Bellefonte, Pa., April 12, 1901.

Correspondents .- No communications pub tished unless accompanied by the real name of agency for the Baltimore Mutual Aid society in this section.

in the First national, has just recovered from an attack of the mumps.

-F. W. Crider is confined to his bed at his home on west Linn street. He has been afflicted with several boils. ---Miles Arney, of Centre Hall, has been chosen valedictorian of his class that will be graduated from The Pennsylvania State College in June. ---Miss M. Snyder has secured Madam

Smith, of New York city, as designer, and will show exclusive styles in hats and bonnets Friday, April 19th. -Sim Baum, the clothier, was laid during the past week, but is able to be at peacefully as he had lived in it. his place of business again. ---Helen Harper, a daughter of J. C. Harper, of this place, passed a very creditable examination for the spring session at the Lock Haven Normal school. -W. H. Philips, who has been a merchant at Aaronsburg for the past twentyfive years, has sold his store, dwelling and stock to Thomas Meyer, of Coburn. --- Examinations for permanent certificates will be held in the arbitration room at the court house in this place, on Friday and Saturday, April 19th and 20th. -While attempting to ride an unbroken colt on Saturday morning 14 year old Chester McCormick of Pine Glenn, was thrown off and had his collar bone broken. -An old friend Isaac Tressler writes from Oak Hall that they are all well up there, but that the taxes are getting so high that there is very little chance anymore for the laboring man.

-Miss Sallie Fitzgerald, a daughter of William Fitzgerald, of this place, has entered the Lock Haven Normal for the spring term. She passed a good examination for the Junior class.

-This afternoon the essay contest for the two $5 prizes offered by the Bellefonte chapter, D. A. R. will take place at the Academy. The hour will be 2 o'clock. All friends of the school are invited.

-A horse owned by Charley Johnston. the glass blower, died on Tuesday. The efforts to cure it.

State Sabbath School Association, and an eminent worker in that line, will be in Bellefonte on Sunday, April 21st, and will bed. probable preach in one or more churches of the town.

-The forthcoming auditor's report of our borough dads will furnish a beautiful illustration of how a municipality drawing about $22,000 taxes can't be run for less than $29,000. Look it up. It will be interesting reading.

-Will H. Keller Esq., of Lancaster, who was graduated from the Bellefonte High school with the first class, in 1884, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address before the graduating class this year. Mr. Keller was one of the brightest men ever attending the Bellefonte schools and it will be a pleasure to many to hear him on such an occasion.

-The large barn on the B. F. Hunter farm at Hunter's park was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning and besides the large quantity of hay and grain that was burned four cows and five head of young cattle were lost. The exact origin of the fire is not known though it is supposed that it was accidentally caused by a 13-year-old boy whom Mr. Robert Henderson, who occupies the place, has taken to raise

The Coleville band boys have ordered twenty two new uniforms through Montgomery & Co. and expect to be resplendent in them by April 26th when they will accompany the Odd Fellows to Willliamsport. The suits are very good ones, costing $14.90 each. The coats are maroon with black braid trimming, pants light blue with black stripes and maroon caps of regular army shape. A drum major's suit was ordered for Billy Rine, also.

The inter- collegiate debate between teams from State College and Dickinson College will take place, April 23rd. The subject of the debate will be : "Resolved, that the representation of Mississippi in the House of Representatives be decreased in proportion to the decrease in franchise resulting from her suffrage legislation." The affirmative side in the contest will be supported by State College, the negative by Dickinson.

-While Rev. and Mrs. Scott were driving home to Bellefonte from Jacksonville, on Monday morning, their buggy broke down, about two miles this side of Jacksonville. Both Rev. and Mrs. Scott were thrown out violently, the former receiving a badly broken nose, while Mrs. Scott escaped with a few scratches. A farmer coming along hauled them to this place in his wagon and Dr. Seibert gave Rev. Scott the necessary medical attention. His nose was so badly injured as to lay the bone entirely bare.

JOHN A. AIKEN. - One of our representative citizens passed out of this life with the death of John A. Aiken, which occurred at his home, corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, on Monday evening. For twenty three years he had been in active business in Bellefonte, his enterprise having extended to all parts of the county, thus bringing him a wide acquaintanceship THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY and a host of firm friends who lament his death. Mr. Aiken was a charitable, public -Roger T. Bayard has accepted the spirited citizen, ever ready to do what was possible of good works. For years he had been actively identified with the Presby--Harris Heylmun, one of the clerks terian church and was foremost in all Temperance, good government or evangelistic movements; lending himself wholly to the work of upbuilding and raising his Stephens, of Kerrmoor; Mrs. James Forcey, brothers to a higher plain. He was a courteous, pleasant gentleman at all times and his passing is a matter of general re-

His last illness covers a period of only a few weeks; grip having precipitated a complication of troubles that he had suffered with only slightly previous to that time. He failed rapidly, though there were intervals when new hope sprung up in the loving hearts of the watchers at his bedside. They were but fleeting, howup with a very severe case of tonsilitis ever, and he passed out of this life as > Deceased was born in Siglersville, Mifflin county, 62 years ago and was the son of Hugh Aiken. When only 16 years of age he united with the Presbyterian church at Reedsville, later entering Washington and Jefferson college from which institution he was graduated with honors.

> Twenty-three years ago he came to Bellefonte and engaged in the piano and music business, being the junior member of the firm of Bunnell & Aikens. Later Mr. Bunnell retired and Mr. Aikens succeeded to the business and to the ownership of the fine block they had erected at the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets. He was a veteran of the civil war and an enthusiastic member of Gregg Post, No. 95 G. A. R. He was also a member of the Royal Arcanum and of the Bellefoute Lodge F. and A. M.

Thirty-five years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Adaline Odenkirk, a native of Milroy, who survives him with their three children, Mrs. George B. Johnson, of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Emma Jane and John Earle, of Bellefonte.

He also leaves a brother and two sisters, Mrs. Harcy, of Bellview, Ohio; Mrs. Chas. Moore, and William H. Aiken, of Altoona. Funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made in the Union cemetery according to the Masonic rites.

A. M. Mott.—Andrew Marlyn Mott died rather unexpectedly at his home in this day before John Strayer had to shoot his place on Monday evening, after a long illsix weeks ago that he finally gave up per sonal oversight of his business and went to

Deceased was born at the old Mott home, just above Roopsburg, on Nov. 26th, 1865, and had been in the marble business in this place for the past seventeen years. Sept. 29th, 1892, he was married to Adelle A. Rolley, of Milesburg, who survives him with their two children Basil Fontency and Mary Barbara. His aged mother is still living, as well as these sisters : Mrs. William Haviland, Mrs. C. F. Brown and Mrs. Thomas McMann, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Charles Legg, Williamsport; and Mrs. Fred Kemmerer, Bellefonte.

Audy Mott was not an ordinary man Honest and conscientious in all things himself he had implicit faith in his fellows. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church and was zealous in all his duties thereto; having been the promoter and secretary of the League of the Sacred Heart and a member of the Rosary society.

Interment was made yesterday morning, requiem mass for the repose of his soul having been celebrated at 10 o'clock.

-Miss Eliza Griffen, aged about 75, died at the home of Mrs. Sara Way, near Stormstown, on Saturday afternoon about three o'clock. Her death was very sudden. She had been in her usual health up to the dinner hour and while seated at the table it was noticed that something was wrong with her. She was gotten to bed and a physician sent for, but she had passed away before he could get to her. She had had scarlet fever when a girl and was affected by it through life. J. H. Lever conducted funeral services over her reand interment was made at Gray's burying He had been ill two months with consumpground.

nolds occurred at her home at Graysville illness with bronchial trouble that developed into pneumonia. She was Nancy Hill before her marriage sixty-one years ago and was born at "the Glades" in 1818. Her dien survive. They are Walter, of Illinois; George W., of Graysville; Martha, of a member of the Presbyterian church for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

----Antied Bigleman, who was born in Philipsburg May 4th, 1833, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Weaver, at Driftwood, on March 22nd. His remains the entire winter. He was born in Venanwere buried at Frenchville. Mr. Bigleman go county, July 11th, 1830, and in 1853 was the father of Mrs. John Anderson Jr., married Miss Margaret Dry in this county. of this place.

place, who was so badly crushed by a plank youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-club at the Bush house on Tuesday evenstriking him while he was at his work at mer Love Malin, and Mr. Frank McCoy ing. There were nine tables of players, Pitcairn that he finally became entirely Shugert, which was anticipated with pleas- delicious refreshments and a pleasant, enparalyzed, died at his home in that place ure as the most important event of the joyable time. Mrs C. F. Montgomery a son of the late Henry Waite and was promises. It took place at the home of Reynolds secured the gentleman's prize in March, 1872. He was married to a the assemblage, the decorations, the music prize—a water-colored picture frame. daughter of Gotlieb Wesner, of near Vail. who survives him with his mother and the following sisters and brothers, Darius and sire. Ella, who reside at home with their mother on Thomas street; J. S., of Lock Haven; of Woodland; Sarah Waite, of Springfield, Mass., and Laura A. Waite, of East Northfield. Mass.

His body was brought to Tyrone on Fri-W. W. Rymer, of Tyrone, and Rev. T. J. Ormer, of Pitcairn. Interment was made in Tyrone.

-Guyan Irwin Davis, the veteran druggist and one of the prominent citizens of Hollidaysburg, died in the Jefferson hospital, in Philadelphia, on Saturday morning. He had entered that institution to undergo an operation for the removal of an unnatural growth from his tongue and this county, January 28th, 1827. Early in roses. the forties he and his brother embarked in he caught it and started for the coast via Cape Horn. After mining a year he went located in Freeport. Ill. He was there when the rebellion broke out and enlisted, the war he located at Hollidaysburg, where he has since resided. Mr. Davis was marwho survives him with two children: Julia Curtin Stone, of Bellwood, and Harry I., who was associated with him in business. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery at Hollidaysburg on Monday

-Mrs. Bridget Sharp, who died at her home in Tyrone on Monday, had been in poor health for several years and a few weeks ago she contracted pneumonia, which resulted in her death. She was 54 years, 3 months and 5 days old. Mrs. Sharp was born at Howard, this county, and spent most of her youth in Belle. fonte. It was here that she married the husband who survives her with their four sons and two daughters. Her aged mother, Mrs. Katharine Flack, still resides here, as faithful animal because it was suffering so ness with tuberculosis of the bones and do the following brothers and sisters intensely with a disease that resisted all other complications. While he had been Mrs. Mary Hull, Mrs. Harland Saylor, in poor health for several years and had Miss Katharine Flack, David, William and -Rev. Dr. Rhoads, president of the tried every known remedy it was not until Harry Flack. One sister Mrs. George ceased was a kind and devoted wife and mother, one whose summons beyond leaves the home stricken with sorrow. She was a devout member of the Catholic church. Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Matthew's church, Rev. T. W. Rosensteel officiating in the requiem mass. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery Tyrone

--- Miss Juniata Beck, who made he home part of the time with Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Noll, of North Allegheny street, died at a hospital in Philadelphia at 7:15 Sunday morning from an operation performed for the removal of tumors. She was aged 39 years. Her father survives her and resides in Kansas, as does one brother, Erastus, another brother, Wilbur, being in the English navy. Her only sister is Mrs. Joseph Edmundson, of Tyrone. Faneral services were conducted at the Edmundson home at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. J. D. W. Deavor, Ph. D. Interment at Tyrone cemetery.

MRS. JACOB MIRSSE. - Mrs. Jacob Miesse whose maiden was Peters and who was niece of Mrs. Alex Chaney, of Port Matilda, died at her home one mile west of Stormstown early Sunday morning. She had been ill a long time with consumption and was only 27 years old. Surviving her are her husband and three children.

Interment was made in the Friends burying ground near Stormstown on Tues-

-Hannibal Williams, aged 24, a son of the late Isaac Williams, colored, of this place, died at the home of Levi Penningmains on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock ton, on Penn street, on Saturday morning. tion. Deceased had not been about Bellefonte for some time, but came here -The death of Mrs. George W. Rey- from Greensburg, where he had been a house servant for Congressman George F. on Monday morning, after only four days | Huff. Burial was made on Wednesday afternoon.

-Henry Etters died at his home near Lemont on Saturday morning, after a aged husband and four of their ten chil- lingering illness with heart trouble. He was 57 years old and had been active as farmer up until a few years ago, when fail-Tyrone, and John at home. She had been | ing health necessitated his retirement. He was a son-in-law of the late Michael Grove more than seventy years and Rev. Love, of and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sara that denomination, officiated at the burial, Grove Etters and one brother John Etters, which was made in Graysville cemetery on of Lemont. Interment was made at Shiloh on Tuesday morning.

-Benjamin S. Crain, one of the oldest residents of Philipsburg, died at home on Saturday afternoon, after an illness with stomach trouble that has extended over He was a plasterer by trade.

CHARLES H. WAITE. -- Charles H. A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING. -- The wedding, -everything was as beautiful and auspicious as the most exacting bride could de-

The house was radiant with flowers and although the list of invitations sent out H. B. and W. W., of Half Moon; J. E., of was limited on account of the groom's Snow Shoe; H. A., of Tyrone; Mrs. Blair family being in mourning there were almost a hundred guests present. In the reception room Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, awaited the bridal party per cent interest. There are three hundred and there solemnized the ceremony at 11:30 o'clock. The wedding march was played day and taken to the United Brethren by Smith's orchestra which entertained church there services were held by the Rev. the guests with a fine musical program. Ogden Bailey Malin, the bride's little brother, and little Miss Lucretia Williams were the garland bearers and Miss Mary Ceader, the maid of honor. The bride, who is acknowledged to be one of the pretty and most stylish girls of the town, was exceedingly fair to look upon. She wore an imported gown of white lace over heavy silk and carried Bride's roses. Her maid of honor, who is also tall and slender, was gowned in white embroidered neck. Deceased was born in Pennsvalley, mull over white silk and carried La France

The wedding breakfast, served by the mercantile business in this place, but Ceader, after the ceremony was delightfulwhen the California gold fever broke out ly good. The bridal party were seateed at an artistically decorated table in the dining room while the guests were served at small into the banking and express business, tables in the library, reception room and which he carried on until 1857, when he wide porch, which was enclosed for the occasion. It was a merry party and ended only when the time drew near for the serving with distinction. At the close of bride to make ready for her journey to Washington and old Point Comfort. Mr. and Mrs. Shugert departed on the 2:15 ried to Miss Mary Barnhart, of this county, train, accompanied by the usual amount of rice and laughable souvenirs of well wishes. Upon their return they will make their home on west Linn street, in the old Shugert home which has been refitted and furnished throughout.

The wedding was a beautiful one and every detail was happily arranged. Even the presents attested that more than usual interest had been taken in it by those who were prominent in state and social affairs, for they were not only valuable and many but carefully selected. The bride is young, vivacious and a general favorite among her acquaintances.

She is well known by most of her father's friends throughout the State and hers can be a life of usefulness and happiness, The groom is one of the McCoy-Shugert family and is the second son of the late J. Dunlop Shugert, the banker and financier. He was connected with the Empire Iron company when that firm operated the Valentine furnace and is now associated with his uncle Frank McCog in the Linn & McCoy chain works.

Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. F. W. Earnest, Mr. and Mrs. G. Warley Schock, Mifflinburg; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Furst, Williamsport; Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Hoskins and Mrs. William Burns, West Chester; Misses Jeanette and Hanna Malin, Baltimore, Md.; Rufus W. Parker, Pittsburg; Mrs. P. G. Rangler, Milton and Lee Larimer, Jersey Shore.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN SHOOT SPARROWS. The opening sporting event of the season was the sparrow shoot on the new fair grounds, on Friday afternoon, under the direction of the Sportsmen's League of Centre county. In addition to its interest as a shooting event it was extraordinary because of its being the first sparrow shooting event in this part of the State.

While a number of out of town cracks were expected the only one who did materialize was George Uzzle, of Clarence. There were fifteen entries, however, and the shoot went off in a very satisfactory manner. The surprising part of it was the number of birds that were killed. Few Harris, of Howard street. Mr. Paul Hench, who expected good records, because of its being the first attempt at a target so small as a sparrow, so that the result was surprising to all.

The detailed score was as follows: McGinley

The shoot resulted in T. H. Harter's winning 1st money and George Uzzle 3rd. John McGinley, Lew Gettig, Maurice Jackson and D. R. Wilson were tied for second place and shot off by a miss and out Wilson winning, after all had shot at two birds but Gettig who missed his first

In the score the 0 means missed, 1 means bird killed with first barrel, 2 means bird killed with second barrel.

-Fred Kurtz Jr., formerly of the Centre Hall Reporter, has purchased the Lewisburg Journal property from the heirs of his brother, the late W. L. Kurtz. Fred has been running the paper ever since his brother's death and has had excellent opportunity to discover what there is in it. We wish him a full measure of success, for he has both the brains and skill to make the Journal a first class country paper.

-Rev. Hicks has predicted hail, sleet, thunder and lightning for next Monday. This will be pleasant for the fisher-

-Mrs. W. L. Daggett and Mrs. H. E. Waite, a son of Mrs. Anna Waite, of this Tuesday morning, of Helen Beaver Malin, Fenlon delightfully entertained the euchre born at the old family home in Half Moon the bride's parents on Howard street and and Geo. R. Meek won out the dummy

> -A mortgage for $250,000 securing the bonds issued by the Citizens' Water company of Philipsburg, was entered for record in the recorder's office yesterday. It is in favor of the Girard Trust Co., of Miss Lulu Stover had her little ones well Philadelphia, and carries $125 in revenue stamps. The bonds are first mortgage, payable in thirty years and bearing five and sixty bonds, two hundred of them are for $1,000 each, sixty for $500 each and one hundred for $200. Interest is payable on the first days of April and October.

News Purely Personal.

-Wm. P. Humes Esq., was in Altoona on busi--Miss Louise Harper is visiting friends in the Huntingdon Presbytery at Hollidaysburg this -Former sheriffs John P. Condo and Robert

-Rev. Dr. Laurie is attending the meeting of ook were in town on business on Saturday. -Charles E. Dorworth, of the Pittsburg Times taff, spent Sunday with his parents in this place. -Mrs. T. G. Cruse and her little son Andrew went to Philadelphia, on Friday, for a week's visit mong relatives there.

-Miss Isabel Hipple, daughter of the Hon. T. Hipple of Lock Haven, is a guest of Miss Patty Lane, of Linn street.

-Ralph Mallory, of the firm of Mallory and Caylor, is off on a trip to Philadelphia. He is ooking up late ideas in photographic art.

-Chas. M. McCurdy, cashier of the First na onal bank, spent Easter Sunday with his sister and friends at his former home in Gettysburg. -Misses Ella Howley and Rose Doll went to Philadelphia, Tuesday morning, to take a course of instruction in cutting and fitting women's -Former county treasurer James Gramley and his wife are on a visit with friends in Mifflinburg and at its conclusion will leave for their new home in Illinois.

-Morris L. Monish, of New York, was in town ver Sunday visiting his wife who is at the homof her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Baum, of east Bishop street, for a brief stay. -Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Irvin returned from the South on Monday morning. They had been at Elizabeth City, North Carolina, for six weeks on account of Mrs Irvin's health. Miss Shipley's school at Bryn Mawr, was home

Frank. She returned on Tuesday. -Miss Lillian Gordon Muffly is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery, during the Easter vacation at Notre Dame, Baltimore which school she attends.

o spend Easter with her brothers John and

-Judge and Mrs. John G. Love entertaine Rev. W. A. Spencer, of New York, secretary of the Church Extension Society, during the rededicatory services of the Methodist church.

-Miss Lulu Smith, Miss Mary Hamilton, J. G. Harper, Maurice Jackson, W. H. H. Walker and Charley Lukenbach were Bellefonters

-J. H. Griffen Esq., of Stormstown, was in Bellefonte on business on Tuesday, and having it done up long before the time for the departure of | nev. his train, he "killed part of the time pleasantly in this office.

-Mrs. John Lauth, of Howard, was a Saturday Royal. The place is our store-Potter shopper in Bellefonte. Mrs. Lauth expects soon to join her husband in Mexico. He has been located there for some time, managing a great ron ore operation.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell, of Buffalo, N. Y into whose hands fell the enormous work of rais ing the $15,000 indebtedness on the Methodist church here on Sunday, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek on west High

-Bishop Chas. H. Fowler, the Hon. John Field, rmer postmaster of Philadelphia and now head of the firm of Young, Smythe-Field & Co. of that city : Presiding Elder and Mrs. J. Ellis Bell. of Altoona, were guests of Gen. and Mrs. Hastings -Mr. Emanuel Musser, of State College, George Fortney and D. L. Dennis, of Pine Grove Mills. ere prominent farmers from the upper end of the county who were in town yesterday. Hon W. K. Alexander, of Millheim, represented the ower end at the county seat.

-Miss Lillie Coyle Hench, of Harrisburg, who assisted at the organ recital in the Methodist church last evening, is visiting Mrs. Henry P. travels this section for their firm, stopped here last night for the organ recital.

-Aaron Lutz, our farmer friend from up a Linden Hall, was in town on Friday and carried himself like a man who is in luck. And he is in luck, for his crops look most promising and if nothing untoward develops Aaron expects to count his grain away up in the hundreds of bushels next fall.

-John Hoy, of Waddle's, was in town on Saturday, looking anything but the invalid he thinks he is. He is a good bit like the writer was a few years ago when he had everything under med ical knowledge from tuberculosis to a tape-worm-in his mind. John will come out all right some of these days and we hope it will be soon.

-Mr. J. I. Huss, who has been running a suc cessful shoe making establishment up in Johnstown, will open a shop in Centre Hall and once more becomes a citizen of Centre county. Mr Huss is an excellent workman, and just as good a Democrat-two qualifications that the people about his new home fully appreciate.

-W. H. Williams, of Port Matilda, more popularly known as "Bill H," was in town on Tues day, talking politics a little while attending to me other business. Mr. Williams has had his weather eve on the commissioner's office for some time and will probably be a candidate in the next contest, though he did not so inform us.

-Harry T. McDowell, of Abdera, who said that we didn't know much about farming else we would not have intimated that that recent snow was bad for the grain, was in town on Saturday Of course we knew better than to get into an ar gument with an old hand like Harry, but the next time H. E. Homan comes to town we are going to make him explain why he got us into trouble in a number of business enterprises in the coun ty recently, left for Granby, Mo., where he is to become resident manager of the Zenith zinc works, a proposition that is being lanched by some gentlemen at State College, together with Robt. F. Hunter and F. H. Thomas of this place. Mr. Hunter accompanied Mr. Rhoads west and will remain there while their mechanical plant is being installed.

The WATCHMAN Once has been refitted with Fast Presses and New Type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms—Cash.

All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY MEEK, Proprieto

EASTER SERVICES IN ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.—The services in the Lutheran church were of unusual interest on Easter. The attendance was very large at all the services. The pastor, Dr. H. C. Holloway, received twenty new members on last Wednesday at 5 o'clock. He was Easter season, more than surpassed its was awarded the ladies prize. Col. W. F. into his congregation. The individual communion cup was used for the first time. The music was exceptionally fine. Mr. Eugene Wentzel sang "The Resurrection" with splendid effect. Miss Edith B. Wertz sustained her part ably at the organ and the choir sang admirably.

In the evening the Easter service rendered by the Sunday school delighted all. trained. The music was of the highest

The offerings for benevolence were liberal during the day.

-Detective Joe Rightnour went to Altoona on Tuesday to arrest George Green, his son Blaine and John Kline, all of Boggs township. He secured young Green and Kline, but the elder Green could not be found. The young man was brought to iail in this place. Kline gave bail in Altoona. The trio were wanted for having sneaked away goods that had been levied on by the sheriff as property of George Green, in Boggs Twp. They hauled them to Milesburg and shipped under an assumed name, then one night they drove off to Altoona with a horse and wagon and cow; leaving only enough goods to partially satisfy the sheriff's claim.

LEW BULLOCK SELLING OUT.-On Thursday, April 25th, L. C. Bullock will have a great sale at Milesburg. There will be carriages, buggies, wagons and carts of every description and color, in addition to his complete livery outfit of horses, buggies, carriages, sleighs, bells, robes, etc. One of the horses is the fine pacer that can show a 2:30 clip.

The sale will begin at 11 o'clock a. m.

-What it is? Royal paint? Yen! Its quality is always the same. - Potter and

-Joe Kendig, of York, had a sale of Kentucky horses on the Diamond here on Monday and out of a car of nineteen he sold eight at an average price of $133.12. Tom Beaver, of this place, bought a riding horse; Will Foster and Jas. Holmes, of State College, each bought nice ones, a Lock Haven liveryman by the name of -Miss Kate Shugert, who is now a student at Cupper bought three and Charles F. Harrison got the other one.

> -H. B. Ehler, a traveling photographer who was working about State College on March 7th, has fallen heir to a fortune of $150,000. He was from Harrodsburg, Kentucky, and having been out with a theatrical company that stranded he took to photography to support his wife and two children who were with him. It was while in Altoona that he received word of his good luck.

> -Dr. Geissinger has moved his office from Spring street to 21 west High street, formerly occupied by W. E. Gray, attor-

> -Remember the paint is the genuine and Hoy.

A Summer Normal and Academic term will open Monday, April 15th, at Boalsburg and continue for eight weeks. Teachers, preparatory students for college, and others, will find the course adapted to their respective needs. JAS, C. BRYSON, Principal, 46-10-6t *

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Wheat-Red Corn Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes Wheat, new Rye, per bushel. Corn, shelled, per bushel Corn, shelled, per bushel. Oats, per bushel, new Barley, per bushel. Ground Plaster, per ton Buckwheat, per bushel. Cloverseed, per bushel. Cloverseed, per bushel.

8 50 to 9 5

.$6 60 to $7

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1y
One inch (12 lines this type	18 5	8 2	18 10
Two inches	7	10	15
Three inches	10	15	20
Quarter Column (5 inches)	12	20	30
Half Column (10 inches)	20	35	55
One Column (20 inches)	35	55	100
Transient advs. per line, 5 insertion			cts.
Transient advs. per line, 3 insertion Each additional insertion, per line			ots
Fach additional insertion, per line			ots
Each additional insertion, per line Local notices, per line Business notices, per line	aa	20	o ets. o ets. o ets.
Each additional insertion, per line Local notices, per line Business notices, per line Job Printing of every kind done w	vith	20	cts. cts. cts.
Each additional insertion, per line Local notices, per line Business notices, per line Job Printing of every kind done v and dispatch. The Watchman office	vith has	10 near	cts. cts. cts. cts.
Each additional insertion, per line Local notices, per line Business notices, per line Job Printing of every kind done w	vith has	near beer	octs. cts. cts. tness n re-