Democratic Hatchman

Bellefonte, Pa., May 25, 1900.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pu shed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

was the following:

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-An Ohio buyer shipped a car load of Walnut wood from Linden Hall last week.

-The Rebersburg foundry is reported to be as busy as it is possible for it to be.

-A hail storm passed over the lower Thus it was that the life of an ideal, enend of Nittany valley last Friday afternoon

-A. P. White is erecting a saw mill along the Beech Creek rail-road, about one mile east of Mill Hall.

High school and Snow Shoe base ball the late Geo. W. Jackson, banker, of this Union cemetery. teams will play a game on the glass works place. He was born here in 1869. Edumeadow in this place.

-J. Albert Walton, Philipsburg's former postmaster, has leased the opera house in that place, and will manage it during the coming season.

-----Insurance broker Grant Hoover has in which he held a clerkship up to the time moved his apartments from the Crider of his departure for Chicamauga, George building to the Henry Walkey house on spent all of his brief business career. His greatest ambition was to be a soldier Logan street. His office location has not and he took up the study of military science been changed.

----Postmaster W. S. Miller, of Rebers- with such thoroughness that he was quite burg, is recovering very slowly from his as well informed on all the points of the recent illness and George Corman is down service as most regular army officers. with a severe attack of pneumonia.

-Miss Ella Ross, a daughter of J. H. Ross, the Linden Hall merchant, was over- an Aug. 3rd, of the same year, was elected come by the heat while at school in Boals- a 2nd Lieut. On March 13th, 1895, he burg last Friday. She was completely was elect d a 1st Lieut., which commisprostrated for awhile, but, happily, she suf- sion he resigned after being appointed a fered no serious effects from it.

fonte Central R. R., at Hunter's park, Wed- but went into the United States service on nesday morning. The engine and one car May 11th, 1898, as 1st Lieut. of Co. B, 5th of the morning passenger train west was Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. He derailed at that place by striking a half was mustered out in November, 1898, and open switch. Some one had turned the in August, 1899, was appointed a 2nd Lieut switch half way. Fortunately the train in Co. I, 47 Regiment, U. S. Volunteers, stopped before any serious damage was ippines last November. done

----J. Will Conley, chairman of decorat- friends here of his illness and most alarmmeeting of his helpers in the arbitration as to his condition, but as if in answer to room of the court house, Tuesday evening, them the Lieutenant wrote the following and the plans for street decoration were letter to his mother. It is probably his discussed. After talking them over for last communication and contains all the some time it was decided to send for a real news at present procurable about him. number of professional decorators from the city and secure their suggestions and prices. The street decorations in Bellefonte during have been very sick, have been in the hospital for the Centennial promise to be wonderfully five weeks and was siek a month before they could get me to Manila. gorgeous

-On the evening of Memorial day a public meeting will be held in the court hard tack and we were clear out of the world and house in this place under the auspices of had to wait until a boat came along that was comto Manila, which was over three weeks and

11

-Mrs. Katharine Barnhart Kimport,

11

LIEUTENANT GEORGE L. JACKSON DIES MRS. CHARLES BOWES.-A complication of diseases that had made her ill for a IN MANILA .- Among the bulletins published by the War Department on Tuesday long time caused the death of Mrs. Charles Bowes, at her home near the glass works, on Saturday night. WASHINGTON, May 22.-General Mac-

Deceased was born in Clarion, Clarion Arthur notified the War Department today that Second Lieutenant George L. county, Pa., May 22nd, 1842. She was Jackson, Forty-Seventh volunteer infantry, the daughter of the late Isaac Hampton, of died at Manila on the 21st inst., of Bright's this place. disease. Lieutenant Jackson was born at

She is survived by her husband Charles Bellefonte, Pa., in 1869. Bowes, and the following children: Charles The receipt of the news in this place was so much of a surprise that few realized its H., of Philadelphia; Walter, of Bellwood; Smith, Evangelical minister of Milestrue portent and all were hoping against Harry, Mrs. John Keeler, Mrs. William hope that some mistake had been made. Hill and Minnie, all of Bellefonte.

Wednesday the sad report was confirmed Three sisters and one brother also surby the official notification which was sent vive, namely: Mrs. Rudy Haines, of Hollito Mrs. Jackson by the War Department. daysburg, Mrs. Reuben Bixler, of Patton;

Mrs. Emaline Berdell, of Bellefonte, and thusiastic, ambitious soldier went out in a David Hampton, of Morristown. strange land, where he doubtless had all The funeral took place yesterday afterthe care and attention that medical science noon from the house. Services were con- the case. could give, but not a single friend of his ducted by Rev. Allen Rhen, pastor of the home to be a comfort in his last hours. United Brethren church, of which deceased was a member. Interment in the burg. Address will be delivered by Hon. Lieutenant Jackson was the eldest son of cated at the Bellefonte Academy, State MRS. RISHEL.-Mrs. Margaret Rishel College and Lehigh University for a civil died at the home of Miss Elizabeth Runkle engineer he followed that profession for a at Centre Hall, Tuesday morning. She short time but finally associated with his was well advanced in years and suffered father in the milling firm of Geo. W. Jackfrom a complication of diseases. She had son & Co. Between the mill and the bank, been in ill health for some months and confined to her bed for weeks previous to her death.

Mrs. Rishel was the widow of John Rishel, who died in that place eight or ten years ago. The children who survive her are: Ward and John, Philadelphia; Howard, Chicago; Willis, Montgomery; and participate in the services, also all the so-Rev. McClellan, Clearfield county. She With such an inclination he enlisted as a also leaves a brother, John S. Dauberman, private in Co. B, on July 6th, 1894, and of Centre Hall, who is the last of the family of Daubermans, so well known in years past. Deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist church and was a lady held in 2nd Lieut. in the Forty-Seventh Regiment. high esteem by all who knew her. The When the Spanish-American war broke funeral will take place Saturday a. m., inout he was clerking in his father's bank, terment in the cemetery at Sprucetown.

DEATH OF MRS. BUCK .- On Tuesday evening at 8:55, Mrs. Catharine Buck, wife of Rev. H. W. Buck, of Millheim, died from The Pennsylvania State College came after an illness of one week, aged 56 years, down here last Saturday afternoon to play was not running at high speed and was and with his regiment sailed for the Phil- 10 months and 1 day. The cause of her death was pleurisy and pneumonia. She leaves behind her a husband and three youngsters who are invariably on the field

Occasional letters lately had apprised his children. The latter are: Thomas, whose trying to lick the paint off every stick ing committee for the Centennial, had a ing rumors were afloat several months ago home is at Lewisburg; Laura and Harry at in the batsmen's hands, the game was home

Funeral services were held Thursday monkeys out of their embryonic collegiate evening at 4 o'clock, conducted by Elder rivals. The tow headed left fielder the Subs cemetery at Lewisburg. MANILA, P. I. April 12, 1900

I suppose you are wondering why you have not heard from me, lately. Well, the reason is that I

-Eleanor, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robinson, died dysentery from living on nothing but bacon and evening, and was brought to this place for like the patter of rain in an April shower here that his recovery will be both speedy and burial on Monday morning. Services were until the little visiting captain second conducted by Rev. Woodson, in the A. M.

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAMME AT MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by or-MILESBURG .- The following programme for Memorial day, May 30th, 1900, and the phan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, dur-Sunday preceding it will be observed by ing the past week : S. A. Krape and Minnie Amanda Zeig-George L. Potter post, No. 261, of Milesler, both of Spring Mills. Edward Walker, of Cato, Pa., and Elizaial services for the dead of the post during beth Wetzel, of Marsh Creek, Pa.

Edward Burns and Margaret C. Nugent, church. Milesburg, to be immediately folboth of Snow Shoe. lowed by a sermon to the post by Rev. Beal M. Linthurst, of Port Royal, Pa., and Matilda E. Musser, of Philipsburg. burg. All persons are invited to attend. On Memorial day, services will be held at Fairview cemetery, 3 miles north of -Mrs. L. C. Rutter, of Benore, was in town Curtin, at 8:30 a. m. Rev. Mr. Hummell shopping yesterday.

News Purely Personal.

-Reports from Woodward are to the effect that At 10:00 a. m. services will be held in D. M. Glenn is seriously ill at that place. Mrs.

the new cemetery, Milesburg, which will Glenn went down on Wednesday afternoon be done by a detail, as has usually been -Amos Cole and Bruce Barnhart went to eured employment in that city. At 10:30 a. m. services and address at -Mrs. Robert G. H. Hayes left yesterday for Advent cemetery, 3 miles north of Miles-Detroit, Mich., to spend several weeks with one of her school friends. -Miss Lucy Curtis, of Clinton, Iowa, who was a

At 2 p. m. services will be held at the schoolmate of Miss Helen Hastings, at Ogontz, is new cemetery, Curtin. The address will here visiting Miss Hastings for a few days. be delivered by Rev. Shriner, of the Meth-

-GreggCurtin, who is in the Westinghouse Co. odist church, Bellefonte. Previous to this part of the Post will visit the cemetery at Curtin, at about 1:30 p. m. and decorate

-J. S. McCargar, of Bishop street, who finds that it pays to reach out in the insurance busi-At 4:00 p. m. services will be held in ness as well as anything else, was in Tyrone on the old cemetery, Milesburg, and an ad- Monday.

dress will be delivered by Rev. R. H. Whar--Mrs. W. B. Thomas, of Milesburg, and her ton, of the Milesburg Methodist church. laughter. Miss Henrietta, left for Lewis burg yesterday afternoon for a visit of a week or two with The Sunday schools of each of the places friends there. above named have been invited and will

-Miss Maggie Snowden, of Philadelphia, who was a successful music teacher in this place sevcieties and organizations in Milesburg. eral years ago, is visiting Mrs. John P. Harris, at Odd Fellows, P. O. S. of A., Knights of their home on west Linn street.

the Golden Eagle, and American Mechan--John Fry and John Bailey, two of the enterics, have accepted invitations, and will prising and representative young men of Ferguson township, were in town on business Wednes day. They drove down. The Curtin band will make the whole round of places and when in Milesburg -Edward Hoy, of the hardware firm of Potter t Hoy, and J. Harris Hoy, manager of the Rock View farms, were arrivals in Philadelphia on Saturday and were guests at the Lafayette. They spent a few days at Atlantic and returned yesterday morning.

-Dr. J. L. Seibert, who has been in Philadelphia for the last month studying and doing hos pital work, is not expected home until the second week in June. Mrs. Seibert is going to Philadelphia Saturday and before returning they will spend a week at the seashore.

-Joseph D. Mitchell came over from Burnham on Saturday and visited at his home here until vesterday. This rather unusual stay was due to the fact that Joe's department of the big works being put in the hearths and he had a few days -Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Monish, of New York, tarried in town between trains on Tuesday. Their bridal tour is being extended by a tour of the West and Mrs. Monish stopped off here for a short visit of a few hours with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. Baum, of Bishop street.

-Post master, station agent, merchant John seemed to be fewer signs of spring in the Hoy, of Waddle's, was in town yesterday looking far from being the desperately sick man he has been reported as being. John seems to be pick ing up again and it is the hope of his many friends

-----The trustees of the Bellefonte Methodist church held a meeting in the lecture room on Monday evening and the question of improving the parsonage and church was again taken up. Architect Cole was present and submitted plans for the remodeling of the parsonage. A new porch ten feet wide will be run along the entire front, three ornamental dormer windows will break up the plainness of the old roof, a new slate roof will be put on, a vestibule made in the hall and new windows added. The church improvements are under way, but more care will be taken in adopting them so the very best results can be accomplished with the money anyone for infractions of the law in Bellefonte had been unheard of so long that the councilmen had to have the Burgess say it over twice before they could comprehend just what he was trying to impress upon them. Bids for building the abutments for the new iron bridge over Logan's Branch on Willow-bank street were received from Conrad Miller, James McCafferty, John Mignot and John Noll. That of Contad Miller was accepted.

COUNCIL IN SESSION MONDAY NIGHT.

-About the most important business that came before council at its regular meeting

Monday evening was Burgess Blanchard's report that he had collected $14.50 in fines

during the month. Such a thing as fining

The Water committee reported the awarding of the contract for the 12 inch Pittsburg on Tuesday. They had previously se- pipe, to be laid on North Allegheny street. to R. D. Wood & Co., of Philadelphia. Council approved the action. Work was begun on the laying on Monday morning. The committee appointed to investigate and report on the building of a bridge from Reynolds Ave. to South Potter street, reported that the property on which such employ in Pittsburg, is here on a short visit to bridge would have to abut is private prophis parents, Gen. and Mrs. Jno. I. Curtin, of Linn erty and nothing more than a foot bridge dare be erected.

Samuel Kerns' request that water be given to him on South Potter street was granted and the Water committee recommended that a rebate be given the Brockerhoff estate for water tax on their home. at the corner of Spring and Bishop streets, because it has not been occupied for the past year.

The following bills were then approved and ordered paid and council adjourned : Street pay roll ...$88.42 George W. Mallory, blacksmithing .... 2.15

Bellefonte Fuel and Supply Co., coal ... ..... 68.59 T. H. Harter, 500 parchment notices...... 2.00 H. B. Pontius, 1 mo. as clerk, express and 13.12 postage ...

Water pay roll .. 76.63 Thomas Shaughensy, market clerk .75 W. H. Miller, 6 granite cups for Spring .. .60 P. B. Crider & Son. lumber ... . 15.37 267.63

REFORMED CHURCH NEWS .- The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church closed its annual session at Hublersburg on Sunday and on the following day the visiting ministers and laymen scattered to their various homes very well pleased with the entertainment provided by the Hublersburg people.

The Classis will meet at Selinsgrove next year. Rev. J. J. Barnhart, of West Milton, was elected president; and Rev. W. W. Haus, of Selinsgrove, clerk and treasurer.

The announcement was made that Rev. R. L. Gerhart, formerly pastor of the Reformed church in this place, has decided to leave Newburg, Cumberland county, and accept a call to the pastorate of the Reformed church at Lewisburg.

Reemer, Rev. B. Hengst assisting. Inter- presented turned somersaults in his vain ment will be made this morning in the endeavor to get next to some of the flies that buzzed around him as if he were a real sheet of tangle foot and then the captain moved him over into centre, where there he observed.

burg, Pa.

Sunday, May 27th, 10:30 a. m., Memor-the year, will be held in the Methodist will deliver the address.

the few graves that are in it.

take part in the observance of the day.

John G. Love.

grass. I had been out in the mountains and got th at their home in Tyrone, on Saturday Runs kept dropping on the home plate will be assisted by the Milesburg band.

All persons are cordially invited to attend and help observe the great day as it should THE SUB-FRESHMAN AND ACADEMY

GAME .- The sub-Freshman base ball team

a game with the Bellefonte Academy nine.

After knocking the screech out of a few over there was shut down while new grates were called and for awhile the Academians made the Soldiers Monument and Curtin Memorial commissions. Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, of State College, will preside and the address will be delivered by Dr. W. H. able to be up and around the hospital and a couple Egle, former state librarian. His subject will of times they have sent me out driving in the be "Governor Curtin and the Soldiers of evenings for an hour. "Centre county in the War of the Rebellion." thoroughly and not take any chances of a re-It will doubtless be very entertaining and all are invited.

-Supt. Ryan began laying the new 12 The writing is as natural as if he had inch water main on North Allegheny street been in perfect health and there is noth-Monday morning. The fact that he had ing but hope and buoyancy portrayed in it. advertised for twenty-five men and was Yet how soon after he had written it must he have fallen a victim to Bright's disease. able to procure only a dozen is an indication that labor is not to be had about here Deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. with the same readiness that it could have Jennie M. Jackson, of Oakland, Md., and been procured a year ago, when twenone sister and three brothers, namely ty-five hundred men, more or less, Mrs. Geo. Brew, of Oakland, Md., and W. could have been gathered up on a moment's Fred, Harry and Maurice, all of Bellefonte. notice.

-John Cogan, an employee at Morris' Pike quarries, lost his little home by fire up at Snow Shoe Intersection several DIED ON MONDAY .- Mrs. Mary E weeks ago and as he has only one arm the Hoover died at her home on east High loss was a particularly serious one to him. street, this place, early last Monday morn-Realizing this his fellow workmen took up ing from the effects of a cancer in her stoma collection and gathered up more than $60 ach. Several weeks ago she was taken to for him. The donation was a very gracethe Lock Haven hospital to undergo an ful one and showed the charitable inclinaoperation, but once there it was found that tion of the men at the quarries toward an she could not hope to be benefited thereby unfortunate fellow workman. so she came home, where she sank rapidly

-Harry Caraher, the young Beech until death relieved her. Creek brakeman who was killed in the Mrs. Hoover's maiden name was Beck. wreck near Lock Haven on Saturday, was She was born in Spring township, April buried from his old home at Bald Eagle 13th, 1856, and is survived by the follow-Furnace on Monday. He leaves a widow ing relatives : Her mother Mrs. Catharine with three small children. A sad feature of Cramer, of Aurora, Ill.; her husband, John his death lies in the fact that he feared Hoover, of Spring Mills, and the following meeting with a fatal accident and had been children Ira and Herbert, of Maple Park, looking around for a less hazardous job for Ill.; Boyd, of Carrol, Clinton county ; Roy some time. and Brooks, of Spring Mills; Mrs. John

-----The Bellefonters who will turn their Eisenhuth, of Coburn ; Mrs. William Linoratorical guns loose on the surrounding gle, of Poe Mills, and Daisy, of Bellefonte. towns on Memorial day are: Col Wilbur One sister. Mrs. Verna Walters, of Aurora, F. Reeder, at Spring Mills and Millheim ; Ill., also survives and was present at her W. Harrison Walker, at Kylertown and sister's bedside when she died. Philipsburg ; David F. Fortney, at Cedar Rev. J. Womelsdorf, conducted the fu-Springs, Clinton county ; Capt. Hugh S. neral services at her house, Wednesday Taylor, at Howard ; Clement Dale, at Martha Furnace ; Rev. W. P. Shriner, at Union cemetery. Curtins Works, and John G. Love, at Milesburg.

wife of James M. Kimport, died at her Thomas Creighton, the young brakeman, home in Roncevert, West Virginia, on who was fatally injured at Castanea Saturday afternoon, was a nephew of Rev. Sam- Saturday, after a short illness with gastritis. Deceased was born at Curtins Works, uel Creighton, of Salona. The Creighton this county, October 14th, 1826. She brothers during the past several months, spent her girlhood there, but the greater have been singularly unfortunate. There were three of them. February 8th, Thomas had a hairs-breadth escape from death in burg, where Mr. Kimport was engaged in the terrible wreck at Gorton Heights. the clothing business. She was a devout Baptist and is survived by one daughter, Several weeks afterward, C. W. Creighton had his left arm crushed while coupling Mrs. Wiliiam H. Banks, of Huntingdon, W. Va. She was a sister of the late Mrs. cars, within a few miles of where Thomas was killed. On the same day that Charles John Curtin, of Bellefonte. Burial was was injured, his brother, John, had a leg made at Hollidaysburg on Monday after- and tonight a greater crowd than last cut off in an accident on a railroad in Ohio. noon.

E. church on St. Paul street, and then inwhen I finally got there I weighed only 80 lbs, in place of 150 lbs, but I am all right now. The only thing that I have to be careful about is The habe was 10 months old. my eating and to keep as quiet as possible. 1 am lapse after I get back into the mountains. Glad to know it, old friend, and to receive GEO. your pleasant words of commendation.

-S. B. Dennis writes from Sherman Heights, Tenn.: "I cannot get along I am going to stay here until I regain my health without the dear old WATCHMAN."

> -The annual rennion of the Clinton County Veteran's will be held on Thursday, August 16th, and if Agar's park near Lock Haven is not improved the reanion will be held at Hecla.

-At the meeting of the Board of field county. It went and four more runs

Pardons in Harrisburg the petition for the favor of the Academy when we left the Arrangements have already been begun to rehearing of the Cornelly case was granted have the body brought home immediately. and it will come up again at the next field and is it any wonder we accused the meeting of the Board.

at Clearfield.

final reception.

-Howard Pletcher, who has been as- 20 to 19. sistant to ticket agent H. L. Hutchinson of the P. R. R. in this place for some time, has been promoted to the position of agent

-The meeting of the State Teacher's survey. Association in Williamsport, July 3rd to 6th, inclusive, is expected to be the most grading will be a very serious one, as there largely attended and more interesting than is only a fall of two feet from one end to any previous gathering of that body.

over to a new ebannel that is to be -Hummel, the wretch who will be hanged in the Williamsport jail on June made along the P. R. R. tracks there 5th, has sold his body to a local theatrical will be considerable work. The repreman who has bargained to put up a new sentatives of F. H. Clement & Co., say suit for Hummel to be hanged in, provide that it will be pushed through with all a coffin for the body, and a grave for its possible speed.

"VERMONT" GREETED WITH A PACK- and Tuesday afternoon went to work with ED HOUSE.-Mr. Clifton Mallory and his a gang of scrapers. Under his direction large company of amateurs were greeted the work will go with a rush and already by a packed house at Garman's last night the place is beginning to look fair ground stick has a history that makes it a trophy that afternoon, and interment was made in the when they presented, for the first time in like. Bellefonte, Mr. Mallory's effective pastoral play "Vermont."

The story of the play is a very pretty were fishing for trout in Colby's Gap, on one, full of pathetic incidents, yet breezy Monday, they saw a bear going up the enough at times to give quite a wide and pleasing range of action. The cast includes until she stopped on the further bank of a Messrs. Hardman P. Harris, Russell Blair. small stream the men discovered three cubs Cap't. H. S. Taylor, James Harris, Misses up on a tree. Two of them stood guard Myra Holliday, Rose Fox, Mildred Smith, portion of her life was spent at Hollidays- Henrietta Butts and little Berenice Faxon and Berenice Haupt. Interspersed through her off one of the men was able to climb the play are numerous clever specialties the tree and get two of the cubs in the bag. introduced by the hundred or more young The third one fell to the ground and ran ladies and children who dance and sing off with its mother. and march with the grace of professionals.

"Vermont" has scored a hit in Bellefonte nights will probably be seen at Garman's. season baseman pulled his red cap down, cuspida Geo H Hile way quite frequently to visit his parental home ted on his hands and yelled "git together terment was made in the Union cemetery. fellows," to his men. The next thing that at Pleasant Gap, was in town on Monday on his way back to business after one of the little excurhappened some one knocked a pop fly into sions into the country that he seems to e niov so the air between second base and short much.

permanent-

stop, both went after it and when they got -George T. Bush. of the Bellefonte Lodge Nountangled the batter was sitting on the sec-268, F. & A. M.; King Bellefonte Chapter, No 241, R. A. M.; P. E. C. Constans Commandery, No. 33 ond bag instead of being out, as would K. T.; Williamsport Lodge of Perfection 140 and have been the case if they hadn't gotten Lulu Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. Philadelphia, hobnobed, this week, with other Knight Templars of together so beautifully. Then Mr. Wood, who had been looking the State at their annual conclave in Wilkesbarre. all the time as if he hadn't been receiving -Billy Hillibish dropped in from Pitts burg on the homage from the youngsters that they Tuesday morning to take a look at his home and invariably accord to the man who has friends here preparatory to leaving for Baltimore, which he did yesterday, to work on the big charge of the bill passing for the circus, contract which F. H. Clement & Co., have near expended. made a very pretty stop of a ball at third that city. Billy says the job will last about two and put enough steam into his throw to years, but he isn't certain whether he will last as first to send the ball clear over into Clearlong.

went in, also. The score was 13 to 1 in on Tuesday, having driven down to bring a wagon that he is having remodeled at the McQuistion & fellow of distorting the trath when told us bors in this place who stoutly asserted, when he brilliant as could be imagined. moved to the country, that they would visit him that the visitors finally won by the score of often, but none of them have showed up yet.

-Adam Bucher Esq., the prosperous Altoona lumberman who still has a kindly feeling for old WORK HAS BEGUN ON THE FAIR Centre county, was in town on Saturday on his GROUND .- Work was begun on the new way to spend Sunday with the family of Adam fair grounds at this place on Monday morn-Felty, at State College. Mr. Bucher was looking ing, when engineer F. W. McElroy and very well and talked delightfully of his recent Frank Shugert commenced making the trip to Oklahoma, though as a habitation he says ne prefers Pennsylvania.

It is not expected that the matter of -Jacob Bottorf Esq., of Lemont, was in town yesterday looking after building materials for the new house he is crecting on the site of the old stone mansion recently destroyed by fire on his the other of the lot, but in changing the farm near that place. The new house will be a modern frame structure, fitted throughout with course of the stream from its present one hard wood. While Mr. Bottorf deplores the de. struction of the old house we fancy he is rathe enjoying the little diversion of being a boss builder, after his thirty two years of continuous farm ing. -Capt. J. A. Hunter, of Stormstown, was in town on Tuesday carrying a very neat looking and substantial cane that had been worked out of Michael Conley was brought over from the Petersburg job on Monday oak and mounted with silver. To the ordinary observer the cane would not attract attention further than on account of the fine workmanship with which its octagonal shape is tapered from the head to the ferrule, but that substantial oak was made from a plank of the "Niagara" which became Commodore Perry's flag ship after he left the "Lawrence." The famous old craft of war ---- While John Meyers, Wallington Gillespie and Frank Henry, of Lock Haven, still lies where she was sunk after Perry's victory on Lake Erie and Dr. Wallace Hunter, who is a son of the Captain, being surgeon of the port of Erie, was presented with enough wood from the mountain ahead of them. Following bruin hull of the "Niagara" as would make a cane for his father. It is genuine, because divers took it from the hull of the sunken craft and Dr. Hunter stood guard over the man who shaped it up so that no substitution would be made. The cane is a while the other went for a gun and a bag very proper trophy for Capt. Hunter, since his and by shooting at the old mother to keep | father, John Hunter, was a sergeant in Harrison's army when they were busy on the lake front at Erie building the crude crafts of war that gave Perry's name an eternal place in history.

-Rev. M. George, of Sharon, Pa., was -The Spigelmyer home on Howard back to visit his old congregation, the Re-street is to be extensively improved this formeds at Rebersburg last Sunday. He preached to them in the morning.

at the breast of the Phoenix mill dam on -Former treasurer John Q. Miles was in town Friday morning. It weighed about 21bs. and was one of the prettiest trout we have Co. shops in this place. John says he hasn't seen in a long time; having lived in the much faith in the promises of his former neigh- deep water its coloring was as rich and #### Announcement.

We are authorized to announce J. W. Kepler, of Ferguson township, as a candidate for the nomination for Assembly; subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.*

We are authorized to announce J. H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, as a candidate of the Legislature subject to the decision of the Democratic county invention.

We are authorized to announce Robt. M. Foste as a candidate for Legislature subject to the decis-ion of the Democratic County Convention.

We are authorized to announce John W. Conley, of Potter township, as a candidate for Assem-oly, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red  $38^{3}_{4}@411^{2}_{4}$  $38^{3}_{4}@411^{2}_{4}$ orn -Mixed Dats. - Winter, Per Br'l...

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Buckwheat, per bushe Bloverseed, per bushel .$4 00 to $6 00

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

- otatoes per bushel ons. Eggs, per dozen.... Lard, per pound.... Country Shoulders
- Sides..... Hams..... 6 to 7
- Tallow, per pound Butter, per pound.

8 50 to 9 50