

ROMOLA.

Wm. Robb, our enterprising store keeper, raised his new barn last Tuesday. Don't get the festival at the Christian church next Saturday evening.

Paul Hagan, of Farmers Mills, is spending a few days in our little town as the guest of Miss Mamie DeLong.

There is an abundance of huckleberries in this section and they are being carried from the mountains in great quantities.

Miss Lola De Long, who has been living in Beech Creek for some time, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. T. S. DeLong, of this place.

John Kreager who celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday some time ago, is still able to take sheaf about in the harvest field with any of the young men of this section.

Toner R. Robb and Clayton Poorman drove over to Howard to attend a festival last Saturday evening, and as Clayton got a girl, Toner had to walk home. The distance from Howard to Romola is about five miles so Toner became very tired and sleepy before he had gone very far. But he managed to get along all right until he reached the residence of John Kreager. There he fell sound asleep, standing in the middle of the road. In this uncomfortable position Toner slept until he was awakened by Mrs. Kreager splitting kindling to start the morning fire. Mr. Robb's troubles did not end there, for upon reaching home he found every door locked and the family still in bed, so that in order to get to his room without being seen by any of the family he was compelled to crawl through a window.

Phillipsburg.

The new mine law has set down on the "pluck me stores."

Grant Shelow has built a handsome new porch around his residence on Seventh street.

The engineering corps is now at work laying out the electric railway and getting ready to let the contracts.

The town is in total darkness as far as the electric light and street lamps are concerned.

The band gave the residents of the Third ward some very creditable music on Saturday evening.

Miss Jennie Cross left last Saturday to resume her duties as nurse in Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia.

James McAviney now occupies the Mayer property, recently vacated by George Stott, on Sixth street.

There was a strike of the miners employed at Morrisdale shaft Monday and Tuesday on account of some difficulty over non-union laborers.

Rev. Lippincott, of the Broad and Arch St. M. E. church, Phila., will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church here, next Sunday morning.

John Condo has been made driver for the American Express Co. The duties of agent in town and messenger on the "Jerk Water" have been assigned to Mr. F. Turnbaugh, of Corning, N. Y. The change took place on Wednesday.

The writer regrets to announce the death of Robert Munson, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Munson, which occurred at 6:30 Saturday evening after an operation for appendicitis. The interment took place at 2 p. m. Tuesday. The fire companies both attending in a body at the funeral of their fellow member.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. H. C. Robison, who has been ill since the holidays, improves if at all, very slowly.

Cherries in this immediate neighborhood are of a very inferior quality. The trees are fairly loaded with them, but the fruit appears to have withered before maturity, and of course are now about half decayed and unfit for use.

Edwin Kuhl, our village landlord, left on Monday last on a business trip and will be absent for several days. The hotel will be under the management of his brother Will, a very capable young man, and guests may rest assured that they will receive every attention.

Daniel Schlegel and W. O. Graden were each presented with a daughter and W. P. Alexander, chief miller and manager of the Allison Milling establishment, had a son added to his family. All these startling (?) events happened within the past ten days. Of course the above gentlemen are very proud and happy.

C. A. Krape assumed the postmastership of our village on Monday last, and moved the office to his store, possibly fifty feet distant from the old location. The front room of the store has been entirely rearranged and furnished with all new post office fixtures, and the department is now very complete and convenient for any transaction connected with the office. Mr. Krape retains as deputy Miss Kate Shires, a highly accomplished young lady, thoroughly competent, very agreeable and obliging and while acting in that capacity for a few months under the old regime "won golden opinions from all sorts of people." Mr. Krape made no mistake in this appointment, but displayed his usual sagacity and excellent judgment.

An evening or two since, a joke was played upon one of our young lads which he will not soon forget as it almost turned his hair white. Having hired a team and accompanied by two young ladies they left for Centre Hall and, after making several visits, returned at rather a late hour. Leaving the young ladies at their respective homes, he proceeded to the livery stable to return the team and after entering the stable, where in the meantime the young men had concealed themselves—and just as he was about removing the harness, he was horrified at hearing in a ghost-like voice, as if addressing an attendant, "I am the devil, be silent and he will soon be ours." Having such a frightful doom in store for him, our hero exclaimed, "What? and with one bound was out of the stable and reached home with hair standing on ends like quills on a porcupine, and eyes protruding about an inch from their sockets. At daylight he went to the stable, still thoroughly demoralized and shivering at the recollection of his night's adventure and related the occurrence, and also the reason why the horse was neglected—of course the "two ghosts" attended to the animal and have been laughing themselves sick ever since. Our hero firmly believed that "Old Nick" intended carrying him off. It is really amusing to hear the many startling stories arising from this little joke, now about every old stable and shed in the village. "Spooks."

On last Saturday while Frank Lohr, farmer on Squire Hoy's farm west of State College, was cutting his crop with a binder, one of his horses suddenly sank almost out of sight. It required the combined efforts of a dozen men the entire day to windlass the beast out of its perilous position. It was almost paralyzed and unable to stand.

The fiercest electrical storm our oldest citizens ever remember witnessing visited this section last week. It was accompanied by a downpour of rain and shocks of grain were struck and burned on the farms of James Mitchell, Frank Black, D. W. Miller and Thomas Decker. Fred Decker's house was struck by lightning, but no serious damage was done.

Last Monday morning while Rev. Aikens was helping Harry Frantz repair a gasoline stove, which had gotten out of order they had quite a conflagration. The oil had been emptied out of the stove into an open vessel some distance away when a match was lighted. Instantly the gasoline was a mass of flames and the entire end of the store seemed enveloped in fire. Sarah, the little daughter, was badly burned on the face, arms and neck. Mrs. Frantz was pretty well scorched and Mr. Aikens escaped with one hand burnt. Only by heroic efforts, though, were the flames extinguished and the store saved.

At the meeting of the school board on Saturday evening the following teachers were elected: Pine Grove, grammar, William Keller; primary, Kate Bollinger; Branch, Luther Fry; Kepler, John Dunlap; Tadpole, Mand Irvin; Gatesburg, Nancy Bollinger; Marengo, Guy Black; White Hall, M. E. Heberling; Oak Grove, A. J. Tate; Krumrine, Earl Musser; Pine Hill, N. N. Hartsock; Bayville, grammar, Wilson Gates; primary, Annie Heberling. Mr. Stahr, of Lancaster, was elected principal of the Pine Grove high school. He comes highly recommended. The Centre and Glades schools have not been supplied.

DEATH OF JOHN ISENBERG.—The young man whose unlucky fall we mentioned last week died on Sunday. While riding on W. S. Ward's delivery wagon, one day last week, he fell off near Marengo and when picked up was completely paralyzed. At first it was thought that he had had a stroke of paralysis but after a consultation of doctors it was discovered that his neck was broken. He was conscious all the while and was able to converse freely with those about him until the day previous to his death, which occurred at his mother's home near Graysville on Sunday morning at eight o'clock. He was a son of the late Thomas Isenberg, one of the best known citizens of Spruce Creek valley. He was a little over nineteen years of age and was a popular and exemplary young man. He was a member of P. O. S. of A. at Baileyville. His mother, three brothers and seven sisters mourn his untimely fate. Interment was made in the Graysville burying ground on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. C. Love officiated at the funeral services.

No trouble to examine you and tell you the probabilities in your case, whether you take treatment or not.

Mrs. C. W. White of Beech Creek, Tells What it Has Done.

I have been suffering from Catarrh and Deafness for a long time. I had all kinds of horrible head noises; had that dropping of phlegm so bad that often I had to leave the dining table in order to clean and hawk up and clear my throat. When I came to Dr. Stites for treatment I was in a bad condition generally, but that New Treatment is a wonder. I seem to be a new woman all around. I am feeling fine, and would say happy too for the organ sounds sweeter when I play. Now the wind doesn't whiz in that ear and drive the sound all away from me. I can hear sounds all around my house now. I am so glad, thank goodness those horrible head noises have left me. I have now to hawk and spit but very little. I thought I never could get any worse than I was when I came to doctor, and to think of the wonderful amount of good he has done me. I recommend him to all those suffering from any Catarrh disease or deafness. Yours respectfully, Mrs. C. W. WHITE, Beech Creek, Pa.
