Judge Metzger, at Williamsport Thurs-day, granted a divorce to Abraham Swartz aged 84 years, from his wife, who is about 70 years old. The decree was issued upon the ground of desertion, is being alleged that the yearsen left her sponse about two that the woman left her spouse about two years ago. The couple had been married over twenty years and Mr. Swartz is a great grandfather by a former marriage. This is the oldest couple that have ever been separated by a divorce in Lycoming county and probably in the state. After the pro-ceedings were at an end, Swartz wept and asserted that he still loved the woman.

Miller had become discouraged by con-tinued ill-luck in the Pennsylvania coal district, and having scarcely any funds, he and his wife packed their few personal ef-fects in two grips and determined to walk across the continent. They set out from the set out for the se reactions the continent. They set out from Stroudsburg and followed the lines of rail-roads all the way, the woman wheeling the carriage over the ties, while the man trudged on behind with the grips.
