A Spot Bleacher.

It Will Clean the Piano Keys and Take Out Ink Stains.

To keep piano keys clean and prevent the discoloration of the ivory, dampen a piece of muslin with alcohol and with it rub the keys.

Another method of removing ink marks from paper is to mix a teaspoonful of chloride of lime with water just sufficient to cover it.

Thumb marks on the pages of books may be removed by first rubbing the spots with soft bits of stale bread.

After the book is struck, however, it is different. There is one remedy which grows, snarls and short bars, and then issues as fast and game a fight as one could wish to see.

"When the pace gets too hot, the coon takes to the highest tree he can find, and the dogs see that he stays there until the hunters come up.

"After he strikes earth, however, it is different. There is one remedy which grows, snarls and short bars, and then issues as fast and game a fight as one could wish to see.

"Fain is a great mystery," remarked a physician of this city who has a fondness for the recondite side of his profession.

"That sounds like a paradox and is somewhat difficult to explain without resorting to more paradoxical still.

"I had to amputate the two last toes, and the operation, which was under ether, lasted about 20 minutes.

"The other patients seemed to have had practically the same experience and encountered the same difficulties in making themselves understood.

"There is no joy," says the office philosopher, "equal to that of the brownest clerk who finds out his employer is henpecked."

When he reached home, he opened the package he was carrying and displayed a number of placards, some of which read "For Show" and the others "For Use."

Brands of Cigars.

New Ones Come and Go, Like the Flowers of Spring.

"What becomes of all the different brands of cigars which are placed upon the market each year?" said a Washington cigar dealer.

"I carry a large stock of cigars, and I have on my shelves over 50 different brands of cigars which sell wholesale for $35 a thousand and retail for 5 cents.

"This is an appetizing array to the professional smoker and affords an almost unlimited choice.

"By advertising he gets a smoker to say, 'I'll try this brand of cigars for a week.' If he likes it, he may stick to it.

"A happy choice of name has a great deal to do with the success of a cigar, and it is for this reason that makers of popular brands of cigars are so particular in their advertising.

Three Odd Numbers.

Peculiarities that Hedge About Three, Seven and Nine.—They Have Been Favorite Numerals at All Times All the World Over and Disclose Some Queer Results When Treated About a Bit.

Nobody has ever satisfactorily accounted for the popularity of odd numbers.

"This is the third time," exclaims Falstaff, on the occasion of a crisis in his relations with one of the merry wives of Windsor.

"I hope good luck lies in odd numbers; they say there's a divinity in odd numbers, either in nativity, chance or death."

"When the pace gets too hot, the coon takes to the highest tree he can find, and the dogs see that he stays there until the hunters come up.

Her Stocks of Proverbs.

She Applies Them With More Liberality Than Judgment.

Just a few samples will serve to show that she has, in another form, the same trouble that made Mrs. Partington so interesting.

"She looked out the front door and excitedly called to her husband: 'My, Tom, but it's a lovely night. Just as clear as a dornail.'"

"One day she received some callers while it was storming. 'Nasty, isn't it? How unfortunate for you. But beggars can't be choosers.'"

"When the cook broke a costly platter, the little woman assured the fearful of her that all is not gold that glitters."

"Blown to atoms.—The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill, has been exploded; for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure Constipation and Sick Headache. Only 35c at Green's drug store.

"Mrs. Pendee has suffered a great loss through the death of her husband." "Yes; but fortunately the loss is fully covered by insurance."

SCROFULA THE CAUSE.—Eczema, catarrh, hip disease, white swelling, and even consumption have their origin in scrofulous conditions. With the slightest taint of scrofula in the blood, there is no safety. The remedy for this disease in all its forms is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which goes to the root of the trouble and expels all impurities and disease germs from the blood. The best family cathartic is Hood's Pills.

DISFIGURED SKIN. Wasted muscles and decaying bones. "What have I? Scrofula, let alone, is capable of all that, and more. It is commonly marked by bunches in the neck, inflammation in the eyes, dyspepsia, catarrh, and general debility. It is always radically and permanently cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Which expels all humors, cures all eruptions, and builds up the whole system, whether young or old. Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 46-3-11

IMPORTANT ADVICE. It is surprising how many people wake up in the morning nearly as tired as when they went to bed, a disagreeable taste in their mouth, the lips sticky, and the breath offensive, with a coated tongue.

YOU WILL NEVER PROFIT BY YOUR MISTAKES SO LONG AS YOU BLAME OTHERS FOR THEM.—Acheson Globe.

Order! Order! The dignity of the house of commons consists in inventing all sorts of childish excuses for shouting "Order!"

It is a notorious fact that the average government clerk is the most inefficient person found in any class of employment. In proportion to the amount of pay he receives he has more debts than he is unable to meet than the man who gets 35 per cent less money.
