

Spring Mills.

A. E. Leonard, of Buffalo, N.Y. is a visitor here. Also L. C. Gilland, of Bloomsburg.

House cleaning with all its attending conditions and terrors is about over—for which we give thanks.

Jack Frost made us a visit on Tuesday morning last, quite a severe one, but no particular damage is reported.

The chickenpox has been quite prevalent among the juvenile portion of our community—of course never of a violent character.

The junior base ball club of Spring Mills has recently been reorganized, and is now ready to enter any contest presenting itself.

Mrs. Sarah Kennelly—known by everybody as Aunt Sallie—has been very ill for several weeks. Her present condition is very critical.

Our farmers are very busy, some are a trifle late in planting. The grain fields in this valley look well and give promise of a good harvest.

John Smith & Bros. are building the foundation walls for their new store and ware rooms. The building will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. They expect to occupy it by July 1st.

Coal is again the topic for discussion, and in our village is always in order—“where merchants meet to congregate.” But as yet the prospect for “black diamonds” in this locality is not very flattering.

Bicycle riding seems to be quite the rage down this way. From early in the afternoon ‘til dark the pike is lined with “bikes” of high and low degree. Some of our fair bicyclennes display considerable skill, and ride along the pike with the rapidity of the winds and as gracefully as a goddess, frequently leaving their male escorts far in the rear, floundering along the fences or recovering themselves from a grand tumble.

A day or two since I called into the office of J. I. Condo carpet manufacturer of our village and after transacting some business passed into the factory, which proved to be a bee hive of industry. The factory has been running over time for several weeks. Mr. Condo at present is especially engaged in manufacturing a very superior hemp carpet, with entirely new patterns and beautiful colorings. The carpet has a solid body and looks as if it would wear about six ages. Mr. Condo informed me that he has on file a dozen orders for this particular grade. The factory is operated to its utmost capacity.

Linden Hall.

Merchant Wm. Meyer, of Centre Hall, was seen on our streets on Saturday.

P. C. Bradford and son Carl are both confined to bed with typhoid fever.

Wm. Zeigler and wife of Oak Hall were callers in town on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lizzie Gettig spent a part of last week and the beginning of this at State College.

Mrs. Schreck is preparing to move to Brinsbin, Pa., where her husband is employed.

Supervisor Stoughton and Mr. Winegardner were through here last week taking up ties.

Samuel Weaver, who is working for Mr. Poorman, spent Sunday with his parents at Millheim.

Miss Martha Tressler left for Tyrone on Tuesday morning where she will spend the summer.

Miss Sadie Lee, of Colyer, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. P. C. Bradford of this place.

Foster Jodon and wife and Miss Rebie Jodon, all of Boalsburg, visited Wm. Brooks and family over Sunday.

Mrs. Calvin Coble, of Oak Hall, spent a few days last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harshbarger, of this place.

John St. Stout, of Easton, agent for Wolf & Co. of Chambersburg, was here last week trying to interest J. H. Ross in mill machinery.

Samuel Kern, a former resident of our town but now of Bellefonte, visited his brother-in-law, Wash. Garbrick and family of this place last Thursday.

Clyde Boyer, of Milton, a former student in the telegraph office here, is at present taking charge of the office here during the illness of Mr. Bradford.

Mrs. Ed. Lucas, who has been ill with typhoid fever for several months, is improving under the care of Miss Riley, a trained nurse of Boalsburg.

Mr. Bailey, Ohio, who represents the Deering Harvesting Co., and Mr. Lee, of Colyer, were in town last week looking up the interests of their company.

Among those who visited the county seat last week were Fergus Potter Esq., P. O. Cole and son Lee, Misses Freda Hess, Katie Zeigler and Bessie Searson.

John Huss who was born and raised in this town, but of late years a resident of Johnstown and now of Centre Hall, was a pleasant caller here on Sunday.

An epidemic seems to have come among the cattle in this community. Those whose herds are affected are Samuel Ripka and Elmer Houtz, of this place, and Mr. Lowder, of Oak Hall.

Detective Geo. Fisher, of Boalsburg, was a prominent figure on our streets last Friday afternoon. He had returned from Pittsburg where he had assisted in running down some counterfeiters.

Harry Lonberger says, now that all obstacles are removed, he is looking forward with fond anticipation to the not distant future when he will have a helpmate to share the comforts of his palatial residence, just west of town. Mr. Lonberger has our congratulations in advance.

Rev. J. F. Shultz, of the United Evangelical church, preached a masterly sermon on Sunday afternoon and showed that he keeps well abreast with the popular questions of the day. He said of the tramp nuisance that it were better to feed ten unworthy ones than to turn one honest man away hungry.

BRUSSELS, May 12.—The Independence Belge publishes affidavits signed by Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy before the French Consul in London admitting the authorship of the Dreyfus bordereau and declaring that the bordereau was written with the connivance of Colonel Sandier, ex-chief of the secret intelligence bureau.

A Novel Feature.

The Pittsburg Dispatch is to Give Free Ruby-Tint Artogravures With Its Daily Edition.

The Pittsburg Dispatch proposes to give free with every copy on some one day each week for at least five weeks, beginning with the week of May 20, a fine, artistic, ruby tint artogravure, each mounted on handsome black mat. Prints like these are offered retail in art stores for one dollar each. The day each week on which these artogravures will be issued will not be announced, so to insure getting the complete series it will be necessary to order the Dispatch for five weeks, beginning May 20, as only regular subscribers will get them. The subjects are most artistic, consisting of “Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire,” by Gainsborough, a reproduction of the work made famous by its recovery after a disappearance for 25 years; “Reverie,” a beautiful head of a young woman, by a Munich artist, by Gutzmer; “The Setting Sun,” by Stengelin, and “Boats in the Bay,” by Mesdag.
