Because George Fisher, a Lehigh Valley freight handler, washed his face rather vigor- ously Monday morning before breakfast, he came near bleeding to death. He was rub- bing the skin under his left eye, when sud- denly he felt a warm stream running down his face, and in an instant discovered that it was blood. The red fluid spurted out in such volume that Fisher became alarm- ed when he found that he could not stop the flow. A carriage was hastily summoned and he was rapidly driven to the Fitch Hospital. When he arrived there he was weak and was fairly drenched with blood. The surgeons discovered that he was suf- fering from a spontaneous rupture of the infraorbital artery, which is situated just below the eye. The ends of the artery were gathered up and rejoined. — Buffalo Evening News. All She Had Time to see.	Reduced Rates to Chicago. Mrs. Blank—Yes. Detective—Ah we're getting on the track of them! What kind of a horse was it? Mrs. Blank—They were driving so fast I didn't notice that. But the woman had on a Scotch mohair and wool jacket of tur- quoise blue, last year's style, with stitched lines, a white pique skirt with deep circu- lar flounce, a satin straw hat, tilted and rather flat, trimmed with hydrangeas and loops of pale bluesurah, and her hair was done up pompadour. That's all I had time to see. — Chicago Tribune.	Reduced Rates to Chicago. Via Pennsylvania Railroad for the National Prohibi- tion Convention, June 27th-28th. Because George Fisher, a Lehigh Valley freight handler, washed his face rather vigor- ously Monday morning before breakfast, he came near bleeding to death. He was rub- bing the skin under his left eye, when sud- denly he felt a warm stream running down his face, and in an instant discovered that it was blood. The red fluid spurted out in such volume that Fisher became alarm- ed when he found that he could not stop the flow. A carriage was hastily summoned and he was rapidly driven to the Fitch Hospital. When he arrived there he was weak and was fairly drenched with blood. The surgeons discovered that he was suf- fering from a spontaneous rupture of the infraorbital artery, which is situated just below the eye. The ends of the artery were gathered up and rejoined. — Buffalo Evening News. All She Had Time to see. Detective—Did you see a man and wo man drive past here in a buggy about an hour ago?
