WE FORGET.

So many tender words and true, We meant to say, dear love, to you; So many things we meant to do, But we forgot.

The busy days were full of care; The long night fell all unaware You passed beyond love's pleading prayer While we forgot.

Though what has been should be again, We would forget. We feel, we know, that there must be Beyond the veil of mystery Some place where love can clearly see

Now evermore through heart and brain

There breathes an undertone of pain.

Porto Ricans Leave Island. oing to Other Countries in Search of Work.—Condition of the Great Mass of People is Pitible.

A Ponce, Porto Rico, dispatch says: At no time since the hurricane of August 8th last has the condition of the poor of Porto Rico been as bad as it is to-day. About '95 per cent. of the island may be placed in the poor class, which is made up of a mixture of all races. In the other 5 per cent. are included the well-to-do, educated people, such as merchants, planters and professional men and their families. This better class is able to pass through such times as are now prevailing without actual physical suffering, but their business affairs are at a standstill, and have been for a long time, and this deprives the majority of the large laboring class of a means of livelihood. This large body of laboring people furnishes the very cheap and effect-ive labor which is needed for agricultural and other work, but at all times they have been in an unfed and poorly nourished condition. They erect their poor thatched or bark covered huts wherever permitted,

Plague Spreading in India

The plague has now taken hold of Bengal and is spreading fast. As I predicted, there is a recrudescence in Calcutta. The plague mortality has been rising steadily since the end of January and the returns for last week show 199 deaths. The outbreak in Calcutta has not yet alarmed the native mind and large numbers still refuse to believe that the disease is the plague at there is no ground for any complaints against authorities. Should plague really develop seriously, as in Bombay and Poona the organization must show itself as helpless as it is insufficient. The rate of general mortality now exceeds 50 per 1,000 per annum, the normal being about 37. There is every indication of a very serious development. The outbreak in the Patna district has much increased, but it does not seem to have attracted much public attention. Nearly 1,000 deaths occurred last week. The people refuse to follow the traditional plan of evacination. Some one appears to have poisoned their minds in just the same way as some one poisoned the minds of the people of Calcutta with regard to innoculation. The consequence is that the disease has spread rapidly and is now threatening South Behar. Of Bombay city the record is terrible, no Of Bombay city the record is terrible, no less than 2,701 deaths having occurred dur-at $4.50; Washington to Mount Vernon and ing the past week. The number of those dying from plague is greater than has ever been known. The death rate is over 170 per 1000 per annum. The official returns only give the small number of 64 deaths from plague. Small pox is still raging, but does probably not account for more than 300 deaths in the week.

The plague expenditure in Bombay has been very large. A recent return shows that up to December 31st 1899, the total expenditure was Rs. 4.081, 208 (equal roughly to about £270,000). The return for the whole of India give 2,597 deaths from plague. It would probably not be far wrong to double this estimate. In the Jullunder district of the Punjab more vil lages are being attacked. The latest weekly plague statement for India, ending February 24th, shows a mark ed increase in the number of deaths and the week closes with 3,184 fatal cases, against 2,597 in the previous week. The increase is due to the further development in Bombay and in the Bengal presidency. In Bombay city the general mortality again surpassed the previous maximum and 2,-831 deaths were recorded. Of this number 263 were attributed to smallpox, but the official figures only return 768 deaths as due to plague. If the truth were known, probably 2,000 deaths occurred from plague alone. This terrible general mortality very nearly touches a rate of I80 per. 1,000 annum. In Calcutta the outbreak is developing very rapidly and now, after only five weeks' increase, the plague mortality hardships have been greatly added to by the scarcity of fruit since the hurricane and the scarcity of fruit since the hurricane and the reconciled and subdued, their nationality absent from the markets. Salt fish, rice Helena and its associations are not likely to leave pleasant memories and this may be the first step in making another Ireland in derived from this has gone to the peons, and now, where there is a prospect of 15 per cent. of the Dingley tariff being placed in St. Simon's bay, where the Boers have on these articles, the price has been greatly advanced. Merchants hesitate to import large stocks because of the prospect of free trade, and the present scarcity is also a cause for the advance in prices. Rice has and Devil's Island, where Dreyfus suffered gone up from 5 and 6 centavos a pound to the tortures of the damned, and whence his 8 and 9, beans from 6 centavos to 12, and release was matter of rejoicing all over the at one time, a few days ago, to 15 centavos | world. It argues that the deportation of a pound, while salt fish has advanced from the Boer prisoners savors of both brutality 6 centavos to about 10. Men, women and and fear. In one way it is a compliment children have been leaving the country to the Boers, for as prisoners in their own districts and flocking to the towns, where land they would keep alive, by contact, the they are now begging and living on what Boer ideas of British humanity when it little the charitable societies are able to give them, and at night sleeping on doorsteps, under trees, in the corridors of the town hall, on the stone floor, or wherever town hall, on the stone floor, or wherever ated a single prisoner on Devil's Island ex-No one who understands the situation cited the criticism of the whole world, Americans has been lost. > Ceaseless Cry for Food. The Conditions In Puerto Rico are Growing Worse Every Day.

A San Juan dispatch says: Long processions of half-clothed men and women, headed by little girls carrying black flags, are coming into the city nearly every day from interior towns. A procession of 150 came from Aguas Buenas on Thursday. All tell the same story of starvation and an army of starving or pauperized folk. No fewer than 200 men, women and children, sick and starving, are living in the the plaza.

Most of these are fed by the society

Letters have been received announcing that ,000 more are on the way. The city council will deport outside paupers who are now there, and the station guard will prevent the entrance into the city of others.

The plices of provisions continue very high and discontent grows, but thus far there has been no public demonstration.

"Better late than never." It is best, however, to be never late about taking Hood's Sarsaparilla to purify your blood. Take it now.

A Crush at the Matinee.

"Pardon me, madam," said the meek man in the parquet circle, "but I—"
"I guess not," interrupted the stout but determined female who had annexed the adjoining seat. "This is a bargain matinee, and you can't hold more than one seat." "True, madam," he said politely, "but my silk hat was occupying that seat when you sat down, and I believe it's still
