A Word to Democrats of the County.

Democrats of Centre county the time for argument is passed. The time for action is here. But a few days, at the longest, are left you for completing arrangements to poll your vote. If this has not already been done, drop everything else and do it now. DON'T TRUST TO OTHERS to see that this is done. You, my dear reader, have as much interest in this matter as anyone. The success of the party should be as dear to you as to anyone else. You are as deeply interested in good government as your neighbor is. You have as much at stake as he has. Your taxes are just as hard to pay as his are. You will profit by and enjoy an honest administration of affairs just as much as he will. Why then should you wait for someone else to do that which you have an equal interest in doing?

IT'S A FIGHT AGAINST TRUSTS.

It is to your interest that Democracy wins. That means much to every farmer, to every laborer and citizen who is not a stockholder in a Republican trust. The contest this fall is between the people and the trusts. If the trusts win, YOUR TAXES, YOUR EXPENSES and all that you need to live on, or make you comfortable, WILL GO HIGHER IN PRICE, while the products of your labor will be lessened. For your own sake, and the sake of those who are near and dear to you, you owe one day's duty to the public, and that one day should be put in now arousing THE VOTERS and arranging to have everyone of them at the polls.

TAKE OUT YOUR NEIGHBOR.

If you have a neighbor who is sick, or has no means of getting to the election, arrange to have him taken out. You have a buggy or wagon, it will cost you nothing to take someone with you when you go to vote. See your man, some one who is slow about getting out—who, if not looked after might, stay at home. See him before election day and fix the time that you will call for him. When that time comes, be on hand and make certain that you take him along. Ask others who have rigs to do the same. In this way every Democratic vote can be polled and a glorious victory will be won in the county.

VOTE EARLY.

It is always a good plan to vote early. It takes no more time to cast your ballot in the morning than it does later in the day. And it is encouraging. It helps to get others to vote your way. It shows the Republicans that you are earnest, and starts the tide running in your favor. Vote early yourself, and have the man who votes with you, do the same. Get all your Democratic votes polled as early in the day as possible, and in country districts send for those who have not voted by three o'clock. There are always men who are lazy about getting out. GO AFTER THEM as early as possible. Don't wait until the last minute, expecting them to come out. Go and bring them in time and you will be sure of succeeding.

You want a big victory in Centre county this fall. The way to have it is to work for it, and if every Democrat who feels a pride in the success of his party will do this there will be no question about the victory. GO TO WORK AT ONCE.

The special attention of our farmer readers is called to the excellent article on the fertilizer trust that appears on another page of this paper.

What the Farmer Pays the Fertilizer Trust.

The Tribute the Hard Working Farmer Must Pay to One of Mark Hanna's Trusts. What it Costs for Fertilizer Just Because a Trust Controls the Product.

Read This, Farmers, and See if You Can Support Candidates Who Favor Trusts.

FRIENDLY COMPETITORS OF THE TRUSTS.

American Fertilizing Co., Norfolk, Va.,
Armor & Co., Chicago, Ill.,
Bradley & Green Fertilizer Co., Philadelphia, Pa.,
Baugh & Sons Co., Philadelphia, Pa., and Baltimore, Md.,
Brumfield & Foster, Colorado, Md.,
Columbia Guano Co., Norfolk, Va.,
Globe Fertilizer Co., Louisville, Ky.,
Hess, S. M. & Bro., Philadelphia, Pa.,
International Seed Co., Rochester, N. Y.,
National Fertilizer Co., Bridgeport, Conn.,
Nashville, Tenn.,
Patagonia Guano Co., Baltimore, Md.,
Raisin-Monumental Co., Baltimore, Md.,
Read Phosphate Co., Nashville, Tenn.,
Richmond Guano Co., Richmond, Va.,
Roysters, F. S., Guano Co., Norfolk, Va.,
Tennessee Chemical Co., Nashville, Tenn.,
Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., Richmond, Va.,

The concerns whose names appear under heading of "Friendly Competitors" are not owned by the Trust, but have agreed with them to sell their goods at any price named by the combination, which enables the Trust to raise prices without fear of being undersold by these firms.

You will notice from the above list, that the combined capital of all the firms now owned by the trust was only $7,940,000 before the combination secured control of them. The capital stock issued by the American Agricultural Chemical Company is $40,000,000, showing $32,060,000 of watered stock. Presuming their tonnage to be 500,000 tons, which is a liberal estimate, and considering their dividends at five per cent, it would be necessary for them to charge the farmers $4.00 per ton extra profit in order to come out whole, without considering their army of high salaried officers.

Their prices have been increased, and considering the large amount of dissatisfaction among the farmers who have used trust goods this last year it is fair to presume that the quality of their various brands have suffered, notwithstanding they sold for more money. This would prove an additional increase in price to the farmer which is not discovered until the crops are harvested.

It is unquestionably the desire of this combination to secure complete control of the fertilizer business, and if they succeed, our brother farmers will have decided more cause for complaint than they have at the present time. We predict, however, the early puncture of this bubble, unless there are two suckers, instead of one, born each minute, one to buy the stock of this trust and the other to buy the fertilizers made by the firms controlled by them.

Here is something for the farmers to think about and act upon. They have bought trust fertilizers at high prices, gone to the expense of applying them to the land and cultivating the crops only to find from the yield that they are being worked two ways. First, by a raise in the price of the fertilizer and second, by a poor return of the money, time and labor expended.

This condition is only made possible by the existence of the fertilizer trust. Competition is virtually destroyed, and the price goes up and the quality down.

But the farmers are not the only ones who suffer by the fertilizer trust. Employers in fertilizer factories also feel the blight of this greedy monster. After this trust had purchased three fertilizer factories in Philadelphia, they closed two of them, Sharpless & Carpenter, and the Moro Phillips Fertilizer Works, throwing at least 500 hands out of employment; and what holds good in that locality will hold good in others wherever the trust holds sway.

Yet our friend Mark Hanna says there are no trusts. Why will you support and vote for a party which makes the existence of trusts possible? Why will you ruin yourselves financially and place your children in bondage. What more proof do you want that the trusts, fostered and nursed by the Republican party, are undermining the hold of the American people upon the government of this country and placing the people in bondage.

You have one more chance to crush these soulless monsters. Seize the opportunity and do your duty like men on November 6th.

All Honor to Hon. J. H. Wetzel.

Every voter of Centre county has reason to be proud of the manner in which Hon. J. H. WETZEL represented him in the last session of the Legislature. Nearly every one is acquainted with the record of this honorable, upright gentleman at Harrisburg and the following extract, taken from the Harrisburg Star Independent of June 7th, 1900, will be read with gratification by everyone.

The Democrats of Centre county have nominated Hon. J. H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, for re-election to the Legislature and have honored themselves in this honoring a splendid official. Mr. Wetzel served during the last session of the Legislature and was among the most zealous supporters of just legislation in the body. Modest, though he was, he nevertheless exercised a potent influence on the floor because of his intelligent understanding of the work and assiduous application to duty. He was respected and admired by all of his associates. During the last session of the Legislature it will be remembered a strong effort was made to disrupt the Democratic organization and that out of the demoralization and confusion the election of work to the Senate might come. One of the foremost of those who stood unflinchingly in line of defense against such attacks was

J. H. Wetzel, of Centre county. His advice was sought by the leaders and his help invoked by the "file closers" whenever there were signs of wabbling. The people who are opposed to the re-election of Quay have much to thank the sturdy Representative of Centre county for.

The same battle will be fought in the next session of the Legislature and the same courage and determination will be needed to bring about the same or a better result. In view of that fact the news of the re-election of Representative Wetzel, of Centre county, will afford satisfaction in every section of the State. He can be depended on to do his share in every movement for purer politics and honest elections and that will be much in the coming session. He ought to be returned by an overwhelming majority.

Coming as it does from a journal that has no further interest in Mr. WETZEL than to take passing notice of his calibre as a Representative these high eulogiums are especially significant and come to his friends in Centre county as a matter to be proud of. Mr. WETZEL stood out consistently against all the temptations and handshakes of the most notorious session on record. He was a man then and is a man today. As a man he asks you to vote for him. Will you do it?

EXHIBITORS AND PREMIUM WINNERS AT THE CENTRE CO. FAIR.

A Complete List of Those Who Had Articles on Exhibition at the First Meeting of the New Centre County Fair. A Very Creditable Exhibition and Everybody Satisfied.

The first meeting of the new Centre County Fair is a thing of the past and as we look back upon the doings of two weeks ago we can see nothing but cause for congratulating the party of gentlemen who have so successfully launched the enterprise. The weather could scarcely have been more ideal, the grounds were in splendid condition, the entertainments carried out exactly as advertised, not a serious accident happened to mar the pleasure of a single spectator and the public were faithfully protected from the trickery of gamblers.

Of course there were some inconveniences but for a new grounds it seemed as if they were certainly reduced to a minimum. Probably the greatest need was drinking water. Several flowing hydrants, such as the famous pump on the old fair grounds, would be ample and will undoubtedly be placed on the grounds by next year.

The attendance was very satisfactory, all things being considered, and was quite large enough to guarantee a much greater turn out next year. The closest estimates for the four days place the crowds as follows:

Tuesday.....	500
Wednesday.....	2,500
Thursday.....	3,500
Friday.....	3,000
Total	10,500

For the benefit of those who are enough interested in the fair to keep this issue for further reference we republish the record of all the races of the week, taken from a previous issue of the WATCHMAN.

Dr. M. took first money, Susanna second and James M. third. Time—2:31, 2:28½, 2:28½, 2:30.

The disappointment of this race was that the local horse "Billy Howe" did not perform better. He had shown trial miles in 2:25 on the track here, but became a very uncertain quantity when he was started in company.

221 Class, trot or pace, purse $300
Queen Medium, g m, Fessler & Wilson, Williamsport, Pa.,	4 5 5 4 4
Twilight, b m, Abe Beck, Altoona, Pa.,	2 3 3 3 3

Graymont took first money, Bankwood second and Princeton third. Time—2:22, 2:21¾, 2:24, 2:25, 2:25¾.

This was by far the prettiest race of the week. Every finish was a driver and the excitement aroused by "Graymont's" heroic struggles for first place was intense.

Susie Houze won first money, Pearl B. second and Francis M. third. Time—0:55, 0:57, 0:56.

As there were only three starters in this race the purse was held and a bonus paid the horses for running. Pearl B's winning the first heat served the purpose of winning a lot of money for local backers who had risked her as a 1 to 5 shot.

Time—2:19¾, 2:19¾, 2:19¾. Sallie Derby won 1st money, Green Whitcomb, 2nd, Princeswell 3rd and Richard A. 4th.

This race was made doubly interesting because there were two Centre county horses in it. "Sally Derby," Irvin Gray's beautiful light bay mare, won the race in three straight heats, while "Grapsheet," M. Fauble's black horse, showed that he is a very fast one. He got away badly in every heat but finished in almost exactly the position he started.

230 Class, trot and pace, purse $300.
Dot C. r m, J. Powers, Elmira, N. Y.,	1 d h 1 1

Cedar Hill, b g, Wm. McNitt, Reedsville, Pa.,	6 4 6
Time—2:25, 2:23¾, 2:24¾, 2:26.

On the second heat of this race an accident occurred at the first turn that might have proven very serious. Albert broke badly to the side and Lorraine, who was coming right up from the rear, ran right over him. Chambers, the driver of Lorraine, was thrown out and his bike was smashed, but he escaped any serious injury.

Free for All, purse $400.
Ainsworth, b g, Richard Hentchel, Baltimore, Md.,	2 4 1 1 1
Miss Delmar, b m, Adam Koenig, Ontario, Can.,	1 1 4 2 2

Time—2:16, 2:15¾, 2:17, 2:15, 2:17.

In this race a new track record was made. "Dick W." had held the record with 2:17 since the Centennial races but "Ainsworth" put it down to 15 on Friday. This race was the big event of the week and some very fast horses started in it. At first it looked as though "Miss Delmar" would win easily but the big bay "Ainsworth" was not to be outdone. "Ainsworth," who had been shipped here by express from Hagerstown, Md., the night before, got down to work and showed that he could go even faster than he had to go to win the last three.

Running Race, purse $150.
Frances M. c m, Jacob A. Bare, Vintage 1 1

THE POULTRY EXHIBIT.

Prof. G. C. Watson, State College, judge. The exhibit of poultry was probably the finest on the ground and the most extensive display of fowls ever seen in this part of the State. There were more than 1,000 birds embracing almost every known variety of domestic fowls and while the largest exhibits were made by foreign breeders, yet two that attracted a large share of attention were those of G. W. Musser, of Tyrone, and F. R. McMahon, of Shingletown.

G. W. Musser, Tyrone, buff leghorns, Brahmas, leghorns, plymouth rocks, Hamburgs, black Spanish, game chicks, ducks. Mr. Musser's exhibit took fourteen first premiums, and two seconds.

Among the stock all were of more than passing interest. The Pennsylvania State College Guernsey and Shorthorns attracted a great deal of attention; while "Jack" and the other big promoter of the Rock Farm herd came in for their share of the Ohs! and Ahs! as the delighted spectators passed the cattle pens. In James Thompson's exhibit were some beautiful Jersey cows, one of them imported, and samples of their golden butter were shown in the exhibition building. Andrew Hugg's short horns and A. V. Miller's Friesians won premiums for their owners. But the pet of the whole show was Mrs. Mary V. Hale's exhibit, "Jersey Lilly." Geo. H. Musser's Oxforddowns attracted a great deal of attention; especially the magnificent ram, which Mr. Musser imported a year or so ago.
