

Children's day services in the Methodist church on Sunday evening last proved a very interesting occasion and attracted a very large and appreciative congregation. The church was brilliantly illuminated and the platform for the speakers very artistically decorated with flowers and plants. The 20th century gate was also elaborately decked with laurel, fern and spruce. The entire southern end of the church presented a very beautiful and fairy-like scene. The program was quite lengthy, consisting of recitations, dialogues and singing. The recitations by the little people were all exceedingly well delivered, and applause could hardly be suppressed. Miss Ida Condo presided at the organ and of course music of a very high order was the result. A solo by Miss Rena Shires was enacted in a charming manner and only the solemnity of the occasion prevented an encore. A very excellent address was also delivered by Mrs. Haven. The committee of arrangements deserves the highest praise for the able manner in which everything was conducted and for the complete success of this very interesting entertainment.

Pine Grove Mention.

John Erb, of Phillipsburg, is the guest of friends here.

Oscar Stover, of Boalsburg, is hustling around here for the Deering company.

Dr. Kent, one of Harris township's successful farmers, transacted business here on Monday.

A. F. Smith and wife, of Fairbrook, were among the attendants at the Kerlin funeral in Centre Hall last Thursday.

Warren S. Ward was down to the county capital Monday interested in the proceedings at the temple of justice.

Edward Fry, a Junior at State, is spending his vacation at the parsonage here. He and Mrs. Aikens are old acquaintances.

Joseph B. Erb, now a prominent lumberman, of Elkins, West Virginia, is here looking after some legal matters.

John M. Keichline, of Bellefonte, spent several days here this week transacting business pertaining to his father's estate.

A. M. Brown is off to Buffalo for a car load of beef cattle to supply his large butchering trade at State College.

Aunt Hetty Smith, of Adamsburg, has been visiting friends here this week while making her headquarters at Centre Hill.

Grandmother Shiffer and Mary and George Woods are in Bellefonte for a two weeks' visit at the home of Col. W. H. Musser.

Miss Maud Grieb, of State College, accompanied by her friend Miss Everts, of Harrisburg, were the guests of Miss Annie Musser on Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sample McWilliams, of Graysville, bright and alert as ever, despite her increasing years, is visiting relatives here.

The venerable Joel Lunder, of Yellow Springs, is here for a week's visit inspecting his possessions at the Glades. He is hale and hearty for a man four score years.

Curt Musser, tall and sprightly as ever, was down from Altoona last week delivering deeds to the purchasers of the property of his father, the late Wm. Musser.

Wm. McClellan is seriously ill with stomach trouble at his Erbtown home. He has been confined to bed for some time and his condition is not encouraging.

The Misses Mary and Luey Thomas, of Lartrobe, sister and daughter of the Hon. L. C. Thomas, are here visiting Mrs. Gates and their numerous friends.

Ellis Lytle was in Bellefonte on Monday on business pertaining to his brother Henry's death, which occurred at his home near Stormstown last Friday of paralysis.

Ed. and Will Corl have returned from their trip to Charleston and Martinsburg, W. Va., much pleased with their visit and very sanguine as to the crops and business outlook.

Rose McCormick, of Hubersburg, and her younger sister are enjoying their annual summer outing at Grandmother Dannley's on Main street, where they always have a rare good time.

Geo. W. Homan was obliged to kill one of his valuable horses last week. Its right hind leg had been broken by a kick from another horse, which had just been shod with new shoes.

The Brown mansion at Pennsylvania Furnace is closed for two weeks. Mr. Brown's stock and lumber interests require most of his time abroad and his family are visiting their old home in Millfin county.

Last Monday while little Hall Krebs, son of O. B. Krebs, was playing with some playmates he fell on a stone and broke his left arm below the elbow. Dr. Kidder set the bone and it is mending nicely.

Mrs. Esther Rider returned Friday from Denver, Col., where she spent the winter. Her sons Clark and Edward accompanied her home fully restored to health and they are all very much pleased with Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and their daughter, of Philadelphia, are visitors at the home of Ed. Moore on the J. B. Mitchell farm. They have not been here for thirty years and consequently find many changes.

David Stover, of Lincoln, Kan., is here visiting after an absence of twenty years. We have heard lots of Kansas prosperity this season and judging from Mr. Stover's looks and the size of the roll he seems to possess, it must be every word of it be true.

A happy quartet, consisting of Judge Riley, Samuel H. Bailey, William Goben and Scott Bricker, passed through town on their way to Spruce Creek to fish. They were bent on a good time and a big catch and we hope they will have both even though we doubt it.

The stone crusher of the west precinct of the township is a complete wreck and it could not be repaired for less than $200. The supervisors have decided, and wise it was, that they will run the tax out on the one crusher and thus save an extra millage.

Rev. Ralph Illingworth, in his usual eloquent manner, preached an elegant sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. He earnestly protested against some of the evils that strand so many men on the shores of time. He had the closest attention of his audience for almost an hour and he emphatically scored church members for indulging in stock gambling to bring misery on themselves as well as others.

Last Saturday evening while Rev. Illingworth and his wife were enjoying a drive they halted here to water their horse. It having a double bit on they took it out of its mouth in order that it could drink. Just at that moment some one fired a gun nearby and the horse was off in an instant. It was caught at Ward's after a mile's run with only a part of the harness on. The buggy was a complete wreck and the Rev. escaped without any serious injury. Mrs. Illingworth, however, was pretty badly shaken up but she is recovering from her injuries.

WEDDED AT CHARTER OAK.—On Wednesday at noon the marriage of Miss Cora E. McMahon and Deemer Pierce was celebrated at the home of the bride's father, John McMahon, at Charter Oak. The house was gorgeously decorated with roses and rhododendron and one hundred guests enjoyed the festivities. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Ott. The bride's cousin, Miss McMahon, of Mooresville, played the wedding march and the bride's two little sisters officiated as flower girls. Miss Lois McMahon was maid of honor and the groom's brother, Roll Pierce, was best man. The usual wedding feast was served and the happy couple left on the afternoon train for the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo. Upon their return they will go to house-keeping at State College where the groom is employed in Krumrine's store. The bride is an excellent young woman and is deserving of the good husband that has fallen to her lot.

Dr. Stites.

NOW IN BELLEFONTE

DR. STITES

the well-known Specialist on Catarrh has returned to Bellefonte.

SCIENCE HAS TRIUMPHED.

Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Throat and Lung Diseases can be cured.

DR. STITES, the great specialist, is daily demonstrating the truth of his statement by the almost miraculous results of the NEW TREATMENT.

THE WONDERFUL NEW TREATMENT

Kills the Catarrh Microbes as soon as it reaches them. Asthma, Bronchitis and many stomach troubles are caused by the venomous Catarrh germs, and as soon as they are destroyed all other troubles gradually disappear.

DR. J. K. STITES

Offices, 21 North Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa.

EAR, NOSE, THROAT AND LUNG SPECIALIST

—ALSO—

ALL CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND PRIVATE DISEASES.

Dr. Stites can be seen any day at his original offices 21 North Allegheny street where he will be glad to talk to the afflicted. Consultation and examination free. For many years he has made a specialty of Catarrh and Lung troubles and will be pleased to give free his advice to any who will call on him. He cures Catarrh, of the Head and Stomach, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, and Deafness by his NEW METHOD. It throws healing, oily vapors into the air pipes of the lungs. It breaks the sore places.

Remember that it is no trouble to examine you and tell you the probabilities in your case whether you take treatment or not.

Mrs. Dietz, of Wingate, again gladly testifies to the good Dr. Stites did for her:

Words cannot express my gratitude for the benefit I have received from Dr. Stites and his New Treatment. I have had Lung Trouble and Catarrh. I was so bad when I went to Dr. Stites I had no hope of ever being well. I was so weak I could not do my own work. The pain in my chest and side was terrible. I could not lay down in bed. I coughed and spit all the time and was most miserable, but I am glad to say through Dr. Stites and the New Treatment I can do my own work. I do not cough and can sleep good. I can lie down and rest well. I am glad Dr. Stites has come back to Bellefonte, and I hope my few words will lead others who suffer as I did to go to Dr. Stites and be cured.

Yours with best wishes
Mrs. ANNA DIETZ, Wingate, Pa.
