Prof. Hower has resigned his position as principal of the Boalsburg high school and Sunday with her husband here. The Smiths will move to Lewistown, where he has accepted a similar position at a better salary. The professor and his family have been residents of Boalsburg but several years but in the auditorium next Sunday morning, and in that time they made many friends in and | and in the evening a graduate of Tokio Uniout of town who are sorry to learn of their departure. Prof. Bryson, of Watsontown, has been elected Prof. Hower's successor.

After weeks of search he found the flock at James Peters' and, strange to say, not a single bird of the sixty-one was lost in all that long scramble of many miles.

CUPID AGAIN.-Walter O'Bryan, of State College, and Wilhelmina Livingston, were married in Tyrone on the 1st inst. The reason given by the wily widower for brought about by force of circumstances, journeying so far away to get his life boat launched upon the wide sea of matrimony the benefit therefrom. was in fulfillment of a promise that if he made up his mind to marry the ceremony would be a profound secret. We need not comment on the groom, as he is a retired farmer of the highest character with means sufficient to maintain a wife in comfort and even luxury. Mrs. Livingston, the bride, is well known here; having lived here many years and is a most agreeable lady. She is the owner of a beautiful home on Church street, where the newly married couple are spending their honeymoon and receiving con-

The Bailey field was crowded with sporting folks to witness the ball game last Saturday afternoon played by the Bellefonte team and our "Hay Seeds" who played a wide awake game so that no one went to sleep. No one ever suspected that "buckwheats" would win so easily, especially when first base Krebs was playing with an unjointed finger. The score tallied 19 to 5 in favor of Pine Grove. Business is booming at Siding 36. The Synders are shipping two cars weekly. Samuel Alter, the High-valley chairman, opened the campaign on Saturday. He is a red hot Bryan man. As Henry Snyder was seen lately with a fly net on his back it is supposed that he was on his way to Ingleby to join the fly fighters of that place. Blackberries are so plenty that they have completely killed the huckleberry sale and pickers say that even they won't pay the From all appearances there is a bed bug war threatened in High valley. It is rumored that one family were driven clear out

C. M. Styers was a welcome visitor in the valley Sunday. He came over from his home at Mackeyville to visit his aged mother, who is living on the old homestead here.

The Inglebyers are a set of good fellows. Not a drop of lazy blood runs through their veins, but this weather has proved a knockout for them. The other day we caught one of their berry picking outfits hung up in the shade, fighting flies while Galer was breaking a pair of twenty-year old colts.

Saturday the High-valleyites and the Inglebyers all went to James Treaster's sale, where everything sold brought a good price. The scribe from Coburn proved a first class bidder, but we didn't see whether he got the baby coach or not. The Rankletown boys were all at the sale and are a very lively set.

Education.

NOT AN ORDINARY SCHOOL

When Williamsport Dickinson Seminary was founded, money making was not in the thought of its promoters. To give young men and women thorough intellectual and moral training at the lowest possible cost was its paramount aim. It remains its paramount aim. Buildings have been added, equipment increased, the faculty enlarged, but is still true to its first principles. It is a Home and Christian school. It provides for health and social culture as carefully as for mental and moral training, taking a personal interest in each pupil, and adjusting methods to need, believing that true education seeks to develop the highest types of manhood. A splendid field, with athletics directed by a trained athlete, make ball field and gymnasium of real value. Swimming pool for all. Single beds for ladies. Nine regular courses, with elective studies, offer wide selection. Six competitive scholarships are offered. Seventeen skilled teachers classify and instruct, making school work other than drudgery. Music, Art, Expression and Physical Culture, with other branches or alone, under teachers with best home and European training. Home, with tuition in regular studies, $250.00 a year, with discounts to ministers, ministerial candidates, teachers, and two from same family. Fall term opens September 10th, 1900. Catalogue free.
