"GOOD-BY GOD BLESS YOU."

I like the Anglo-Saxon speech With its direct revealings; It takes a hold, and seems to reach Way down into your feelings. That some folks deem it rude, I know And therefore they abuse it : But I have never found it so,-Before all else I chose it. I don't object that men should aid The Gallic they have paid for, With "Au revoir," "Adieu, ma chere,' For that's what French was made for. But when a crony takes your hand. At parting to address you. He drops all foreign lingo and He says, "Good by-God bless you!"

This seems to me a sacred phrase, With reverence impassioned,-A thing come down from righteous days, Quaintly but nobly fashioned : It well becomes an honest face A voice that's round and cheerful: It stays the sturdy in his place, And soothes the weak and fearful; Into the porches of the ears It steals with subtle unction, And in your heart of hearts appears To work its gracious function ; And all day long with pleasing song It lingers to caress you. I'm sure no human heart goes wrong That's told, "Good by-God bless you !
