

Pine Grove Mention.

Jacob McClellan, of this place, is the owner of acoon dog which he wishes to sell.

—Misses Mary and Nannie Bailey are on a two weeks' visit to friends in Altoona.

Lewis Hess has given up farming to accept a position in a dairy near Philipsburg.

Mrs. B. F. Stover, of Bellefonte, and her daughter, of Hagerstown, are guests of relatives here.

The I. O. O. F. hall is assuming proportions. The roof and walls are almost ready for the plastering.

Miss Olive Mitchell, of Bellefonte, spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. A. P. Mitchell, on Main street.

Mrs. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, with Irvin and Foster are here for a few days' stay among old neighbors.

Mrs. Amanda Walker is at the home of G. W. Keichline attending to Mrs. Keichline, who, at this time, is some better.

Mrs. Annie Burchfield Walton, of Philipsburg, and her little daughter are here for a week's stay at J. B. Ard's comfortable home.

Rev. Sholl, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., will preach here in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning and at Pine Hall in the evening.

Our friend J. W. Kepler is laid up with dysentery. His little grand-daughter Mary is ill with cholera infantum. Both are improving.

Mrs. Henrietta Dale accompanied by her daughter, Anna, and grandson, Henry Dale, passed through our town last week en route to McAlvey's Fort to visit Mr. Rutherford.

Our base ball team will play the College Firemen on Beaver field next Saturday afternoon. A special train will leave here at 12:45, noon, to take all who wish to see the game.

The base ball game last Saturday afternoon brought quite a large crowd of athletes together, rather expecting to see a repetition of last year, but in this they were sadly disappointed. Our nine won easily over the Boalsburg team 6 to 3.

J. Frank McCormick and wife, of Lock Haven, were up to spend Sunday among their Pine Hall friends, particularly to visit Mrs. McCormick's father, Mr. E. C. Frye, who is slowly recovering from the injuries inflicted by a vicious kick of a horse.

A jolly party of young folks, from Pine Hall, consisting of Harry Johnson, Luther Fye, and Alf Corl with their lady friends spent an evening at the parsonage here recently. On their arrival it was rumored that a marriage license was among the crowd but that was a false alarm.

Mr. Boyd B. Wilson, junior member of the Howard Creamery Co., was in town yesterday looking over the milk route and increasing the territory some. Boyd is in the Bellefonte office which he and Gross Mingle superintendent and engineer.

The Rock Springs rod and gun club numbers fifteen members. J. W. Sunday is president and Arthur Miller, secretary. A 14x18 tent is on the way and just where it will be first pitched has not been decided. Big hunting and fish stories are looked for.

Mr. John D. Dannelly and wife, of Wadsworth, Ohio, are here for a month's stay at the Dannelly home on Main street. Although it is well onto twenty years since John went West he don't look a day older. Genial and pleasant he is one of the kind of men one walks across the street to shake hands with.

At the Ward home on Main street sort of a family reunion has been in session for some time. Among those who have been enjoying the festivities are Miss Lizzie Ward, of Shamokin, Arthur and Harold Ward and Francis Thomas, of Bellefonte, Annie and Jane Ward, of Baileyville, Mrs. Maggie Meek, of Altoona, and Mrs. Sarah Gardner, of Rock Springs.

Miss Jennie Barron, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. David H. Barron, died at the family home in Hollidaysburg on Sunday evening after a painful illness. She was born at Mt. Pleasant but had resided most of her time at Hollidaysburg where her father has been pastor of the Presbyterian church for more than thirty years. She was highly esteemed and had endeared herself to a large circle of friends. She is survived by her parents, one sister Miss Lida and a brother James who resides in Baltimore. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and interment was made in Hollidaysburg.
