

Bellefonte, Pa., April 26, 1901.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-A new iron bridge is to be erected at Rebersburg.

-Arbutus is in the market in large and fragrant quantities.

-Good, Better, Best. Who, Which, What? Royal paint .-- Potter & Hoy.

-Al. Stover, of Aaronsburg, is papering and painting J. W. Zeigler's house at Rebersburg.

-Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds ening there, remaining until 1867, when he tertained the euchre club at their home on located at Chariton, Iowa. With the ex-Linn street last evening.

-Moshannon commandery K. T., of Philipsburg, held a banquet and dance in their hall in Philipsburg on Tuesday evening.

-George Gross caught a trout out in the old car works dam on Tuesday morning that was 18 inches long and weighed 21bs.

-----Frank Wallace Sr. and Joseph Green, two of the best known residents of Milesburg, are very ill at their homes in that place.

-R. G. McClelland, whose barn was destroyed by the recent fire at Linden Hall, has the wall up for the new structure that is to replace it.

-A trout caught by Hugh Wagner in Spring Creek last Friday evening was 171 G. W. Thomas, of this place. He leaves inches long, five inches thick and weighed 2 lbs., 4 oz.

-While driving in the vicinity of Linden Hall one day last week H. D. Rossman, of Penns Cave, had a thrilling runaway accident.

-Mrs. Charles H. McClain is going to entertain the officers and teachers of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath school this evening at her home on Penn street.

--Jacob Heller, the Rebersburg blacksmith, has been turning out so many wagons lately that it has become necessary for him to build an addition to his shop.

-The Coleville band made its first appearance in the new uniforms recently pur- developed toward the last and precipitated chased, on Friday night. They are quite natty and caused considerable comment.

-----The minstrels that are booked for Garman's next Monday night advertise a number of specialties, as well as the usual number of singers and comedians.

------Charles Flegal has purchased the in-terest of his partner, Joseph Prusick, in the shoe store they had conducted together in Philipsburg and will run it himself in the future.

-Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Gray, of Williamsport, expect to sail for Europe on June 29th. They are going to attend the

HE GAVE THE GROUND FOR THE METH-HARRY COWDRICK. - Harry Morris ODIST CHURCH .- There died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Eikenberry, in Chariton, Lucas county, Iowa, on April

14th one whose name will be remembered with gratitude in Bellefonte. William

Alexander, whose demise is reported, had maker's shop on the land where the Methodist church and Spigelmyer residence now stand. He continued in business until the panic of 1837 forced him to retire at con-

Chariton since 1867. While at West Point he served one term as postmaster and twice was a candidate on the Republican ticket for Representative. On the 19th of March,

1880, he was appointed postmaster at Chariton, acceptably discharging the duties of his office for a term of four years.

which he was universally held.

ville.

the end.

reached the ripe old age of 90 years.

Cowdrick died at his home at Niagara and "Big" Delige invited Hen Grimes to Falls on Tuesday morning at 10:40, after go into a poker game. Grimes refused, an illness of only twelve days with typhoid words followed, fists flew, Grimes fell in fever. He was the son of Morris W. the mud in front of Temple court, Delige Cowdrick, the well known contractor on top of him and then Frank Miller tried formerly of this place, and moved to Niagara to kick him in the head, while he was Deceased was born in Clinton county building business with his father. May 19th, 1810, and came of revolutionary He was married to Alice, a daughter of stock. At the age of 17 he went to Philthe late John Garbrick, of Coleville, and ipsburg and spent three years learning the she survives him with their three little first one in sight when he arrived on the cabinet maker's trade, and in 1832 comchildren, Mahlon, Blanche and Malcolm. menced business for himself in Bellefonte. His father and mother and these sisters He had a furniture factory and cabinet

Otto, Bellefonte; Mrs. A. S. Garman, Tyrone; Will, Paxton and Mrs. Peter Romeiser, Niagara Falls, and Edward, Bellefonte.

siderable loss. In 1839 he went to West His body will be brought here this morn-Point, Iowa, and engaged in cabinet making and interment will be made from the home of H. Otto at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Shriner, of the Methodist church. ception of 2 years afterwards spent in Cenofficiating. tre county he has resided continuously in -Mrs. Elizabeth From died at the residence of her son William Rockey, at Tusseyville, on Exturday evening; her death having resulted from general debilitation. Mrs. From was 67 years old and had been a life-long member of the Reformed church. She was a devoted mother town.

On the 15th of May, 1836, in Bellefonte, and a charitable, kindly christian woman Mr. Alexander was married to Miss Elizawho will be missed in the community in beth Leidy. Two children survive this which she made her home. Her first marmarriage, namely, Wm. L., of Chicago, and riage was to Mr. Rockey and some time Mrs. Lizzie Eikenberry, of Chariton, Iowa. after his death she was married again to Mrs. Alexander died Feb. 28th, 1855, and Mr. From. Surviving are these children: Mr. Alexander was again married on March Mrs. Margaret Davis, of Altoona; Mrs. 3rd, 1857 to Miss Amanda Thomas, of Lizzie Jordon, of Lewistown ; Mrs. Mary for her to open her mouth at all. She has Bellefonte, who died August 1, 1892. She Elina, Mrs. Flora Goetz and Mrs. Kate En- lived on liquid nourishment passed was a sister of Mrs. Rebecca Burnside and gard, of Lakewood, O.; William F. Rockey, of Tusseyville, at whose home she one sister, Mrs. Frank Leathers, of Union- died, and J. Rossman Rockey, of Lakewood, O. She is also survived by these brothers and sister : Calvin Rossman, of and zealous member of the M. E. church. Siglerville, Pa. ; Henry and Michael Rossman, Tusseyville, and Mrs. Thompson, of his home in Altoona on Sunday evening from the effects of apoplexy, was born at Spring Mills, this county, May 30th, 1829. He moved to Altoona in 1882 to work at his trade of carpentering. Cap't. Breon was a veteran of the Civil war; having been a member of Co. F, 148th Vols. For gallantry displayed at the battle of Gettysburg he was commissioned captain and served until the end of the war, though nine months of the time were spent in the prisons at Andersonville, Charleston and Libby. November 29th, 1849, he married Miss Mary Bunnell, who survives him with these children : Mrs. Simon Small; Mrs. H. C. Smith, William H., and George E., all of Altoona. Rev. George Leidy, of the Methodist church, officiated at the funeral on Tuesday afternoon and interment was He had a wide circle of acquaintances, having been active in business and political

3 323 1 William Weaver, who moved from -----On Saturday afternoon Frank Miller

Falls, several years ago to carry on the down. It was a disgraceful street fight, but only what is usually expected when that gang of toughs get to drinking. Officer Miller arrested Grimes, because he was the scene. While he was taking his prisoner to the lock-up the others made for their and brothers also survive : Mrs. Hamilton roost on Logan street, but didn't get far enough to be safe. Frank Miller was caught near the Brant house, but thought he wouldn't go along with the officer until he decided it were better to go than have his head pounded off entirely. Delige had time to get away and he got. Later Grimes was released but Miller spent 24 hours in a cell then gave up $5 fine, only to be rearrested on Monday morning on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Grimes.

Billy Green, who had been slightly in evidence during the fight, was also arrested under this information. Officer Miller seems to be more than fulfilling expectations and he should be given the hearty support of all law abiding citizens of the have not been positively informed we have learned that the operation, itself, was quite successful. Its future results will be a matter of interest to many who have been acquainted with this singular case.

THE DEBT TO BE LIFTED-The Ladies Mite society of the Presbyterian church have decided to lift the $4,000 indebtedadopted a most unique plan for doing it. On the evening of April 30th they will have a hat trimming contest, in which men only can compete, at the residence of Jas. H. Potter, on Linn street. Hats and trimmings will be furnished and the time allowance will be five minutes. The prize will be $4,000, the winner being obligated to lift the mortgage on the church with the winnings. Refreshments will be served free

Two ITALIANS BLOWN UP .- About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon

-Dr. Eisenhuth is a new physician to locate at Madisonburg.

-The recent rains extinguished the fires in the mountains about Coburn.

-The Lynn, Mass., Bee says that Culhane, Chase & Weston's minstrels gave a "high class performance" in that city. They come to Garman's on the night of April 29th.

-Chas. E. Dorworth, of the Pittsburg Times spent Sunday with his parents here.

-Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town during the early part of the week, serving as a grand juror.

--Miss Ellen Valentine is home from Harrisburg, where she was visiting Mrs. Ross A. Hickok for two weeks.

-Our friend George Williams, of Lemont, was in town yesterday and was an interested lis tener at court during a few hours of his stay. -Henry Garner, of Ferguson township, was in town bright and early Monday morning, having ome down to serve his country as a juror. -Fred Bottorf, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town yesterday, having been attracted hither by the unusual interest centering in the Irvin case. -Thomas Kelly, one of the successful coal operators of that mine in Snow Shoe, was in town during the fore part of the week doing duty as a

-Miss Lillie Coyle Hench returned to her home in Harrisburg, on Saturday afternoon, after a short visit with Mrs. H. P. Harris, of Howard street.

-Fergus Potter Esq., of Linden Hall, was in the crowd in town on Monday. He is such a distinguished looking gentleman that it was easy to Bair, of Huntingdon. Those who are ac-

-Dr. Eloise Meek is in Phila telphia preparatory to going to Johnstown where she expects to ocate next week and open an office for the practice of medicine.

-While in town yesterday nurseryman James Clark, of Buffalo run, stated that he has plenty of trees, but has not been pushing the business very much of late.

-Mrs. John Hall has gone back to Hahnneman ospital in Philadelphia for treatment for an abscess with which she has been troubled for several years.

-Edward Rine, agent of the Adams express company at Punxsutawney joined his wife here on Sunday, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Gessner, at Coleville.

-Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKinney, of Howard, were arrivals in town on Saturday; Mrs. McKinney having remained to spend Sunday with the family of R. B. Taylor on Spring street.

-Mr. George'F. Hoy, of Hublersburg, drove up to town on Monday and started home about noon with a whole wagon load of fruit trees. He didn't ness hanging over their church and have have an opportunity of finding out just what variety they were.

> -State Forestry Commissioner, Dr. J. T. Rothrock, was in town yesterday talking over the purchase of some land in the Alleghenies that is owned by Bellefonte parties. He wants it for a state reservation.

-Among the out of town guests who enjoyed the Installation festivities of the Constans Commandery, Friday night, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Clemson Miss Annie Gray and Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Coons, of Scotia.

-Mrs. C T. Gerberich went to Philipsburg Mon day to visit her daughter Mrs. C. U. Hoffer and Mrs. Louis Wetzel. She was accompanied by her grand daughter Louise Hoffer who has been attending school here this winter, MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week :

John M. Crowell, of Birmingham, and Bessie V. Pifer, of Bellefonte.

Willis A. Grove, of Lemont, and Susie Gill, of Pleasant Gap.

John J. Easton, of Karthaus, and Nevada Force, of Pine Glenn.

David Keatley, and Margaret Hall, both of Unionville.

Alfred D. Lingle, of Spring Mills, and Myrtle S. Glass, of Penn Hall.

John H. Taylor, of Tusseyville, and Effie May Fye, of Colyer.

John Lorenz and Annie Cemenman, both of Clarence.

WHERE THE GOOD ONES ARE BRED .---W. V. Larimer, manager of the Palace stables in this place, left for Lexington, Ky., on Tuesday afternoon and will be back the fore part of next week with a carload of handy driving and saddle horses. Will knows a good one when he sees it and as he is right in the heart of the famous Blue-grass country it is only natural to expect this to be a consignment of especially fine horses.

-The annual spring inspection of Co. B, 5th Reg., N. G. P. was made in the armory here last Thursday night. Maj. Samuel Douglass Jefferies, of Pittsburg, Insp. of the 2nd Brig. was the officer and he was accompanied here by Maj. John S. quainted with such matters are confident that the soldier boys here passed a highly creditable inspection in all the requirements of the serivce.

-The Pennsylvania State College base ball team was defeated by the Indians at Carlisle last Thursday by the score of 10 to

3. The score was tie up to the end of the sixth inning, when Miller, who had been pitching for State was forced to retire, on account of not feeling well. Miller had been in poor health all winter.

-----The bill authorizing the commissioners of Centre county to reimburse former sheriff Condo for loses sustained in the capture of murderer Ettlinger at Woodward several years ago has finally passed the Legislature and now all that it needs to make it a law is the Governor's signature.

-----All the timber up the West Branch has been rafted into the boom at Williamsport and the mills of that city are busy cutting up the 110,000,000 feet estimated to be in the lot. Smith's and Wolf's drives were the last ones to get in and they arrived in Williamsport on Monday night.

----- I. C. Stover, of Salona, was walking down the C. R. R. of Pa. tracks the other day, and saw eight copperhead snakes that had been cut in two by a train. They had evidently been crawling over the rail when a train ran over them. -J. Fall Stover and Newton Snyder were badly bruised, but not seriously hurt by the breaking of a scaffold on which they were working at Morris' Buffalo-run kilns on Thursday afternoon.

For 75 years Mr. Alexander was an active In all the relations of life he was honorable and upright, and the many excellencies of McAlevy's Fort. his character account for the high regard in -Captain Jacob Breon, who died at WILLIAM GALBRAITH.-After an illness with tuberculosis that has extended over many months William Galbraith passed away at the home of his sister Mrs. D. W. Woodring, in this place, on Saturday morning. While tuberculosis was the primary cause of his illness meningitis He had been located at State College for several years past, where he was conducting the plumbing department of a hardware store. It was while there that he became ill and a few weeks ago he was brought to his sister's home here. He was a son of the late Bartrim and Sarah Galbraith and was born in this place January, 1844, making his age a little over 57 years.

made in Fairview cemetery, Altoona.

ecumenical conference of Methodism in London, but expect to make quite a tour of the continent while abroad.

-The rain which began falling here flooding all the low lands, swelling the streams and generally soaking the earth, but no damage has been reported from any part of the county.

-James Cornelly, whose pardon was signed by the Governor on Thursday of last week, was released from the penitentiary Saturday morning, and arrived at his home here Sunday morning, after having spent Saturday night with his friend Al. Garman in Tyrone.

-On Tuesday W. Harrison Walker purchased the J. Kyle McFarlane home on east Linn street for $5,160. The McFarlane farm at Hunters park was not sold, the sheriff having postponed the sale. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Musser expect to move into Mr. Walker's new place just as soon as Mr. McFarlane vacates it.

-John Clark, Millheim's blind boy, was in town during the fore part of the week and we are glad to say that he received such substantial aid here that he was able to leave for the Will's eye hospital in Philadelphia on Wednesday. He hopes to recover the sight of his one eye, by having a cataract removed therefrom. His other eye is hopelessly blind.

-Dr. J. K. Stites, the specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, who had been located here for a year or more, left for Philadelphia on Sunday afternoon, where he will make his future home. We understand that Dr. Stites has accepted an offer in that city that was even more tempting than the very lucrative practice he had built up here.

-Always ahead in the early gardening business in Bellefonte this year Gotlieb Hagg has all his former competitors so far distanced that they are not even in the race any more. That garden of his on Bishop street is the admiration of all who see it. Gotlieb has had lettuce a number of times already out of it and he will have plenty of fine cabbage plants to sell within a week or so. If you want any for your garden he will be glad to supply them.

-While returning from a call at the home of John Stonebraker in Coburn, on last Thursday evening, Mrs. Jacob Whitmeyer, of that place, fell over the abutment at the north end of the bridge that spans Penns creek. Her shoulder was dislocated and she was rendered unconscious the Humes farm. His widow, who was by the fall; lying there with her feet in the Miss Mary North, with one son, Joseph, of water until she revived and was able to this place, survive him. orawl out. Had she fallen entirely into the water she might have been drowned.

pleasant, agreeable disposition made him generally esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.

Surviving him are his brother Frank, last Thursday night and continued at in- Mrs. D. W. Woodring, at whose home he tervals until Wednesday had the effect of died. There is one sister dead, Mrs. Charles Schreyer, of Chicago. Dr. William Laurie, of the Presbyteriau matters in the county for a great many years. His unobtrusive manner and church, officiated at the funeral on Monday afternoon. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

GEORGE KUSTENBORDER DIES .- Just eleven days after his beloved wife had passed away the spirit of George Kustenborder took its flight to realms of immortality and the earthly life of a man who had been closely identified with Ferguson township affairs for more than half a century was ended Deceased died at the home of his son-in-law, J. H. Lutz, at Rock Forge, on Sunday morning from the effects of gangrene, with which he had suffered for some time. His wife had passed away at the same place, only eleven days before him. He was born in Northampton county eighty-seven years ago. When 23 years old he married Catharine Rhodes and later located in this county where he engaged in agricultural and smithy pursuits. He was very well. known in the upper end of the county and was a man of strictly temperate habits, never having used liquor or tobacco in any form. For fifty years he was an elder in the Reformed church at Pine Grove Mills. His first wife died about twenty-five years ago and four years later he married survive. One sister, Mrs. Mary A. Fry, and a brother, Thomas Kustenborder, of State College, also survive. Interment was made in the old cemetery at Pine Grove on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 ; Rev. Aikens having officiated. His pall bearers were Geo. Homan, Geo. Heberling, Geo. Grimes, Geo. Lutz, Geo. Cronemiller and Geo. Hoy.

death of William Undercoffer at his home on the Lewistown pike, about one mile from Bellefonte, on Saturday afternoon. The stroke was altogether unexpected, coming without a moment's warning it caused Burial was made yesterday. death almost before those about the stricken man could realize what had happened. Deceased was 66 years old and located in this county shortly after attaining his majority. He learned the tailoring trade with the late W. S. Tripple but for a number of years past had been employed on this county to Lock Haven, died at his home there about noon on Monday. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and one son. He was 53 years old.

Interment was made in the Union ceml etery on Tuesday afternoon

-Best set of teeth at Dr. Geissinger's for $8.

-Certainly Royal paint is the best paint made.-Potter & Hoy.

-The first car load of clay for the new brick works at Beech Creek has been hauled into that place.

----- While working in the Salona quarries Claire Kessinger had his hand and wrist badly burned by the premature explosion of a blast.

----Some miscreant cut the ropes on six or seven rafts that were tied up at Lock Haven on Monday night. Some of them floated off down the river, but were caught at Liberty.

-Culhane, Chase & Weston's minstrels come to Garman's on Monday night, April 29th. It will be the first appearance of this aggregation here and as we know nothing of it we publish this notice for what it is worth.

-The appropriation's committee of the House and Senate arrived in Bellefonte last evening and spent the night here. This morning they will proceed to The Pennsyl- lished in last week's edition. vania State College to make an examination of the work being done at that institution.

-The new boiler that is to replace the one that blew up with such disastrous ef-Mary C. Martin. A number of children fect at the Douty mill, near Rebersburg, several weeks ago, has arrived there and the mill will soon be in operation again. Mr. Wohlfort, the man who was the most hurt of the three men in the mill at the time of the explosion, is still confined to bed, but is getting along nicely.

---- Family troubles are reported as hav ing been the cause of Jacob D. Gearbart's suicide at his home at Osceola on Monday. DIED SUDDENLY.-Paralysis caused the For more than thirty years he had been an influential resident of that place and his sad end has fallen like a pall over scores of friends. He was prominent in church and society work and was nearly 70 years oid.

-Detective Joe Rightnour and constable George 'Lucas, of Clarence, arrested Bert Painter, of Rock View, on Monday and brought him to this place, where he was turned over to detective E. A. Hoot, of Lewistown. Painter is charged by a Lewistown woman, who claims that she is his wife, with desertion. He was living with another woman at Rock View and when and threatened to kill herself and child.

Valli, Italians, were blown up in the upper quarry at Morris Armor gap operations. The men are brothers and were loading a hole when the blast suddenly exploded, killing Tony outright, and injuring Fred so that he will probably die. Both of his eyes were blown out and he was otherwise frightfully hurt.

Fred was taken to the Lock Haven hospital been the cause of a fire that did considerable damage to the home of .Sol Schmidt, at 4th and Presqueisle Sts., Philipsburg, early Sunday morning. The heat became intense enough to break the up stairs windows before Mrs. Schmidt was awakened. The firemen got on the scene early and were able to save the building, but the loss to furniture and furnishings will not be

----Owing to the unexpected demand on our space for the Irvin trial at court this week several articles of local interest have been held over, among them being an day. Full programs of both were pub-

of Ironsville, was riding along the frailroad tracks on his bicycle on Sunday afternoon and when near Birmingham discovered a large land-slide that had just carried a two ton rock onto the track. Hearing a train approach he hurriedly ran to signal it and the engineer was able to stop his train, thus averting a serious wreck. The train was the Pennsylvania Limited and was running at about fifty miles an hour.

-It will be observed that the WATCH-MAN keeps up its reputation for exclusive news in the local field. There are several important articles in this issue that you will find in other papers a week later.

-Rev. Shriner was chosen by the Senior class of the Bellefonte High school, at a meeting yesterday afternoon, to preach the baccalaureate sermon to the class on Sunday, June 2nd.

-Dickinson played base ball at State College yesterday afternoon. Only seven innings were played, the score resulting 12 to 6 in favor of State.

-We began selling Royal paint twenshe learned of his arrest she became frantic ty-five years ago. Come and see us now, we still sell it .- Potter & Hoy.

-Mr. Frederick Barclay, of Hublersburg, was in town on Monday; having come up to make his return as constable of Walker township. Mr. Barclay is the father of G. H. Barclay, one of the attachees of the Commercial Telephone Co. in this -Moshannon Commandery of Philipsburg was worthily represented here Friday night at the big Masonic reception by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Denlinger, of Patton, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fryberger, Miss Elizabeth Fryberger and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Council, of Philipsburg.

-John A. Miller, of Rock Springs, was among the crowd of Ferguson township people in town on Wednesday. He came down to see about the right of way for the extension of the Bellefonte Central rail road which will run through the rear of his property. -David Harpster, of Half Moon township, and W. E. Furst, of Patton, are two of the jurors in town this week who represent the successful class of young farmers. Mr. Harpster was fortunate nough to escape doing duty on the Irvin case, but Mr. Furst was drawn for it.

-Robert Morris went up to Tyrone Saturday evening to attend the home talent minstrels there and find out if the show deserved the sale of tickets it had-1300 at fifty cents a piece. It was given for the benefit of St. Matthews Catholic church and the Bellefonte boys, H. P. Harris, P. D. Waddle and Geo. R. Meek were most cordially re-

-Mrs. Stewart Pearce, of Conneaut, O., arrived in town Saturday for a short visit with her sister Mrs. Sylvester Ray and others of the McGinley family. She was only here over night on her way home from Philadelphia where she had been at tending the marriage of her sister-in-law, Grace Pearce, and left Sunday morning for Lock Haven. -H. C. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Green and Robert Fay, of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trout, Dr. Tobin and Mr. Jack Wilson, of Tyrone, Mrs. Chauncy York, of Warrior's Mark, Edward Leyden, of Beech Creek, and Professor Kitchell, the Misses Schuyler and Saltsman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peck were among the noticeable guests at the Masonic festivities last week. -Mr. and Mrs. Robert McC. Foster, Professo and Mrs. George C. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Foster, Dr. Frear, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stuart, Miss Maud Grieb, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Glenn, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Armsby, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Crosthwait, of State College, braved the rain storm and participated in the gayeties of the Installation in the Armory Friday night.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon, of Pennsylvania Furnace, were among the guests at the re-ception given by the Constans Commandery in the Armory Friday night. They extended their stay at the Mitchell home over Sunday and in consequence their little daughter, Deborah, shared with her uncle Joe Mitchell, of Burnham, the nonor and attention due visiting delegates at a family party.

-Mrs. George B. Johnston and her three children, Jeanette, Mary Ann and Jack, who had been here for the past three weeks on account of the illness and death of the late J. A. Aiken, Mrs. Johnston's father, returned to their home in Beaver Falls on Tuesday. Mrs. Aikens accompanied them as far as Tyrone and stayed there with friends until Wednesday evening.

-The Benner home on High street has been opened for the summer. Miss Sallie Benner returned this week from her winter's stay in Ithaca, N, Y., and Atlantic City, but her sister, Miss Linnie, will extend her visit at the latter place for several weeks. Their nephew, Mr. H. S. Cooper, has resigned his position at Ithaca to accept a much better one in New York city and Mrs. Cooper and Emiline are contemplating spending the ummer here.

-Sheriff Brungard took Henry Hoover and Cunningham McIntyre to the Huntingdon reformatory yesterday.

----- A camp of the Modern Woodmen of America is to be instituted at Millheim.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red
" -No 2 791/2@81
"-No. 2
orn —Yellow late 47@481/ye Flour Per Bril. 2.90
aled hay-Choice Timothy No. 1 14.50@17.00 " " Mixed " 1 14.50@16.00 Mixed " 1 14.50@16.00
traw 14.50@16.00 7.00@17.00

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the PHGNIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes press: Red wheat, old..

Wheat now	70
Wheat, new	70
	50 40
	40
	31
	40
	25
Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $2.	70

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel

Eggs, per dozen.... Lard, per pound.... Country Shoulders.

Sides.... Hams... Tallow, per pound... Butter, per pound...

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to porsons advertis-ing by the quarter half ware

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	11
One inch (12 lines this type Two inches	$ 5	88	$ 10
Infee inches	7 10	10 15	15 20
Quarter Column (5 inches) Half Column (10 inches)	00	20 35	30 55
one column (20 inches)	35	55	100
Advertisements in special column	25 r	her a	ant dditional Transient advs. per line, 3 insertion Each additional insertion per line Each additional insertion, per line. Local notices, per line. Business notices, per line. Job Printing of every kind done and dispatch. The WarcHMAN offic fitted with Eact Presses and N and dispatch. The WATCHMAN office has been re-fitted with Fast Presses and New Type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms—Cash. All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY MEEX, Proprieto account of the Masonic Installation ceremonies, so brilliantly carried out last Friday night, and of the County Sunday School convention at Milesburg on Tues-covered by the $300 insurance on it.

The men are both young and unmarried.

last night.

-A defective flue is supposed to have place.

ceived.

-James Colobine, a 19 year old boy