Many people are making an exodus from the mines and unless there is a decided improvement in that direction in the near future there will be plenty of houses for rent in this town. Evidently "the full dinner pail" campaign rubbish does not apply to this place more than in a nominal sense.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Among the Americans besieged in Peking was Wm. N. Pethick, confidential secretary to Li The Peter Keichline farm, which was offer- Hung Chang, of whose household he was left in world in 1896. Mr. Pethick has written for the December Century a vivid account of an incident of the siege which involved the legationers in imminent peril, from which they were rescued, not without some loss of life, mainly through the retary of the United States Legation, an army officer of tried ability. As a result of this service, commanded the forces of defence.

THE December Century will abound in fiction some of it with a distinctively holiday flavor. Besides Bertha Runkle's romance of old Paris and Hamlin Garland's tale of to-day, there will be a short story by Henry James called "Broken On Tuesday of last week Miss Edith Ging Wings;" "The Lace Camisole," by L. ROLLING MILL AND CUT NAIL

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House in the Borough of Reliafont on at 2 o'clock p. m.

All those several parcels or tracts of land, seven in number, specifically described in the deed from the Bellefonte Iron an i Nail company to the undersigned, as assignee, recorded in Miscellaneous Book 'K," page 62, containing in the aggregate about twenty-two acres fronting on Spring Creek and the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, having a frontage of nearly half a mile on the latter, on which are erected a rolling mill, nail factory, ware house and other buildings connected therewith. The capacity of the rolling mill is about fifty tons per day. There are fourteen pudding furnaces, three heaving furnaces, rotary squeezer, fourteen inch train, extra rolls etc. The nail factory contains fifty-three nail machines, of which thirty are equipped with self-feeders, and has all the ordinary appliances and conveniences for the manufacture of cut nails. The property is in good condition and cost originally about $180,000. It is within a few rods of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania and can be easily connected therewith, giving an outlet either by the Pennsylvania system or by the Reading and New York Central systems east, west and north. The furnaces in the neighborhood furnish sufficient mill iron to keep the mill employed and the advantages in the saving of freight, etc., together with the low price of coal constitute in themselves a fair profit over ordinary conditions.
