THE VETERANS TO PICNICK AT HECLA.

The executive committee of the Centre Co. Veterans' Club met in W. H. Musser's office, in this place, on Saturday. There was nearly a full attendance. President James A. Beaver was in the chair.

The principal business transacted was to over-ride the action of the Club, taken at Centre Hall last year, at which time it was decided to hold the next annual reunion at Hunter's park. Hecla park and Saturday, September 5th, were selected as the place and time. Gen. Beaver was appointed a committee of one to secure speakers. Gen. John I. Curtin was made a committee on transportation and W. H. Musser and S. B. Miller, a committee on privileges and arrangements.

On Saturday evening, August 18th, the members of the Coleville Methodist chapel will hold a festival at the chapel. Ice cream, cake and fruit will be served. The Methodists out at Coleville are deserving of a large patronage. They need all they can make in this way for their chapel and if at all possible you should turn out and help them.

The time for holding the Bellefonte Methodist picnic at Hecla park has been changed. Instead of having it on Thursday, August 30th, as previously decided, it has been changed to Friday, August 24th. The change was made on account of the business men's picnic coming on the 29th and it was deemed inadvisable to have the Methodist picnic next day.

The date for the Bellefonte Methodist picnic at Hecla park has been changed to Friday, August 24th.

Philipburg.

Miss Elizabeth Hassinger left, Wednesday, for Philadelphia, where she will resume her duties in one of the leading millinery establishments.

W. F. Bair and family are attending the campmeeting held at Susquehanna park, near Mahaffey. Mr. Bair is leading the singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Guss, and Mrs. Ed Jones of town, and Mrs. H. Gibbons, of Denver, Col., left, Thursday morning, for Atlantic City.

An infant child of William Jackson the baggage master on the New York Central died Friday afternoon. The internment took place Sunday afternoon.

The Bigler Campmeeting Association will hold its 17th annual encampment on their ground near Bigler, commencing Aug. 24th and continuing ten days.

The wooden bridge which crosses the Moshannon to Ophir mines was burned Saturday evening. The fire caught from forest fires raging in that vicinity that day.

Mrs. Joseph Harris, of Hawk Run, succumbed to an attack of typhoid fever early Saturday morning. She left a sorrowing husband and seven children to mourn her demise.

During the Fireman's Convention all railroads will run specials, which, doubtless, will bring many hundreds of visitors to town to enjoy the several days' amusement being prepared for the occasion.

Mr. David Orelbig, for many years freight agent of the P. R. R. at Hontzdale, has accepted a lucrative position with the wholesale J. G. Platt, of this place. We welcome the gentleman to our town.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of water in the neighborhood of Hawk Run the typhoid fever has become epidemic, and attending physicians have ordered all the water to be boiled before drinking.

Thomas Moriarty, a very popular miner, died at his home in Hawk Run early Friday morning after a brief illness of two days, a victim of cholera morbus. He leaves a wife and seven children, mostly grown up.

On Sunday Aug. 19th the New York Central will run a special excursion train to the Susquehanna Park camp meeting, near Mahaffey now in session there. The train will leave here at 8 a. m. and arrive at the campground at 10.47 a. m.

While watching a game of ball, on Saturday afternoon, Fred Wolfe, a lad of fourteen, was struck by a foul ball in the eye, knocking him down and seriously injuring that member. He was carried home in a semi-conscious condition. Fortunately the sight was not affected by the blow.

William K. Goss has gone to Johnstown for a season to accept a job at carpentering with good wages.

S. C. Miller and wife have gone to Mt. Joy where Mr. Miller has accepted the principalship of the High school.

Dr. Harry Arcey has closed his dental rooms in Wilkesbarre for a ten day's rest with his mother here. He is accompanied by his wife.

Wm. Beck is off duty this week on account of a splinter which penetrated his hand and is causing him some sleepless nights.

Miss Margaret Snyder returned to her home in McVeytown after enjoying a very pleasant visit of two weeks at the homes of her brother, Charles and Henry Snyder.

In some manner we got a little mixed in our facts, last week, concerning Mrs. Krebs' moving. O. B. Krebs did not move and his sister Linnie and Orion will assume the care of their aged grandmother.

Clarence Lemon, who has been down in Maryland for some time prospering and holding up the dollars, has written to Mrs. Lemon to pack their belongings and join him, so she is moving this week.

We are glad to note the improvement of Mrs. Esther Grazer, widow of the late Joseph Grazer. She is one of the oldest women in this part of the county and her recovery is a great gratification to her friends.

Rev. John C. McCracken, of Johnstown, who is recreating at his father's home in the Glades, ably filled the Presbyterian pulpit here last Sunday. He made a very favorable impression on his hearers by his earnest discourse on "True Faith."

Mrs. Mary Schatzer, of Altoona, is spending a week with her aged mother on Main street.

The campers are crowding into the old saw mill for a two weeks' picnic in the Shingle town gap. Most of the party are from Altoona and are in quest of pure air, better health and a gay time but a register will be kept and lots of visitors are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aikens, of Bellefonte, and their guest Mrs. Jans, of Harrisburg, drove up from the county capitol this week to spend a day at the parsonage, where they were heartily welcomed. Luther Musser, of Missouri, and his mother, Mrs. Tillie Musser, of Altoona, were among the guests there that day.

Squire Keller, who temporarily moved to Pittsburgh some months ago, is back home. Three dollars a day was the inducement that took him, but his bank account is pretty well stocked up now and with his official duties will be able to ward off the wolf from the door 'till after Byron is elected at least.

Then he is anticipating the postmastership. Mrs. Sallie Chadman Martin, of Lancaster, is visiting her uncle at the old Kepler home for the first time since her wedding trip. It is some years since she was a winsome little girl here but her affability is just as evident as ever. She is on her way home from visiting her mother in Conneaut, O., and her white hair with her youthful face and eyes make her a very distinguished looking personage.

Dr. Todd Ward, of Chicago, and his bride are enjoying their honeymoon with his mother and family here on Main street. When the Klondyke fever was at its height the doctor gave up his dental practice in Chicago and started prospecting for the yellow metal in Alaska. How much he got we are not privileged to tell but all you have to do is to look at him to know that it was a considerable pile for he is so well kept and clothed. His love for the old Keystone state is reasserting itself for he would like to stay here and is looking about for a suitable location.

Philadelphia.

P. H. Stover can beat Coburn for tall corn stalks. Some of his are 10 ft high, but he says they forgot to ear.

The Coburn drum major is still to be seen, full of fun as ever, and ready, on a moment's notice, to call out his infantry.

Penns creek is so low that ducks can cross it without wetting their feet and if rain doesn't come soon Mr. Colby will have to lay away his fishing tackle.

It is rumored that Sam Reop will move to the first tunnel. If it proves so they ought certainly to have good times down at Rankletown, as he is a man that likes every comfort.

Uncle Abe said he never saw Sam Alter so full of talk as he was on Saturday and was surprised until I saw the WATCHMAN sticking out of his side pocket, then I knew the cause.

Business is a little slack at 38. Only one car was shipped last week and Henry Hontz, the siding boss, is complaining because of the dullness. Just wait until next week, Henry, then the Eisenhuths will take hold.

We read quite frequently about the brag peach orchards in other sections but the one owned by Messrs. Walter and Keister in our valley beats them all. Not just because we say so, but judges from a distance who have been here say so. One of them remarked that to have a peach orchard in such a nice and growing condition it must certainly be a Bryan district. That's so, gentlemen, and it stands to reason that where there is no rubbish there is always growing land.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The editor of The Century is receiving inquiries about the author of "The Helmet of Navarre," the historical romance which began to appear serially in the August number of that magazine. Miss Bertha Runkle is the only child of Mrs. L. C. Runkle, a well known New York journalist, and one of the editors of the "Library of the World's Best Literature." The present work is a maiden effort a fiction writing. She was born in New Jersey a few and twenty years ago, never went to kindergarten as a child, nor to college as a young woman, has traveled little, and has never been in France—wholly possibly accounts for her laying there the scene of her romance.
