

Mrs. JOHN LONG.—The death, on Wednesday morning between seven and eight o'clock, of Mrs. Mary Ellen Long, wife of John Long, at the family home on Reynolds Ave., was not unexpected for her health had been failing for months and she was more than seventy five years of age. Mrs. Long was a native of Huntingdon county where she was born Jan. 20th, 1826, in Black Log valley. She was a daughter of Cornelius Logan who resided for many years at Howard, this county. In 1846 she was united in marriage to John Long Sr., and for more than fifty years has made her home in this place. She was a quiet, diligent woman, looking well to the comfort of her household when she was able and a devout member of St. John's Catholic church.

She is survived by her husband, one son, William, of this place, nine grand children and twenty great grand children. Of her father's family only one of her sisters, Mrs. Catherine Plack, is living. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at ten o'clock in St. John's Catholic church. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Eliza Knox were laid to rest in Myer's cemetery, up Buffalo-run, last Saturday, after Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church of this place, had conducted fitting services over her remains. She had died on the previous Thursday at the ripe old age of 88 years and in the full fruition of a useful and conscientious life. Mrs. Knox was the widow of the late Hugh Knox. Her maiden name was McClinty and her early life was coincidental with the early settlement of the county. It is said that in the early days she brought the family marketing to Bellefonte on horseback, over trails that had not been broken sufficiently for wheeled vehicles. Surviving her are her children John, Samuel, James, David, Mary Ann, Elizabeth, Rachel and Emma.

A CHILD DROWNED AT SALONA.—While playing by the bank of the big spring at Salona, on Friday afternoon, the two year old son of Edward Powers, of that place, lost his balance and fell into the water, drowning before it had been missed. The men at Knapp's saw mill, near by, saw the little tot throwing pebbles into the water, but went on with their work. When they had returned to the mill with a load of logs they were told that the child was missing and naturally thought of the spring at once. There, not 600 feet from the place they had seen it, the little body was found floating on the water. Samuel Emerit and Oscar Knapp got it out and carried it home, summoning Dr. Holloway at once, but he pronounced it dead when he arrived. Interment was made at Cedar Hill on Monday afternoon.

The death of Miss Elizabeth Keller, which occurred at the home of her father, P. F. Keller, at Centre Hall, on last Friday night, was none the less sad because it had been known for some time that she had been suffering with consumption. She was such a gracious, cheerful, earnest girl that all loved and admired her and when it came to the last sad rites on Tuesday, six of her Sunday school class tenderly carried her remains to their last resting place. Funeral services were held at her late home by Rev. Kershner of the Reformed church, of which she was a zealous member. The pall bearers were Misses Mabelle Keller, Estella Acker, Jennie Thomas, Lizzie Snyder, Edith Ritter and Carrie Spicher.

Christian Lehr died at his home at Clintondale on Tuesday morning. He had been about as usual on Monday, but early Tuesday morning his heart began to trouble him, causing death a few hours later. Deceased was 76 years old and is survived by his widow and a daughter.

John Z. Lindemuth, aged 76 years, died at his home in Mill Hall, on Tuesday night. His widow and one daughter survive him.

Morgan's Big Coal Gobble. Mitchell Mines at Gallitzin and Other Large Blair County Interests Acquired. ALTOONA, Pa., April 15.—A bituminous coal deal involving the consideration of $2,000,000 has just been consummated. It is claimed J. P. Morgan was the prime mover and has effected the greatest deal in coal lands, coke ovens and mines ever known in this section.

All the interests of the Mitchell Coal and Coke Company, of Gallitzin, passes to the control of the Webster Coal and Coke company, which is composed of prominent Lehigh Valley capitalists headed by T. H. Watkins, of Allentown. This company has recently acquired all the interests of John C. Scott & Sons at Summerhill; the Cresson Company's shaft at Cresson, and the Ansbury mines at Ansbury. The purchase of the Mitchell lands and mines adds to their output 4,500 tons of coal and 1,000 tons of coke daily.

The deal, in addition to operations at Gallitzin, Hastings, Bens Creek and Nantyglo, in Cambria county, includes the Bennington works in Blair county, a large mine at Oseola, Clearfield county, and 10,000 acres of undeveloped lands in Cambria county, recently purchased by the Mitchell company. It also embraces the Gallitzin Electric Light Company, the Gallitzin Water Company, the Hastings Electric Light Company, and water companies and four large stores doing business under the name of Cartwright & Co.

Farmers say that the wheat fields in this valley look promising.

Dr. D. M. Wolf commenced his high school in the academy building for advanced scholars on Monday last. The session to continue for ten weeks. Sixty students were present which has now increased to seventy-five, and the cry is "still they come."

It was reported in one of our county newspapers last week, that Major Huss, boot and shoe maker of our village, contemplated moving to Centre Hall. This statement, Mr. Major says, has no foundation, he will let well enough alone and remain where he is.

The trout season opened on Monday last. Of course all the trout streams in this neighborhood were well attended. It might be safely said that almost an army of fishermen lined their concave shores 'till a late hour. No very large catches have been reported.

M. B. Huss, of Johnstown, formerly of this place, made us a flying visit last week. Mr. Huss is a skillful musician and at present is in a band connected with the Walter L. Main show, and will leave with the show in a few days, for the western States and along the Pacific coast.

Reverend Haven, the new appointee of the M. E. conference for the Penns Valley circuit, arrived here on Friday last. His initial sermon will be delivered on Sunday evening next. Reverend Chilcote and wife left on the previous Wednesday for their new field at Rouzerville, Franklin county.

Geo. W. Mowery, proprietor of the livery and exchange stables located here, has purchased another pair of high spirited animals and a very handsome carriage. Mr. Mowery has his livery fully equipped with superior horses and all manner of vehicles, for both road and pleasure driving.

Colonel T. B. Jemison, one of our active citizens, besides being a successful farmer, is heavily engaged in the fire insurance business, and between the two vocations has few idle moments. The Colonel has been engaged in fire insurance for many years and has built up a large business, representing only the best companies in the United States.

The Fox case we had before Squire Hering a few weeks since, continues to be discussed by the idle—when they have nothing else to talk about. The case will come up in court the last of the month for a reversal or confirmation of the Squire's decision. This trial has caused as much discussion and commotion in our village, as would the invasion of the valley by an army with banners. The gossip seems to be fun for the thoughtless, but the grave and judicious have become weary of it.

Lillian Musser is recovering from an attack of Scarlet fever.

James Peters is laid up with ulcerated sore throat and rheumatism.

Luther Fye, Walter McCormick and G. B. McFry are enrolled as students at the Boalsburg academy.

Mrs. Samuel Kimpfort, with her little son, John Albert, are visiting Boalsburg and State College friends.

Merchant Condo, of State College, enjoyed a drive over this way as well as a dinner at Annee Koch's on Sunday.

Woods Bathgate bade adieu to those near and dear, on last Monday, and started to find a clerkship in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Mary Ard is suffering from pulmonary and stomach troubles caused by a relapse of the grip, with which she had been ill previously.

Mrs. McCormick, of Hubbersburg, with her two bright little daughters, is dividing her time with Pine Grove and Pine Hall friends this week.

Young Chester McCormick, who had his collar bone broken while trying his hand at horse training recently, is slowly recovering from the effects of his injury.

Squire Jno. M. Keichline and family from Bellefonte drove up to the old home here on Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Mary Keichline, who is in poor health.

Mr. James Dufford went to a Philadelphia hospital last week to undergo some special treatment for physical troubles that have been a cause of suffering for years.

Mrs. Eliza McClellan, of Tusseyville, recently spent several days with her son-in-law Harry Frantz, giving her approval to his mercantile venture. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Burchfield.

Daniel and Dolly Harpster mourn the death of their baby girl Luella who died Sunday morning after a short illness of spinal meningitis, aged 16 months. Interment was made Tuesday morning in Gray's burying ground, Rev. Aikens, officiating.

Mrs. Will Gates who had been visiting her parents at Johnstown came home on last Saturday.

Luther Beck has received 1100 nursery peach trees which they planted this week on their farms.

Mrs. Hettie Tate spent Sunday in Milesburg, also Mrs. Harry Stover at Nittany, while her mother was away.

Mrs. Sarah Rossman, an aged lady and a soldier's widow, died last Thursday and was buried on Saturday at Snydertown.

Harvey Rossman's driving horse became tired and being unable to rise from the stall was killed to relieve the animal.

James Gates, who has been laboring at Camal, fell and was injured so badly that he has been confined in the hospital at Williamsport.

Will Showers and Harry Harter had a close call last week, while raising the smoke stack of their engine. Fortunately neither was seriously hurt.

I. O. F. expect to attend the anniversary at Williamsport, April 26th. The rate and schedule of trains on the C. R. R. of Pa. will be found on another page of this issue.

The property owned by A. A. Pletcher was rented to David Williams, of Nittany, who will occupy it on Tuesday. This property is open for sale and will be sold during the summer.

Ray Allison, book keeper for C. P. Long, Spring Mills, called in our town last Monday. Ray has always conducted himself honorably in his youth and we congratulate his employer upon his selection for the trust.

While ye scribe happened to stroll across the line into Clinton county one day last week we spied the following named citizens busy: J. N. Rossman, Sec. school board, was busy engaged in mowing; Mr. Rossman is postmaster and also a veteran of the Civil war, and invalid the last year. Harry Snyder, the hustling creamery man, quenched our thirst with pure buttermilk, and also told us of the increase in trade since operating the creamery. Geo. Billet, still proprietor of Washington Furnace, Pocahontas John Smith, coal dealer, our way, J. G. Fleisher, first class mechanic and repairer, in woodwork upon vehicles was next on our list. Bsn. Piper busy in same building upon ironing and combing wood and iron into a vehicle. Joe and Ed. Greene, having charge of White's flour mill, guaranteed to us a safe cure for consumption, "the dust from an honest miller's hat." These young men are doing an immense amount of trade and are satisfying the people. William Billet, an esteemed citizen, has been laid up for repairs, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. J. H. Huston is coming along all right. Andy McClintic Sr. was obeying the female goddess of his household by planting onions and potatoes on any at present, these are owned by the Dr. Smith estate, also several farms owned by Joe Long, are not occupied. The tide seems to be towards the city; last year being a failure of crops tenants are seeking a new location.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO ROME.—You will find a number of these roads in the various counties of the State and the counties inhabited by wide-awake, energetic and practical farmers. Upon investigation you will find a large number of these farmers in possession of the American Harrow and Seeder. They have in store for it nothing but the highest praise. Why? Because it has a patent self-adjustable to accommodate the operator when cultivating corn and potatoes or any crops that grow in rows. Sows all kind grain and cast. Has the only broad-cast phosphate distributor in the world. As a pulverizer has no equal. With less labor can put your land in equal condition of cultivation, thereby stand the drought and cause a better yield. It is the best and most successful in their own business but who have been modified in their construction so as to meet the wants of the eastern farmer better than any other that has ever been offered him. The new American Harrow and Seeder is manufactured by American Harrow Co., Detroit, Mich., one of the largest and best known manufacturers in the country. D. M. Ferry, the president, is known in every nook and cranny of the farming country.

R. W. Gillett, vice president, has for many years been associated with a large number of the most important business institutions of Detroit.

O. R. Baldwin, secretary and W. W. Collier treasurer. They are men who have not only been successful in their own business but who have been prominently active in the commercial affairs of Detroit and throughout state of Michigan.

Mr. Baldwin is president of the Merchants and Manufacturers Exchange of Detroit, the oldest and most influential of all the commercial organizations of his character in the State. He is also president of the Masonic Temple Association and ex-president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Collier is a member of the executive committee of the National Association of Agricultural Implements and Vehicle Manufacturers; an organization which includes the leading makers of these articles in the whole country.

In this State, the management of the business is conducted by J. M. Howard, who has been associated with the company almost from its infancy. He and their other representatives are making headquarters at the Brookerhoff house, Bellefonte and will make every effort to see that each and every farmer of this county has an opportunity to see and operate the new American Harrow and Seeder. In addition to disc harrows, walking and riding cultivators, disc harrows, corn and bean planters, hand and horse drawn cutters, tree cutters, mangle sprayers and other farm implements.
