

Fine Weather for the Grangers.

Fair weather and fair crowds for the Grangers—Exhibits below the average but the Farmers are happy all the same. Thursday was the Banner Day.

For once in a number of years the fates have been propitious to the Grangers and they are having fine weather for their twenty-seventh annual picnic and exhibition at Grange Park this week. It is a little cool at night, 'tis true, but the frost in the air only keeps things moving all the more.

Sunday was cloudy and threatening looking, but the best came out of it and if ever there were ideal fall days Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were such, while Thursday was far above the average Granger picnic weather.

The grounds show that improvement that is to be expected and can only be accomplished in time. The trees have grown larger, there are more tents for the public use and a few permanent stands have been added since the last picnic. The prolonged drouth has shown its effect in the brown grass and extremely dusty walks, but withal, the park looks pretty and from the mountain top resembles a white capped sea, with its rows of tents, over which flutter hundreds of flags and the pennants of all the States.

The grounds were opened on Saturday and many of those holding tents arrived that day in order to make an entire week of the outing. Not until Sunday, however, was there a formal gathering. At 2 o'clock that afternoon Rev. Schuyler, of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church, conducted the anniversary and harvest home services in the auditorium, delivering a very able sermon for the occasion.

Monday was a day of preparation. More campers arrived, exhibitors were busy arranging their displays and the "Midway" was a veritable hive of industry, while the pink lemonade, four headed pig, Paris upside down and other catchy penny schemes were being set up for business. That night the Williamsport Vaudeville Co. held forth in the auditorium and by the time it was through everyone was tired enough for bed.

On Tuesday Master Geo. Dale conducted the formal opening services for the Centre County Pomona Grange. Addresses were delivered by Col. Jas. F. Weaver, of Milesburg, I. S. Frain, of Abdera, and other prominent Grangers. That night there was more vaudeville. There was a small crowd present on Tuesday, more than on the same day last year, but hardly enough to start the fakirs barking on the "Midway," consequently it was a quiet day in the camp.

WEDNESDAY, THE FIRST BIG DAY. It was cold Wednesday morning. Jack Frost had paid his first visit to the county the night before and it was some time before the people on the grounds got thawed out, but they were cheerful and happy by the time the first trains began to arrive with their loads of visitors. It was a glorious morning, just such an one as is sung of in the story of Barbara Fritchie, but there were no rebel hordes winding down into Grange Park. Thousands of visitors, all good natured and eager for a day's amusement, were streaming in so that by noon the crowd was estimated at from twenty-five hundred to three thousand people.

At 10 o'clock in the morning there was a meeting of delegations from the subordinate Granges over which worthy overseer G. L. Ebbes was to have presided, but in his absence Col. Jas. F. Weaver made a very acceptable chairman.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Hon. W. F. Hill, of Crawford county, master of the State Grange, spoke and Mrs. Helen Johnson followed him with a pleasing talk that made the audience forget that state secretary Jerome T. Ailman, of Juniata, had been unable to get there. At 7:30 the Williamsport Vaudeville Co. closed the day's events with another entertainment in the auditorium.

THURSDAY THE BANNER DAY. Though the weather was cloudy and at several times during the morning a few drops of rain fell threateningly there was a big crowd of people at the picnic on Thursday. The number of visitors was variously estimated at from four to seven thousand. The day was a full one. In the morning J. T. Ailman, secretary of the State Grange, and Mrs. Helen Johnson, of Erie, spoke to crowded houses in the auditorium.

In the afternoon Hon. W. F. Hill spoke again. At the conclusion of his address Hon. Jas. K. P. Hall, Congressman from this district, was introduced and talked for a few moments to the people he so ably represents in Washington. Following him was Hon. Luther Kauffman, attorney for the Philadelphia North American and the Pennsylvania Butter Protective Association. He arraigned the present state administration for its scandalous concealment of the unlawful oleo business in the State and accused the Department of Agriculture of being either incompetent or criminally negligent in protecting the farmers against fraud.

Hon. W. T. Creasy was not at the picnic, but there were scores of other political notables and all of them had a good time.

THE EXHIBITS. The number of exhibits this year is very small, which is probably accounted for by the poor crops in the county. Poor crops have made lean cattle and lean cattle make poor stock exhibits, while short crops cause the implement manufacturers to curtail their selling energies, consequently they had few displays.

Aside from the poultry exhibit and The Pennsylvania State College display there was very little of interest to look at, except merchandise taken there for sale. The poultry exhibit was really very good and the building occupied by the Pennsylvania State College was interesting throughout. The exhibitors were:

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Grazier and Peter Louck are both improving, but very slowly.

Miss Mollie Swab, of this place, is visiting friends at Linden Hall.

W. H. Musser and wife, of Bellefonte, spent the forepart of the week with Dr. G. H. Woods.

Our base ball team had the starch knocked out of them on Saturday by the Boalsburg boys. The score was 6-2.

Ern Fortney, wife and sister, of Tyrone, are having a royal good time at his uncle James Fortney's Branch home.

Mrs. Mila Zewig, of Harrisburg, has been dangerously ill at the home of her father William Gates, ever since the death of her mother.

On account of the drouth seeding is at a standstill. Many farmers are through but the majority of them are husking corn while waiting for the rain.

The Misses Lillian and Catharine Koch, of Bellefonte, are visitors at the home of their grandfather, Amos Koch. Their aunt, Mrs. Jacob Shirk, is also a visitor there.

Oliver Gibbons, one of Stonevalley's big farmers and stalwart Republicans, passed through our town Saturday, en route for Boalsburg to visit his brother-in-law, Dr. Kidder.

Mrs. David Kustaborder, who has been suffering with fever for the last month, is convalescing from that but is so crippled up with rheumatism that she is unable to walk.

John Fortney, one of Harris township's progressive farmers and straight laced Democrats, Sundayed at the Danley home on Main street. He was accompanied by his good frau.

R. O. Miller, of Stogstown, who was a student at State College in '98, enjoyed a visit among his friends here last week with headquarters at L. G. Walker's and reports that the license will soon be taken out.

Lewis Heckroff, of Philadelphia, a jolly, well-kept old veteran is here for a week's outing with his comrade Charley Smith. They were both members of the famous 49th Reg., P.V., and if you would hear war yarns just get where they are.

Mrs. Olie Bowersox, of Altoona, whose health has been in such a precarious condition this summer that her friends have been constantly concerned about her, has recovered sufficiently to come down to Fairbrook to visit her parents.

The Republican primaries last Saturday evening was a very tame affair. John P.'s little joke was fully verified. A. S. Walker and J. A. Decker were elected delegates. Allison and Thompson each received 17 votes, Dale 15 votes, Decker for jury commissioner 14 votes and Robb for the same office 3 votes. Col. Reeder had the full vote which was 17 all that was out.

Literary Note from the Century Co. Minister Wu Ting Fing will present, in the October Century, "A Plea for Fair Treatment" in behalf of his fellow countrymen. This is one of half a dozen articles in the same magazine, in which the Chinese question will be treated, directly or indirectly. Bishop Potter writes on "Chinese Traits and Western Blunders"—the first of a series of travel sketches and studies.

IMPLEMENTS, ETC. W. O. Rearick, Centre Hall, Corn Planter, Kramer wagon, "Easy" feed cutter.

Potter & Hoy, Bellefonte, Olliver chilled plows.

Black & Kephart, Huntingdon, exhibiting Wright's patent extension and happy fruit picking ladders.

C. J. Finkle, Spring Mills, "Buckeye" grain drill and buggies, De Laval cream separators.

J. D. Neese, Spring Mills, "National" cream separators.

Vermont Farm Machine Co., cream separators.

Harrison Mfg Co., Massillon, Ohio, Corn shredders, Etc.

Among the exhibits in the poultry building were three pens of Belgian hare shown by Dr. John F. Alexander, of Centre Hall. They attracted more than a little attention because of their variety as well as on account of the novel industry Dr. Alexander would have built up in this section. He advises raising them for profit, claiming that their meat is more toothsome than that of chickens, a full grown hare weighing twice as much as a fat hen and they breed so prolifically as to make their cost but trifling. The does breed every six weeks and have litters ranging from four to fourteen, so you can see that they come fast. Dr. Alexander's exhibits are bred from the famous "Lord Briton," which was imported to Los Angeles in 1898 at a cost of $650.

In addition to the exhibits mentioned above there are fifty four stands for the traffic of various wares, ranging from Keller's big eating house, where we had a splendid chicken dinner on Wednesday, down to the Boston Baked Bean house on the "Midway." There is a two-headed colt, an eight legged pig, babies to throw balls at and halls to throw at the girls. Everything imaginable to catch nickles and dimes is on the ground, but the fakirs were in hard luck on Wednesday because the people would not be faked. The crowd did a little better by the "sports" yesterday, but from the woe-be-gone expressions on some of them we fear the L. and T. tracks will become a very popular promenade for a great many.

LIST OF TENTERS.
