THE HOME COMING OF THE SOLDIERS. -Bellefonte was fairly ablaze with patriotism and good cheer on Monday night, for the soldier boys who had gone to the far off Philippines to fight under the stars and stripes had returned to their homes, unscarred by battle or depleted by the torrid climate of those Isles. Did, we say all? If so, let us remember that Lieutenant George L. Jackson; the gallant young officer who led them away, lies sleeping under the green sward of the Union cemetery. And many a heart had its twinge of sadness midst all the gayety of Monday night when the shade of the young lieutenant took its place in fancy at the head of the soldiers who come marching home. There were fourteen who enlisted from Centre county in September, 1899, for service in the Philippines-Lieut. George L. Jackson, died in the hospital at Manila about a year ago and his remains were brought to Bellefonte and interred with military honors. Another, Will Runkle, is still in the Philippines, having one more year to serve. The boys for whom this reception was tendered

-Au unknown young man jumped from a C. R. R. of Pa. passenger train shortly after it had passed Mackeyville, on Thursday afternoon, and as he was not an expert at the business he did considerable tumbling before he got stopped. The train was backed up to the scene of the accident, but the fellow had taken to his heels and was making such splendid time through the fields that it could not be ascertained how badly, if at all, he was hurt.

-The lower end of Half Moon valley will have to wait a season for free mail delivery. It was thought that all arrangements had been made and the order secured for a route starting from Warriors Mark that would serve all the residents along the Half Moon road up to the eight-square school house, and back by Marengo, Loveville and through the Warriors Mark valley, but protest from people who thought their business would be injured has resulted in the indefinite postponement of the project.

-----Miss Celia Woodring, a daughter of John Woodring, of Port Matila, drank carbolic acid in Altoona on Friday and died in the hospital in that city shortly after her admission. Her remains were buried in Oak Ridge cemetery on Saturday afternoon. She was 27 years old and had been keeping house for Frank Delaney at 1417 Union Ave., in that city. ed and an open air meeting was held under Col. D. F. Fortney, as the presiding officer. The speakers were Rev. W. P. Shriner, Judge John G. Love, Burgess Edmund Blanchard, Senator W. C. Heinle and Capt. Hugh S. Taylor.

At the close of the exercises in the Diamond the boys were taken to Ceader's cafe, where a luncheon was served by the Daughters of the American Revolution. On the whole it was a very brilliant demonstration and passed off with entire credit to the gentlemen who planned and executed it. It is especially noteworthy that the committee had something over $90 in excess of expenses, samething unheard of heretofore in demonstrations in Bellefonte.

Those of the soldiers who have arrived here look exceptionally hardy. They are all here now but Corp. Sam Solt, who is expected at any time.

They have all circumnavigated the globe, having sailed from New York and returned via San Francisco, so that they have that great journey as well as thrilling hikes in the Philippines to look back to.

-Mr. and Mrs. James Reilly, with their son Edmund, left for Muncie, Ind., last week. They had been home for a few day's visit, but as they took their furniture with them this time it looks as if they have finally determined to leave Bellefonte.

-Thomas Jennings and Thomas Shaughensy Jr., who had been working in the glass works at Mannington, W. Va., for the past season, are home for the summer. The former is already rusticating in the Good Templar's camp on Fishing creek.

-Nicholas Walsh, who has been a guest at the home of Senator Heinle on east Bishop street for the past week, left for his home in Brooklyn on Wednesday, Mrs. Walsh, who came with him, will remain with her Centre county relatives for an extended visit.

-Frank T. Scott, late Serg. of Co E. 40th U. S. Inf. returned home from the Philippines last week looking hearty as the proverbial pine knot. He enlisted at Denver, Col, and joined his regi ment at Ft. Riley, Kansas. Thence he sailed for the orient and saw two years of active service.

-Mrs. Carrie Hall and son Harry, of Clearfield, who had been visiting their many friends in Centre and Blair counties, left on Wednesday for Osceola, where they spent the Fourth before returning to their home in Clearfield. Mrs. Hall is a strong Bryan advocate and makes friends wherever she goes. Come again.

-F. E. Wieland, of Linden Hall, was in Belle fonte on business on Wednesday. He is in the general mercantile business and it was a pardonable pride that prompted him to remark that he is doing his share of it too, over that way. Frank is a hustling, pleasant fellow and it is not to be wondered at that he has a large trade.

-Henry Sampsel, of Pleasant Gap, was in town on Wednesday morning taking a breathing spell, as it were, between haymaking and harvest. He said that there is quite a rivalry out that way be tween the McCormick and Deering binder people and a test of machines at Rishel's on Tuesday showed the former to be slightly superior.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Schofield, of New York city, have been in town for the past ten days visiting the former's uncle, the Hon, James Schofield, on south Thomas street. They are on their wedding tour and came here from Buffalo, where they had spent several days at the Par American.

-Mrs. S. T. Gibbs, of Milesburg, was in town shopping on Wednesday. She had just returned from a visit with friends at Danville. Gettysburg and other distant towns. She is a daughter of H. P.
