

JAMES W. HEATON.—After an illness of three weeks duration, brought about by paralysis, James W. Heaton passed away at his home in Boggs township Sunday morning. He was aged 63 years and two months and had suffered from paralysis from the time he was 28 years of age, when he was stricken first. A second stroke, nine years ago, completely incapacitated him for work and a third stroke caused his death. He is survived by his wife and the following children, Mrs. Mary Brickley, of Romola, and Howard and Wilson, of Pittsburgh. His funeral took place Tuesday morning. Interment was made in the Advent burying ground.

Rachel Thomas, the 19 year old daughter of John Thomas, colored, of Tyrone died in a hospital in Washington, D. C., early Wednesday morning from the effect of inflammation of the bowels. Rachel was born in Bellefonte and will be remembered as a resident of this place when a little girl. She will be brought here for burial this afternoon.

Walter Turner, son of James P. Turner, died at his parents' home near Julian on Thursday the 22nd, of typhoid fever. He was 24 years of age and an upright, honorable young man. He is survived by his parents, three brothers and five sisters. Interment was made at Dix Run.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans' court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

- William Moran, of Clearfield county, and Vernal L. Marks, of Phillipsburg.
- Joseph E. Edmiston, of State College, and Annie E. Gregg, of Centre Hall.
- Jeremiah Snavely and Sarah C. Heckman, both of Spring Mills.
- Manassas Stover and Maggie E. Wohlfort, both of Lyonia, Centre Co.
- Aaron Grieb Snook and Mary Sevilla Sholl, both of Millheim.
- Henry R. Newman and Lena E. Decker, both of Port Matilda.
- Orlando Walk and Sallie Fink, both of Taylor Twp.
- D. Wagner Geiss, of Bellefonte, and Ada J. Goodhart, of Centre Hill.
- Geo. H. Vaux and Anna Frank, both of Phillipsburg.
- W. D. Walker and Rachel Woome, both of Yarnell.

Mrs. Bertha Yoxheimer, aged 17 last August, lives with her mother, Mrs. Mary Graden in Lock Haven. About a year ago Bertha went off to Buffalo with Charles Yoxheimer and the twin were married in that city. They lived together until a short time ago, when Charles struck for the West—all of a sudden. Two weeks ago Himmelen's Ideals played a week's engagement in Lock Haven and while they were there Bertha found a new ideal in James Williams, the clarinetist in the band. She went to the show every day and, finally, when it left she departed with her lover. They were found at Shamokin by Mrs. Graden and Bertha was persuaded to return; Williams not interposing any objections to her leaving him. He had promised to marry her as soon as she could secure a divorce.

John Carter, colored, was up for trial for having made an assault on Lewis Larson, head barkeeper at the Brookerhoff house, last week. Carter was drunk and raising a disturbance in the bar and when Larson ordered him out refused to go. Thereupon the barkeeper jumped over and threw him out. He returned later with a stone which he threw at Larson's head. It missed its mark and out another man's leg. Carter was arrested and then brought a counter suit against manager Thompson of the house for selling liquor to Carter, who is a minor. Manager Thompson was given a hearing before Justice Harshberger Saturday morning, but was promptly discharged. The case against Carter was settled Wednesday morning.

Pine Grove Mention.
It is said that one of our Fairbrook ladies is soon to wed.

Mrs. Luther Sanday is so seriously ill that her case has become critical.

Minnie Weaver, wife of Walter Weaver, is seriously ill with nervous prostration.

Farmer Frank Black has another young daughter at his home who is number five on the family roll.

J. D. Tanyer sustained his reputation as a noted shot by bringing in a big gobbler, 2 pheasants and 3 rabbits.

William Ekley recently slaughtered three porkers which weighed 1005 lbs. The heaviest of the trio tipping the beam at 355 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Dale Muser have gone to housekeeping in the Mary Ard home on Main street and will be at home to their friends there.

Mrs. G. W. Williams and her daughter, Alice were in Bellefonte Tuesday visiting her brother and investing in fashionable clothes.

Mrs. Rebecca Robinson is in the Jefferson hospital in Philadelphia to undergo an operation for a tumorous growth which many friends, here, hope not to prove as serious as anticipated.

Our long friend John Gummo has purchased fifty acres from the estate of G. W. F. Gray near Fairbrook, and is breaking ground for a new house which is to be completed as soon as possible.

D. G. Meek is ahead on the butchering line so far, as the combined weight of four one year old Jersey reds which he had hung up on Tuesday amounted to 1500 lbs. The heaviest tipped the scales at 430 pounds.

An engagement that we hinted several months ago has consummated in the marriage of Miss Annie E. Gregg, of Centre Hall, and Joseph E. Edmiston, which took place at the bride's home last Wednesday.

Bruce Rossman, of Penn Hall and Miss Lizzie Koch, daughter of Amos Koch, of this place were married Sunday evening, the 18th, at Aaronsburg by the Rev. J. C. Brown. The bride is a fine young girl worthy of a good helpmate which we trust she got.

Monday David Louck and his wife moved from Altoona to the Peter Louck homestead where they will settle permanently. Mr. Louck will continue to work in the shops in Altoona until April 1st when he will turn his attention to crops and cattle raising.

Surveyor Doughty is making a final survey of the proposed railroad extensive westward from this place. From present indications the road will be right along the base of the Tussey mountains, a route on which the right of way can be secured at a nominal price.

Alex Archey and George R. Meek came up from Bellefonte last Friday to take part in and enjoy J. W. Kepler's hunt, but from the way it poured the entire time they were on the mountain we don't believe they hunted anything more serious than the well spread dinner table.

A letter from Frank Koch, who is at Manilla in the Philippines in the 23rd U. S. I., to his father, Amos Koch, announces that the rainy season is on there and that corn is the only crop grown. Two crops of it are cut during the year, one in June and the other in January and the plowing is all done by a wooden plow with one handle and drawn by a water buffalo.

W. O. Daugherty moved on the same day to the other Louck farm which is better known as the Fred Krumrine farm. There Mrs. Louck will make her home with the Daugherty's on the farm where she was born and raised. Mr. Daugherty will continue in the implement business for he is busier enough to manage the farm and look after outside interests too.

W. O. Daugherty attended the funeral of his brother William, at McAlevy's 3rd Sunday afternoon. The deceased had served with distinction through the Spanish-American war and saw active service in Cuba and Porto Rico. He was a member of Co. D, 3rd Regt. U. S. I. and after serving out his enlistment he secured a position on the railroad on which he was killed near Pittsburg. He was 24 years old and he leaves three brothers and two sisters to mourn his untimely death.

MRS. MARIA McWILLIAMS.—Mrs. Maria Bailey McWilliams, formerly of this township, died in Philadelphia Friday at a hospital where she was undergoing treatment for bowel trouble. A daughter of William and Nancy Bailey, she was born at Baileyville almost 60 years ago. Early in life she was united in marriage to Washington McWilliams son of Judge McWilliams, and most of her life was spent in Philadelphia, where she was buried by the side of her husband. She was a kind, Christian woman and is survived by her three children, Ellen, Harry and Richard. She was a sister of our townsman W. H. Bailey.

Spring Mills.
The rain storm of Sunday and Monday last was quite severe down this valley, resulting, however, in no special damage. Quite a large number of turkey dinners went down on Thanksgiving day. Your humble servant came within an ace of numbering his invitations with a cipher.

On Friday last Daniel Kennelley, one of our old veterans, shot a wild turkey weighing seventeen pounds. This trophy, up to the present time, makes Mr. Kennelley the champion heavy weight in the turkey line.

John Snavely and Mrs. Sarah Heckman were married on Tuesday evening last. Of course they were honored with a serenade by the lads of our village—such a serenade. Mr. and Mrs. Snavely are old residents and will remain here.

C. C. Bartsge, in his dual capacity as engineer at the Spring Mills planing mill and printer, has few idle moments. He runs the engine at the mill from 7 o'clock a. m. till 5 o'clock p. m. and the press in his printing office from 6 o'clock 'til midnight. Mr. Bartsge is a very skillful engineer.

Butchering is now in full operation with us. About every other family is engaged in the general slaughter of porkers. No remarkable avoidpouls has as yet been reported. Of course fresh sausage adorns almost every table, in fact the very atmosphere is impregnated with the odors of grease and fat.

Edward Ruhl, manager of the Spring Mills hotel reports a very excellent business. Mr. Ruhl is very popular with commercial headquarters. I was in the hotel an evening or two since and noticed that 17 guests were registered for over night. Of late, on several occasions, Mr. Ruhl was obliged to give up his own room to accommodate travelers.

Madisonburg.
Mrs. Harry Miller has been sick the past week, but is improved at this writing.

Mr. Geo. Rachau is feeling very good since the arrival of a little girl at his home.

Mrs. Herbert Stover, who was brought home sick from Illinois, is again looking hale.

Mrs. Dan'l Lambert is home again, after an absence of a month or more in Sugar Valley.

Rev. A. H. Doerster is driving a new horse, his old one not being able to serve him on account of his large pastoral district.

There has been a rumor that hog cholera has again broken out in the community and has no doubt some effect on the people who are fattening hogs.

Some of our vacant houses were taken possession of during the last month; Sam Yearily moving into Levi Long's house, and Ed. Bierly into Andrew Ocker's house at the north end of town.

Mr. Domt. Rachau came home on a ten days' furlough visiting relatives and acquaintances. Mr. Rachau is serving an apprenticeship for a sailor on one of our war vessels. The writer was unable to learn what ship he was on.

Our town was shocked by the news of his death and the arrival of the corpse of Grant Shaffer. Mr. Shaffer had for some time suffered from typhoid fever which claimed his victim. He was buried on Wednesday, 21st, in the Union cemetery at this place. Another funeral on the same day was that of Jeremiah Hoy. Interment was made at the United Evangelical grave yard west of town.

Phillipsburg.

Coal trade has picked up slightly during the past week.

Misses Lillian and Bertha Hoover spent Sunday in town.

Conductor J. H. Smith went to Jersey Shore on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Daniker returned from a visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. W. A. Selts, of Jersey Shore, spent Monday in town; returning the same evening.

The rain fall last Friday, Saturday and Sunday has relieved the water famine in the surrounding towns.

Last Sunday was temperance day in the M. E. church. An appropriate sermon by the pastor in the morning and an address by Rev. Hawkins and A. W. Marks in the evening.

A new schedule went into effect on the Penna. Div. of the N. Y. C. Sunday Nov. 25th. There is no change in the time of passenger trains in here. The only change is the running of coal trains on Sunday same as other days.

Rev. Ellis Bell, the new presiding elder of the Altoona district of the M. E. church, will attend the service of the rededication of that church on Dec. 9th, in conjunction with Bishop Fowler and Rev. I. L. Tompkinson, the pastor.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

JOHN WANAMAKER'S NEW MAGAZINE.—The latest development in magazines is the entrance of the firm of John Wanamaker into the publisher's field. They will take over and publish, beginning with the December issue, Everybody's Magazine. "We have set ourselves the task of building up in character and circulation an illustrated magazine of our own and of the best type," says the announcement. So radical a departure seems to call for some explanation; the statements made that the Wanamaker Stores have become the largest sellers of books at retail in the country and that they deal with more readers directly than any other firm (the aggregate sales equaling or surpassing the sales of even the larger publishing houses) they think that a popular magazine business naturally to this organization. A highly attractive Christmas number is promised with contributions from James Whitcomb Riley, Miss Mary E. Wilkins, Charles Major, author of "When Knighthood was in Flower," Edwin Asa Dix of "Deacon Bradbury" fame and a novel serial by a new Southern woman writer of whom serials are expected.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER LADIES HOME JOURNAL.—"Jerusalem as We See it Today," by Mrs. Lew Wallace; "Where the Children See Saint Nick," "Two Christmas Days at Rock Farm," "The Fourteenth Man," "The Two Wives," "The Millionaire," "The Innkeeper's Daughter Who Discovers a President's Cabinet," "What May Happen in the Next Hundred Years," give seasonal and general interest to the Christmas Ladies Home Journal. "The Little Men Play," a dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's charming story, will be sure to meet popular favor. There are also some "Dear Santa" by Charles Major, another chapter of Elizabeth Stuart Phelps's humorous domestic serial, and the third chapter of "The Story of a Young Man." In "The Christmas that Remains" Edward Bok urges a return to the simpler celebration of the festival day, and "An American Mother" answers the query, "Why Are We Women Not Happier?" The first of W. L. Garrison's "Dear Santa" series, "The Last Hundred Years in New England," is presented. It portrays "The Traveling Shoemaker," and is an excellent companion piece to A. B. Frost's "When the Circus Comes to Town." A large double page, "Through Picturesque America," shows some beautiful views of the Yosemite Valley. There are plans for "An Old English Country House for $3000," and for "A Northern Farmhouse to Cost $3000," and a variety of practical articles, especially helpful in the holiday season. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.
