

A petition for free mail delivery from Pennsylvania Furnace to this place is being circulated and generally signed. The proposed route will do away with the Rock Springs and Fairbrook post offices and will embrace all the territory east of the Glades road to J. B. Mitchell's farm.

Mrs. Mary Bottorf has returned from an enjoyable visit at Williamsport and Adamsburg. At Williamsport she was the guest of her brother Jonathan Hess who is much improved in health, while at Adamsburg she visited her friend Mrs. Amelia Koch Dreese, formerly of this county.

Miss Mary Ward is at home from Altoona, where she has been connected for the past year with one of the big department stores. She is at home to help arrange for a reunion of the family which is in honor of Dr. Todd Ward, who is coming home from the Klondike with a bride, as well as a big heap of the yellow nugget.

Musser Krebs, the little son of merchant O. B. Krebs, while playing about the yard, one day last week, fell and almost bit his tongue off. Dr. Woods was obliged to put him under the influence of chloroform before he could stitch it together but it is healing nicely and gives no evidence of being stiff.

Exra Tressler and William and James Swab, three of Harris township's Democratic pillars, spent Monday with J. W. P. Kepler and assured him of a big Democratic vote in Harris township. They are as gay a trio as one would want to meet and what they don't know about politics down in their precinct is not worth knowing.

Centre Hall.

W. Gross Mingle went to York, Tuesday, on business and pleasure.

The Sunday schools of Centre Hall will hold a Union picnic in Conley's grove Thursday of next week.

The performance in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" tent show was quickly dismissed Wednesday night by a sharp thunder clap.

Wm. B. Fischer, son of Rev. Dr. W. E. Fischer, of Shamokin, is the guest of the Wolf family for a few days.

Rev. J. M. Bearick is attending a Bible reading at Eagles Mere and will be absent until the latter part of next week.

Miss Elsie Geiss has recovered from a brief illness. Her father, D. K. Geiss, is at present ill with symptoms of typhoid fever.

P. F. Keller attended the funeral of his brother, David W. Keller, who died in Los Angeles, Cal., and was buried in Abaline, Kansas, on the 8th inst.

Misses Lizzie and Katie Keller fell heir to the property of David W. Keller, whose death is noticed elsewhere, consisting of a neat life insurance and personal effects.

W. F. Bradford and wife are in New York on a pleasure trip. In Mr. Bradford's absence W. A. Odenkir is taking charge of the Centre Hall railroad station which he can do well.

D. A. Boozer is in Philadelphia at present, having gone there with his little daughter, Edith, who returned to a private institution for the winter after her first vacation in five years. The child is learning rapidly.

George Flory, one of our good, reliable citizens, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock and will be buried Saturday morning from the Evangelical church here. He was sixty-five years of age, a loyal Democrat and a useful upright man.

Ex-commissioner James B. Strohm has been elected to teach the Grammar grade of the borough schools. The board is confident that it made a good selection in Mr. Strohm, who is a man generally well informed and has earned an excellent reputation as a teacher. The principalship is still vacant.

David W. Keller died at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., on the 30th ult., and was buried at Abaline, Kan., on the 8th inst. The deceased was a son of William Keller, deceased, of this place, and was aged fifty-six years. Twenty years ago he went to Abaline where he engaged in the baking and grocery business. Later he moved further west to Sacramento and in 1893 located at Los Angeles where he conducted a cigar and tobacco store. The deceased leaves two brothers, Peter F. Keller, of this place, and Dr. Will Keller, of Clearfield county.

Mrs. Elizabeth Decker, wife of Michael J. Decker, died at her home east of Centre Hall after a brief illness. The interment took place Thursday at Sprucetown from the Methodist church, the church of her faith. Mrs. Decker was the daughter of Jacob and Nancy Stahl, and was born in Crawford township, Clinton county, Sept. 7th, 1837. Her marriage to Mr. Decker took place in Millheim, October 17th, 1860, and to the union there was born six children, namely, Annie W., Barbara E., Francis W., Anna May, James L., and Maurice J., all of whom survive their mother. Barbara E. is the wife of U. A. Bearick, of Centre Hall, and Anna May is the wife of Hiram Lee, of Potter township.

The subject had been in delicate health for some time.

Education.

NOT AN ORDINARY SCHOOL. When Williamsport Dickinson Seminary was founded, money making was not in the thought of its promoters. To give young men and women thorough intellectual and moral training at the lowest possible cost was its paramount aim. It remains its paramount aim. Buildings have been added, equipment increased, the faculty enlarged, but WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY is still true to its first principles. It is a Home and Christian school. It provides for health and social culture as carefully as for mental and moral training, taking a personal interest in each pupil, and adjusting methods to need, believing that true education seeks to develop the highest types of manhood. A splendid field, with athletics directed by a trained athlete, make ball field and gymnasium of real value. Swimming pool for all. Single beds for ladies. Nine regular courses, with elective studies, offer wide selection. Six competitive scholarships are offered. Seventeen skilled teachers classify and instruct, making school work other than drudgery. Music, Art, Expression and Physical Culture, with other branches or alone, under teachers with best home and European training. Home, with tuition in regular studies, $250.00 a year, with discounts to ministers, ministerial candidates, teachers, and two from same family. Fall term opens September 10th, 1900. Catalogue free. A CENTENNIAL FORERUNNER!

Centennial will be celebrated in Bellefonte in honor of Centre County's rooth Anniversary, but a still Greater Celebration for the benefit of the people will be held from JUNE 26th until our complete stock consisting of Clothing and Furnishing Goods has been sold. It is not a sale of old goods, but this stock has been bought new this spring and is strictly up-to-date. Why are we anxious to sell a new stock? Because we have not the capital to carry this stock over, and Fall Goods will soon be here and we need room. We also want to get acquainted with you rather than have the money remain in this stock, pay storage, and next year have old goods. Everything will and must be sold for and below cost. There will be only one motto maintained during the sale which is "Cash at any Price." Below we quote you a few prices:

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

MEN'S SUITS. In Stripes, Checks, Blues and blacks that formerly sold for $7.00 and $8.00, must GO AT $4.98.

Also some better ones you can't afford to miss at $6.48 AND $8.79.

Some pretty Crash Suits, Coats and extra Pants at prices far below their actual value.

BOY'S SUITS. The Famous Grindstone Brand with double seat and knees, in three piece and two piece suits. Your $1.48 takes the ones that formerly sold for $1.90 and $2.25, and still some better ones for $1.98. $2.79 AND $3.44.

YOUTH'S SUITS.

The latest novelties in FANCY WORSTEDS, SERGES and BASKET WEAVES. During this sale will sell them from $4.98 UP.

CHILDREN'S SUITS. The pretty Vestee and Blouse Wool Suits with extra fancy vests; such pretty colors and designs. We price them as follows: $1.48, $1.89, $2.47 and $3.62, and those pretty Sailor Wash Suits you mothers have been copying from, will start at 45 CENTS.

In Clothing they will be sold just as they are and alterations such as making shorter, narrower, etc., will be at the buyers expense. Most of the above Clothing is in odd sizes and broken lots left over from the great 40 per cent. reduction sale.

FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT.

STRAW HATS. The latest novelties in rough and smooth Straw Hats for men start at 19 cents. In Working Hats you pay 9 and 14c. The Boy's pretty Sailors and Rough Riders' sell AT 19c AND 39c. Whole line must be cleaned out now

FELT HATS. For Young Men, in Crush and Alpine; former price $1.50, now go at 98 CENTS.

Space and ink is very precious and will have to end in quoting prices, but everything will be sold in the same proportion as above. Remember everything must be sold regardless of cost or profit. During this sale everything will be conducted in the same old way of "Fairness and Squareness." You certainly can profit by giving us a chance. Do not forget that this sale is now going on and where it is held.

UNDERWEAR. Balbrigan in plain, stripes and Blue Shirts with long or short sleeves and drawers with double seat go at 45c AND 90c. A SUIT.

SHIRTS. Percales that formerly sold for 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00 will go at 19c, 39c, 69c and 79c. Also in silk fronts at 39c, 69c and 79c. Our shirt line is the prettiest and largest ever shown before.

TIES. Those pretty English Squares and Batwing Shapes that we have made such a run at 50c and 25c sell for 39 AND 19 CENTS.

HOSIERY. In those "loud stripes," neater patterns, and drop-stitch sell for 11c, 19c and 29c.
