

WILLIS JOHNSTONBAUGH CONFESES TO THE STATE COLLEGE BURGLARY.—Capt. Harry Simler, of Phillipsburg, brought Willis Johnstonbaugh to this place, on Tuesday night, and placed him in jail. The boy had been arrested in Phillipsburg and confessed to having robbed Krumrine's store at State College on the night of Oct. 3rd, of jewelry to the amount of $125.

In the issue of last Friday the WATCHMAN published a detailed account of the burglary, showing the discovery of the burglar in the store by Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McDowell, who were returning home from a drive to Bellefonte, and of his escape through the four men who had gathered to capture him.

The Phillipsburg Journal gives the following particulars of his arrest.

The arrest was made on Front street, and when the man was locked up he admitted his guilt to the detective.

Krumrine's store at the College was robbed early last Wednesday morning of jewelry to the amount of about one hundred and twenty-five dollars. The Krumrines learned that a young man named Willis M. Johnstonbaugh, whose home is at State College, had been peddling jewelry. He was thought to be headed for Phillipsburg. The Krumrines on Friday sent word to detective Simler, with a list of the stolen jewelry and a means of identification by the cost mark.

Detective Simler soon learned that Johnstonbaugh was in town. Up until last Tuesday he worked for the Phillipsburg Beef Company as a butcher. He obtained employment there early in the summer, and lately has been boarding at Irvin's boarding house, corner Pine and Centre streets. He has a girl near Phillipsburg. Monday he went to see her. When he returned detective Simler arrested him at the Lloyd house corner, charging him with having stolen a gold filled Egin movement watch, 1 dollar key, 1 Harrington & Richardson 32 caliber revolver, 1 ring case to hold one dozen rings, one Kodak, and a box with two partially burned candles in it.

He was given a hearing Tuesday evening in Phillipsburg at which John Krumrine was present and identified his goods. The young man was then remanded to jail for trial.

Johnstonbaugh is a son of James Johnstonbaugh, of State College, and his family are very well-to-do and reputable people. He says he did not do the actual stealing, but that an accomplice, who is a professional burglar, entered the store and took the goods, then the two went selling them through Nittany valley, as far as Mill Hill, thence back to Bellefonte, where they separated, the accomplice going to

THE DEATH OF DAVID GLENN.—After a long period of suffering David McKinney Glenn passed away at his home shortly before two o'clock Wednesday morning. His death was caused by a general collapse of the system that had made him a constant sufferer for two years.

Deceased was born on Buffalo Run, Centre county, Pa., Aug. 9th, 1836. During his early life he followed farming and part of the time worked in the woods. At the breaking out of the civil war he was promptly in answering the call of his country and enlisted June 21st, 1861, as a private in the 1st Pennsylvania Rifles, Company "K" P. V. R. C. In Oct. 1861, he was promoted to the rank of corporal which rank he held until the close of the war. He was a member of what was known as the famous Bucktail regiment.

Among the battles he was a participant in were Drainsville, Bull Run, South Mountain, Antietam and Fredricksburg. He was taken prisoner June 26th, 1862, by being cut off from our lines while on skirmish line four miles above Mechanicsville, Va. Laid in swamps from July 1st to July 2nd, 1862, and being captured by southern cavalry in Virginia was taken to Belle Island, Va. Left Belle Island with 3,000 other prisoners for Aiken's Landing on June 9th, 1862, was exchanged and joined the Union army at Harrison's Landing, Aug. 10th, 1862. At the battle of Fredricksburg he was wounded, losing his right arm.

He was for fourteen years a government gauger and store keeper, first at Spring Creek and later at Woodward. He was also at one time in the cigar business at this place.

He was a charter member of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., and always took a great interest in the work of the organization.

Deceased is survived by his wife and the following children, Wm. of Wilcox, Pa.; Mrs. Edward Stover, of Woodward; Mrs. James Dawson and George Glenn, of Bellefonte. One brother, Chas. Glenn, of Bellefonte, also survives.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the Union cemetery.

—Mrs. David Elliot died at her home in Monte Vista, Colorado, at four o'clock Saturday morning and burial was made at that place on Monday. Deceased was a daughter of Benj. and Hannah Schrock, deceased, and was born in the old Schrock home, which stood on the present site of the Undine engine house, on Bishop street, September 11th, 1840. Nine years ago she was married to David Elliot and went to make her home in the West. Surviving
