

Boers Make Their Escape.
They Dare the Sharks and British Guns to Do It.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, July 23.—The Boer prisoners of war confined on Darrell's Island make most mighty attempts to avoid the patrolling gunboats Medina and Medway and get to the mainland by swimming. The water between Darrell's Island and the beach is calm and all night long the gunboats sweep it with their search lights. Sharks abound, and the British guard will shoot on suspicion, yet several of the Boers have escaped from their detention camp.

On the night of July 6th, H. J. DuToit, M. L. Louvents, J. P. DeBoux and J. G. DuPresse, Boer prisoners, evaded the guards and reached the mainland by swimming. They were seen, however, and fired on by the gunboats. They were seen, however, and fired on by the gunboats. They were seen, however, and fired on by the gunboats.

Mrs. Naton in Prison Cell.
Vainly Knocked for Hours on Iron Doors and Steel Bars.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 23.—Mrs. Carrie Naton, who is serving a jail sentence of thirty days for smashing private property in which a saloon was located, commenced operations on the county jail to-day, but the big iron doors and the steel bars were too strong for her. She pounded on the cell door three hours, with the thermometer at 106, while sheriff Cook vainly advised her to keep cool.

Seventy-five Robbers Behanded.

CANTON, China, July.—A band of over forty armed robbers for three successive nights have been looting shops opposite Shateen. The Chinese authorities have made no attempt to interfere. The Chinese themselves are alarmed and predict serious trouble. It is understood the foreign consuls have been warned to prepare for an uprising. A magistrate of Shuntah reports that robbers are increasing in his district. Seventy-five robbers have been behanded at Shertohai during the past two months.

Jones on the Presidency.

SEARCY, Ark., July 24.—In a speech here to-day Senator James K. Jones expressed the belief that the next President will be a Democrat.

While he would cheerfully support D. B. Hill or any other man whom the Democrats might nominate, his present opinion is that the party might display wisdom in selecting some discreet jurist or now obscure business man, whose record is faultless.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

The Republican primaries will be held on Saturday evening.

The Lock Haven Methodists will picnic at Hecla park today.

Phil Foster of State College, purchased Steve Finnegans pretty bay colt yesterday morning.

Alf Baum is wearing crutches because a horse kicked him on the knee, in their livery on Tuesday.

Commissioner's clerk Boyd A. Musser will move into the McFarlane house, recently purchased by W. Harrison Walker, on next Monday.

The freight that left this place for Sanbury yesterday morning was wrecked near Millington and fifteen cars piled up. No one was hurt. The blockade delayed the evening passenger train an hour.

Some animal pictures and some from still life exhibited at Atlantic City by Miss Annie Snyder, of Lock Haven, are creating a furor among artists there. The North American yesterday referred to her as a second Rosa Bonheur.

John Reeser, who is now in the butcher business with his father at Snow Shoe, is dickering for Abe Markle's business place at the College, which was purchased by A. M. Brown and closed up several months ago.

Charles Douglas, aged about 20, suffered a compound fracture of the right arm at Scotia, on Tuesday morning, while catching and coupling mine cars coming down the incline. He was sent to the Altoona hospital that day. He had the same position in which a man named Shney lost a leg several months ago.

John Barris, a representative of the Horse World of Buffalo, was in town yesterday to look over the new fair grounds, stables and track and while here took a picture of Billy Howe, John M. Shurgert's pretty pacer, for use in that paper next week. Billy is working out miles now quite a bit lower than 2:25.

Bellefonte's young inventor, Edward McGarvey, recently published an article in the Scientific American on harmonic vibrations in electricity that was of sufficient importance to attract the attention of the electrical wizard Thomas Edison, who has written to Mr. McGarvey, complimenting him on his research and requesting a photograph.

Commissioner's clerk Boyd A. Musser has shared the honor now some years ago by his predecessor, Robt. F. Hunter, of having the Secretary of Internal Affairs write him a personal letter complimentary of the neat and intelligent manner in which he made out the county statistical report required to be sent to that department.

The costume ball given in the armory last evening under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Blanchard was a great success from an artistic stand-point. The financial report has not been made yet.

Within ten days the Commercial telephone company hopes to have connection with points in Union county. It will be effected by an extension of the lines from Woodward to Hartleton.

Most encouraging reports have commenced to arrive concerning the condition of Mr. W. L. Dagget, proprietor of the Bush house, who is at Atlantic City for his health and his many friends here are greatly pleased that he has at last taken a decided turn for the better.

Lock Haven business men are moving to have the inter-county business men's picnic held in Agar's park, near that city, this year, instead of at Hecla, as usual. There argument in favor of it is not without merit, if Agar's park is a suitable place for so large a crowd as attends these picnics.

Though it was entirely within their own ranks the 33rd anniversary ceremonies of Constans commandery, No. 43, K. T., in their asylum in this place Wednesday day evening, proved most delightful. The Knights and their ladies enjoyed every moment spent in the pleasant quarters of the commandery.

F. J. McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, was shown to a third floor room in Keller's hotel in Lock Haven on Tuesday night and fifteen minutes later the porter found him lying on his back on a cellar door in the back yard. He had tumbled out of the window, fallen three stories and was not hurt, except for a few bruises and a little cut over the eye.

NO SECOND WEEK OF COURT.—In answer to a petition signed by all the lawyers at the bar Judge Love has just ruled that the second week of the August term of court will be dispensed with.

Jurors and others summoned to appear at the second week will not need to do so. This means for the week beginning September 2nd, or more commonly known as the civil week.

ROMOLA.

Miss Mamie DeLong, left last Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Rodman, of Slate Run.

Corporal Fred T. Tebbs and sister Florence, of Howard, attended the festival here last Saturday evening.

Miss Gertrude Roberts and Miss Marietta La Van, both of Altoona, are spending a few days in our community as the guests of Miss Alta Robb.

There was quite a large crowd at the festival last Saturday evening. About $25 were taken in. The expenses amounted to $22.

Rev. Lewis Kobb, formerly of this place, but who for a number of years has been pastor of the Reformed church of Altoona, preached here last Sunday.

We wish to correct a slight mistake made in last week's Romola items. The gentleman from Farmer's Mills who called on Miss Mamie DeLong, was Harry Hagan instead of Paul, as was stated.

Pine Grove Mention.

On account of a badly cut foot little Paul Musser is on crutches.

The largest cherry crop ever known is about over. Bushels rotted on the trees.

Mrs. James Reed, of Shingletown, enjoyed an early morning drive to our town Tuesday.

Jasper Rishel, with his family, spent Sunday at the home of his brother-in-law on Main street.

Walter Shutt and wife and little son were entertained at farmer Stine Walker's branch home recently.

Jacob E. Rider and family and Levi Garner, of Gatesburg, spent Tuesday sight seeing in and about our town.

Mrs. J. B. and Mrs. J. G. Heberling and little Ralph are up at Altoona for a week's stay among their legion of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wieland, of Linden Hall, spent the first day of the week at Squire Miller's home in the Glades.

The prospects for an apple crop in this section are not favorable owing to the trees shedding their crop too early.

The shrill whistle of the steam thresher is heard on all sides hulling out the golden grain in order to make room for the crops.

John Fortney and wife, cheery as when first married, came up from Boolsburg in their brand splinter new buggy to spend a day at the Danney home.

Supt. Thomas, with a corps of engineers, is lining up the new extension rail road west of this place on which grading is to be begun at once.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Johnson attended the funeral of Mrs. Albert Myerly who died on the 18th inst. of catarrh of the stomach and was buried on the 20th in the morning.

The recent rains have retarded our farmers from getting the grain into the barns. Much of it is in bad condition. Oats will be an average crop. Barley is the poorest in years.

Krebs farm just west of town is laden with choice fruit. From present appearances a thousand or twelve hundred bushels will be realized. Many of them will be ready for the market by August 20th.

Mrs. Viola Smith, of this town, accompanied by her two cousins, Miss May Rhone, of Centre Hall, and Miss Edith Sankey, of Pottery Mills, started for Buffalo last Monday morning. They are a happy trio and are going with optics and not goo goo eyes.

Madisonburg.

Miss Minerva Herlacher has returned home after spending a week at this place.

Mrs. Al Bartges, of Aaronsburg, visited her cousin Mr. Caris the beginning of the week.

E. S. Shaffer has returned home to spend his vacation. Mr. Shaffer is taking a business course at Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hazel, from Lock Haven, spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hazel.

Our county papers made a slight mistake in publishing the age of Mr. George Shaffer. He was 89 years instead of 87.

Mrs. Smith, accompanied by her grandfather, Mr. Confer, of Sober, spent a short time with relatives this week.

The buggy wheel which so mysteriously disappeared some time ago has not yet been found, to the sad disappointment of some Saturday night visitors.

Mrs. Zehner, wife of a former minister of this county, is visiting her sister Mrs. Jacob Kern. She has many acquaintances here, as she was raised at this place.

The wheat crop is mostly all gathered in the barns for this year again. The yield of straw seems to be good, but does not seem to be filled any too well. Threshing commenced in this vicinity on Monday.

Our people, excepting a few, have their side walks through town in good repair. We think those few should take enough interest and do the necessary repairing, as it would greatly add to the appearance of the town.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

Joseph B. White and Alice R. Cooper, both of Howard.

Harry H. Snyder, of Philipsburg, and Annie K. Flegal, of Morrisdale Mines.

John Bagosh and Dora Zimmerman, both of Clarence, Pa.

Jas. F. Lose, of Woodward, and Amanda S. Auman, of Coburn.

Frank Brown, of Beech Creek, and Amanda E. Thomas, of Snow Shoe.

Charles H. Ginter, of Bellefonte, and Lizzie McKinley, of Milesburg.

Edward Burton McCullough, of Bellwood, and Lucretia Peace, of Benore.

Evans C. Yearick and Mabel V. Smith, both of Madisonburg.
