

THE UNITED BRETHREN APPOINTMENTS.—The sixty-second session of the Allegheny Conference of the United Brethren church closed at Greensburg on Monday, when the announcement of the appointments was made. Rev. Allen Rhen, who has served the Bellefonte charge so faithfully for the past three years, has been sent to Punxsutawney, and Rev. T. W. Perks will come here.

In severing his connection with the Bellefonte church Rev. Rhen will probably have considerable regret. His labors here have been very successful and aside from the ecclesiastical field he has made many friends in Bellefonte's social world, who will be very sorry that he and his family are to leave Bellefonte.

Mr. Perks will be welcomed by the congregation here and he can have the assurance that his every effort for right or the upbuilding of the church will have the hearty co-operation of a little band of as diligent and courageous church workers as are to be found in the land.

The appointments are as follows:
Altoona district, G. W. Sherrick, presiding elder—Tyrone.

Altoona, First church—W. Williamson.
Altoona, Second church—S. S. Hough.

W. R. Funk, publishing house agent.
G. A. Funkhouser, professor in United Brethren Seminary.
W. J. Zuck, professor in Otterbein University.

—Eckenroth & Montgomery have revolutionized the work of painting and house decorating in Bellefonte. This energetic young firm has brought the public to realize that all the brightening up should not be put off for fall or spring, but that it can be done much cheaper and more satisfactory if scattered along throughout the year, so that there is no great rush at any one time. The result has been that they have been able to keep their large force of workmen busy all through what is usually regarded as a very dull season and with the men being permitted to work without being rushed to death much better results are accomplished. Eckenroth & Montgomery are hustlers and their energy is telling in the amount and character of the work they are doing.

—While ripping boards in his planing mill at Millheim, last Monday morning, A. F. Harter met with an accident that might have killed him. A piece of edging, about four feet in length, flew off and struck him on the hand with such force as to break the strip, an end of it flying and striking him in the breast, piercing his right lung. Dr. Frank dressed the wound and he is recovering.

—Dr. A. W. Hafer is proudly exhibiting a slate that was bought for him when a boy at Rebersburg, forty-five years ago. It is remarkable that he should have preserved it all these years, but the slate is very thick and the doctor says he had to get one new frame on it. He intends that his son Talmage shall use it, provided that young hopeful can be trusted with such a relic.

—The Milesburg public schools opened Monday morning, with a large attendance. The teaching force is made up of James Gregg, Miss Ira McCloskey and Miss Elizabeth Strop. Thomas Taylor was elected janitor.

—Mrs. A. Rabinowitz, who died of a complication of diseases at her home in Phillipsburg on Monday, was the mother of Mrs. Ratosky and Mrs. Stirman, of Phillipsburg, this county.

—The Loganton Journal says there was quite a snow storm eight miles east of that place on Tuesday morning of last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Shoemaker are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little son at their fine home below town.

Pine Grove Mentions.

The prolonged drought still continues. Supervisor Hess is putting our roads in shape for winter.

Our young friend P. M. Corl is laid up with cholera morbus.

Ralph Irvin, of Lewistown, is spending his vacation with his parents at Baileyville.

W. E. McWilliams and wife spent Sunday and Monday among friends in Tyrone.

Dr. Todd Ward has decided to quit Chicago and hang his dental sign out in Shamokin.

The game law is being enforced about here and was ventilated at the tune of $44 yesterday.

Merchant J. C. McMahon has a little molasses slugger at his home, but ten days old.

The personal effects of the late Levi Krebs will be offered at public sale on Saturday the 29th inst.

Captain Aron Burchfield, of McAllevey's Fort, is visiting at the home of his boyhood here.

James Stover, one of Potters Mill's representative men, transacted business about here the early part of the week.

Miss Cora McCormick is spending sleepless nights waiting and watching for her night blooming cereus to come into blossom.

A. M. Brown shipped a car load of horses and mules to the eastern market on Monday. They were beautiful too.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kustaborder departed on the morning train, Wednesday, for a week's visit with Spruce Creek friends.

The venerable Jacob Louck, of Harrisburg, is visiting his brother, Peter, whose health has been in such a precarious condition all summer.

Mr. Henry Etters was so seriously ill with heart trouble at his home at Lemont on Saturday that Luther Dale and his wife were summoned to his bedside.

Harry Condo, one of Millheim's active Democrats and the obliging clerk in his father's store, is enjoying an outing with his uncle, Amos Koch, and taking his turn at stirring apple butter.

We feel like cautioning the scribe of the Centre Democrat to be on his guard for some of the Grangers are going gunning for him for counting the chickens before they were hatched.

Mrs. D. G. Meek and Mrs. C. T. Aiken attended the district missionary convention at Millburg this week and extended their visit to New Berlin, where the Lutheran Synod was in session.

D. M. Clemson, who is making money and fame in the Carnegie company in Pittsburgh, tarried in town a short time Wednesday morning on his way to the Mitchell-Gilliland wedding at Oak Hall.

Mrs. Ralph Illingsworth and her children came down from Erie yesterday for one of their extended visits at grandfather Snyder's. The Reverend will arrive next week on his vacation and later they will go to Philadelphia to visit his parents.

Mrs. Caroline E. Rhone, widow of the late Dr. Rhone, Bellefonte's famed dentist, is visiting at the home of J. G. Hess on Main street. Mrs. Rhone has been in California with her daughter and son for several years, and is only back at her old home for a lengthy visit.

Mrs. Michael Loesch was taken suddenly ill last Sunday after returning home from church. Dr. Glenn was sent for and he found her suffering with the results of a jar or shock to her back which she had received while riding over a breaker on the road.

Dr. W. P. Ard, of New Columbia, visited his brother, J. B., here recently in the best of good health, but scarce had he returned home when he was taken violently ill and two doctors are by his bedside constantly. He has many friends here who are anxiously awaiting favorable news of his condition.

While Mrs. Amos Koch was washing at her home on the Krebs farm, Wednesday morning, a spark got into an out house and set it afire. The inside of the building was completely destroyed and only the timely appearance of a bucket brigade prevented a more serious conflagration.

Mrs. Henrietta Dale and her daughter Annie passed through here, Monday, on their way to McAllevey's Fort to attend the funeral of James Rutherford, a near relative, who died there on Sunday, after a long illness of lung trouble. He was thirty-eight years of age and leaves a wife and a little daughter seven years old. He was formerly a resident of Oak Hall. He was a member of the U. B. church and was buried on Tuesday afternoon.

Phillipsburg.

Miss Gertrude Hagerty is visiting relatives in Pittsburg.

Miss Mary Schimmel left, Tuesday morning, for a month's visit with friends in McKeesport.

Mrs. Sophia Hasson, of Clearfield, spent Sunday with Mrs. M. A. Hasson on 9th street.

Olin Thomas left last week for Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, to enter the class for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Daniker left, Monday evening, for Lock Haven, where they will spend some time.

Mr. E. L. Lonsberry, the enterprising baker, of Johnsonburg, Pa., spent Monday night with his brother, W. B. Lonsberry, on Seventh street.

Miss Sallie Kettleberger, of Curwensville, who has been at Huntington, stopped over Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Condo, on North Second street.

Saturday, September 29th, will be the last excursion to Williamsport this season. This closes up what has been a very popular series of excursions.

Mrs. John K. Thompson has been quite ill at her home on Seventh street. Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Wharton, of Howard, is with her.

Luther Bright, brother of Rev. Bright, the Lutheran pastor, is here. Mr. Bright is in the Senior class of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg.

The M. E. church will be occupied for the first time since the course of remodeling on October 7th. The Sunday school room will be used for a time for all services.

There will be no service in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and only prayer service in the evening, owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Bright, at Synod.

Rev. E. C. Page, the superintendent of Altoona District of Anti-Saloon organization delivered an address in the auditorium Sunday morning, and in the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Charles W. Richards, for many years assistant agent for the N. Y. C. at this point, resigned his position Monday, and we understand will assist in the office of Murray Lumber Co.

Albert W. Markle, of Clearfield, was united in marriage with Miss Agnes Dixon, of Hawk Run, in the church of Good Shepherd at that place Sept. 19th. Mr. Markle was at one time editor of the Bituminous Record. Rev. Gilrist, of Osceola, performed the ceremony.

A party of young campers consisting of the following youths, Lee Hagerty, Fred Wolfe, Malin Hagerty, Will Merrill, Earl Richards and Harry Gilbraith, will leave Friday afternoon for the Chestnut woods near Wallaceport, where they will encamp until Monday. The party is going in quest of chestnuts, but its not likely they will get a large supply.

There was a union meeting held in the Presbyterian church Monday evening for the purpose of organizing an Anti-Saloon Crusade. The meeting was under the supervision of E. C. Page, Dist. Supt. and was largely attended. This town is getting an unenviable reputation by the non-enforcement of the law, and the citizens are beginning to realize that a vigilance committee would not be out of place, and if there is to be any reforming the citizens will have to do it, as those in authority seem to be utterly powerless to stop the lawlessness which is being perpetrated openly and without restraint nightly on our streets.

FALL OPENING!
—SEASON 1900-'01—

MEN'S FINE TAILORED GARMENTS.

DEAR SIR:—

We will esteem it a pleasure to show you through our new line of medium and heavy-weight Imported and Domestic Fabrics for at prices very little in advance of good ready-made clothing.

As each season rolls around the demand upon us for stylish garments, made from elegant and attractive wool cloths, becomes greater; so that to fully satisfy the expectations of our friends, and to continue as in the past, to distance our few but active competitors, we are compelled to sift with ever increasing care a great volume of patterns until we have called the most choice and serviceable.

We can truly say that our offerings for the approaching Fall and Winter seasons are the cream of American and European Markets; and when the recent great strides that woolen manufacturers have made in selecting and beautifying their goods are considered, the "cream of the market" means a very handsome showing. Whether you care to place an order or not, we shall be glad of the opportunity of demonstrating to you that really fine goods and excellent work can be given for very little money. We carry everything suitable for well nobleness or quiet elegance in Suits, Dress, or Outing Suits, Overcoats, and Pantaloon.

Perfect fit and satisfaction guaranteed.

Prices—$15.00, $16.00, $17.00, $18.00, $19.00, $20.00.

Very respectfully,
