

Pine Grove Mention.

Miss Jennie Hunter is ill with symptoms of pneumonia.

James Hoover now handles the ribbons over a bang tailed gray stepper.

Mrs. Mary B. Gates is so much better that hopes of her ultimate recovery are now entertained.

Mrs. Kitter is recovering slowly from her illness and it is thought she is now out of danger.

On last Tuesday Mervine Kuhn moved to Potter's Mills to enter the service of Alexander McCoy, for a year at least.

E. E. Yarnell, who had public sale near State College last Monday, bade adieu to his friends and departed for Stark county, Ohio, on Wednesday.

The congregational meeting that was to have been held in the Presbyterian church here on the 11th was postponed on account of the inclement weather.

Miss-host J. A. Decker has purchased the Judge McWilliams farm south of Penna. Furnace and will issue orders by phone to Frank Thomas, who is his farmer.

Dr. J. Baker Krebs, of Northumberland, is here for a few days on a business and pleasure trip. His wife continued on to the vicinity of Tyrone, to visit her sister, Miss Rosencrans, who is ill.

Miss Sallie Everhart is ill at her home on the Branch. For a long time she has been unable to walk. The trouble started with grip, then catarrh of the stomach developed, reducing her very rapidly.

Thus far goods at public sales have been selling at least 10 per cent lower than they did last spring. Cattle are away down. Sheep and hogs are looking up a little and good horses command good prices.

Francis Rhoads, of Bellefonte, was exercising himself over snow drifts afoot last Monday. He was looking after the interests of the Howard Creamery Co. at and about Baileyville, where they have a good plant.

Capt. J. M. Kepler recently received four and one half tons of wire, which he intends to use in enclosing his vast tract of mountain lands. After that sportsmen will be expected to have a permit to hunt thereon.

Shannon and David Osman are packing their trunks with a view of taking Horace Greely's advice to go west and grow up with the country. They expect to locate in north western Kansas and the WATCHMAN wishes them all the good luck possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lingle are mourning the death of their dear little daughter, Emma, who died last Thursday with the measles. She was 5 years old and an unusually bright one for her age. Interment was made at the Branch on Saturday; Rev. Hepler officiating.

Daniel J. Koch has resigned as teacher of the Fairbrook school. And on account of the poor attendance the board decided to close the school with a five months' term. Some time ago a trivial misunderstanding arose between the teachers and the larger scholars and since that time the attendance has been very poor.

John W. Miller and Mary M. Snyder were married, on Thursday evening, at the parsonage by Rev. C. T. Aikens who quickly performed the ceremony in the presence of but a few intimate friends when the happy young couple returned to the home after a short wedding tour. The groom is one of our wide-awake young farmers, energetic and industrious and is to be congratulated on his good fortune in getting for a helpmate a charming young girl who has every requisite to make their home pleasant and happy. She is the oldest daughter of John Snyder and a grand daughter of the venerable Charles Snyder, over whose household the bride presided during the last year. Besides she served an apprenticeship in the culinary department under one of the best of mothers. To the young couple the WATCHMAN extends greetings.

Habersburg.

Jack Frost, who has held the fort for the last six weeks, has succumbed to old "Sol."

Walter Agar, of Lock Haven, was in town this week seeing after the wind up of his lumber business.

Mr. Wm. Whitman, who has been absent from home for about six months, is again seen on our streets, hale and hearty.

Harry Clevenside, of Bellefonte, employed by the Wilson Bros., was in town paying a visit to his sick sister, Miss Cora.

The farmers of our vicinity are hauling to the Central station the last of their "one dollar McKinley wheat" for seventy cents per bushel.

John Johnson, of Hecla park, passed through our town on Tuesday, moving his family and household effects to Mill Hill, where he expects to pitch his tent and take up his abode.

Monday the 11th inst. being the date for the township auditors and officers to make their yearly settlement, the day was fairly cold but the blood of some of the officials was up nearly to boiling heat, being "old soldier blood."

Spring Mills.

Mr. E. E. Hagerty the enterprising baker, has taken possession of the Mayor property on Front street, which he purchased some time ago and will renovate it and soon have a first class, up-to-date bakery.

One whose love for argument and notoriety over balances the love for sobriety, cannot be expected to go with the opponents of the prospective brewery which capitalists want to locate here. The temperance people are called "short sighted," because they are opposed to grog shops and their methods which have fastened their unrelenting clutches upon the young manhood of this town. The idea of erecting a brewery upon Front street would not have a tendency to elevate the morals of the town and is repulsive to all good thinking people. May the temperance people succeed in forcing the various capitalists to locate their brewery elsewhere.
