requested her husband to get her some medicine. Mr. Dabbs complied with her request, but all efforts proved of no avail, and she expired ten minutes after. The deceased was born in Worcestershire, Eng., 49 years ago. She leaves a sorrowing husband and seven children, nearly all grown up. Her interment took place, at 2 p. m. Sunday, in the cemetery at this place, under the auspices of the Episcopal church, of which she was a devout member.

Fire caught, in some inexplicable way, over the kitchen in the house of Mrs. Lingle, on Beaver street, Monday evening at 5.30. But for the timely aid rendered by the fire Cos. the house would have been totally destroyed. The roof of the kitchen was burned off, and fell in, damaging that part of the house. Mrs. Lingle had light insurance, possibly enough to cover the damage to her goods.

Grain-O! Grain-O!

WESTFIELD, Mass., Nov. 27th, 1899. The Genessee Pure Food Co. Le Roy, N. Y.:

Gentlemen-Having used your Grain-O for the past 3 months I thought I would write and let you know how much good it has done me. When I was away on my vacation last summer the people I visited asked me to try some Grain-O, and I drank some, but I didn't like it at all, but the more I drank it the better I liked it, and now I wouldn't drink anything else. I never weighed over 105 pounds and last winter I was down to 103 pounds, and now I weigh just 120, and I never felt better in my life. It gives me an awful appetite, and makes me strong. Its doing me more good than anything I ever took, and I would recommend it to everybody.

Yours truly, MRS. GEO. R. BROWN.
