W. E. Meek has improved so steadily that he was able to be out Tuesday and show his preference for the straight Democratic ticket.

That jolly, whole-souled John Smith, who always does what he can for the Democratic party in Gregg township, was a guest of his mother here on Sunday.

W. H. Roush and W. H. Hammer, of Altoona, G. W. Ward, of Pittsburg, and C. E. Eckley and W. K. Goss, of Winber, were all home to do their duty at the election.

consequently is gratified even though defeated.

J. F. McCormick, manager of the Commercial Telephone exchange at Lock Haven, came home to help swell Ferguson's Demoeratic majority. Frank intends making Lock Haven his home and will be an acquisition to the Democratic ranks down there.
