

REV. FATHER FLEMING DEAD.—Rev. T. J. Fleming, who until recently had charge of St. Mary's Catholic church at Snow Shoe, died at Bonnewille, Adams county, on Friday morning. He had been in poor health for some time and gave up his parish at Snow Shoe on that account.

Father Fleming was rector of the church of the Immaculate Conception at Lock Haven about twenty years ago and since that time he has been at Loust Gap, Chambersburg and Snow Shoe. He was quite well known in this place, where he was a frequent guest of Rev. Father McArlie. Deceased was about 72 years old.

—Samuel Watson, who was born in October, 1820, died at Lamar Sunday evening. He is said to have been the oldest resident along Fishing Creek. In early life he had charge of the Washington Iron Co. farms and during the Civil war he leased and operated the furnace. He is survived by a widow, one son and an adopted daughter. For fifty years Mr. Watson had been a member of the Methodist church and he was buried by his pastor on Wednesday morning.

—Mrs. Israel Weaver, of Aaronsburg, died at her home on that place last Friday morning, after a long illness with cancer of the stomach. Rev. Gerhart conducted the funeral services on Monday morning and interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

—Mrs. Jas. Shearer, aged 49 years, died at Cedar Springs, Monday morning, after an illness of nearly four years with dropsy. Her husband and eleven children survive her.

—Diphtheria had another victim on Saturday when the bright, four year old daughter of Mrs. Annie Shreffler, of Bush's Addition, died.

—Mrs. Adam Stover, aged 75 years, died at her home in Mill Hall on Wednesday morning. She is survived by her husband and one son.

How It Works.—Truly there is nothing new under the sun. They had the same kind of people and the same kind of business men in the days of King Solomon that we have to-day. They had the hustler who let every body know what he was doing and when he had bargains for the people he scattered news of them over the entire land, and it increased his profits and helped him grow fat. Then, again, they had the drone who bought a stock of goods, that he must have been ashamed of, and shut himself up in his store and with-held all knowledge from the public of what he had for sale, and he grew poorer and more poverty stricken every day. And the wise old King saw the way things worked and proclaimed to his people the benefits of judicious advertising in the following:

Prov. 11:24, 25: "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. The liberal soul shall be made fat; and he that witheth shall be watered also himself."

WORK OF THE STATE GRAUGE.—Capt. Jno. A. Hunter, of Stormstown, was chosen one of the vice presidents of the welcome meeting of the State Grauge in the court house at Lock Haven, Tuesday evening. At the business meeting of the Grauge, which opened on Wednesday morning, Col. Jas. F. Weaver, of Milesburg, was placed on the committee on resolutions; A. N. Corman, on agriculture; G. L. Ebbs, on publication; Isaac Frain, on transportation.

In accordance with a resolution presented by Leonard Rhone on behalf of Pomona Grauge, No. 13, Worthy Master Hill appointed the following committee to examine designs for the regulations of flags for the State Pomona and subordinate Grauges: Hon. Leonard Rhone, Centre; Mrs. I. F. Chandler, Chester; Mrs. Thayer, Atlantic; Mrs. Holliday, Crooked Creek; and Mrs. Helen Johnson, Erie.

This flag proposition is original with the Centre county Grauge, as all visitors to the park, at Centre Hall, during the past two years have observed.

At the Wednesday session the principal new business was discussion of these subjects. That nature study be introduced in the public schools; that the next Legislature be requested to appropriate $10,000 a year for two years for the Pennsylvania State College to defray the expenses of distributing leaflets on nature study to public school teachers; that the Legislature provide for carrying into effect the Act of June 28th, 1895, providing for the establishment of township high schools; that the Legislature make sufficient appropriation for erection and maintenance at the State College of a suitable building for teaching the different branches of agriculture, including dairy and forestry.

The executive committee, in its annual report, recommended a reduction in the representation at the annual State Grauge meeting from 500 to about 200, but the recommendation was defeated.

The sixth or Florida degree was conferred to-night on a class of about eighty.

—Joseph McClelland, of near Houtzdale, was committed to the Clearfield jail on Monday to await the coroner's investigation as to the death of Bessie Burkholder on that day. A brother of young McClelland had been out hunting and upon his return handed his loaded and cocked gun to him. The weapon was hardly in his hands until discharged, the load entering the breast of the girl standing nearby. She was but a child.

Phillipsburg.

Mrs. Pennybaker, of Irvona, spent Sunday with her parents in town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell, of Buffalo, N. Y., were guests of Rev. and Mrs. I. L. Tompkinson over Sunday.

Mr. Charles Sharpless, recently of DuBois, will soon occupy his residence at the corner of Seventh and Spruce streets.

Mr. A. Hugg, of Milesburg, who recently purchased the Swan hotel, is erecting a new stable in connection with the hotel.

The rededication of the remodeled M. E. church Sunday, was a complete success in every respect. Something over $3,000 of the $6,000 needed was raised in the morning and during the afternoon and evening services they succeeded in raising $6,600; $600 over the amount needed. These subscriptions, much was received in cash, are made payable within two years.

There was a head-on collision at Bigler, on the N. Y. C. at 5 a.m. Tuesday morning which was due to a confusion of orders. Third section of No. 12 east bound freight and first section of No. 17, a west bound empty train, came together with a mighty crash, ending the life of brakeman William Marr, who was riding on the engine of the west bound train. Traffic was delayed for four hours. Both engines were completely demolished.

On Monday evening, in the M. E. church, Bishop Charles H. Fowler, delivered his famous lecture on "Abraham Lincoln." Without any exception it was the grandest intellectual treat this town ever enjoyed. For nearly two hours and a half the lecturer held the audience spell-bound with his burning eloquence, vividly describing the lofty character of that grand old hero. Bishop Fowler left impressions upon the mind of the hearers which will never be forgotten.

Pine Grove Mention.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Samuel Goss and Alka Musser.

Michael Hess and wife, of Shingletown, visited at the Lutheran parsonage here last Saturday.

Jacob Bortor, of Lemont, accompanied by Mrs. Bortor, inspected his broad acres on the Branch Monday.

A new fence graces the front of the Julia Musser property and is a very desirable improvement.

Mrs. Sallie Bloom, widow of William Bloom, is here from Nebraska to spend the winter.

Luther Smith, of Johnstown, is at home on account of his brother Lowell's illness visiting his mother on Main street.

Adam Murphy, of Clearfield, with his wife and daughter are visiting at the old Dr. Smith home on Water street.

Our young friend Charley Mays has charge of the Baileyville creamery. He is ambitious and energetic enough to make it go.

Shoemaker is entitled to the belt as the boss hog grower of the town and wants his two gruntes put on record at 435 and 401.

George Bailey is down from Altoona nursing his right hand of which he had three fingers broken and smashed by a hydraulic jack.

Scott Sholl, of Illinois, is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Remy, who he expects to accompany him back to his home in the Sucker State.

Mrs. S. A. Young, of Bellefonte, came up on Wednesday to visit her mother who has reached her seventy-sixth anniversary without being old or feeble.

Rumor says that John L. Markle, of Capt. Hunter's farm near Stormstown, is about to purchase the J. H. Lytle property on Main street and will take possession next spring.

Mrs. Minnie Goss and Mrs. Annie Tate were in Bellefonte doing their Christmas shopping on Tuesday and getting pointers for their winter wardrobes. Their bonnets are stunning.

Insurance agent Good registered at the St. Elmo on the 7th and while here took a hand in butchering. He may be a howling scoundrel as an insurance agent but as a butcher—oh! he needs to learn a lot.

Sam Everhart and Paul Bailey, who were satisfied with a fortnight in the Mountain city, are back home roasting their shins at their father's heartstomach confident that they are the most comfortable places on earth.

Mrs. Mary Remy is suffering from a partial stroke of paralysis which she suffered last Friday while walking in the yard. Her left side, face and speech were affected but she is very much better considering she is just recovering from a broken arm.

Former Judge D. L. Krebs, of Clearfield, is now in Salt Lake City, Utah, on account of the illness of his nephew Ira, whose condition is such that there is no hope of his life. Wednesday his uncle telegraphed to the relatives here that he was in a comatose condition and sinking fast.

The protracted meeting in the Presbyterian church, conducted by the Rev. Warden, has been so encouraging and successful that it will be continued the coming week. The greatest interest has been manifested in the meetings and a number of conversions have taken place.

GRANGE MEETING.—A public meeting will be held in the M. E. church, here, on Friday afternoon, the 21st, at 1:30 o'clock. Hon. Mortimer Whitehead, and State Master Hill will be among the speakers and every one is cordially invited to be present. The meeting is in the interests of the P. of H., and subjects pertaining to farming will be discussed.

High Valley.

There is snow in High Valley, but not enough to answer the lumberman's purpose.

"Uncle" Abe has gone to Altoona to make his home with his son. All his friends in this section wish him contentment in his new home and hope that his days may be long upon the earth.

The poor people at Coburn are already saying that the High Valley scribe's prediction came nearer the truth than McKinley's promise. We promised wagon loads of free wood, while the other fellows offered a full dinner pail. We stand ready to make our promise good, but the full dinner pail makers are nowhere in evidence.

Sunday morning about 4 o'clock the large Gottschall mill at Poe Mills took fire and was burned to the ground. Three buildings and twenty piles of lumber were destroyed, involving a loss of about $10,000.

In Memoriam.

Death has again entered Half Moon Lodge, No. 845, L. O. F., and taken one of our oldest and most respected members, past secretary, Dr. William G. Bigelow, who was secretary of our lodge for eleven years. Six months ago he resigned this office on account of poor health which resulted in death Nov. 28th, 1900.

WHEREAS—It has seemed wise to Him who doeth all things well to remove from our midst our late worthy and esteemed brother and

WHEREAS—The intimate relations held by the deceased with the members of our lodge render it proper that we should place upon record our appreciation of his worth as a man and a brother. Therefore be it

Resolved.—That we deplore the loss of our late brother with deep feelings of sorrow and regret softened only by the confident hope that his spirit will rise to the office of an angel here and are enjoying their reward in perfect happiness in a better world.

Resolved.—That we tender the bereaved family of the deceased our sincere condolence and earnest sympathy in their affliction, in the loss of him who was a true and upright husband and father.

Resolved.—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and that we drapo our charter for the usual period.

I. G. BOBKET,
J. T. COWHER,
W. R. BIDDEL,
Committee.

WHEREAS the great and supreme Ruler has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us His worthy and esteemed singing school teacher Prof. John Weaver and

WHEREAS the short and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this singing society makes it eminently fitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore, be it

Resolved that the wisdom and ability he has exercised in the aid of our singing society by service and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance by this organization.

Resolved that the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all members and friends of this organization and will prove a serious loss to the public.

Resolved, that with sympathy with the bereaved relations of the deceased we express our hope that so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by him who doeth all things well.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the society, a copy printed in the local papers and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.
