and Keller present. The meeting was more of a formality than anything else, merely a final opportunity of looking over the work of the year, that had been closed at the last regular meeting and getting in shape for the new council.

Burgess Blanchard was present and made for fines and licenses amounting to $403.67.

The Fire and Police committee reported the fire department in splendid condition, but expressed dissatisfaction with the police. The following bills were then approved : McCalmont & Co E. E. Ill Co. light for water works .... W. B. Rankin, insurance... Potter & Hoy, supplies for water works ... Henry Lowery, work on water wheel .... Joshua Folk. 75.00 R. B. Taylor, coal for water works. Bft. Fuel & Supply Co., coal for W. W .. $485.48

Treasurer Cook then read his report for the year, showing the total expenditures to have been $26,632.20 and the receipts $20,-389.76; leaving a balance due him of $6,-142.44. The session then adjourned sine

'Squire H. H. Harshberger had appeared meanwhile and administered the oath of office to S. H. Diehl, the newly elected overseer of the poor. Wm. P. Humes and John I. Olewine appeared as his bondsmen in the sum of $3,000.

At 11 o'clock the new council organized and the new members J. M. Cunningham, from the South and Edward Whittaker from the West, were sworn in. Col. W. Fred Reynolds' absence at the inauguration made it impossible to swear the new member from the North in.

An organization was at once effected by the election of C. T. Gerberich, president; H. B. Pontius, clerk; E. R. Chambers, solicitor; J. H. Wetzel, engineer. Council then adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

THE NEW COUNCIL MEETS. After the new council had met for the evening session president Gerberich an nounced his committees as follows:

Street-Potter, Walkey, Whittaker. Water-Knisely, Derstine, Gerrity. Finance-Reynolds, Walkey, Knisely. Fire and Police-Gerrity, Potter, Whittaker. Nuisance-Derstine, Whittaker, Cunningham. Market-Cunningham, Derstine, Reynolds. Village Improvement-Walkey, Knisely, Rey

George Gross was then granted street sprinkling privileges on west High street and the election of police and other borough officials was taken up.

were both applicants for the position of street commissioner and as the Street committee could not agree in a recommendation council elected Shaughensy by a vote Central R. R. Station. of 6 to 2.

Samuel Rine had no opposition for superintendent of the water works and was and relatives at this place. unanimously re-elected.

The election of police caused no little trouble for council. It has been a matter that has been receiving a great deal of attention from the citizens of the borough for some time. While all realize that the police service has not been at all what it should be, yet every attempt to improve it resulted in no betterment. Some were for importing special professional policemen at a good salary and thus break up the rowdyism on our streets. Others were positive that good men could be secured here and another lot held the opinion that a change was useless and would result in no good.

When the time came to elect police, however, the names of Henry Montgomery, Amos Mullen, Harry T. Miller and Jacob Knisely were presented. Miller then withdrew and acting upon a recommendation from burgess Blanchard Mullen and Knisely were elected at salaries of $50 per month. Council also voted the burgess power to suspend a policeman at any time for cause.

We do not pretend to say that $50 per month is too much for the kind of service that could be rendered Bellefonte, but we but we hope surely, recovering. do insist that it is the duty of every taxpayer in the town to demand the best service of the officers now in uniform. Excuses should be no longer acceptable and the frequent riotous performances of certain of the should be broken up effectually.

What is most needed is for the police to command respect. If, instead of begging fellows to "go home" or "keep quiet" who are making the streets blue with their vile epithets. the officers were to pound their heads into silence once or twice and then drag them off to the lock-up, where the mayor should keep them for 24, 48 or 72 hours, as the offense might merit, on a scanty diet there would very soon arise a respect for our police that would be wholesome in the extreme. Some might think this treament to be harsh. But it is not punishment if we are going to fondle and coddle such swearing, roistering fellows as would not be tolerated a moment in any other well regulated town.

The WATCHMAN knows exactly the disadvantages the police have worked under here, but a change has been inaugurated now so let it be a change that will be remarked by all.

The youthful proclivities which agitated the closing of all business places last summer, that they might have more time to roam about, succeeded in inducing some to close, until the post office adopted the early closing hour. Now the people are still put to the inconvenience of finding the office closed after 7 p. m., except on Saturday night.
