Democratic Matchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., May II, 1900.

COBRESPONDENTS .- No communications pu shed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-"Ole Olson" at Garman's Monday a bridge over Spring Creek from north Reynight.

nolds Ave to south Potter street; referred -----On Monday Col. W. Fred Reynolds to Street committee. Philip F. Garbrick, made a $500 subscription to the soldiers' W.T. Noll and other citizens of Coleville apmonument fund. peared and asked council to lay water pipes

----George Secrist, Noah Stover and John Breon killed a 91 ft. blacksnake near water, thereby securing eighty consumers Millheim, on Sunday afternoon. and an increased revenue of $250 per year;

------Reports from the vicinity of Aarons-the clerk was instructed to notify petitionburg are to the effect that the frosts did little damage in that section last week. borough limits.

-----Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings entertained Bellefonte chapter, D. A. R. at her home pletion of the foot bridge at the P. R. R. on north Alleghenv street Wednesday evenround house and announced that the new iron bridge at the Phoenix mills will probing.

ably be completed by the time of the Cen------The rain on Tuesday is said to have been all that saved the camp houses at tennial. The committee was directed to Newton Hamilton from destruction by make repairs on east Linn, Logan and Allegheny streets, to lay new brick crossforest fires.

-The hard frosts of last Thursday and Friday nights did little, if any, damage to property owners to make needed repairs to fruit in this county. The extremely dry weather probably saved it.

-----On Sunday an immersion took place at Milesburg at which Rev. Houck, of the Baptist church, immersed nine persons. Next Sunday the last immersion will be not in use. made

-----Work is progressing nicely at the shirt factory under the new management. The girls are all satisfied and making good wages. There are only a few machines that are not in operation now.

- Snyder Miller, Rebersburg's post master, was prostrated with a very severe the addition of another officer for duty Sat- high ways necessitates too many delays. attack of croup on Sunday afternoon. For urday night in the appointment of Joshua a time his condition was quite critical, but Foulk. he soon recovered.

council adjurned. -----While working about the machines in the shirt factory, on Saturday morning, E. E. Ill. Co., lighting streets. S. D. Ray struck his head against the sharp J. H. Wetzel, making draft. edge of a table in such a way as to cut a Potter & Hoy, hardware ... very ugly gash above his eye.

----- The Old Folks' concert at the home P. B. Crider & Son, lumber. of F. W. Crider, on Linn street, last Fri-Water pay roll ... E. E. Ill. Co. light for water works.. day evening was a complete success, from Frank R. Miller, assessment book an artistic standpoint, and the ladies of the McCalmont & Co. Methodist church realized $25.30 from it. Jenkins & Lingle, supplies.

A. Allison, supplies. ---- County superintendent C. L. Gram-P. B. Crider, lumber ley was in town on Tuesday and turned R. J. Schad & Bros. supplies over $373.84 to the treasurer of the soldiers' Police pay roll ... monument fund; that being the sum raised E. E. Ill. Co. public buildings .. by the public school children of the county. A. Allison, supplies.

-----Mr. and Mis. George Meiss, the par- P. B. Crider & Son lumber .. ents of Andrew Meiss, will receive $500.00 Bellefonte Gas Co.... from the Pennsylvania Railroad relief fund. R. J. Shad & Bro., supplies. Andrew was killed while working as a Bellefonte Fuel & Supply Co. coal for W. W. 66.99 brakeman several weeks ago and as he was W. T. Twitmire, tin work on lock-up. a member of the Association they will receive that benefit from it.

-Benjamin Copperthwaite, at Sandy COUNCIL'S SEMI MONTHLY MEETING.-For the first time since the organization of Ridge, has been granted a tavern license. the present body there was a full represen-

-While peeling bark in the mountains north of Aaronsburg one day last week Harry Wyle seriously crippled himself by cutting his right foot with an axe.

"Ole Olson," which portrays in a asked to have it abated. S. B. Miller requested that crushed lime stone be placed humorous manner the adventures of a raw on east Linn street from Harry Keller's resi- Swede on landing in this country, will be dence to C. M. Bower's. G. W. Rees pre- the attraction at Garman's next Monday sented a petition signed by business men for | night.

-The Lock Haven Traction Co. is no more. The old organization has become defunct and a new one has taken its place. It is now called the Susquehanna Traction company. to that village in order to supply it with > his yard at Kreamerville, a few days ago, was caught by the wash line and hurt quite painfully. His wife ran to his assistance, but before she got to him he had fainted. ----State College and Dickinson played base ball, on Beaver field, last Friday afings over the intersection of Dunlop ternoon; the game resulting in a victory for Fairbrook; Mrs. Wm. H. Goss, of White and High streets and to notify various State by the score of 2 to 1. But seven Hall; and Mrs. Maggie Meek, who made innings were played on account of the wet her home with her and cared for her. She

-----A two year old daughter of Edward Noll, of Lewisburg, drank the contents of a bottle of blueing on Monday, but the ers that council cannot lay pipes outside the timely administering of an emetic prevented the poison from taking effect.

> -Major R. H. Foster, whose illness at his home in Harrisburg, has for some time been the source of much concern to his Bellefonte friends, has so far recovered as to be able to be back at his desk in the De-

-Ernest Stover, of Aaronsburg, has been trying the experiment of hauling logs pall-bearers will be her grandsons, Henry with a traction engine lately and has found and John McWilliams, Samuel and Wm. one. The passing of horse teams on the

----Gillantown was threatened with After ordering the following bills paid destruction by forest fires on Tuesday, but a timely shower put an end to the flames

8.00 and the high winds were driving great sheets of flame and showers of sparks in all directions.

-----McQuistion & Co. have two very styl-1.70 ish new top buggies that can be bought at 4.50 very reasonable figures. There is nothing shoddy about them, as there is no inferior work ever allowed to go out of that estab-1.20 lishment, and the person who secures 10.66 either of the rigs referred to is sure to have -----The rumor that the American Axe and Tool company's recent purchase of plants are to be centralized, is denied at daughter and two sons preceded their faththe Mill Hall offices of the trust. While er to the grave. the scheme to erect a $500,000 plant at Glassport will be carried out the Mill Hall people are of the opinion that their factory will not be disturbed.

MRS. SARAH KEICHLINE.-One of the bright for one of her years.

Peter Keichline, when eighteen years of cemetery. age. Their union was a most happy one and their entire married life of almost sixty years was spent near or in Pine Grove. From her youth she had been a member of the Reformed church and was cheerfully confident of being ready to die-indeed she planned some of the details of her burial and requested that the old bible she had used at catechism be buried with her. She was very kind and generous and affable and the entire community in which she lived will miss her.

Her husband died some years ago and of their nine children seven are living, all of whom were with her when she entered into rest. They are John and Peter, of this place; G. W., and Mrs. Sarah Gardner, of Rock Springs; Mrs. G. W. McWilliams, of is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Hettie Metzger, of Chicago; a brother, Samuel Long, of Catawissa, twenty-six grand children and thirteen great-grand children. Funeral services will be held this morning at 9 o'clock at her home with her pastor Rev. A. A. Black, officiating, after which interment will be made in the Pine Hall cemetery by the side of her husband. The Goss, and Charles and Wm. Keichline.

HE WAS GEORGE SHERRY'S FATHER .--Anthony Sherry, aged 84 years, 4 months and 27 days, died at his home on the Philipsburg pike, about a mile from Bald Eagle, on Tuesday afternoon. He had suffered with rheumatism for three years and it death.

Deceased was a native of Germany and came to America when quite young, first located in Cambria county, and was married to Miss Anna Mary Heims at Loretto on the 8th of Oct. 1844, by the Rev. Father Gallaher. The family settled in the Bald Eagle valley in 1866, and since that time have occupied what is now come to be known as the Sherry homestead.

Deceased is survived by his wife and the following named sons and daughters : Mrs. Caroline McAvoy and Anthony Sherry, Kane, Pa.; George Sherry, Bellefonte; Mrs. George Schell, DuBois; Mrs. Jennie Wil-

-----Donald Clarence, the precious infant oldest and most respected women of Fer- of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder Tate, died at their guson township died at her home in Pine home near Coleville, on Sunday night. He Grove Mills on Tuesday afternoon after a had not been a very robust babe, but was short illness. Sunday night she was as sweet an one as ever proud parent fondstricken with paralysis, but until then she led and his sudden taking off with convulwas unusually well and observing and sions was a sorrowful bereavement to them.

He would have been seven months old on Of German parentage Sarah Long was the 28th of this month. Rev. Shriner, born in Union county, Dec. 19th, 1818, and of the Methodist church, conducted in early girlhood removed to Aaronsburg, services at the home on Tuesday afternoon this county, where she was married to and interment was made in the Union

- Mrs. Andrew Smith died at her home near Salona on Saturday morning with a complication of diseases. For many years she had been a resident of Salona, but a short time ago the family moved onto the Martin Herr farm. Interment was made at Farmers Mills on Tusday morning.

News Purely Personal.

--Former sheriff Jno. P. Condo, of Millheim. was in town on Monday.

-John Houser, of this place, has gone to Mt Pleasant to work at his trade of paper hanging. -Fred Sourbeck and Charley Gillen left for New York on Tuesday afternoon, to see the Corbett-Jeffries fight on Friday night

-Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, bishop of this diocese of the Episcopal church, was here last evening and confirmed a class at St. John's. -Mrs. Jennie M. Boulton is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Musser, on Bishop street. She is just returning from having spent the winter in Florida.

-Mrs. Joseph Beck, of Wilkinsburg, was an arrival in town Tuesday afternoon. She came for visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Houser, of Bishop street

-Miss Kate Hoover, of Philadelphia, has been in town for a week or more; having been called here by the serious illness of her grandmother. Mrs. Mary E. Hoover, of north Spring street. -Mr, and Mrs. J. Harris Mann, of Lewistown, drove to this place on Saturday and remained until Monday visiting Mrs. Mann's parents, Treasarer and Mrs. W. T. Speer, of West High street. -Mrs. John Porter Lyon, of Pennsylvania Furnace, arrived in town Tuesday evening and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, of north Thomas street. Mr. Lyon came down yesterday.

-On Tuesday afternoon Joseph and Andrew Thal and Alfred Beezer left for New York, whence they will sail for Europe. The boys are going to ee the Paris Exposition and while abroad will finally went to his heart and caused his visit the homes of their ancestors in Germany. -Presiding elder M. L. Smyser and family arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and are now located in one of Mrs. Orbison's new houses on Curtin street. A reception will be tendered them in the lecture room of the Methodist church this evening.

-Mrs. Anna C. Woodcock, who has been boarding at Mrs. Irv Curtin's on Linn street, for the last three months and who has not nearly recovered from her recent illness, left yesterday morning for Chambersburg, where she will spend the summer with her sister at their old home

-Mayor Edmund Blanchard went to Philips burg, Tuesday afternoon, to prevail on the firemen of that place to bring the Central Pennsylvania District Firemen's Convention to this place during the Centennial. They will decide the matter at a joint meeting of the Reliance and Hope companies this evening.

-Jacob Bottorf Esq., of Lemont, was in Bellefonte on Saturday and while talking with him concerning the burning of his farm house we Cora A. Neff, of Roland. learned that it was not caused by a defective was a representative to the meeting of the Grand Castle of the K. G. E. in session there. Mrs.

Schofield accompanied him to visit friends in

-Miss Mary Devling, of Glen Richey, was in town over Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Frank War-

Miss Devling is employed now evidentiy recognized and appreciate her efficiency and ability as the Valentine Iron company di 1 while she was its treasurer and bookkeeper, for she has been made head of its Clearfield offices with an increased

-Charles McLaughlin, of Snow Shoe Intersection, was in town between trains on Wednesday on his way to Winburne; where he is general factotum in the Sommerville collieries. We were sorry to learn that Mr. McLaughlin had been suffering for some time with an acute attack of rheumatism. While by no means well he felt that it was necessary for him to get back to work

'Saratoga," is here visiting his cousin W. R.

and has had many varied experiences he is ready

-J. N. Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, was an early visitor to Bellefonte yesterday morning and brought with him the discouraging announcement that there had been a heavy frost out there

-Geo. H. Yearick, of Mill Hall, was in town on Tuesday, having made a bicycle trip of it up to "shoot off" every mee in a while and then they shoot" so loud that it can be heard for forty miles around. Mr. Hays is boss at the Humes farm quarries, but one can scarcely reconcile the noisy life he leads while at work to the modest manner that is so becoming when he is at leisure.

-Former Register Geo. W. Rumberger, of Unionville, spent Friday night in town, having come down to take part in "Ye Old Folks Concert," at the Crider home on Linn street that evening. He acquired fame as a singer early in his career in the court house, by his pathetic rendition of the sentimental ballad "The Cat

-George Runkle, purser on the training shop that city.

salary.

-Former sheriff D. W. Woodring entertained his cousin, Geo. W. Woodring, one of the leading business men of Blue Field, the bustling new coal centre of West Virginia, on Tuesday.

-G. W. Feerrar, of Williamsport, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday. He was here on business for the News the co-operative paper that has been jumping into a field of promin ence so fast down there. Mr. Feerrar ought to be known to many of the older residents of the county, if not personally, certainly through his father, the late Jacob Feerrar, who in the early days, when self binding harvesters were unheard of, might have been called the famous cradle maker of Boalsburg. The grain cradles that old Mr. Feerrar used to make were lasting as their maker's loyalty to Democratic principles. The young man left Centre county twenty-years ago, the last ten of which he has resided in Williamsport.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Foreman, of Centre Hall, took advantage of the delightful spring weather on Tuesday for a drive over the mountain to this place. It was but natural that Mr. Foreman should soon lose his better half in the-be wildering to men-round of dress goods and millinery shop displays, so he just put in the afternoon calling on his friends and rubbing the dust out of his eyes. You know, he said, we people of Centre Hall are not accustomed to having the dust blowing in such clouds that you can't see across the street. We have a good water works now, and our streets are sprinkled so that visitors to the place are not compelled to breathe themselves full of pulverized limestone and every other kind of disagreeable particles of dust. Well, Mr. Foreman was right. Bellefonte was extremely dusty on Tuesday, and it was very unpleasant on the streets until after the shower settled the matter

HAPPILY MARRIED. - Mr. Ferdinand Beezer and Miss Grace Beaderman, two of the popular young people of Bellefonte, were married in St. John's Catholic church at half past seven o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. P. McArdle performed the ceremony and their sponsors were Mr. Edward Beezer, a cousin, and Miss Agnes Beezer, a sister of the groom.

The bride was daintily gowned in venetian brown, trimmed with white satin and brown velvet, with hat to match, and her maid was dressed so as to carry out the effective color scheme. The groom and his best man wore the conventional dress for morning weddings and the party presented a handsome appearance at the altar.

A large reception was given them at the groom's home south of town Wednesday evening, where hosts of their friends gathered to wish them joy and prosperity on life's matrimonial sea.

-Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Dr. George Berry Klump, of this place, and Eva May, daughter of Mrs. Etta Swartz, of Williamsport. The ceremony will occur in the First Presbyterian church at Williamsport, Wednesday, May 16th, at high noon, and the bride and groom will be at home after July 5th, at west High street, Bellefonte.

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week :

Joseph Sobek Glod and Mary Donaycon, both of Clarence.

Claude W. Fulton, of Milesburg, and a bargain.

5.00 5.00 16.47 74.00 thirty-eight acres of land at Glassport 5.50 meant the moving of the axe factory at Mill liams, near East Tyrone; William and 5.50 Hall to the former place, where all the trust Agnes Sherry at the family home. One ... 12.03 $1 095.37 their side walks. Upon motion of Mr. weather. Houser the clerk was ordered to notify all telephone and electric light companies having poles erected on our streets to paint same by June 1st and to remove all poles The Water committee reported sundry repairs. Along this line council decided to partment of Internal Affairs. replace the 6 inch main running north on Allegheny street from High with a 12 inch

22.23

1.20

112.72

153.50

2.60

41 55

6.18

35.00

18.25

tation at the council meeting Monday even-Jyshua Foulk reported a nuisance near

The Street committee reported the com-

Jenkins & Lingle, 2 loads sand ball and chain

A. Allison, terra cotta pipe..

the Old Methodist church on jail hill and ing and the following business was done.

one to Linn street. This is made necessary by the scarcity of water on east Linn street. the result satisfactory in every way except The Fire and Police committee reported

.$118.20 and relieved the terror of the people of that . 366.91 place. The village was surrounded by fire

-A great many rabbits and pheasants THE AMERICAN PATRIOT OF 1814.-S. are reported to have been burned in the B. Row Esq., a Philipsburg gentleman forest fires that swept the Wood ward "Narwhose delightful writings in the papers of rows" last Wednesday evening. Constable that town on matters of local history Wyle, who was in charge of the posse of prompts us to believe him to be an antimen fighting the flames, says that at one quarian, has sent us a half sheet of the point he saw nine rabbits running out of American Patriot, the first paper published the burning brush, only to get into a worse in Bellefonte. The copy bears the date of fire at another place.

----- A slight fire was discovered in the be one of the second edition of the Patriot. barn on the rear of the Andrews home, at The paper was started by Alexander Hanthe corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, between four and five o'clock Friday after- Moore, Feb 5th, 1814, in a building just an imaginary sea voyage during which all noon. An alarm was sent into the Logan engine house and the fire was put out before a general alarm could be sounded. and opposite the bank. The fire was caused by some persons having dumped bot ashes too close to the page paper and is really very interesting in building. its contents. Among the local news and

-----On Friday agent J. H. Olliger sucadvertisements are : A notice to stockholdceeded in securing the pension for young ers of the Centre Bank of Pennsylvania Frank Wallace, of Milesburg, which variious agencies have been after for so long. It will be remembered that Wallace fell from a troop train while passing through Ohio on the way home from camp at Lex-E. Welch advertises for two boys to learn ington, Ky., and was so badly hurt that he will never fully recover. He has been there is an advertisement of the sale of land awarded $17 per month, with pay to date "for a song" that now comprises Harris, Ferguson, Taylor, Worth, Huston and from the day of his injury.

Rush townships. About the most interest------The Altoona High school and Belleing news item in the paper is the announce- fonte on July 25th or 26th. fonte Academy base ball teams gave a very ment that "Mr. John Hall, in widening the uninteresting exhibition on the glass works tail-race of his water works, dug up, in the meadow here on Saturday afternoon. channel of Spring creek, a tooth (supposed Though the weather was rainy and chilly a to be of the Mammoth) about three inches fair sized crowd went out and saw the Acadand a half square on the face, and about emy boys beaten by a score of 12 to 10. four inches in length or depth. When The entire nine innings could not be playfound it was entire; but by an unlucky ed, because the visitors had to quit in time stroke of a pick it was broken into several to catch an afternoon train home. pieces. * * * * "

Without asking Mr. Row's permission Dr. C. H. Mead, the famous orator and lecwe have turned the interesting relic into turer, will appear at the court house here the keeping of Mrs. Isaac Mitchell for exfor the W. C. T. U. The lecture will be hibit among the curios during the county free and as Dr. Mead has already demon-Centennial here July 25th and 26th, when strated his ability to interest and please all will have an opportunity of seeing it.

Bellefonte audiences he will probably be greeted by a crowded house. It will be remembered that he spoke here two nights at Martha Furnace was destroyed by fire in succession, several years ago. when he had the "Silver Lake" quartet with him.

gether with all its contents, including time clause in their contract they expect to -----The Methodist people of Bellefonte eight horses, three cows, wagons, sleds, have all the grading done and the half-mile are talking improvements to their church farming machinery, implements, grain, property. The building is in need of a hay, fodder, etc. Mr. Hoover has a parnew roof and it is thought that a number tial insurance only on the property. The is the Linn & McCoy meadow between the of radical changes should be made in the fire is supposed to be the work of an in- C. R. R. of Pa. and P. R. R. tracks, east interior. They are hinting at an outlay of cendiary. This is the fourth barn that of the nail works. It contains 23 acres and \$10,000 to \$15,000. Of course it is all talk has been burned in the Bald Eagle valley with other land obtainable will make a up to this time, but if the Methodists decide in the past year, the others being the splendid site. A 3 mile track could be to carry it further the church will be made Sharar barn, only a mile or two from the erected on the lot, but it will be made just about as pretty as any in the town. The Hoover property ; the Fowler barn, and $\frac{1}{2}$ mile. plans are for a new trussed roof ceiling, in- the Mrs. Henry Hoover barn, near Bald In addition to its use as a fair ground for clined floor, a choir box across the front of Eagle. Mr. Hoover's house has been on agricultural exhibits it will be equipped day evening with paralysis. She had been the church above the pulpit, a fine pipe fire several times, but it was always dis- for all sorts of athletic sports and out-door organ and elaborate decorations. covered in time to prevent serious damage. | theatrical amusements.

-----Next Thursday night a juvenile operetta will be given at Garman's by Miss Bradley's music scholars and the choir boys of St. John's Episcopal church. Both the libretto and music are delightful and Miss Saturday, Feb. 12th, 1814, and proves to Bradley has been working so faithfully with the children that their presentation of "A Trip to Europe" promises something ilton, and first published by Hamilton & alt cgether out of the ordinary. It involves one door south of the Curtin home at the of the passeugers on the boat get sea sick and corner of Allegheny and Howard streets there is fun and music to please everyone. Next Thursday night, for the benefit of the It was evidently a four column, four Episcopal church.

-It might be well for Bellefonters who contemplate making improvements or changes to their property to arrange to have that an additional payment of $5 on each it all done before the date of the Centennial. and every share would be required at the This would remove the possibility of any bank in Bellefonte on April 6th, 1814. It streets of the town being blockaded with is signed by Jno. Norris, cashier. William building materials and would also insure the best appearance of the place. The the boot and shoe making trade. And Street committee of council might do well to take this matter up now and let it be understood that no piles of building materials, of any sort, will be permitted to remain on the streets or sidewalks of Belle-

WORK TO BEGIN NEXT WEEK ON THE FAIR GROUNDS .- An advertisement for teams to work on the construction of "the new fair grounds near Bellefonte," which appears in another column of this issue, leaves no room for doubt as to Centre county's having such an amusement enterprise within a very short time.

Last week the WATCHMAN published the fact that a charter had been granted to the "Centre County Agricultural Exhibiting Co." and stated that work on a fair ground would be begun at once. Next week F. W. McElroy, the civil engineer for F. H. Clement & Co., the contractors who will do the work, will be here with the plans and -The large barn of Samuel Hoover at once engage teams and men to go on the work. A member of the firm told a WATCHabout 4 o'clock last Friday morning, to- MAN representative that while there is no > track completed before July 4th. The ground selected for the fair grounds

Catholic church, Tyrone. Funeral services -The Hon. and Mrs. James Schofield left for at that church this morning. Allentown on Sunday morning. They spent four days in the Lehigh metropolis. Mr. Schofield

DIED OF APOPLEXY. --- Mrs. Anna Shaf-

Deceased was a member of St. Matthew's fer Royer, the beloved wife of Jonathan Royer, was unexpectedly stricken with apoplexy at her home at Zion about three o'clock Monday morning and almost before the seriousness of her trouble was realized field. The Bloomington Coal company by which she had passed away. On Sunday she seemed to be in unusually good health and attended church services twice during the day, so that there wasn't the slightest premonition of her approaching dissolution. She was the daughter of the late Capt. George Shaffer and was born at Zion 58 years ago and surviving to mourn her sad death are her husband, one son Joel, one daughter, Mrs. Epley Gentzel, and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Decker, all of Zion. Mrs. Royer was a woman whose passing from that community is a serious loss. She was active in her domestic life, charitable and Brachbill and other relatives in town. Though loving in her ministrations to the poor and he has been to sea ever since he was a little boy afflicted and zealous in her attention to to give up the life of a sailor the moment some church duties.

thing better presents itself. George was on the The funeral took place yesterday morn-St. Paul during her auxiliary service in the ig at 10 o'clock, from her late home. The United States navy. servi as were conducted by Rev. Diehl, the Lutheran pastor at Zion, of whose church deceased was a conscientious member.

Wednesday night and, in all probability, the MRS. CATHARINE BRYAN.-Mrs. Cathacherry crop will be seriously affected. Mr. Brooks is not rushed with work at his saw mill just now, rine Bryan died at her home in Altoona on but he had to hurry back home to look after som Sunday night, from the effects of heart other spring work he has on hand. trouble. She was 51 years old and was a native of Centre county; her maiden name having been Ebbs.

attend to some business for his father-in-law, our Deceased was first married to Wesley friend William Bickle. Mr. Yearick is home Avres to whom she bore seven children, all from the Medico-Chi., in Philadelphia, where he hones to be able to earn the title of "Dr" in three of whom are living. After his death she more ye ars. He started off as a farmer over married R. C. Bryan, to whom she bore two about Madisonburg, but he soon changed to medchildren. She was a member of the Methoicine and now his wife and child accompany him dist church and her body was brot. ht to to Philadelphia, where they have a flat and all get all the enjoyment there is out of it. Marengo, this county, for interment on Wednesday morning. -Few people who know Michael Hays by sight would think that the genteel looking, quiet gen-Among her many relatives in Centre tleman who can be seen somewhere along south county are her sisters : Mrs. Sara Ward, of Allegheny street most any Saturday evening, is Stormstown; Mrs. Nancy Cornelius, of Port one of the noisiest fellows in the whole country Matilda, and Mrs. Hetty Wrye, of Lovewhen he is at work. In fact he can't keep himself or his men at work unless he stops them to ville.

-Quick consumption caused the death of Mrs. Catharine Holt Dumbleton, at her home at Cold Stream, near Philipsburg, last Thursday morning. She was only 22 years old and was a bride of but three months, making her demise an unusually sad one. Her maiden name was Callahan and she was a member of the United Brethren church.

-

DeHaas, died near Beech Creek last Thurs-

in supporting the prima donna on Friday ever ing he was more than up to his mark of "hear lieved her suffering. She was 75 years old. rendering acting" and fine voice.

John A. Crock, of Runville, and Auna J. flue, as stated. The fire started on the roof and Irwin, of Fleming. is supposed to have been ignited by a spark.

H. A. Yearick and Anna M. Sholl, both of Madisonburg.

Charles Wesley Kaler, of Coburn, Centre county, and Mary Etta Byerly, of Herndon, Northumberland county, Pa.

WANTED. - Photographs or interesting short sketches of historic buildings and localities, or both, in Centre county. Kindly send same to this office with the name and address of sender. They will be preserved and returned in good condition.

We are especially desirous of securing scraps of historical information that have, as yet, been unpublished.

-----About twenty-five grinders in the Mill Hall axe factory walked out on a strike for higher wages on Monday morn-

-Sparks from the engine set fire to the Linden Hall saw mill, one night last week, but the flames were extinguished before serious damage was done.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce J. W. Kepler, of Ferguson township, as a candidate for the nomination for Assembly; subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.*

of Bellefonte, as a candidate of the Legislature ubject to the decision of the Democratic county onvention. We are authorized to announce J. H. Wetzel,

We are authorized to announce Robt. M. Foste as a candidate for Legislature subject to the decis-ion of the Democratic County Convention.

We are authorized to announce John W. Conley, of Potter township, as a candidate for Assembly, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red Corn -Mixed. 401/4@431 Flour-Winter, Per Br'i. " - Penna. Roller..... " - Favorited Brands... 3.10@3.25 Rye Flour Per Br'l. Baled hay-Choice Flour Per Br'l. 3.15@3.40 Timothy No. 1.... 15@18 Mixed " 1..... 15.50@16.50 9.00@15.50 Straw.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Red wheat, 7
Rye, per bushel 4
Corn, shelled, per bushel 4
Corn, ears, per bushel 4
Oats, per bushel, new 2
Barley, per bushel 4
Barley, per bushel
Buckwheat, per bushel 2
Cloverseed, per bushel$4 00 to $6 0

Bellefonte Produce Markets

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

otatoes per bushel ggs, per dozen ard, per ard, per pound....

Came Back," so that ever since he has been a -Mrs. Sallie DeHass, relict of Curtis drawing card at musicales. His latest success has been the singing of the role of "Reuben" in the operatic-comedetta of "Reuben and Rachel" and stricken only a few hours before death re-

1