Aemocratic Matchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 4, 1901.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub lished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Sol. Peck, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel -Argument court is in session this Wolf, Tylersville; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel week. Wolf, Boonville; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

-Revival services are in progress in Brungart, Wolf's Store; Miss Mable Brunthe United Brethren church in this place. gart, who is attending Allentown College ----Harry Larimer, Rush Larimer's for Women; Mrs. Reuben Meyer, J. B. youngest son, is very sick with typhoid Kreamer, Mr. Wm. Limbert and family, pneumonia Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Corman, Mr. and -The "Air Ship" company that comes Mrs. J. T. Corman, all of Rebersburg; to Garman's next Tuesday night, boasts a Mrs. Rose Diehl and child, Bellview, O.; etc., in the spring.

Mrs. Ada Stover and child. Penn Hall; lot of pretty girls. -The hardware firm of Potter & Hoy Mrs. Emil Harter, Rebersburg; Mr. and a big fat turkey on Christmas.

Powell left town the day after Christmas and there are likely to be few requests for E. Hoy, Madisonburg, Pa. his return.

-----Mrs. Charles McLain, of Penn street, Gray Barnard, the eminent sculptor is in gave a delightful entertainment for her town and will be here for a few days as the Sunday school class, at her home, on guest of Mr. Wm. P. Humes and his sister, Christmas evening. Miss Myra. Mr. Barnard is a son of Rev. Joseph H

-John W. Harter has sold his farm in the vicinity of Rebersburg to Mr. Mc-Cool, of Spring Mills. The latter will pastor of the Presbyterian church in this, ed him down: remaining standing on the move onto it in the spring.

-Jerome Wilkins, who has been workturing attracted world wide attention ing on a dairy farm in Illinois for some through several pieces he exhibited in the time, is at his home in Aaronsburg, and Paris salon and he has taken rank among will remain until the first of February. such eminent artists as MacMonnies and little Boynton Daggett, son of W. L. Daggett, of the Bush house, was seized with rheumatism and has been housed up ever since.

ment and Curtin memorial. He met the -James I. McClure, the local mencommittee last evening and gave some agerie man and purveyor to some of the fox valuable suggestions as to execution of the hunters of the eastern part of the State, project. Mrs. Barnard is here also and they shipped a crate of eight fine red foxes to will remain in town for a few days. J. Howard Wilson, of West Chester, on Friday. EO. L. POTTER & CO.,

BURG .-- Lewis C. Wetzei, inventor, machin--Albert Owen Esq., a resident of ist and bicycle dealer of this place, went to Milesburg, broke his arm at the wrist on Philipsburg on Tuesday to become fore-Sunday evening. He had stepped out of man of the Moshannon Mfg. Co's. machine the back door of his home and, not knowshops in that place and if he likes the ing of the slippery condition of the side work he will move his family to that place walks, he fell. In throwing out his left in the spring. arm to save himself he twisted and broke John Teats, who has had years of ex-it. -The newly elected officers of Post 261 at Milesburg will be installed on Satwill continue it. urday evening with public ceremonies and a camp fire at which many of the old veterans will talk and some outsiders will be given a chance also. There will likely be a good time there tomorrow night and you are invited. competent to undertake any work.

-Edward G. Parsons, of Bellefonte, was given a hearing before Alderman Do-Byne on Thursday afternoon, at Altoona, charged with larceny and false pretense.

experiences.

A BIG SURPRISE .- W. H. Corman of -William Alter, of Millheim was re-Rebersburg celebrated his sixty-first birthcently placed on the pension list at $6 per day on Saturday and in order that the month and was given $711 back pay. event might be forcibly impressed on his mind a big surprise party was given in his not be able to pray with the same unction honor and there were guests bearing gifts and good wishes and the day was most

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs.

los. Hoy, State College; Mr. and Mrs.

place, and was born here thirty-four years

Mr. Barnard is here upon the invitation of Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, president of the committee on design for the soldiers' monu-

French.

enjoyably spent.

-By being thrown from his wagon on Christmas day D. W. Meyer, of Boalsburg, was so badly hurt that he will be laid up for some time.

-The engine and boiler have been set for the shirt factory and the work of making shirts will be resumed as soon as possible. The capacity of the plant will be greatly increased.

-J. C. Bible, of near Centre Hill, purchased the Strohm property at Centre Hill, comprising a dwelling house, store room, etc., from Alfred Lee, who bought it about a year ago from the Michael Strohm estate. Mr. Bible will take charge of the store,

-A. G. Morris, of Tyrone, has just received the first one of a powerful new stone presented each one of their employees with Mrs. AdamGrenninger, Kreamerville; Mr. crusher of his own invention. It was made and Mrs. J. R. Brungart, Mrs. Geo. by the Tyrone Foundry and Machine Co. -Through the order of exile "Brack" Corman and child, Rebersburg; H. C. and weighs 110,000 lbs. The crusher has Musser and family, Spring Mills; Chas. five separate and distinct jaws, working together so that large rocks can be reduced to any desired size. It will be set up at A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR. -- George the Morris Naginey quarries near Milroy.

> son of Wm. Grove, of Shiloh, was badly hurt last Friday in a peculiar way. He was repairing a stall in William Zettle's Barnard, of Madison, Indiana, formerly stable, when a horse reared up and knockboy's head until it was removed by force. ago. Several years ago his work in sculp- He was unconscious for several hours after the accident, but Dr. Dale was quickly maid of honor was Miss Margart Steiner, of called and he is able to be about now.

> > -Between sixty and seventy guests were present to witness the wedding of of the bride. Miss Emma J. Hockman to Mr. Witmer B. Grove, of Spring Mills, which was celebrated at the bride's home near Mingoville on the 25th ult. Mrs. Grove is a daughter of Mr. Mrs. Peter Hockman and is said to be a very charming young woman. Rev H. I. Crow performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception and splendid dinner.

WILL PROBABLY MOVE TO PHILIPS--The Petriken memorial fund had New Year's gift of $245.35 given it with the proviso that it be used for purchasing Tessie Woodring, as maid of honor and the books for the library which it is hoped is to be built in connection with the hall. brother. After a brief wedding journey The money was a fund started several the young people will go to house keeping years ago for a library by a couple of the young people of the town. To the project Col. James Milliken, of New York, conperience in Mr. Wetzel's repair shop on tributed one hundred dollars and the bal-Water street, has rented that plant and their entertainment "The Wedding March" While Bellefonte will be sorry to lose. and Mrs. M. D. Burnet's character party. the Wetzels we can heartily congratulate our sister town on the acquisition of such -----The First National bank of Philipsdesirable residents. Mr. Wetzel is a very burg, of which our former townsman F. capable machinist, thoroughly reliable and K. Lukenbach is now cashier, has sent out very tidy statements of the bank's business K. G. E. OFFICERS INSTALLED. -On condition at the closing hour on Dec 13th. Tuesday evening the newly elected officers At that time they had $653,924.94 on deof Bellefonte Castle, K. G. E. were install- posit and were carrying a reserve of $259,-They The First National of Phili were : P. C., J. S. McCargar; N. C., Oscar burg is certainly a very strong institution Wetzel; V. C., J. K. Johnson; M. of R., for a town of Philipsburg's size and with E. E. Ardery: K. of E., L. H. Wian; S. R., such men as Wm. P. Duncan, Geo. W. Mc-J. M. Keichline; H. P., Jas. Schofield; W. Gaffey and F. K. Lukenbach directing it B., A. Lukenbach; V. H., Rob't. Shreffler; who can say that it is not safely guided. ----The New Year's ball of the Logans by the lodge as representative to the Grand was a greater success than usual. There was a larger crowd present than has been the case for a number of years, better music and a better time for all. The whole affair reflected much credit on the committee in charge Messrs Shields, Archev, Morrison. Cassidy and Waite, who are grateful for all favors received and want to extend particular thanks to Col. W. F. Reynolds and Jos. L. Montgomery for the 'use of horses, to Capt. Taylor, and to Mr. G. R. Spigelmyer for the famous Racket elephant. -The coming of the farce comedy, "The Air Ship," to Garman's on Tuesday night, Jan. 8th, will reveal an entirely new entertainment prepared upon original lines and filled to the brim with attractive presenting the piece numbers some twenty people. "The Air Ship" is a musical farce, embracing many of the special features of burlesque, extravagance and spectacle, and nish a distinct surprise in the richness of us without any warning from the weather its scenic and costume embellishments, a bureau. While blizzards are raging in all lavish outlay having been made to surpass their fury in the Western and Northern in these respects any similar productions of recent years.

GUMMO-GETTIG .- The marriage of Miss Andrew Gettig, formerly of Linden Hall, factory in operation. but now of Braddock, was solemnized on Wednesday the 26th ult., at 4 o'clock at the United Brethern parsonage on south Thomas street. Their engagement had heen announced and the time of the wedding decided upon some time ago but Mrs. Gummo's health did not warrant any great festivities at home, so they came here to have the ceremony performed.

Rev. T. W. Perks officiated. The bride was accompanied by her sister. Miss Kate Gummo, as maid of honor and the groom's brother, Samuel D. Gettig, of this place, acted as best man. The young people departed on the 4:44 train for a short wedding journey, after which they will go to housekeeping at Braddock. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Gummo, of Waddles, and is a most excellent and capable young woman. Mr. Gettig is energetic, industrious and bent on making generous provision for a comfortable home. He is now employed as carpenter with the Braddock Traction company.

MARTIN-HOLMES.-In the presence of a large party of guests Mr. John B. Martin, of Pittsburg, and Emma Holmes were married at noon on Christmas day. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James O. Dennison at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Holmes Sr. of State College. The groom was attended by his brother, George Martin, of Pittsburg, as best man, while the Lock Haven. The wedding duet was played by Miss Maud Kennedy, of State College, and Miss Mabel Holmes, a sister

Mr. and Mrs. Martin went to Pittsburg. where they will make their future home. MARRIED AT PORT MATILDA.-The marriage of Miss May Woodring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodring and Mr. James Reese, was celebrated Christmas day at noon at the home of the bride's parents at Port Matilda. Rev. Mr. Scott, of Bellefonte, performed the ceremony in the presence of quite a number of guests. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss best man was Harry Reese, the groom's at Sandy Ridge where the groom is employed in the fire brick works.

IRWIN-ROSSER-The large country house of the Irwins at Jacksonville was the scene of a brilliant wedding on the day after Christmas, when Eleanor Louise Irwin was married to Jesse B. Rosser, of very delightful function.

-On Thursday evening, Dec. 26th, eremony was performed at the home of the

-----$50,000 stock has been subscribed

----Mr. Wm. P. Humes entertained a party of gentlemen at dinner last evening, turists. Mr. Woodward, who has charge in honor of his distinguished guest George of them, has left nothing undone to give Gray Barnard.

-Frank Weber and Joe Pritchard have leased the old Hoover, Hughes & Co. planing mill property in Philipsburg and will make a livery, feed and exchange stable out of it.

ian at the Stevens lime operations up Buf- Arcadie, Centre Hall, on Friday and Saturfalo Run, caught fire about 10 o'clock day, Jan. 11th and 12th. The program Wednesday morning and burned so rapidly that a woman inmate and her little child was they were quite seriously burned.

News Purely Personal

-Miss Hattie Mann, of Lewistown, is visiting riends in town

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Malcolm Laurie spent their Christmas at Mrs. Laurie's home in Danville. -Harry Gerberich spent New Year's day with his sister. Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, in Philipsburg. -William Boalick, of New York, spent Christmas with his sister. Mrs. J. L. Seibert, of north Allegheny street -Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, and Col. Jas. F. Weaver, of Milesburg, were in town on Tuesday. -Paul Carner, of Hublersburg, returned to hi udies at Nazareth Hall on Tuesday. He had been home for the Holidays. -Clarence Hamilton, of New York, who had een in town spending a few days with his parents, left for the metropolis on Wednesday after-

-Mrs. Wistar Morris, of Overbrook, who had pened her house here for the Holidays left on Wednesday with her grandchildren and retinue of servants.

-Mr. and Mrs. Archie Allison, with their daughter Catharine, left for Philadelphia on Tuesday morning. They expect to be gone a week or ten days.

-Among the notables in town this week were Thomas H. Murray, of Clearfield, the well known barrister, and John Q. Miles, of Huston township, ormer county treasurer.

--William S. Furst, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. John Furst and Miss Sallie Watson, of Wiliamsport, were among the Holiday visitors at the Furst home on Linn street.

-Charles E. Dorworth, who recently resigned is position on the Philadelphia Press to accept another one on the Pittsburg Times staff, was in town to spend Christmas with his parents. -Mr. T. L. Shope, of Boggs township, was i own yesterday and has an estray pig on his hands, which he would like to get rid of. He is taking the right plan, because he is going as th

-Herman Long, who spent his vacation a Boalsburg, with his mother, Mrs. Stamm, was in town Tuesday on his way back to Braddock her with you to every session where he is one of the army of hustling young men Carnegie employs. -Miss Laura Rumberger, who was at home spending Christmas with her parents at Union-Mill Hall. There were 150 guests present ville, and ner brother here, returned Tuesday to to witness the ceremony which proved a Philadelphia, where she is taking vocal lesson at the Conservatory of Music on South Broad street

-Robert Lyon, of Pittsburg, was home for Miss Minerva S. Heckman was married to few days during the holiday week. In fact most Mr. Fred G. Fillman, of Clintondale. The of the Bellefonte contingent in Pittsburg were home as Bruce Barnhart, Amos Cole and Robert Eckman were here. iome. -M. C. Gephart, the energetic young musical

PROGRAMS FOR THE FARMER'S INSTI-Minnie E. Gummo, of Buffalo Run, and J. | to reorganize and continue the Tyroue shoe | TUTES.-The institutes that will be held in Centre county next week under the direction of the State Department of Agriculture should prove very attractive to agriculthe farmers of his home county the best that is possible in the way of speakers and other features of instruction and entertainment.

The first institute will be held in the Methodist church at Port Matilda on Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 9th and 10th. -The boarding house run by an Ital- The other sessions will be held in Grange for the Centre Hall institute is as follows : FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 1:30 o'clock.

> Rev. W. W. Rhoads James A. KellerJ. S. Burns Response.... Leaks on the Farm.... What to do with a Poor Farm... Success on the Farm..... Diversified Farming.....Henry Duck ...R. L. BeardsleeD. D. RoyerProf. S. B. Heiges FRIDAY EVENING, 7:30 O'CLOCK,

Rev. J. M. Reariek Prayer. Prayer Query Box Recitation......Miss Grace Boob The Social Side of Farm Life...Marcelius A. Sankey The Farmer and his Wife......J.S. Burns How Nature Study can be Taught in the Public Drof S. B. Haires Benools......Prof. S. B. Heiges How to Keep the Bright Young Men on the Farm A. N. Corman

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 1:30 O'CLOCK. MusicRev. Kershner

Recitation......Miss A Commercial Fertilizers... Dairy Cattle... Poultry and Profit... The care of our Timber Lands. na Bartholomew ...Dr. Wm. FrearJ. A. Sankey ...Prof. S. B. HeigesProf. R. C. Neff

SATURDAY EVENING, 7:15 O'CLOCK MusicRev. Kershner

...David K. Keller Miss Florence Rhone

otato Culture R. L. Beardslee Music An Education for Farmer's Children..... Prof. S. B. Heiges

When a speaker takes his seat he is open to question and his subject to general discussion. Everybody is cordially invited to take part.

Keep the Query Box filled with proper questions and keep the improper and irrelevant ones in your pocket.

The Query Box will be opened at the beginning of each session; be prompt that you may have the benefit of it.

Arrange to get the young men and young women of the farm out to this institute. It will help them start right.

Your wife will remember what is worth remembering better than you will. Take NOTICE TO FARMERS. - On and after December 15th, we will not take any kind of grain on store at our mill. We will however, be in the market for eash grain constantly and will pay the highest prices. PHOENIX MILLING CO.

Public Sale.

JANUARY 5.-At Old Fort hotel, Potter Twp., household furniture of all description Sale at ehold furniture o 10 a. m.

ance was made by the Dramatic Club at

----Harry Grove, the nineteen year old serve for the next six months. Parsons waived a hearing and gave bail for his appearance at the next term of court. Dr. H. K. Hoy, formerly of this place.gave the required bail.

-Paul L. Sternberg and his brother Harry, sons of A. Sternberg, formerly of Trustee, W. P. Kuhn. this place, have opened a business place in

W. Harrison Walker Esq., was elected Oakland, Cal. They are in the fish, oyster, tea, coffee and fruit business and have a Castle which meets the second week in place in the Montgomery market. The May at Lebanon, Pa. Sternberg boys have been on the Slope for a number of years and have had very varied

PROF. COLE'S IDEA OF COMING WEATH-ER. - Prof. Coles in Storms and Signs

-At the last meeting of the Undine makes the following predictions for Janu-Fire Co. that organization tendered a vote ary of thanks to Mr. A. G. Morris, of Tyrone, "All of the destructive storms that ocfor a handsome Christmas present of $25. curred last month came upon the very days that we had the danger signals displayed The company appreciated the gift very much and it was the subject of a number on our Storm and Signal calendar. Durof expressions of gratefulness for Mr. Mor- ing the current month the regular storm ris' voluntary kindness to the organization. periods will occur between the 1st and 8th, They took formal action to thank the donor. the 11th and 15th and the 18th and 25th ;

-On Friday, Dec. 27th, Mrs. Mary and the reactionary storm periods between Griffith, of Axe Mann, celebrated the the 8th and 11th, the 15th and 18th and eighty-sixth anniversary of her birth. In the 25th and 31st. The new moon will honor of the event a family reunion was occur on the 20th, and the planets will then features and novel ideas. The company held at the Griffith home and her brother be in position to cause high gales and de-Thomas Waddle, aged 82, of Jersey Shore: structive showers in many parts of the and sisters Mrs. Hannah Hamilton aged country, just before, on and after that 84, and Mrs. Sara Williams, aged 77, were date. Hurricanes will continue to sweep present making the combined ages of the the seas, and the Great Lakes. Watch out it is promised that the production will furfor a sweeping storm that will come upon onartet 329 years.

-Harry Rearick, son of L. C. Rearick. of Benner township, was struck by a trolbey car at Niagara Falls, on Christmas States, the Eastern and Middle States will night, and quite seriously hurt. He had be enjoying sunshine and flowers; and only left his home to go to Niagara to while the wild winds and blizzards are work about a week before he met with the raging in the Eastern States, the Western misfortune. His brother Lovd lives at States will undoubtedly see strange appear-Niagara and his father went up the day ing electrical storms with thunder vibraafter Christmas so that he received the tion accompaniment. proper care and will probably recover.

-Mrs. Sarab Harman entertained the primary scholars of the United Brethren to fasten John Wingard's toes on again af- eral elever specialties in the olio. Perhaps sabbath school last Friday afternoon at her ter he had whacked them with an ax on the most artistic numbers in the opening home on Potter St., assisted by Mrs. Perks | Monday of last week. He is a resident of | were the overture and "Where is My Boy and Mrs. C. L. Rote. The Gramophone Tusseyville and started out to cut wood, To-night" which was sung by Mr. Edward music was highly enjoyed by the little when after making a few strokes his ax Fleming with splendid effect. The folks, as well as some excellent selections caught in a limb, causing it to slip and Forgerines, Messrs Rine, Peters, Rice, rendered on the organ by Mrs. Perks. Re- strike him on the foot, nearly severing the Howard and Freddie Gregg, proved a revelafreshments such as delight the hearts of big toe and the one next to it. Dr. Lee tion to most people who had expected lit children were served, and all departed to fixed up the wound and the unfortunate the from hat number. As acrobats the their homes having had a most delightful man is doing as well as could be expected. time.

---- Earl From, a little son of Ira From, on Wednesday morning by being trampled of this place, suffered a compound fracture by a horse he was hitching up. In some of one of his legs on Thursday afternoon. way he became entangled in the harness When Thal's grocery wagon was passing and fell; frightening the horse so that it his home near the Phoenix mills, the child jumped on him and tore the flesh from his leg. It required twelve stitches to close undertook to climb onto it. He missed his hold and one of his legs got tangled in up his wounds.

a wheel. The driver did not hear the boy's -Next Tuesday night the "Air Ship," cries until the wagon had gone some distance, then he was thoroughly tangled up another of those light, rollicking comedies, and it was thought at first that he was hurt even more seriously than proved to be the dancing, comes to Garman's.

-The performance of the amateur minstrels, at Garman's, Tuesday night, attracted the largest and most fashionable house of the season. While the boys were. for the most part, troubled with bad colds the musical numbers were very pleasing and proved a delightful prelude to the sev------It required seven or eight stitches boys caught the house and the buck and wing dancing of Bobby Green earned the encore it received, while Billy Rine's jig dancing proved more popular than ever Fred Smith as Prof. Pigginfront, with his > trained elephant, bear and frog, was a howling success, as was also Mr. R. A. Beck's vocal, clarinet and violin solos, Beck never fails to bring down the house and on Tuesday night his triumph was most complete. Taken as a whole the show was pleasing and, all things considerwithout much of anything but music and ed, perhaps just a shade better than any ever given by the local amateurs.

bride's father at Snydertown by the Rev. H. I. Crow and proved a very happy event.

---- Miss Mary Anetta Stover, of Eagleville, was married to W. Frank Smith, of Johnsonburg, on Christmas afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Louis Nichols at the home of the groom's mother in Lock Haven. MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week : Samuel E. Goss and Alka E. Musser both of Pine Grove Mills. Milton Carver, of Bellefoute, and Clara Kustenborder, of Warriors-mark. Leo. Wohlfart, of Livonia, and Jennie D. M. Lupold, of Carroll. Orlanda Smith and Carrie E. Walizer, both of Howard. Jas C. Reeder and Annie E. Foust, both of Spring Mills. Jas. Reese and May Woodring, both of Port Matilda. Beecher Wesley Wyle, of Aaronsburg, and Clara Ida Kahl, of Greenburr. Jas. R. Smith and Elsie R. Benner, both of Feidler. Isaac George and Annie Oswalt, both of Philipsburg. John R. Schreek, of Lemont, and Jennie M. Weibley, of Linden Hall. John B. Martin, of Pittsburg, and Emma A. Holmes, of State College. John Dunkle, of Howard, and Weaver, of Hublersburg. Robert C. Thompson and Lizzie Behrer, both of Port Matilda. Charles H. Shaffer and Nettie N. Stover, both of Madisonburg. Andrew J. Gettig, of Linden Hall, and Minnie E. Gummo, of Waddle. Harvey Maxon Home, of Colyer, and Katie Jodon, of Tusseyville. Robert S. Zimmerman, of Johnstown, and Bertha J. Shope, of Milesburg. Henry B. Hummel, of Philipsburg, and Nora Elva Shimer, of Sington Graham. Samuel L. Gephart, of Rebersburg, and Lizzie M. Stover, of Feidler.

Wm. O. Confer, of Potters Mills, and Leah E. Fevel, of Colyer. Ceden H. Burd and Buelah E. Musser, both of Haines Twp. Francis W. Decker, of Centre Hall, and Lizzie S. Shirk, of Potters Mills. Jacob D. Breon and Louisa A. Ream, both of Spring Mills. P. Milford Corl and Cora A. McCormick both of State College. Charles W. Hurst, of Bellefonte, Mary Ellen Canuy, of Ogontz, Pa.

Milton I. Guiser, of Mill Hall, and Katie A. Burd, of Haines Twp. Wm. B. Walk and Ella Long, both of

Bellwood.

mplement dealer, of Millheim, was in town last evening. He reports business in the lower end as being right brisk and we know of a number of excellent musical instruments he has placed in Bellefonte homes recently.

-William E. Smyser, only son of the lamented Rev. M. L. Smyser, spent Christmas and his vacation with his mother and sisters at their home on Curtin street. He is one of the professors at the Ohio Wesleyan University and returned to Delaware, O., the beginning of the week.

-John Keichline and his sister Miss Daise, arrived home from Battle Creek, Mich., on Decem ber 24th, to spend the Holidays with their par ents Justice and Mrs. Keichline, of Bishop treet They had been away for a year and a half and John has become so thoroughly devoted to his work and preparation for a medical mis sionary to Egypt that he went back on Tuesday to take up his studies in the medical department of the large school he is attending. Miss Dais will not return until spring.

-Geo. W. Rumberger, ex-pedagogue, farmer, commissioner's clerk, Register of Centre county nd singer of the sweet ballad "And the Cat Came Back" was in town on Wednesday looking as if the mercantile business at Unionville is both prosperous and healthful. We feel at liberty to all him all the names we please because he has been a reader of the WATCHMAN ever since the first number was issued and as that has been more than forty-six years we consider him sort of one of the forces that keep things moving here. -Quite a party of Lemont and College township gentlemen were in town Wednesday We don't know just what brought them all down on the same day, but though they did come in crowds we were glad to see them. In the party was the venerable A. J. Tate, of Lemont, who, we regret to say has not been in the best of health of late. E. B. Peters, of Oak Hall, who was showing his brother John around a little. The latter is in from Kansas and might decide to remain permanently in Centre county. H. E. Homan was in the party lively and pleasant as ever and the last was John Garner, of State College, who ame down to make arrangements for his father's -The WATCHMAN office seemed to be a very popular place during the Holiday week. There was a veritable flood of visitors and everyone was as welcome as "the flowers in May." The only regret we had was that we didn't have more time to entertain them as we would like to have done Among them were H. C. Rice, Philipsburg ; G. H. Leyman, Milesburg; J. B. Alexander, Fleming, R. B. Lucas, Milesburg ; J. M. Meyer, Tus seyville; G. Walter Talhelm, Julian; Nevin W. Meyer, Boalsburg; Henry Sampsel, Pleasant Gap; Samuel Charles Milesburg; William Tress ler, Fillmore; Conrad Miller, Bellefonte; Thomas H. Murray Esq., Clearfield ; John H. Beck Esq. Nittany; Benj. Stamm, Boalsburg; Peter Keich-line, William Harper, Jos. Wise, W. Fred Jackson, and Mrs. Emma Lebkicher, of Bellefonte Charles McLaughlin and his bright son, of Wingate; Jacob Leathers, of Mount Eagle; Allen G. Rumberger, of Philadelphia; Michael Hess Esq. of Shingletown; E. B. Roan, Fillmore; Peter Smith, Centre Hall; J. J. Hoy, Jacksonville; Benj. Kauffman, Zion; J. B. Rockey, Fillmore, and Col. Ed. Pruner, of Tyrone. We have no desire "to throw bonquets" at our visitors because it is really undeniable evidence of their good business judgment that they were in, for every one of them saved fifty cents by the call; in other words they will get the WATCHMAN for a dol. lar, while others who are not so prompt will have to pay one-fifty for it.

MARCH 5 .- At the residence of Samuel Garner, at State College, draft horses, cows, short hor, a bulls, young cattle, implements, wagons, har ness etc. Sale at 10 o'clock a.m.

MARCH 19.-At the residence of Michael Hess, nea Shingletown, farm stock, implements, and household goods of every kind. Sale at 10 a. m houschold goods of every kind. Sale at 10° a. m.

MARCH 28th.—At the residence of W. H. Coldren, 2 miles east of Pleasant Gap, farm stock and farm implements of all kinds.
MARCH 20.—Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall. Pa., will sell at his residence Rhoneymede, three miles west of the Old Fort, ninety head of live stock, embracing Morgan and French coach horses and colts, Holstein cattle, Shropshire sheep, Berkshire swine including farm imple-ments. While these animals have not been registered they have been bred from registered sires for three or four generations. A rare op-portunity to buy well bred stock. Sale begins at 10 a. m.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red	733/2@74
-No. 2	71@7234
Corn -Yellow	44
" Mixed	361/4@42
Oats	28(0)303/4
Oats Flour- Winter, Per Br'i	2.30(@2,50
" —Penna. Roller " —Favorite Brands	3.10@3.25
" Favorite Brands	4.15@4.25
Rye Flour Per Br'l	3.00
Baled hay—Choice Timothy No. 1 "" "Mixed " 1	14.50@17.50
" " Mixed " 1	14.50@15.50
Straw	7.00@15.5
	CLA. 111. C. S.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes press : Red wheat, old. Wheat, new Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushe Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats, per bushel, new Barley, per bushel. Ground Plaster, per ton.... Buckwheat, per bushel..... 8 50 to 9 50 ckwheat, pe .$6 00 to $7 50 eed. per bushel Timothy seed per bushel

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes per bushel Eggs, per dozen Lard, per pound

Tallow, per pound. Butter, per pound.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pu, at 81.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertis-ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

ing by the quarter, han year, or year, as lonows
SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1 y
One inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	18 8	18 1
Two inches	7	10	1
Three inches	10	15	2
Quarter Column (5 inches)	12	20	3
Half Column (10 inches)	20	35	5
One Column (20 inches)	35	55	10
A benefit amonta in anonial column	95	nor	aont

Cransient advs. per line, 3 insertions... Local notices, per line. fitted with erms-Cash. All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY MEEK, Propriete