

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. J. B. Mitchell was in Bellefonte Monday transacting business. Miss Sadie Heberling is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever. Miss Sadie Dannelly, of State College, spent Sunday with her mother here. A reunion of the Burchfield family was the attraction yesterday at their Shingletown camp. Miss Sophia Hunter returned to her home at State College last week, after a short visit at the Mitchell home. Misses Edith and Mabel Sankey, of Potter's Mills, are being entertained at post-master Hess' cosy home. Mrs. Maria McWilliams and her daughter, of Philadelphia, are at the Bailey home for a two week's stay. Mrs. D. H. Kustaborder, who has been sick for some time with rheumatism, is now suffering with typhoid fever. Mrs. Marks and Mrs. McFarlane are here from Baltimore for a month's visit with their cousin, Mrs. Aikens, at the parsonage. Lowell A. Smith is visiting friends at Pottery and Spring Mills, although in poor health he is having a very good time. The entrance examination for the township high school will be held in the Academy building on Monday Sept. 3rd. The showers with which the thirsty land about here has been refreshed this week were not more than sufficient to lay the dust. J. F. Gearhart has started a hydraulic cinder press south of town, where he hopes to grind up all the apples in this section into cider. Dr. J. Baker Krebs, of Northumberland, and his wife are enjoying a ten days visit with his friends here and at Centre Line, Mrs. Krebs' home. Dr. Frank W. Bailey was up from West Milton to attend the picnic Saturday and incidentally replenished his purse by making a set of grinders. Mrs. Birdie Musser Rudey and her two bright boys are from Millburg for an extended stay with her girlhood friends and acquaintances. Misses Margaret and Rosalie McCormick, daughters of Dr. McCormick, of Hubersburg, are enjoying a visit with Pine Grove and Pine Hall friends. Piersal O'Bryan and his wife came over from State College Sunday to visit his newly married father and get acquainted with his step mother. Miss Mary Pennington, who is the proprietor of a large millinery establishment in Lebanon, and Miss May Taylor, of Bellefonte, are guests at D. G. Meek's splendid home. Harvest home services will be held in the Pine Hall Lutheran church on Sunday at the regular preaching hour. Rev. Aikens will conduct the services here on the evening of Sept. 2nd. Charles Clifford the four month old son of James and Ellen Rider died on Saturday night of convulsions. Internment was made at Gatesburg on Monday at 10 o'clock, with Rev. Aikens officiating. Last week the W. H. Musser insurance agency drew a check in favor of Wm. Brouse to the amount of one thousand and sixty dollars to cover the loss by fire of his house and goods that were insured at $1450. George W. Bolinger is engaging pickers to gather and pack his crop of peaches which is expected to yield fifteen hundred bushels. Many of them will be ripe by Sept. 1st, so send in your orders early. Mrs. Isabella Thomas Zimmerman, of Kansas, well known here, is suffering from a paralytic stroke which effected her right side. She was much prostrated by the news of Mr. J. B. Mitchell's death, in whose home she was raised and treated as a daughter. Ground is being broken for the foundation of a gasoline engine to run the mill. Rumor says, the gas will be furnished by the post office across the way, but it is the general impression that it will take all the gas the post office can generate to keep the stalwarts in line from this until election time. Harry and Maud Markle are mourning the death of their only son, George Jacob, who passed away at their home, just north of State College, on last Friday night, aged one year, 7 months and 12 days. He was buried in the Meyers graveyard on Sunday morning at 12 o'clock, with Rev. Smith officiating. The picnic, last Saturday, at Baileyville, was a howling success. Indeed the crowd was so great one almost imagined it a centennial. The Baileyville band furnished plenty of music and there were loads of good things to eat. The Gobeans, Gardner and McWilliams treated us royally and they will please consider our hat off for that dinner. The races resulted in A. M. Brown's Croesus easily winning first prize. Borloma, owned by Ed. L. Irvin, carried off the second honors. The bicycle race, however, did not end so fortunately for Ralph Grazer stopped suddenly and James Eckley coming full tilt behind him turned a complete flipper and received a lot of scratches. Grazer did not escape so easily, for he was carried off the field with his leg broken below the knee. Everything was sold out long before night, so there was no need of a festival. The P. O. S. of A. cleared $225, with the picnic.

WASHINGTON GRANGE—The mid summer meeting of Centre county Pomona Grange was held in Washington Grange hall at Pine Hall on Tuesday. The weather did not smile propitiously for the meeting but it was so favorable for the crops that there was a general rejoicing. At 10 o'clock the hall was well filled, Victor Grange being especially well represented. The morning session was devoted to the usual routine of business with reports from the various committees. The merits of the different kinds of steam engines used by threshers was thoroughly discussed and in the discussion the Hon. Leonard Rhone and Col. Weaver took an active part. At twelve o'clock a most tempting lunch was served by the ladies of the Grange, which was enjoyed by everyone. The afternoon session was devoted chiefly to the interests of the Grange picnic and fairs, which will be held at Centre Hall and from present indications will be a first class exhibit of stock, poultry, implements etc. The fall meeting of the Grange will be held at Centre Hall in Nov. The Pine Hall Grange hall has recently been repaired and painted by Mr. Curtis, of Larnar, and a new carpet is to be purchased soon.

Millheim.

Mrs. Lewis Gettig, of Bellefonte, spent the week at the home of J. H. B. Hartman. Willie Weiser, of Altoona, is visiting his uncle, Mr. W. R. Weiser, of this place. Mr. John Reighard, of Shamokin, Sunday-ed with his sister, Mrs. Edward Manch. Miss Margaret St. Clair, of Corry, Pa., was the guest of Miss Maud Musser over Sunday. Mr. Jerry Kern and wife are guests at the home of Mr. Kern's mother on North street. Mrs. Cora Bowman, of Chicago, accompanied by her family, is visiting friends and relatives in and about Millheim. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bollinger, of Bridge-water, S. D., were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stover this week. George Tobias, having secured a position as attendant in the state hospital at Harrisburg, left for that place Monday morning. Miss Sarah Moyer, of Centre Mills, left Tuesday afternoon for Danville, where she has procured employment as a teacher in the public schools. The town council has ordered a new crossing to be built across Penn street from Centre street. The material is on the ground and the work will be completed by the end of the week. It is strange that a town like Coburn can decide to have a good supply of water in a few short months while the people of Millheim have agitated the question for years and are still without it. It is said that Mr. Henry Miller, of town, intends writing a book entitled, "The Woes of a Public Official." As the gentleman has had a long (?) and varied (?) experience he will doubtless be able to do his subject ample justice.

Philipsburg.
Frank Gulliver, of Peale, spent Sunday in town with friends. Work on the remodeling of the M. E. church is progressing rapidly. Mrs. G. W. Wise is home, after a month's visit with relatives in DuBois. The new Reliance Fire Co., building on Presquele street is rapidly approaching completion. The excursion to Williamsport last Saturday was very well patronized from here and surrounding towns. The bridge destroyed by fire on the Ophir mine branch has been repaired and the mines are again in operation. We regret that W. H. Denlinger is contemplating moving his family to Patton in the early fall, where they will make their future home. There was no service in the Lutheran church last Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor, Rev. Bright, who is taking a brief vacation. Mrs. Schurman and daughters Katherine and Mary, arrived home last week from a six weeks visit with relatives in the eastern part of the State. Mr. and Mrs. James Stott, took in the special excursion to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. They returned home Saturday, having had a very enjoyable trip. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hoffer left last Thursday for a ten days run to Atlantic City and Philadelphia. Lawyer W. D. Crosby is also among the seashore sojourners this week. The council have decided to repair some of the very bad walks. Some say this is preparatory to getting free delivery. This is not clear, in view of the decrease in the postal receipts in the office here. Nearly all business places had their buildings elaborately decorated for the firemen's convention. All the hostilities made great preparation and served the crowds in attendance very satisfactorily. Grant Way, who was transferred from the P. R. R. repair shops here to Tyrone in the early spring has been transferred back again and will take up his residence here as soon as he can secure a suitable home. During the severe electric storm on Monday afternoon lightning struck the barn of Duke Coplin, on 4th street, knocking a large hole through the roof and otherwise damaging the building. Fortunately the teams were not in the stable at that time. John Russell, accompanied by his wife, left Monday morning for a two weeks stay in New York State. They will visit the birth place of Mrs. Russell, at Acron, twenty miles east of Buffalo, taking in the great sights at Niagara Falls, Toronto and Rochester.

High Valley
Frank Allen has sold the grey pacer and is now ready to make arrangements for the wedding. The berries are all picked and the pickers are out of something to do now until the chestnut crop comes on. Andrew Harter, our ex-postmaster, is what we call a genuine Bryan man. He offers to bet $100 that Bryan will be the next President. Will Alter, the champion miner, says that mining is hard work, but if he was digging for a well of "Eby's Best" then it would be different. A. F. Stover is dealing in Michigan cedar shingles and we would advise all in need of them to call on him. He is a Bryan man and keeps no poor stock. Sheriff Brungard was at Coburn on Saturday waiting on a train west. He is about as lively as when he was selling steak and bologna in Millheim. The bed bug war is over. They have left the valley and established headquarters at Ingleby. It is rumored that they are planning a siege of Rankletown. The real estate agent passed Siding 36 the other day with a plug hat and stand-up collar on. What he was after I could not say, but it is rumored that he was buying a car load of fitch to send to Cambria county. Wm. Harter, the extensive lime burner of Pine Creek Mills, wants to know what has become of the High Valley news. All he needs to do to get it is to send 30c. for the campaign or $1 for a whole year's subscription to the WATCHMAN. There seems to be no fence law in effect in this valley and it is full of cattle. Everyone is welcome to pasture here. We have no high protection fences built up and the poor man can have his butter and milk as well as the trust fattened bond holder.

Death Loved a Little Star.
It is said that death loves a bright mark and this is certainly true, with reference to its claim made on little Benjamin Franklin, the infant son of J. C. and Mary Hunter, who was taken so early in life, on the evening of Aug. 5th, 1900, aged almost eleven months. Dearest baby we will miss you, As no more we hear your voice; But we must consider that you were the Saviors' choice. You have gone beyond life's journey, Where it is forever bright; And we know the angels found a place for you that night. How we miss you, little darling, But we know you were God's claim; And our earnest prayer is that we will meet again.

Books, Magazines, Etc.
A GREAT PICTURE OF BIRDS.—It would seem impossible, in view of the many successes scored by the Philadelphia Sunday Press to excel in the free distribution of art souvenirs, yet that will be the fact. The subject to be given free to every reader of next Sunday's Press is a beautiful "Bird Panel." It portrays a variety of birds faithfully and delicately reproduced in their natural colors, which will make for the picture a permanent place in our homes. The work is by the great French painter, M. Giacomelli, whose paintings of birds, insects and small animals are famous the world over. To make sure of getting this great souvenir you should order next Sunday's Press from your newsdealer at once.
