Thus far Ezra Tressler has had the banner sale. On last Monday the beautiful day brought out a great crowd and the result was $2,800. Mr. Tressler expects to spend the summer in Kansas and Missouri. His family will reside at Oak Hall.

At the recent meeting of the stockholders of the Blair-county banking company the following officers were elected: President, A. G. Morris; vice president, T. J. Gates; cashier and assistant cashier, F. M. Waring and D. G. Meek. The advancement of Mr. Gates to the vice presidency of this sub stantial financial institution is a recognition of his ability and the confidence the company repose in him. Messrs. Waring and Meek have been with the institution for years and have proved themselves worthy of the promotions they have received.

Mrs. Asher Sankey spent last week among her legion of friends hereabouts, devoting most of her time to her sick mother. Mrs. L. H. Osman. Then she departed for Kansas, where Mr. Sankey has purchased a fine farm of 180 acres in Woodson county. Mr. Sankey started west a week ago, taking with him the household goods, dairy machinery and a lot of his thorough-bred Holstein-Fresian cattle. He is an up-to-date farmer and no doubt will make it pay out there. We cheerfully recommend Mr. and Mrs. Sankey and their little family to the best circles of Vernon.

On last Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock Mr. William Kennedy and Miss Lizzie Pennington were married at the parsonage by Rev. C. T. Aikens, in the presence of a few guests. Mr. Deemer Pearce was best man and Miss Lizzie Kennedy, a sister of the groom, was the maid. After an informal little reception had been concluded the wedding party departed for State College, where a splendid reception and collation was tendered them at the Pennington home. The groom is a son of T. Frank Kennedy and is a promising young carpenter. His bride is a daughter of Henry Pennington and is a very worthy and capable girl.

THE OUTCASTS, A TALE OF THE NORTHWEST .- Mr W. A. Fraser, author of Mooswa and Others, has just written for early publication in The Saturday Evening Post a short, stirring serial, entitle

The "Outcasts" are an old buffalo and a wolf dog, and the greater part of the story is about the strange comradeship and striking adventures of these companions, and their pilgrimage, in com pany, to the distant plains of deep grass, of which the wolf-dog knew.

There are action, and strength of word and phrase in the story, and the touch of the soil and the music and charm and sombreness of the forest. The rush of the frenzied buffalo herd to death is told with splendid dramatic power. The plan of the book is a unique conception, and it is worked out on novel and entertaining lines.

The position which the Pierpont Morgan organization holds with reference to the business and political world is discussed by Mr. John Brisben Walker in the April Cosmopolitan under the title, "The World's Greatest Revolution." Familiar with the business world and a student of affairs, Mr. Walker has, while approving of the general idea of concentration which makes for good organization and public economy, drawn a picture of the power now exercised which will be a surprise to the great majority who have not given this subject thoughtful attention.

The Pittsburg Dispatch during this year and century will continue to maintain its high position among the leading newspapers of the country, and will, as it has been in the past, be the foremost paper in Western Pennsylvania. The news of the world will be found in the Dispatch every morning; special correspondents and alliances with other papers providing the means to thoroughly cover every news source in the universe.

The Sunday edition of the Dispatch is conceded to be the leader in its line. With special articles by the foremost writers, illustrations that are appropriate and well executed, together with the latest ideas in typography, it is undoubtedly the journal for excellence. The large and rapidly increasing circulation is evidence that it is what it claims to be.

The Home Study Circle, which has been feature of the daily it claims to be.

The Home Study Circle, which has been a feature of the daily Dispatch for several years, has been succeeded by the Current Topic Club. It is a worthy successor of the Home Study Circle and is the best feature of its kind in the journalism of to-day. Leading men and women of letters, art, science and business will contribute to this department of the Dispatch, which will be more popular than was the Home Study Circle with its wealth of information.

In all departments the Dispatch is complete; nothing being left uncovered, and so popular is it that in thousands of homes to speak of newspapers is to think of the Dispatch.
