Only by hard and persistent work did our old comrade Guy Hilliard attain his reputation as one of the best division bosses in the employ of the P. R. R. and now after a service of more than forty years he has been placed on the retired and pension list. Hereafter he will give his attention to growing big crops and prize cattle.

MRS. ELIZABETH GATES DEAD.—On Monday evening, April the 1st, Mrs. Elizabeth Gates quietly passed away at the home of her son, Isaac, near Gatesburg after a short illness with bronchial pneumonia. She had been suffering for some time with bronchial trouble but her condition was not regarded as serious until a short time before her death when pneumonia developed.

as serious until a short time before her death when pneumonia developed.

She was one of David Harpster's twelve children and was born at the old Harpster homestead at Tadpole March 15th, 1814. Of the once numerous family, only one sister Mrs. Maria Goss, of this place, and one brother Alexander Harpster, of Buffalo run, are living. Her husband Solomon Gates died more than twenty years ago. Her surviving children are Uriah Gates, of Warriorsmark; John, of Centre Line: Mrs. Henry Harpster, of near Tyrone, and Isaac, of Gatesburg, with whom she made her home. "Aunt Betty" was a kind, gentle woman always ready to sympathize with those in distress or help the needy. She was buried Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Gatesburg cemetery. The officiating minister was Rev. C. T. Aikens, of the Lutheran church, of which she had been a consistent member for more than sixty years.

APRIL FLITTINGS.—Among the flittings that took place about here recently was that of William Brouse, who purchased the Houseman house and will take possession of it as soon as the necessary repairs are completed. Michael Hess has retired from active farm life to enjoy rest and pleasure at the County capitol. Earnest Hess will succeed his father and farm their broad and fertile acres. O. B. Krebs occupies the Smith house down town and D. C. Krebs lives in one half the old Keichline home. William Keller and bride have taken quarters with Jesse B. Piper. Oliver Bloom is snugly ensconced in the Merryman house in the lower part of the town and John I. Markle the same in the J. H. Lytle house. J. D. and William Tanyer occupy Musser's big house down town and David Reed is in Presbyterian parsonage. W. R. Goss moved to Erbtown, Harry Koch onto H. Ewings farm at Fairbrook and G. W. Johnson to the Archey farm near Graysville. Wm. Rossman took possession of the J. A. Weaver house now owned by G. B. Campbell. W. H. Smith and J. C. Struble will try their luck farming in Bald Eagle valley near Vail. D. R. Koch is located on the Saml. McWilliams farm at Fairbrook, Cal Struble is down near Zion on his uncle's fine farm and E. O. Heckman is with his fatherin-law, W. H. Bloom. I. G. Walker moved to his own farm near Pine Hall, Henry Bloom is on the Henry Snyder farm and Jno. Snyder will look after the Charles Snyder home farm while Charley Lytle cultivates the Smyder farm on the Branch. Samuel Markle mill make his home there. D. C. Wasson is on Mrs. Robison's farm at White Hall and Isaac Martz flitted over the mountain to his farm at McAlevys Fort where Ross Grove and his family will assist him. George Reed moved into the old Reed home east of town and Atlee Corl will try his hand on Major Sechler's farm near Boalsburg. G. J. Smith, of Potter township, will assist on D. G. Meek's farm and J. several other operations are in contemplation. George Brown, whose parents reside a short distance above our village, an employe at a stone quarry in Milroy, met with a shocking accident there on Tuesday of last week. Before he could escape a heavy bowlder caught and rolled on him which required the efforts of four men to remove. His injuries were of such a character that he died on the following Friday. Interment in the Spring Mills cemetery on Sunday last. The funeral was largely attended, Rev. Koontz of the United Evangelical church officiating.

Monday last was decidedly a fools day here. Early in the morning messengers were sent to several parties requesting their presence at certain places on urgent business previous to train time. Of course they went only to find it was a fools' errand. Mysterious looking packages were scattered here and there to catch the unwary. Pennies were fastened to the board walks, and persons attempting to pick any up were met with shouts of laughter and hooting by boys concealed behind boxes and trees. All this nonsense afforded considerable amusement to the "lookers on here in Vienna."

Needed Legislation.

Editor WATCHMAN :-Not that we need more laws, but that we need some amendments or abridgments to those already existing. Take, for instance, the compulsory educational law, which does not meet the requirements as anticipated by those who framed it, and why? Simply because it is handicapped by poverty in many cases-and this poverty condition is brought about by whisky and tobacco; two elements, the cost of which would go far towards feeding and clothing the boys and girls who, for the want of the necessaries, are compelled to remain out of school. So, we say, that if compulsion must be enforced let it be against the manufacture and sale of rum and tobacco.

Again, that part of the law providing free school supplies should be annulled, since as farmers must curtail their expenses in labor.

farmers must curtail their expenses in labor, as well as along other lines and this is one of the reasons why we see boys and girls in the fields in mild autumn weather, and as soon as spring opens away goes our boys and girls again. Why, in the beginning of our school term, if some of our teachers were to let two children go for a bucket of water she would be compelled to wait on their return before she could form a class.

With our Sabbath schools, young peoples' associations, magazines, books, backed by the powerful educational influence of our daily and weekly newspapers we do not need so many months. Take five months, load them heavily with wide awake, energetic teachers, who have drawing power, increase their salaries and we will venture the assertion that the outcome will be satisfactory, and will throw out on the world men and women whom the neighborhood in which they may live will say that it was the better for their having lived in it.
