The Democracy's Enthusiastic Convention.

No Contests Nor Clashes to Mar the Great Turnous on Tuesday-Seventy-Nine Out of the Eighty-Six Delegates Present—The Work Augurs Well for the Future of the Party in Centre County—Faithful Officials Commended and Derelicts Condemned.

Lingering Smith seemed sphinx-like as ever, but no one could tell what heavy rumblings there were along the convolutions of gray matter under that jet black hair. Ellis Shaffer, of Miles, worked his way up through the crowd that was fast gathering and shook hands with many of the friends who would like to see him made sheriff some day, and in his wake came H. D. Rumberger, of Philipsburg, with H. B. Lingle, Bob Custer, and Ed. Jones, a quartet of young Democrats, that any district might be proud to send out as its representatives.

Order was gradually coming out of the chaos of greetings. Men were dropping into seats everywhere and just then the great court house bell rang again and another tide swept in the doors. On its crest came John McCauley, the veteran from Walker township, who never seems to be after anything in particular, but whose say so goes for a good bit in the Democratic councils of the county. Then there was Martin McLaughlin, the active young scion of a good old Democratic father, from Snow Shoe, and with him came Milton Housknecht and John J. Wayne, of Rush, both raigned the Republican Legislature and of whose faces have become familiar at big Democratic gatherings. Edging their way up from the rear we noticed another quartet of men whose names are well known in party circles all over the county. They were 'Squire W. J. Carlin, of Rebersburg, former treasurer John Q. Miles, of Huston, former commissioner Geo. L. Goodheart. of Potter, and Frank Kennedy, of State College. While they were greeting their friends on all sides Hast Leyman, of Boggs, came forging up the aisle, busy as ever, and we just wondered why some men are not given a dozen hands, especially when they can be put to such happy use as he finds for his. Quiet and dignified Wm. Tressler, of Benner, followed in his wake and after him came "Bill" Smith, of Millheim, who was one of the most popular officials Centre county ever had. Then there was J. C. Condo, the Penn Hall carriage builder, former sheriff Cronister, of Worth, Dave Forman, of Potter, J. Will Kepler, and Frank Graham, of Ferguson, L. W. Kimport, of Harris, Sam Weiser, of Millheim, Henry Carner, of Walker, and hosts of others who came surging in just as the gavel of exp in the hands of chairman Bower fell and the convention was ready for business.

THE CALL OF ORDER. It was exactly 12:20 when the county chairman called the delegates to order and immediately secretary Singer read the call in response to which they had met. The roll of delegates was next in order and showed seventy-nine of the eighty-six present. After the preliminary organization Hugh S. Taylor moved, seconded by J. W. Kepler, that J. Frank Raine, of Millheim, be the permanent chairman. He followed this nomination up with a motion to close, which was seconded by James Schofield and Mr. Raine was elected. Later upon motion of Mr. Kepler and seconded of J. K. Johnston the election was made by acclamation.

Mr. Raine was applauded as he took the chair and after a few words of thanks for the honor proceeded to effect a permanent organization.

The business next in order was the election of a county chairman and in response to the call for nomi nations Mr. Schofield presented the name of John Bower in a few eulogistical remarks. Taylor seconded the nomination and later moved to close, whereupon the election was made by acclamation.

Calls for Bower brought the young chairman to his feet for a few words of appreciation of the honor and when he had retired C. M. Bower Esq., was called upon. THE RESOLUTIONS.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

Resolved: By the Democracy of Centre county in convention assembled, that we still have an abiding faith in the wisdom and foresight of our forefathers when they inscribed in living characters in their declaration of rights that "all men are created equal," and among certain of these unaitenable rights are "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," and that "to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed," which for over a century has been accepted by this people as a fundamental truth—is the keynote of all independence—the inspiration of all human progress and the guiding star for the full realization of the Brotherhood of Man. That we deplore, and view with alarm, the present tendency of our government, and many of our citizens as well, to sacrifice these accepted traditions and sacred principles of this Republic at the shrine of expediency and selfish greed.

Resolved: That we do hereby congratulate The resolutions adopted were as follows:

of expediency and seins greed.

Resolved: That we do hereby congratulate the people of Pennsylvania for the partial protection from vicious legislation given to them by the few, but honest and earnest legislators in the Senate and House of Representatives, whom neither the blandishments of pseudo friends nor the threats and bribes of the enemy could seduce from their allegiance to trusting constituents and the fundamental law of the Commonwealth. That, whilst this little band of legislators could not prevent the enactment of some measures designed to diminish the liberties of the people, to foster corruption in high places and to give added power to wealthy and colossal combinations, that their idelity to the high trust imposed upon them have earned for them the sincerest thanks and warmest commendation of every loyal Democrat and that of every lover of good government, regardless of party.

Resolved: That the people of the 3th Sena.

that of every lover of good government, regardless of party.

Resolved: That the people of the 34th Senatorial District are to be congratulated in a special manner for the able, honest and consistent course of Senator Wm. C. Heinle who never violated a piedge made to his constituents and whose every action as a lawmaker was governed by the most scrupulous regard for the sanctity of his oath of office. The performance of a duty under ordinary circumstances does not entitle one to special commendation, but when the performance entails selfmartyrdom, threatens to disrupt the tic of friendly associations and subjects one to the severe discipline of a triumphant enemy and to the gibes of former friends turned renegades, then it becomes an act of heroism justive entitled to a signal mark of approbation. And therefore, as Senator Wm. C. Heinle has performed his legislative duties with rare skill, intelligence and fidelity under circumstances as trying as herein enumerated, and in times like these when the qualifications of honesty and intelligence in a legislator are more than ever necessary to combat the united skill and dishonesty of an insolent and rapacious foe to clean and wholesome legislator are done than a well and wholesome legislator and found true.

Resolved: That it is safer and better to stand by the man who has been tried and found true, than to rely on promises and pledges of untried men. Therefore, good party policy and a just regard for the best interest of the people of this Senatorial District alike demands the return to the State Senate of the Hon. Wm. C. Heinle at the next succeeding Senatorial Election; and that this convention does hereby pledge its members to secure by all honorable means the concurrence of the loyal Democrats of the 34th District to this just and politic course.

Where is, commendation for the meritorious without censure for the meretricious, would not express our true and deep devotion to Democratic principles and good government, and

WHEREAS, certain professed Democrats. Senators and Representatives, (and whose names, in charity, we prefer not to remember) have violated their pledges to the party to which they are indebted for their high office, by voting to elect M. Marshall to the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, and who contumaciously and dishonestly aided and abetted the Quayites in the enactment of the "Ripper" and other malodorous legislation, therefore therefore

Resolved: That we condemn the actions of such so-called Democrats as being a libel on the fair fame of Democracy and a stumbling block in the pathway of men not of our party, but who, in the recent past, have given to it their generous support. Of such so-called Democrats it may be truly said that they are a mercenary and servile crew; unaufmous in evil, diligent in mischief; variable in principles, talkers for liberty but slaves to power, and

Resolved: That we denounce such legislation as being unconstitutional, un-American, subversive of the just and legal rights of the people and utterly indefensible anywhere, except where the conscience to decide may be influenced by the same powers that controlled a superservicable body of legislators. We, therefore insist that the Democratic Convention. When in State Conference assembled, shall demand the repeal of this "Ripper" legislation and that to secure such repeal, together with an honest system of balloting, which shall pledge the Democracy of Pennsylvania to unite its efforts with those of all reputable and liberty-loving citizens of this Common wealth. And we commend Chief Justice J. B. McCollum, and Justices John Dean and S. Leslie Mestrezat of the Supreme Court of the State for the firm stand they have taken for the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people as set forth in their dissenting opinion filed in the "Ripper" case.

Resolved: That we endorse the course of the poles.

Resolved: That the candidate for Prothonatary and Clerk of the Courts, M. I. Gardner, and the candidate for District Attorney, N. B. Spangler, by duty well performed in the offices they have so ably and faithfully filled for nearly three years, are exceptionally qualified both by practice and experience for the positions they have this day been nominated respectively, and having full faith in their ability, capacity and integrity, we endorse their re nomination and confidently commend them to the voters of Centre county and solicit for them their support irrespective of party. them their support irrespective of party.

Professor E. J. Wolf, of Gettysburg, Pa. created a tremendous sensation by his report on the condition of the church saying, 'There is a woeful lack of spirituality and godliness in the denomination and that the fire of piety burns low."

"Our church has suffered very seriously from defective government and as long as oud voices are heard for individualism and unbridled liberty, as long as the general good must be subordinated to the rights of private judgment, our progress must halt and our institutions languish. The love of many for the church has grown cold. There is no disguising the prevalent laxity and barrenness; the low state of piety among us. The scramble for dollars leaves little time for the care of souls." Dr. A. H. Studebaker, of Brooklyn, denounced the report and declared it did not in any manuer reflect the spirit or belief of the synod, and after a hot debate it was referred back to the committee for revision.

The New Era in Medical Education.

Philadelphia has always been the center for medical education in the United States, and its great hospitals and colleges bid fair to become the successful rivals of the best professional institutions of a similar kind in Europe. It is no longer necessary that graduates in medicine should go abroad to btain the benefits of the higher education, for even now almost equally good facilities for advanced study are available on this side of the ocean, and before many years the advantages in America for scientific research and original work will be superior to any offered in foreign countries.

The University of Pennsylvania is determined to continue its standing among the leading medical schools on this con tinent. Its trustees have recently taken the preliminary steps necessary to the erection of a new medical laboratory that will cost more than half a million of dollars, and which, in point of completeness and equipment, it is promised will not only be unexcelled, but, it is confidently believed, will be in advance of any similar laboratory now in existence, either in this county or in Europe.

The objects of this laboratory will be to promote an increase in useful knowledge by fostering scientific investigation. Whatever advances medical science must be of universal interest, for health and happiness and the prolongation of our lives depends in a great measure upon the ability of physicians to prevent and successfully combat disease.

Coercion In Cuba.

From the Philadelphia North American. War Department diplomacy in Cuba has proved as signal a milure as it did in the Philippines after the capture of Manila. As Admiral Dewey has said of our early relations with the Filipino insurgents, by the exercise of a little more tact things might have been made to go easier. There is no likelihood that our blundering will cost a bloody rebellion in Cuba, but can be no doubt that we have forfeited the good will of a people who were sincerely grateful to us at the close of the war.

The outright refusal of the Cabinet to accept the Cuban constitution as finally prepared by the Havana convention brings the whole issue down to a question of pure force. Having engaged in a policy of coercion, we cannot stop half way. If a little force does not make the Cubans submit to our will we must use more, or confess our failure. It is plain that the administration proposes to take no step backward. ng remains, then, but to issue peremptory orders to the convention to accept the Platt amendment, with no conditions. view, both of war of 61-65.

If it still stands out for its rights it must be sent home in disgrace and a more pliant body summoned. It would save trouble in the future if our military Governor General in the island took the precaution to designate what delegates must be chosen in the event of a second convention. It is a mistake to encourage a people in the notion that they are free to set up their own government, even if they are no stronger that the Cubans, unless we are prepared to accept all the consequences of our generosity. Sooner or later we are apt to find it necessary to resort to brutal methods towards our confiding neighbor. It is not merely that we excite his hatred but we must in the end suffer in our own esteem. This is the point we have come to in our treatment of Cuba.

ADDITI ONAL LOCALS

-According to a late order it is probable that a Pullman car will be attached to trains on the Bald Eagle valley and Tyrone and Clearfield branches.

-The base ball game at Hecla park on Saturday resulted in a victory for the Bellefonte athletic club over the Hecla team by the score of 14 to 4.

--- It was not surprising last Saturday when Jno. P. Harris Jr., was seen putting a lot of letters without any stamps on in the mail box on High street. A fine young son had arrived at his home that morning and consequently he was somewhat excited, as well as elated.

-William Loy, of Clearfield, and Miss Ina Davidson, of Unionville, were married at DuBois on Monday afternoon. Immediately after the ceremony they left on a honey-moon tour that will include the Pan-American exposition and points in Canada. They expect to make their future home at Clearfield.

MEMORIAL DAY WITH POST 261.-Although the day, especially in the early morning, was threatening as regards the weather, yet memorial day was well observed by the members of Post 261, in Milesburg and vicinity.

At 8:30 a.m. a number of the members of the post and of the citizens of Fairview assembled at the cemetery at that place and proceeding to the two graves of the only soldiers buried there performed the usual services as laid down by the ritual. After an excellent address by Rev. Hummel, of the Runville U. B. church, the band and all the members of the post proceeded to the Advent church yard three miles west of Fairview, where the balance of the members of the Post assembled preparatory to beginning the services there. A procession of the Sunday schools of Marsh Creek, Runville and Advent churches was formed and followed by the old soldiers marched into the cemetery and forming a square began the beautiful services as prescribed for such occasions, after which Capt. Rev. Mr. Boggs, of Howard, was introduced and delivered one of the best orations that has been delivered there on any occasion of the kind. After the address an old minister (an old soldier) from Nittany valley read President Lincoln's memorable address at Gettysburg. The line of march was then taken up for Milesburg, where the services of the day were to be concluded. Arriving there, and being joined by the fire company and the Knights of the Golden Eagle, the parade was taken through the town to the Methodist church, and the Sunday school children and teachers of that church being placed in it, the column was headed for the Presbyterian church and was there joined by the Sunday school of ysis. Then after a dirge by the band, the orator of the day, Rev. W. P. Shriner, of Bellefonte, was introduced. He delivered a magnificent address which will long be remembered by those who heard it. When the address was delivered and ready to dismiss, Rev. White, of the Pleasant Gap Gap M. In Memoriam.

Mrs. Mary Witherite died at her home at Runville May 25th, 1901, aged 82 years, 7 months and 19 days. About four months ago she suffered with grip and since then failed rapidly until Saturday morning about one o'clock when she passed into her final home beyond the vale of tears.

The deceased was truly a grand and noble woman, who honored God and loved humanity. She had a heart of love and bestowed upon all who were in need. Death loves a shining mark and for this purpose the stern invader has twice entered the home within a few years choosing as his own both father rade for this purpose the stern invader has twice entered the home within a few years choosing as his own both father and mother. In true submission she laid aside all her fondest earthly anticipations of the future that she had hoped for and cherished and bore her suffering without a murmur, preparing for the future when the Master would call her spirit hence.

Her remains were encoffined in a beautiful casket which bore the inscription OUR MOTHER. On Monday at 10 o'clock the funeral took place and she was buried in the cemetery at the Messiah church. The exercises were conducted by Rev. B. Hummel, of the U. B. church. who spoke in high terms of the life and character of the deceased and took for his text the 90th Psalm, 10th verse. The choir sang some of the favorite selections that were admired by the deceased and that gave her a vast amount of comfort in her declining days.

She leaves to mourn her loss five children, Alfred and Michael, Mrs. Martha J. Furl, Mrs. Mary Hall and Mrs. Clara E. Bottorf. About five years ago her husband, John Witherite, preceded her to the grave.

Miss Mary Bottorf is visiting Altoona friends this week.

O. B. Krebs is home with his family for a few days' rest.

H. M. Krebs spent several days in the Mountain City this week. James C. Hammer is the guest of J. W. Kepler looking well and wholesome as ever. The William Broome home, down town, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy. A new stone walk-and not before it is needed-is being laid in front of the Mary Ard property.

Mrs. J. B. Heberling and Miss Bella Confer visited at the home of Amos Koch on

W. H. Roush, who came down from Altoona to spend Memorial day, remained over and rode over to Alexandria to enjoy a short A. J. Tate, who weilds a paint brush for the Babcock lumber company near Windbur.

is home on a short leave of absence. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mallory who were down from Altoona enjoying a short visit with Mrs. Mallory's family about here, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Levina Gates is quite ill with dropsy and heart trouble. She has been in poor health for years but Dr. Woods thinks her chances for recovery are yet good.

Rev. Ralph Illingsworth, of Erie, and his family are enjoying their annual summer outing at Grandfather Snyder's comfortable home. There Harry, Ruth and Ralph own everything in sight and conduct themselves accordingly. Mrs. G. W. McWilliams, of Fairbrook, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bowersox, in Altoona. Mrs. Bowersox has been in poor health for several years but quite recently a cancerous growth has developed which has caused her friends much alarm.

Miss Emma Aikens, one of Bellefonte's refined and accomplished young ladies, transacted business pertaining to the settlement of her father's estate in this end of the county last week. While here she was a guest at the Lutheran parsonage. From a communication from Joseph Bailey, of Fort Scott, Kan., to his brother John, of this place, we learned that Joe, as he was known here, is grievously afflicted with paral-

Vol. and served all through the war of the Rebellion. George W. Bolinger, of Tadpole, is delighted with the prospect for the peach crop. He expects to pick from his orchard two thousand bushels. About one forth of that amount will be of the early variety which with favorable weather will be ready for market by August 20th. William Hess, the busy man of Boalsburg, drove through town on Monday on his way to Baileyville, where he has the contract for painting R. G. Goheen's house and other buildings. "Billy" is a hustler and is working full time. It is said, too, that in addition to paper hanging and painting he is going to take in sewing. In the meantime we will watch the Register's list. Michael Hess, of Bellefonte, was seen on our streets early Monday morning. He came up to make arrangements for the burial of his little grand daughter, Daisy Hess, who died that morning of neuralgia of the heart superinduced by diphtheria. She was the all the places where services were held ex- eldest child of Earnest and Blanche Hess and was four years old. She was a bright, winsome little child and greatly beloved. She was buried Monday afternoon in the Boalsburg cemetery.

> At the annual meeting of the auditors on Monday to square up the accounts between the school board and its treasurer it was found that only a small amount of cash was on hands and not much out standing taxes. It was decided to build a new school house in the Baileyville district, the site of which has not been selected. That means a
