

she relented in time to make all the amends possible when she obtained our summer season, one of perpetual light and warmth.

In spite of all the many advantages we now enjoy over the old timer of '97 in which our present life on the Yukon is not only bearable, but most enjoyable, in every sense of the word, yet the one absorbing question remains the same—"What will the harvest be?" or in other words what will the clean-up produce?

In a few months more scenes of activity and feverish anticipation will have reached its climax which will bring disappointment to some and others a joyous realization of their golden dream.

Judging from the past years and the amount of work being done on all the creeks this season, it is safe to estimate this year's output at $30,000,000 at least. Then when we consider that even the placer mining in this country is yet in its infancy while the gold quartz, copper and coal, possibilities are already attracting labor and capital, the magnitude of Dawson's future assumes gigantic proportions.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. HARRISON S. LUCAS.

Philpsburg.

Dr. J. A. Dale, of Falls Creek, is visiting at Dr. Harman's on Front street.

The new office of Platt-Barber Co. is a beauty, and is rapidly nearing completion.

A. C. Thompson, of Third street, has moved into the Lukens's block on Second street.

The coal business has picked up considerably during the past week, nearly all the mines are working full.

Last Sunday was "reception of members day" at the M. E. church. Five were received into full membership.

The musical for the benefit of Rev. Bright at the Lutheran church last Thursday was enjoyed by a large assemblage of people.

Chester Krens, who has been in Franklin, Pa., for some time, has accepted a position with W. W. Davis, in the latter's store in Jersey Shore.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. S. Bright, left Monday morning for Hubersburg, where they will visit a short time, then depart for their new home in Shelbyville, Ohio.

The Hon. Thos. Murray, of Clearfield, will lecture on Monday evening March 4th in the M. E. church, for the benefit of the building fund. Subject "St. Paul." Admission 25 cents.

About ten o'clock Monday night a feed stable belonging to the Milling Co., caught fire. The prompt work of the fire companies soon put out the conflagration, but not until the building was destroyed.

Hubersburg.

Miss Mattie Sherr, of Youngdale, is visiting with Wm. G. Carners and relatives.

Miss Cora Clevens, daughter of J. H. Clevens, is at present very ill. Grip being the ailment.

Miss Mary Rumberger, seamstress, is at present visiting with her parents, B. W. and Mrs. Rumberger.

Wm. T. Mayse, who had been laid up with the grip, is around again seeing his friends and neighbors.

The people of the "Burg" will soon again be at the threshold of a water famine. Nearly all the wells are dry.

L. H. McCauley and Frank Carner have returned to Altoona, where they are engaged with the Penna. R. Co.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Arthur Young, of Cross Forks, died of grip. Interment will be at Hubersburg.

The snow is rapidly succumbing under the warm rays of old "Sol," and people who appreciate sleighing had better take advantage of the passing opportunity.

Rev. George S. Bright and family, who have been laboring with the Lutheran people at Philipsburg, are at present visiting in our town. The Rev. and family will leave for their new field of labor in the State of Ohio next week. The writer wishes them success.

Pine Grove Mention.

Sleighing is excellent and sledding parties are trump.

Mrs. George Johnson, of Fairbrook, is suffering from pulmonary trouble.

C. B. McCormick lost a valuable cow last week from his German belted herd.

Newton J. Bell, of Spruce Creek, with Mrs. Bell are visiting their old home in the Glades.

Misses Sallie and Annie Behres, of Waddles spent last week at C. B. McCormick's pleasant home.

G. W. McWilliams is recovering from a severe attack of the grip which confined him to the house for weeks.

Misses Nancy and Anna Rooply, of Mercersburg, are visiting their sister Mrs. Black, at the parsonage.

Cap't. J. M. Kepler returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, on Wednesday, entirely cured of his rheumatism.

And now after eighteen years Hamilton Smith has a little brother to share the family joys and be monarch of all his surveys.

Lewis A. Beck, one of Walker township's representative young farmers and his sister are enjoying the sleighing about here this week.

One of our young branch farmers is making so many trips to Tyrone these days that it is supposed he is hunting Kerns (?) out of season as they are.

Miss Jennie Beck, of Alexandria, has been engaged by the school board to finish out the school term of the White Hall school on the account of the resignation of Miss Sadie Keichline.

Samuel Felty and Adam Bucher, two of Altoona's bond holders with their daughters Laura and Ella, enjoyed the sleighing here last week as well as the good square meals served by numerous friends.

On Saturday the 2nd, Charles Snyder will offer at public sale his entire lot of farm implements and stock. There will be no under bidding so that everything offered will be hammered down to the highest bidder and must go.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Bell with little Margaret came down from Eden hill last week to enjoy a visit with old friends at the Glades. From appearances George has been well wintered for he weighs 200 and is still gaining.

Mrs. L. H. Osman, who has been ill with pulmonary trouble for some time had grown so much better that hopes for her speedy recovery were high, until Wednesday, when she suffered a relapse and had to go back to bed again.

On last Saturday evening as Mrs. W. E. McWilliams was going for water through her grandfather Goheen's yard she slipped and fell, breaking her left arm and dislocating her wrist which in all probability will cripple her arm.

The treasury of the Ladies Missionary Society of the Lutheran church was enriched by eleven dollars last Friday night as the result of a sociable. It was to have been held at Miss Annie Musser's but her room proved too small and Mrs. Aikens opened the doors of the parsonage. There everyone had a good time and lots of good things to eat.

Mrs. George W. Keichline, accompanied by her daughter Sadie, went to Philadelphia Tuesday to enter the University hospital for treatment. It will be remembered that several years ago she endured an operation for appendicitis and recovered entirely and her friends hope for the same fortunate results this time. She is suffering with a cancerous growth on her abdomen.

Mrs. Lydia Stever, formerly of this place but for some years past of Altoona where she makes her home with her son, is now being treated for rheumatism in the Duncansville hospital. In a letter to her sister, Mrs. P. F. Bottorf, of this place, she says that if she continues to improve as she has that she will be able to visit her Centre county friends as soon as the weather permits.

W. M. Keller teacher of the Pine Grove second grade school has been obliged to resign his position on account of his illness with appendicitis. His successor has not been chosen as yet. Daniel Koch, of Fairbrook, is also about to resign to accept a clerical position in former sheriff Condo's store at Millheim. Thus there are three vacancies in the schools of the township, almost at the end of the term.

John Snyder is home from Philadelphia, where he has been at St. Luke's hospital for the past ten days being treated for cancer of the lip. We hope he has found the right cure this time for he has tried many remedies that have failed.

Miss Sadie C. Tate youngest daughter of Andrew J. Tate and E. K. Smith were united in marriage Wednesday by the Rev. C. T. Aikens. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage and the happy couple were accompanied by Thomas Decker and wife as attendants. The groom is one of Benner townships progressive school teachers and his wife an excellent young woman. They will go to housekeeping in the John Rupp property at Oak Hall.

On last Friday evening the Oak Grove school to the number of thirty took their teacher Andrew Jackson Tate by surprise by stepping in on him and his good wife without the least sign of their intentions. The arrangements were made so slyly that Andrew had not time to bar them out and once inside the front door they took possession of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Tate proved equal to the emergency, however, and made the young Americans feel perfectly at home. Refreshments were served in abundance.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the sock social at the home of Mrs. A. P. Mitchell and then—it was the greatest financial success. Mrs. Mitchell and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Gibson, were charming hostesses and saw that everyone was happy and comfortable. Guests were present from Boalsburg, State College and Spruce Creek and the evening was one of enjoyment and pleasure. Revs. Illingworth and Aikens were the spokesmen of the evening and ice cream, cake and fruits were served with a lavish hand. The amount of cash realized from the tiny little socks was sixty-six dollars.

The comrades of 272 G. A. R. and their wives celebrated the Twenty-second by enjoying a royal feast at the home of commander Sunday in the Glades. There they were served with choice rations prepared by Mrs. Sunday, her daughters and Miss Gertrude Miller. The banquet over Rev. W. C. Dunlap was chosen toast master and he immediately proceeded to thank the old veterans for the honor. He spoke eloquently of the gallant deeds of the soldiers and the fascination of campaigning as well as the brotherhood of the G. A. R. As usual yarns were swapped and the feast ended with a vote of thanks for commander Sunday and his excellent family for their generous hospitality.

MARRIED AT RENOV.—A pretty wedding was celebrated on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lescher, in Renovo, when their daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Samuel Kaup, the popular stage driver from Boalsburg to Oak Hall. The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock by the Rev. G. W. Lescher an uncle of the bride. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Esther Kaup and Miss Mary Lescher and Messrs. Frank Kaup and Will Lescher as bridesmaids and ushers. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Kaup departed on a short wedding journey after which they will be at home to their friends in the Charley Shaffer house on Main street Boalsburg.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The convention held in the Presbyterian church at Baileyville on Tuesday, the 26th, was so well attended that standing room was in demand. At 10 o'clock Rev. Aikens wrapped for order and invoked the divine blessing. Rev. Love of Baileyville delivered the address of welcome and it was responded to by the Rev. Reरिक of Centre Hall. In the absence of the secretary-elect Miss Maud Irvin was chosen secretary pro-tem. Mrs. Thomas Gates presided at the organ and with the assistance of an excellent choir rendered some good music. The ministers presided and taking an active part were Revs. Kechner, Reरिक and Schuyler, of Centre Hall, Rev. Black, of Boalsburg, Rev. Hepler, of Lemont, Rev. Aikens, of Pine Grove, Rev. Runyan of Stormstown, and Rev. Love, of Baileyville. Their talks were all instructive and plain and urgently advocated thorough and enthusiastic work in the Sabbath school.
