at noon we inferred that he ing the presence of smallpox was posted up the following day. The young man traveled home in a sleeping car and did not know the nature of his malady. The city papers of recent date contained rumors of a reported outbreak of smallpox at Yale college, and the condition of young Hall would prove the truthfulness of the report.

> ---Col. W. F. Reynolds has tendered his resignation to Col. Theodore Burchfield as Adjutant of the Fifth regiment to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor. Col. Reynolds has been made one of the Penna. Commissioners to

> ---Owing to an attack of acute rheumatism Irvin W. Zeigler, the teacher of the Walnut Grove school, near Linden Hall, was recently laid up for ten days.

We are authorized to announce J. W. Kepler, of the Democratic county convention.* We are authorized to announce J. H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, as a candidate of the Legislature subject to the decision of the Democratic county

We are authorized to announce Robt. M. Foste as a candidate for Legislature subject to the decis ion of the Democratic County Convention.

We are authorized to announce John W. Conley, of Potter township, as a candidate for Ass bly, subject to the decision of the Democ county convention.

Sale Register.

March 30тн.—At the late residence of John Ragan in Snow Shoe, furniture, carpets, beds and bed-ding etc. Sale at 2 p. m. APRIL 7th-At the residence of George William at Lemont, buggy, sleigh, cow, household goods, Esty organ, cooking utensils, butcher's tools, etc. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday Wheat-Red 71@73 44@4 \\ 83\4@42\\ 31\\2@32 2.35@2.50 -Yellow. -Mixed.. Flour-Winter, Per Br'l. -Penna. Roller.... -Favorite Brands Rye Flour Per Br'l. Baled hay—Choice

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the Phonix Milling Co. The following are the quotations up to six 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes Rye, per bushel...... Corn, shelled, per bush Corn, ears, per bushel Oats, per bushel, new Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel

Eggs, per dozen

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Fa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Paners will not be sent out of Centre county un-Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1
One inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	$ 8	18
two inches	7	10	1
Three inches	10	15	1 5
Quarter Column (5 inches)	12	20	1 :
Half Column (10 inches)	20	35	1 1
One Column (20 inches)	35	55	1
Advertisements in special column	25 1	per	cen