Bellefonte, Pa., May 24, 1901.

Correspondents .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of -Samuel T. Brooks has purchased the Isaac Lose livery stable and will run it in the future

-Henry W. Hartsock, of Buffalo Run, has received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Drew theological seminary.

-L. P. Irvin took charge of the book store of W. N. Kurtz & Co. on Monday morning. We wish Mr. Irvin all the good fortune possible in his new venture.

-Robert Malone took his little son Taylor to Philadelphia, on Monday to have him operated on for the straightening of The prize of $10 for the best biographical one of his feet, that has been crocked since birth.

-The alumni of the Philipsburg High school will tender a reception and banquet to the members of the class of 1901, at the Potter house, in that place, on the evening of May 31st.

-Rev. Thomas Levan Bickel, pastor of St. John's Reformed church in this place, has received a call to the Fortieth and Spring Garden street church in Philadelphia.

-The Pennsylvania State College base ball team administered the first defeat of the season to the P. R. R. team in Philadelphia on Saturday. The score resulted 3 to 2 in State's favor.

-Col. W. Fred Reynolds has commissioned Reitmyer, the Williamsport architect, to plan the extensive alterations and improvements which he contemplates making on his Linn street home.

-The Bellefonte Athletic Club has canceled the game of ball scheduled for Memorial day, out of respect for the wishes of the old soldiers. The boys are to be congratulated on the action they have tak-

-The train carrying Wallace's circus was wrecked at Fowler, on Sunday morning, causing a delay of three hours traffic on the Bald Eagle. No serious damage was done the circus, only one car having been derailed

-Rev. Wilford P. Shriner is to preach the annual Memorial day sermon in the Methodist church Sunday morning. The members of Gregg post are expected to be present and all of their friends are invited to attend with them.

---The bill providing for the county commissioners to re-imburse ex-sheriff Condo, out of the county treasury, for losses in the Etlinger case has become a law, the Governor attaching his signature to it on Wednesday.

is an officer on the schoolship "Saratoga," recently sent a puppie from Porto Rico, to Hall. The little dog has shaggy, snow

Mrs. Rebecca Curtin, at Curtin's Works, on Sunday, a dog that was in the carriage side of his head.

-On Friday evening the 31st, Mrs. M. J. Babb's class, "The Sunday School Volunteers," will give an entertainment in the lecture room of the Methodist Episcopal church to pay the bonds the class assumed. The program includes a cantata, "The Gypsies Festival," the ten virgins, with pose studies, music and recitations.

--- Charles Houser, a son of James Houser, of this place, had his right leg his legs.

-According to veterinarian W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove, the cattle of Dr. Kent. on the Potter homestead, near Linden Hall are not affected with tuberculosis as some rumors, that are afloat, would imply. Dr. Fry says that one of the cows has been troubled with sabatous tumors and he is curing them.

--- The debate for the two prizes of five and ten dollars each offered by the alumni ipsburg on Tuesday. to the students of the Academy will take place to-day at 2 o'clock at that school. The contestants are Brosius, Cadwell, Fleming, Hoy, Munson and Platt. The question to be discussed is "That the machine, though an evil, is necessary in poli-

---The resignations of lieutenants R. H. Adams, of Company H, Fifth regiment, Johnstown, Charles J. Taylor, Company B, same regiment, Bellefonte and battalion adjutant J. G. Mahaffey, of Clearfield, have all been accepted. The two former resigned on account of having moved from at which Bibles and other church literature the district and the latter for business

.-- A new and most interesting advertisement to those having horses to train, or care for, will be found in our regular ad- Harris, president; Rev. R. Crittenden, secvertising columns this week under the retary, and Clement Dale, Treasurer. head of "To Horsemen." Every one who has a promising horse or colt, or desires to have a good roadster should read and take afternoon. It was in honor of Mrs. Harris, advantage of it. It is the way to secure of Providence, R. I., Col. Reynolds' sister the kind of a horse you will be proud of. | who is here for a short visit.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES .- Thursday the class of 1901 of the Bellefonte High school. In the morning an alumni meeting will be held in the Court house at 10 o'clock. The graduating exercises will take place in the opera house during the afternoon and W. H. Keller, of Lancaster, a member of the first graduating class of the school, will deliver the annual address to THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY the scholars that same evening. Rev. Wilford P. Shriner is to preach the baccalaureate sermon, Sunday evening, June 2nd, in the Methodist church and the Junior Oraevening, June 5th.

Miss Daisy Barnes was awarded first honors of the class and will be valedictorian. She also won the mathematical prize of $10 and the prize for general excellence of $10. The latter prize is for general excellence the entire four years of the course. Miss Phinetta Jones, of Milesburg, was awarded second honor and she is the salutatorian. essay was won by Miss Lulu Rine.

There are fourteen in the class, Daisy Barnes, Mame Woods, Adaline Olewine, Phinetta Jones, Marilla Williams, Lulu Robb, John Whippo, Bernard Brown, Lee

A TRAINER FOR THE TRACKS .- The Centre County Agricultural Exhibiting Co. seems determined to put every advantage of opportunity in the way of our people. for the races until another important bit of information was made public.

The company has employed John Cocohere and take charge of the track. Mr. Cocoman is in Bellefonte already and his family will move here at once. His work will be chiefly the training of horses, so that anyone having an animal that shows speed will have the opportunity of having it developed under the direction of a man thoroughly qualified for the work.

Cocoman will be remembered as the driver of "Queen Medium," the gray mare from Williamsport that took several purses at the last spring race meet here. At present only two horses are at the track, "Billy Howe," owned by John M. Shugert and a young bay pacing mare that was bought for John M. Dale, in Lexington, a month ago. People who know the horse expect "Billy Howe" to go very fast this year.

A GREAT HUNGARIAN FETE. - The Hungarian colony about Clarence made a great event over the marriage of Annie Katschik, the winsome daughter of George Katschik, last Thursday. All the miners laid off work, the Lehigh mines all being closed, and the festivities began in earnest at noon. From that hour until 4:30 in the afternoon thirty-seven kegs of beer had -George Runkle, of this place, who been disposed of, in addition to many gal lons of whiskey and barrels of crackers.

After 4:30 our representative could not his cousin, Miss Sarah Runkle, of Centre keep count any more, but as the affair wound up with a dance that lasted well white hair and relishes Mellin's baby food. into the night it is natural to infer that -While Austin Curtin, the five year the thirty-seven kegs were only sufficient old son of C. C. Curtin, of Lock Haven, was to make the guests keen for many more Irvin's book store. climbing into a carriage at the funeral of afterwards. The music for the dancing was furnished by the bride. All of the liquid and solid refreshments were supflew at and bit the child badly about the plied by her parents but the usual custom of passing the plate was followed; the receipts from it, however, always go to the that not a fight or disturbance of any sort occurred.

> FELL FROM A BARN ROOF. - Jerry Sharer fell from the roof of the new barn on the Samuel Hoover place in Taylor township, on Monday evening, and sustained injuries that may prove fatal.

The barn had been raised only a short crushed and his left one broken in an acci- time ago and Mr. Sharer was at work on dent at Sharon, Pa., one day last week. the roof when he started to slide off and He was on a furniture van owned by E. C. fell to the ground, a distance of thirty they are not in closer touch. Rowe, by whom he is employed, and in feet. He alighted on his left side, disloturning out for another wagon he was cating his left shoulder, smashing his left thrown off, the van passing over both of hip, breaking his left arm at the elbow and cutting an ugly gash in the side of his > slide Monday evening. Dr. Musser, of lowing counties: Cambria, Blair, Somer-Tyrone, attended the injured man, but he sett, Bedford, Fulton, Huntingdon, Centre will be unable to tell for a few days as to whether he is internally injured. Mr. consecration has not been fixed, but it will was taken to the Cottage hospital in Phil- of St. Barnabas. His Eminence Cardinal

THE CENTRE COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY'S. FIRST ANNIVERSARY .- The first anniversary services of the Centre County Bible Society was held in the Methodist church in Bellefonte, on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. There was an encouraging attendance and Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, secretary of the state society, delivered an appropriate anniversary sermon.

The report of Rey. R. Crittenden, secretary for Centre county, was made covering a Bible depository established in Bellefonte Primari, Rev. A. A. Black, K. Otis Spressare sold at cost. During the period cover- Dr. G. W. Hosterman, Dr. F. W. Vandered by the report seventy eight Bibles have been sold at cost and thirty seven granted. The officers for the local society are Jas.

-Mrs. W. F. Reynolds entertained party of sixteen at lunch on Wednesday

-The Junior Epworth League present-June 6th, will be Commencement Day for ed a silver communion service set to the Mill Hall Methodist church, with appropriate ceremonies on Sunday evening.

> orders and last night many of the employes worked all night which they expect to do regularly during the month of June.

-Arrangements are being made to ex-Oak Grove is the place at which the big torical contest will take place Wednesday new shops of the New York Central R. R. of preliminary trials. are being built.

> -All veterans who have served in any of the wars of the United States will meet at Furst's store on the morning of Decoration day and together with the camps from Mill Hall, Flemington and Salona, will march to the Cedar Hill cemetery, where exercises will be held.

-Charles W. Atmore, Emory P. Day and Frank Battles, of Philadelphia, and J. have bought out the franchise of the old that Philipsburg is to have her much talked about electric railroad.

-- Detective J. N. Rightnour arrested The announcement was scarcely made that big John Delige at Benore, on Saturday the fair, this year, would be bigger and and took him over to Philipsburg, where better than ever, with more magnificent he was met by officer M. H. Walsh, of prizes for the exhibitors, and larger purses Johnsonburg, who took Delige on to that place, where he is wanted for having threatened to shoot a man at Glenn Hazel. Delige is said to have had a revolver aimed man, a professional horse trainer, to come at his man, when some one knocked it out of his hands.

> -Caterpillars are causing Nittany valley farmers great-annoyance. Some of the trees are almost enveloped in the gauzy tents and the owners are in despair as to how to get rid of them. A Buffalo Run farmer who was in this office a few days ago thinks he has an easy and effective way of destroying the nests. He soaks a corn cob in coil oil until it is thoroughly saturated, then fastening it to a long pole that has a sharpened nail in the end upon which to fasten the cob, he has a splendid torch with which he tramps from tree to tree, burning all in sight.

-Good, Better, Best. Who, Which, What? Royal paint .- Potter & Hoy.

----Edward Wilmert, an employee of the Penna. Fire Brick Co., at Beech Creek, was horribly mangled on the railroad near dently boarded a freight train to ride torn clear off. At 11:30 that night a man Library to be. named Simcox found his body and it was taken to Lock Haven, where he lingered in a semi-conscious condition until Sunday morning, when he died. Wilmert was 21 vears old and unmarried.

-80 cts. buys a dollars worth at

-William H. Keller, who was a member of the class of 1884, the first to be graduated from the Bellefonte High school, will deliver the commencement address before the class of 1901 on Thursday evenbride and groom. It is a noteworthy fact ing, June 6th. The event is to be made the occasion for infusing new spirit in the alumni of the High school, with the hope of effecting a permanent and working organization. There isn't a particle of doubt as to the influence for good an enthusiastic alumni association could have on the undergraduates of the school, if properly wielded. There are so many ways in which the

D. D., of Pittstou, has been appointed as four hours a day and the boilers in fine bishop of the new Pennsylvania diocese of Mr. Sharer is about 60 years old and an quarters, and which will be known as the experienced barn builder, but he was un- Altoona See. The limits of the new able to save himself when he started to diocese have been fixed to include the foland Clinton counties. The date for the Sharer's home is at Haunah Furnace. He probably take place on June 21st, the feast Martinelli, it is said, will officiate, assisted by the Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, archbishop of Philadelphia, and the Rt. Rev. Edmund Prendergast, auxiliary bishop and vicar Street pay roll.. general of the same diocese.

-The west Susquehanna Classis, of the Reformed church, adjourned at Selinsgrove to meet at Adamsburg next year. Among the appointments quite a number of Centre county ministers and laymen were recognized : The Classis elected delegates to the synod which meets in Philathe first five months of 1901. It reported delphia in October, 1901, as follows: ard, Ph. D., G. W. Kerschner and Elders annual tea and reception of the Academy sloot and W. R. From; secundi, Revs. H. Smith promises that his orchestra will fur-I. Crow, W. A. Hass, Frank Wetzel and Elders J. S. Pauling, David Reichley and ever played. Frederick Schenck. Delegates were also elected to the general synod as follows: Barnhart and Elders C. M. Bower and Joseph Neagley; secundi, Revs. R. C. Gearhart and T. L. Bickel and Elders

A special invitation is extended to the directors, teachers and graduating class of Harvey Miller and Jacob Ruhl.

THE MAN IN THE MOON .- As a mouey making scheme we are not for "The Man in the Moon," although as a show it sized up have a special 20 per cent reduction sale Hecla park at which a good time will be to most of the other requirements of an for two weeks commencing Saturday May guaranteed all who go. amateur performance. It was given Fri--The Match factory is crowded with day, Saturday and Monday nights in the opera house and every night it furnished entertainment and amusement for a big audience. About two hundred and fifty young people and children were in the cast and many of them did unusually well. Intend the Lock Haven trolley line to Oak deed some of them were so remarkably Grove, Jersey Shore and Williamsport. good that our stage managers in the future can select their actors without the trouble

"Around the World With the Man in the Moon" is the full title of the play, and the interest is kept up with brownies and fays and gnomes and maidens singing and dancing. It isn't over-burdened with plot or tragedy but the Chinese boxers, here, who parted company with their swell fronts were well worth the price of admission alone. The cake walkers, too, were -20 per cent off at Irvin's stationery prime favorites. They were almost as good as professionals and were fairly evenly classed. When the judges gave the cake to Esther Campbell and Charley Brackbill, Saturday evening, the audience rose up Rine, Charles Thomas, Orrie Ishler, Bert Kennedy, of New York, were in Philips- and demanded that Ione Donachy and burg, on Monday, looking into an electric Louis Daggett and Rose Fauble and Fred Walker, Wilbur Twitmire and Walter railway project in that vicinity. They Chambers be accorded the same honors. By Monday evening the rivalry between company and now the Journal is certain the friends of the contestants had reached such a pitch that bouquets as well as cakes were handed over the foot lights to the walkers. The six other participants were Maud Koontz, Jesse Derstine, Adelaide Woodring, Chas. Donachy, Bernice Shuey and Arthur Grauer.

The other amusing and very popular feature of the show was the "Mystic Goblins and their antics. In that group were Manie Joseph and Rich McCafferty, the brownie policemen; Ivan Walker, the dude ; Frank Smith, the poet ; Montgomery Bair, the chinaman and Wm. McFarland the Dutchman, who was about as good an impersonator as you have ever seen. Bernice Faxon and Bernice Haupt, as two little pickaninnies, had their full share of applause and Roger Bayard, as Dragonfel, fairly surprised his audience with his singing as well as his acting.

The comedians of the company were H. P. and James Harris and the other noticeably prominent characters were Ione Donachy, George Harris Betty Heinle, Jennie Harper, Louise Garman, Russell Blair and Raymond Russell. It was the kind of an entertainment that pleases little and big and old and young, and the performers all deserve credit for it was not gotten up without hours of practice and rehearsal. Financially, though, it was not the great success it was expected to be. Only $50.50 was realized for the Library fund and even that will not be entirely clear. The total re-Farrandsville Saturday night. He had evi- ceipts for the three nights amounted to $346. 54. Of that Mr. Hoffman got $135.00, the home, when he fell between the bumpers expenses of the opera house, printing and to the rails. Both legs were crushed from incidentals were deducted and the balance the knee to the thigh and the left arm was was divided between the director and the > COUNCIL IN SESSION.-Members Gerberich, Walkey, Derstine, Gherrity, Cunningham, Whittaker and Potter were present at council meeting Monday evening.

A communication from the burgess was read urging the people to sprinkle the the past seven years. streets early in the morning, instead of in the middle of the day, as when first sprinkled they become very slippy and dangerous.

Four new brick crossings in the South ward were asked for at the following locations: Centre county bank to D. Garman's residence on High street; Brockerhoff residence to old Lieb property on Spring street; Brockerhoff residence to McClure property on Bishop street and from Aiken's corner to Ed. Brown's on Bishop street. The suggestion was then made that the stone secured from these crossings be taken out onto Curtin street, dressed up and put down there, as there are no crossings at all graduates who have gone out into the on that street, east of Allegheny. This enworld might help those about taking the tire matter was placed in the bands of the step that the wonder has always been that street committee for investigation and report.

The Water committee reported the -The Very Reverend Eugene Garvey, pumps at the water works running twentycondition, having lately passed inspection which Altoona is to be the official head- of an expert. Upon the recommendation of this committee Benner Graham was appointed water assessor for this year.

The Market committee reported the opening of the curb market on Saturday, May 18th, with Thomas Shaughensy as clerk.

Mrs. Mary Blanchard was granted permission to connect a sewer pipe, leading from her property on Lamb street, with the east Linn street sewer.

The following bills were ordered paid and council adjourned Walter Whippo, blacksmithing Water pay roll. 115.05 National Meter Co, meter Police pay roll.. H. B. Pontius, 1 mo. as clerk 12.50 Thos. Shaughensey, janitor. W. C. Cassidy, printing.

Joshua Folk, Board of Health

Bft. Fuel & Supply Co., coal for W. W.

R. B. Taylor, coal..

THE ACADEMY TEA AND RECEPTION .-Preparations are on foot to make this year's the most delightful held in years. Christie nish the most charming music they have

120.00

91.40

$556.16

Remember, all past and present patrons. all past and present students, and friends Primari, Revs. J. M. Runkle and J. C. of the Academy are cordially invited. The reception will be on Friday evening, June the Bellefonte public schools.

-The Irvin stationery company having bought the Kurtz stationery store will June 1st, there will be an all day fete at 25th.

A NARROW ESCAPE.-L. S. Frazier, of bove Mill Hall, Thursday, when the young program will be carried out. horse he was driving shied to a side. He fell over the embankment onto the grindstone which was lying at that point and was instantly killed. Mr. Frazier jumped there will be trap shooting, tub racing and from his meat wagon and caught on to a dancing in the pavilion. The Zion band telephone pole thus escaping injury. He will be there to furnish music and light rehad only bought the colt a few weeks before and paid seventy-five dollirs for it.

A COMING CONCERT.—The concert to be given in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, May 28th, by Mr. Frederick Hahn and Miss Maud Rees will be an unusually fine entertainment. Mr. Hahn, the violinist, is well known for his delightful playing, and is a finished artist. He has played with the Boston Symphony famous orchestras as soloist. Miss Rees has a fine contralto voice, and has had great success in concert work. They will give a delightful concert and one | Epworth League, Friday evening, and was that will appeal to everybody who cares for interesting entertainment.

News Purely Personal.

-Harris Heylman spent Sunday in Tyrone do--J. Earl Aiken has gone to Pittsburg to accept position in a freight office in that city -Miss Julia McDermott, of east Bishop street, s visiting friends in Lock Haven this week, -Mrs. Harry Dietrick and son, Harry, of Altoona, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin, of north Spring street.

-Misses Jane Witter and Gertrude Hiltner, of Tyrone, were guests of Grace and Louise Armor, on east Linn street, over Sunday. -Mrs. John A. Hutchinson. of Parkersburg, W. Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John P. Harris Jr. on north Thomas street. -Dr. W. I. Swoope, ex-postmaster and one of Julian's most progressive and prosperous citizens attended to business in town on Monday.

-Miss Mary Butts, of Winber, was a visitor to her home here on Thursday night. She stopped or a short stay with her sister while on her way from Philadelphia to Winber.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hunt, formerly residents you are hereby ordered to report at the Post Rooms, at 1 o'clock p. m. May 30th, to take your usual part in the parade and from Philadelphia to Winber.

of this place, moved from South Williamsport to Renovo. Mrs. Hunt will be remembered as Miss Mabel Woodring before her marriage. -Rev. Dr. Laurie and Rev. J. T. Scott have been in Philadelphia this week attending the meetings of the Presbyterian general assembly now in session there. They went Monday -The Misses Lena and Natalie Crany, of Shickshinny, are guests of Mrs. James R. Harris on north Allegheny street. The young ladies are ousins of Miss Helen Overton, of the Academy. -Edward P. Dowling, one of Renovo's promient citizens, who was spending a few days last week, with his sister Mrs. Thomas Mc-Cafferty, of this place, departed for his home on Saturday.

-Misses Betty Breeze, Bertha Laurie, Ellen Valentine and Adaline Harris left for Middletown, N. J., on Friday morning and were maids | fonte, Pa. at the wedding of Miss Mary Hendrickson, which occurred on Tuesday. -Frank Derstine left for Niagara Falls, N. Y.

on Monday, to accept a position in a large clothing establishment in that city. He had been employed by Montgomery & Co., in this place, for -Rev. P. McArdle, priest of St. John's Catholic church in this place, left for Lock Haven, on Monday morning, to assist in the forty hour devotion services in the church of the Immaculate Conception in that city. -Mrs. Edward Shoemaker, her little grandson

Philip, and Miss Ella McClain are going to Atlantic City, Monday, that the change wil be beneficial to Mrs. Shoemaker, who has sufered greatly with neuralgia for months. -Harry Kline, of Middletown, spent Monda in Bellefonte greeting old friends here and look ing after a little business that needed his atten tion. Mr. Kline is one of the few men of our acquaintance upon whom time seems to leave n -Mrs. John P. Lyon, of Penna. Furnace, and

Joseph D. Mitchell, of Lewistown, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, in this place. There was a little home gathering at the Mitchells to bid Tom God-speed on his trip -Among the Centre countains who were registered in Philadelphia this week were J. W. Gephart, Mrs. H. P. Armsby, former Governor D. H. Hastings, Col. J. L. Spangler, Dr. George W. Atherton, and Messrs John and Edmund Blanch--Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Hummel, of Harris burg, returned home yesterday after enjoying a short visit at the Miller home on Reynolds Ave Mrs. Hummel is better know here-her old home-as Rilla Bosner but it was Mr. Hummel's first visit to this section.

-Mrs. H. C. Baney and W. H. Hunsinger have been here since the 15th, visiting friends and relatives. They came up from their home in Atlantic City especially on account of the illness of Mr. Thomas Meyers. Mr. Meyers is Mrs. Baney's father and grand-father of Mr. Hun-

-James A. Deitrich, who runs one of the best farms in the upper end of Miles township, accompanied by Mrs. Deitrich and his two interesting daughters were among the visitors to Bellefonte on Thursday. Mr. Deitrich tells us that the crops in Brush valley are exceedingly promising.

-Mrs. Fillmore Cronover, of Altoona, who is visiting friends in this vicinity with the hope of improving her health, brought the information that her husband was badly injured some time ago by being squeezed between two trains. He has almost fully recovered. The Cronovers were formerly residents of Bellefonte.

-J. H. Eskridge, of Philipsburg, spent Friday night in Bellefonte. He came over to visit th Salona quarries where all of the explosives used are bought from Commodore A. J. Graham and Mr. Eskridge, the two gentleman having joined forces for the sale of explosives after the latter resigned from his position with the Bell

-Mr. and Mrs William Rapsher, of Philadelphia, have been guests at the home of Hon. and Mrs. James Schofield, on Thomas street. Mr. Rapsher is in the surveyor's office in the custom house and is considered a very valuable employee in that department of the governmental service. Mrs. Rapsher will be remembered by Bellefonte friends as Miss Mary Fleck, a sister of Mrs. Schofield. They returned to Philadelphia Tuesday morning.

A BIG TIME AT HECLA.-On Saturday,

Will Workman was in town last Saturday, acting as the representative of manager C. U. Fisher, of the Hecla park base Mill Hall, was driving along the road a- ball club, under whose auspices the day's

> In the afternoon there will be a base ball game between the Bellefonte Athletic club and Hecla park teams. Following that freshments, such as ice cream, cake, etc., will be served.

> All are invited to join the pleasures of the day and help the boys along.

> -Certainly Royal paint is the best paint made.-Potter & Hov.

-Rev. Dr.George W.Miller, of Asbury Park, who was pastor of the Methodist church here from 1875 to '78 and who was orchestra, Damrosch's orchestra and other one of the chief instigators of the present church building, was in town over Sunday as the guest of former Governor D. H. Hastings. He came here to lecture for the so pleased with the reception accorded him that he remained in town until Monday. It is very seldom, if ever, that Bellefonte | His lecture Friday evening was first class. has had the opportunity to hear such an The subject was "Pluck" and while there are not many new ideas to be presented along that line he so attractively guised the old ones that every one was pleased. And the audience was a good sized one, too. Sunday morning he preached in the Methodist church to a large congregation of all denominations and his great ability was apparent from the beginning of his sermon to the end.

> -80 cts. buys a dollars worth at Irvin's book store.

MEMORIAL DAY .- The officers and members of Co. B, 5th Regt. N. G. P., the Logan and Undine companies, Golden Eagles, Patriotic Sons of America, and other organizations are hereby invited to join with Gregg Post in the parade and services on Memorial Day, May 30th, 1901 at 1:30 p. m. Parade will form in front of the

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1 .- Comrades, services of Memorial Day. By orders of

JAS. HARRIS, Commander. F. P. GREEN, S. M. Adj. Pro. Tem.

-20 per cent off at Irvin's stationery

Notice of Registration.

Bellefonte, Pa., May 21st, 1901. I hereby certify that in accordance with Rule 17 of the Democratic party that the following have registered in accordance with said rule and are eligible to be voted for at the coming primary

For Prothonotary, M. I. Gardner, of Belle-For District Attorney, N. B. Spangler, of Bell

These registrations were duly made on the 10th day of May, 1901.

Attest JOHN J. BOWER. W. J. SINGER. Chairman.

Secretary. Musical College.

The summer term of the Musical College, at Freeburg, Pa., begins July 15th a term of six weeks for $33, including board and tuition. As all schools have vacations at this time, it will give a good opportunity for public school teachers and children to attend. For catalogue address

Philadelphia Markets,

The following are the closing

Henry B. Moyer.

	AL DLIL J. L. L. S. C.
	the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.
	" -No. 2 18/4/0/19/4
2000	" —Mixed
MASSE	Flour—Winter, Per Br'i
	"—Penna. Roller
00000	Rye Flour Per Br'l 2.90 Baled hav—Choice Timothy No. 1 14 50017 50
	" Mixed " 1 14.50@17.00 Straw 7.00@17.00
Ö	7.00@17.00

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the Phænix Milling Co.
The following are the quotations un to si o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goe	A press:	28
Red wheat, old	0
	0
	50
	10
Oate per bushel nour	10
Oats, per bushel, new	31
Barley, per bushel	10
Ground Plaster, per ton 8 50 to 9 5	0
Buckwheat, per bushel	25
Cloverseed, per bushel	30
Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $2.7	0

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by	Sechler & Co.
otatoes per bushel	50
nions ggs, per dozen ard, per pound
ard, per pound country Shoulders	9 8
Sides	8
Hams
allow, per pound	10
Sutter, per pound
detect, per poulummmmm
The Control of the Co
The Democratic	Watchman.
Published every Friday m	orning, in Bellefonte

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year as follows:

ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows: SPACE OCCUPIED 3m 6m 1y ne inch (12 lines this type.

Half Column (10 inches). One Column (20 inches). Advertisements in special column 25 per cent.

Local notices, per line..... Business notices, per line. Job Printing of every kind done with neatner and dispatch. The Wartenan office has been and dispatch. and dispatch. The Watchman office has been fitted with Fast Presses and New Type, everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest r

Terms—Cash.
All letters should be addressed to
P. GRAY MEEK, Proprieto