THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

There was a hurdy-gurdy picnic at Hecla park Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Amanda Peters, of Shiloh, has been granted a pension of $12 per month.

Sunday afternoon Adam Weaver, an aged resident of Rebersburg, suffered a stroke of paralysis.

The members of Co. B took supper at the Garman house on their way to camp, last Thursday evening.

We know of one man who has some 15ft. corn to exhibit at the fair. Do you think you can beat him?

W. F. Minary, of Tyrone, is conducting the Snow Shoe passenger train, in the absence of Martin Reese, who is having a vacation.

Bellefonte castle K. G. E. will have a symposium in their hall on Tuesday night. Miss Elizabeth Faxon will be the principal entertainer.

P. B. S. Bordner, mail clerk on the C. R. R. of Pa., left for Williamsport, on Monday, and a Mr. Weber, of Rebersburg, has taken his place.

Owing to the rain the United Brethren were compelled to hold their festival in a vacant room in the Arcade, on Saturday evening.

Rev. Dr. Lantz returned home Tuesday evening from his month's vacation and there will be services as usual on Sunday morning and evening in the Presbyterian church.

The Coleville band concert Wednesday evening was about the best of the season. The boys put great enthusiasm into their work and rendered a splendid program.

Peter Keichling began the erection of an addition to his cigar store over the race on Tuesday morning. The old building is to be moved back and a 20x30 ft. front is to be added to it.

The heavy rain of Saturday night and Sunday morning washed out about three hundred feet of track on the L. & T. near Linden Hall. Trains on that line were delayed several hours on Monday.

J. Wesley Gephart's bid of $20,000 was the highest reached at the sheriff's sale of the Bellefonte Gas Co's property in this place, on Monday, and the sale was postponed until this morning. Those who know say the property is worth $70,000.

On Monday evening a four year old son of C. C. Weaver, of Millheim, fell off the lounge. He fretted and cried so much afterwards that on Friday a doctor was called in and the little fellow was found to have both his shoulder and collar bone broken.

The last festival of the season will be held at the Union chapel at Pleasant View, on Saturday evening, August 24th, and everyone is invited. The usual good things to eat will be served and the promoters hope that there will be a large crowd there to patronize them.

Robert Morris entertained a party of ladies and gentlemen at the Country club over Sunday, in honor of Miss Sara Pettit, of Hollidaysburg. In the party were Miss Pettit, Miss Lydia Morris, Tyrone; Miss Jim King, New York; Mr. Arthur Poe, Pittsburg; Mr. Alex. Morris, Tyrone, and the host.

Cellar thieves are becoming numerous in Bellefonte. On Friday night they broke into the cellar of Wm. Garman's home, on east Linn street, and carried off butter, eggs, meat, and everything they could get hold of. They paid the place a second visit on Saturday night, but were frightened off.

George Gray Barnard, who has been selected to design the soldiers monument and Curtin memorial for the Diamond, was one of the eight sculptors awarded gold medals at Buffalo. It is a distinction our people will the better appreciate when it is known that it classifies him with MacMonnies, and others of America's most famous sculptors.

Miss M. R. Graham, having disposed of her millinery stock and leased her room at the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, which she was obligated for until April 1st next, has gone to State College, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Ruble for a few weeks. Mrs. H. C. Yeager and her daughter Lottie will open a millinery in Miss Graham's room.

While on his way to the creamery in this place, on Monday morning, Morris Furey, a Spring township farmer, met with quite an accident on Howard street. His horse frightened and ran away; throwing him down, spilling his milk and scattering the cans all along the street. He was slightly skinned, but was unharmed otherwise. The horse was caught further down the street, before any damage had been done to the wagon.

If the person or persons who pushed the timbers that Edward Overton had dragged from the creek back into the flood, on Monday night, knew how contemptible decent people estimate such a trick they would probably have sense enough to realize that it wasn't so smart after all. Edward had expended a great deal of time and trouble in dragging them out of the water and intended to use them to repair his little home up on St. Paul street until some hair-brained individual got in his work.

THE HEAVIEST RAINFALL IN YEARS.

The gentle shower that began falling in this section about 7 o'clock Saturday evening turned out to be the heaviest fall of rain in a given time that we have had for years. The rain increased from a light shower to a perfect torrent, that continued until one o'clock Sunday afternoon, with scarcely a let up.

In that time 3.18 inches of water fell and much damage was done in all parts of the country.

The reports have come in from all sections, but the loss is not heavy in any but about Pleasant Gap and Linden Hall. At the former place the little stream coming down the mountain became a raging torrent and uprooted trees, washed out bridges and damaged the pike to the extent of a thousand dollars or more. The road was quite impassable for twenty four hours and a large gang of workmen were employed to get it in shape again.

Over about Linden Hall they had the greatest flood ever known. About twenty rods of railroad, one mile east of that place, were moved about ten feet from the road bed. The work train from Sunbury was ordered to the scene but traffic was delayed for some time. Many cornfields and newly plowed fields were badly washed. On Monday morning every farmer was out putting up fences. The bridge that spans the deep channel across the road near Hon. Leonard Rhone's was taken away and landed under a railroad bridge further down stream. All the roads in that section are in a lamentable condition.

THE ZION BAND'S TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

To-morrow, Saturday, August 24th, will be a memorable one at Zion. The band that for a quarter of a century has been an honor to that village will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a big picnic and festival that day and there will be a great time.

Rope walking, pie eating contests, races, and a base ball game between Hecla park and Bellefonte teams are some of the amusements that are assured, while there will be plenty of other entertainment.

One of the real interesting features of the day will be a hand made up of the old men who played twenty-five years ago. They will play several selections and we have no hesitancy in saying that while some may regard it as a joke they might have reason to be surprised at the kind of music the old fellows will make.

The Zion band is very good today, to be sure, but years ago it was considered the best martial band in this section. No parade in Bellefonte was complete without it and it filled many engagements away from home. Twice a week it would come up to play at the skating rink here and as we write we can hear the old "Nabaut" march, their favorite, resounding above the rattle of the roller skates.

You won't regret it if you go down to Zion tomorrow, for the band boys will treat you right and you will enjoy yourself to the limit.

A THREE CORNERED PIGEON SHOOT.

On Friday a party of sportsmen from Bellefonte went out to Snow Shoe to participate in the clay-bird shoot that was being held by the club at that place. The Clarence gun club was also entered and it would have been a very interesting contest had detective Joe Rightmire not broken his record, made at Hecla park on August 14th. When he did that, the shoot lost all its excitement and Clarence won handily.

It was a twenty-five bird match, the teams having shot as follows:

HIS LEG CUT OFF.

While on his way to visit his mother, whom he had not seen for two years William Ewing fell while trying to get off a train at Julian Wednesday morning and had his left leg crushed so badly that it was amputated below the knee.

Ewing is about 21 years old and was married only last May. He was riding a freight that did not stop at Julian, where his mother, Mrs. Newman, lives, so he tried to jump off and in doing so was thrown under the wheels.

He was sent to the Lock Haven hospital on a morning train and the amputation was made later in the day.

W. I. FLEMING AGAIN HONORED.

Our townsman W. I. Fleming who has been so greatly honored by the Knight Templars of Pennsylvania, to which he is so much of an ornament, has been further distinguished by that high branch of Masonry. He has been selected as chief of staff to the grand commander of the third grand division in the triennial parade of the grand encampment of Knights Templar at Louisville, Ky., next week.

Mr. Fleming will leave to-day for Louisville. Mr. Church, of Conatus Commandery, will accompany him.

The mission band of the United Evangelical church will have a Chinese entertainment in the church Saturday evening, Aug. 31st, at 7:30. A free will offering will be taken at the door for the benefit of the missionary cause. Tea and wafers served free. Ice cream extra. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Trinity Methodist church of Lock Haven picnicked at Hecla park yesterday.

The great Centre county fair is coming on apace. Are you getting ready for it?

The Good Will hose company of Lock Haven will roast a 1,400lb ox on Labor day.

A valuable Jersey bull owned by Hoyt Heard at Salona died last week from the effects of eating wilted wild cherry leaves.

Between 7 o'clock Saturday evening and 1:30 Sunday afternoon, 3.18 inches of water fell in this place. It was an unusually large precipitation.

A six year old son of William Nihart, of Lamar, was operated on at the Lock Haven hospital, on Tuesday night, for an obstruction in the bowels.

In the 2:08 p.m. class at Brighton Beach on Friday "The Bishop," Irv. Gleason's horse, from Gleasonton, that went in the free for all here last fall, finished fifth in 2:09 and 2:04.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Meyer, of Milesburg, feel deeply grateful for the comforting assistance of friends during their recent sad period of bereavement through the death of their son Oscar J.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. Robert Bierly, Friday evening, August 30th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

At Bradford on Friday Rosebud and Miss Delmar, both horses that went at the fair races here last fall, started in the 2:15 class. Rosebud took second money and Miss Delmar was drawn in the sixth heat.

Dr. Tomlinson, of Williamsport, recently made an examination of some of the cattle that have died on the mountains in the Brush valley narrows and gives it as his belief that they have died from poison forage and not anthrax.

Walter Peters, collector for the Scranton Correspondence school in Philipsburg and vicinity, was held up by highway men while driving near Hontzdale on Monday night. Fortunately he had a gun and began firing so speedily that the robbers took to their heels.

Union county sportsmen turned eighteen half-grown Mongolian pheasants loose in the Brush valley narrows last week. It is hoped that they will multiply and start that game bird, which they will do if all gunners have patience not shoot them until they have had a chance to brood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brangart, of Rebersburg, will not accept the positions offered them as manager and matron of the Odd Fellows' orphan's home near Sunbury. Mr. Brangart has a very good position as a teacher at Cross Forks and thinks that the chance for improvement is better there than it would be at Sunbury.

The board of directors of Susquehanna University at Selingsgrove on the 18th held a special meeting and accepted the resignation of president C. W. Heisler. Though his successor has not yet been elected Prof. J. I. Woodruff, dean of the faculty, will act as president and the school will open for the fall term on Sept. 5th. The theological department will not open until Oct. 3rd.

An idea of the elaborate plans that are being followed up to make a fine program for the fair has just come to public notice through the failure of the fair directors to secure Crecoens, the fastest trotting horse in the world, for an exhibition of speed here. Had it not been that the Bethlehem fair comes the same week as ours Crecoens would have been here. Bethlehem, however, secured the famous trotter. We mention the incident merely to show that the Centre county fair promoters are not stopping at anything in the effort to secure the best attractions.

The Potter house block on Front street in Philipsburg, including the annex, the Potter Arcade and Dr. Potter's dwelling have all been sold to the electric railroad company that is installing a line there. The consideration was $30,000 and was exceptionally cheap. It is understood that the purchasers will spend $25,000 on improvements and have their offices in part of the buildings. The site for the power house for the road has been selected on east Pine street, where four lots on the north side and two acres on the south have been purchased from Mrs. Sophia Hall for $550.

On Saturday morning Officer Mullen met the 9:25 train from Tyrone to arrest a man who had been in a fight at Retort the night before and was supposed to be on the train. The officer boarded the train and was directed to a gentleman to whom he said: "I want you." The man followed him from the train and was escorted to the rear of the station, where the warrant was read to him. It was a plain case of mistaken identity, for the temporary prisoner produced evidence to show that he was assistant supervisor of the B. E. V., and not the fellow who was playing Jim Jeffries at Retort the night before. Officer Mullen naturally regretted the blunder very much, but felt that it had not been his fault, especially as the injured party in the fight was on the train and pointed out supervisor Adams as his assailant.

JAMES MCCULLEY DIES SUDDENLY.

James T. McCulley, the well known Bellefonte liverman, died so unexpectedly on Tuesday evening that the entire community was greatly shocked. He had been in his usual health all day and attended to his business up to 5 o'clock, when he went home to supper. While waiting for the meal he laid down on a couch in the parlor, where Mrs. McCulley found him dead half an hour later.

He was born in Shellsburg, Maryland, in October, 1837, and moved to this place with his parents when he was about eight years old. While he learned the tailoring trade at Montgomery's and worked at it for some time it was injurious to his health so that he gave it up in 1873 and started the livery that he has conducted ever since.

He married Mrs. Agnes Bayard, the widow of John Bayard a soldier of the Rebellion and she, with their children, James A., Marion B., Joseph and William Frederick survive. Mrs. Howard Spangler, of this place, is a step-daughter, and Mrs. Joe W. Farey, of Lock Haven, is a sister.

"Jimmy" McCulley, as he was more commonly known, may have had his faults—all mortals have them—but there are many who will miss him because he was generous and kind to them and was a friend when one needs a friend most.

Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, will officiate at the funeral this afternoon.

JAMES KENNEDY.

The venerable James Kennedy died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John M. Wieland, in Boalsburg, on Sunday morning, at the age of 75 years. His death was due to troubles incident to old age.

Mr. Kennedy was a native of Alexandria, Huntingdon county, but for the past four or five years he and his wife have made their home with their daughter in Boalsburg. He was a very pleasant gentleman and a member of the Reformed church.

Surviving him are his widow and his daughters Mrs. Wieland and Mrs. Morrow, of Sinking Valley.

The body was taken to Alexandria on Tuesday morning for burial.

Henry Corman, one of the best known residents of the vicinity of Oak Hill died at his home at noon on Wednesday. He had been in poor health for some time and his advanced age of 70 years rendered him helpless to withstand the inroads of disease. About the time the railroad was built through that valley he opened a general store at Oak Hill and continued in business there until a year or so ago, when he sold out to J. H. Weber, of Boalsburg, and has lived a retired life ever since. A widow and several children survive. He will be buried in the Union cemetery in this place on Saturday. Mr. Corman was a zealous member of the Reformed church.

Hugh Conaghan, who was well known as a division foreman on the Bald Eagle and for various other railroad places he filled in this section, died in a Pittsburg hospital on Monday night of typhoid fever. He was ill only a few days. The deceased is survived by three sisters and one brother: Mrs. James B. Lemon, of Braddock; Misses Katharine and Mary, and John Conaghan, of near Tyrone.

Mrs. Susan A. Hosterman, after an illness of seven weeks, died at her home at Millheim on Wednesday afternoon. She was the daughter of the late Noah Stover and was born July 20th, 1862, and was married to F. O. Hosterman, Dec. 30th, 1884. She is survived by her husband, her mother and several brothers and sisters.

Frank Linn, aged 20 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Linn, in Eagleville, at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, from the effects of typhoid fever. His parents and one sister survive. His services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon and interment was made at Eagleville.

W. H. H. Musser died at his home in North Dakota on the 11th inst., and was buried on the 14th. He was a brother of Emanuel Musser, of State College, and at one time was a resident of Centre county. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having served in the 49th Reg., with distinction.

Mrs. Mary Donaldson, the mother of Mrs. James Passmore, of Philipsburg, died at the Passmore house in that place on Friday morning, after two months illness with troubles incident to old age. She was a very estimable woman and was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

E. J. Swanger, aged 47, died at his home in Millheim on Saturday, leaving a widow with two sons and one daughter. His death was precipitated by an accident he met at Glenn Union several weeks ago. Interment was made Wednesday morning in Fairview cemetery.

William Miller, a son of Carpenter Miller, of Beech Creek, was killed on the railroad near Pittsburg on Friday night. The young man was 22 years old and was employed on the road. His body arrived at home on Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mussina died at the home of her daughter in Mt. Carmel on the 15th and was brought to Aaronsburg for burial on Monday. She had lived a number of years in the latter place. She was nearly 92 years old.

News Purely Personal.

—Hon. A. G. Morris, of Tyrone, was in town on Wednesday.

—H. C. Quigley Esq., had legal business in Huntingdon on Friday.

—Howard Curtis, son of Andrew Curtis, of Philadelphia, is in town visiting friends.

—Banker Wm. B. Mingle, of Centre Hall, was a business visitor in town on Monday.

—Mrs. E. P. Irwin is in Pittsburg and New Castle for a visit of several weeks with friends there.

—Prof. and Mrs. James R. Hughes returned, Thursday evening, from a ten day's visit to Chautauqua.

—Orville Hickok, of Harrisburg, was a guest at the Hastings home, on north Allegheny street, over Sunday.

—The Misses Erma and Vera Snook, of south Allegheny street, are with a party of friends at the Pan American.

—Mrs. Joseph Ervin Borches, of Knoxville, Tenn., is in town for a few days visit with her mother and sister.

—Mr. John Anderson left for Kane, on Wednesday afternoon, and will visit several old friends there for a week.

—Miss Julia Bidwell, of south Allegheny street, has gone to Dover, Del., to spend a month with her sister, Mrs. Vesta D. Culveyhouse.

—Fred Wilhelm, of Pittsburg, who had been visiting relatives in town for several weeks, left for his home on Tuesday afternoon.

—Andrew Brees, of Downingtown, was a Bellefonte visitor over Sunday. He came up to spend the day with his mother and sisters in this place.

—The venerable Perry Steele, who is as good a man at 85 as many we know of half that age, has just returned from a visit to his son Will in Philipsburg.

—Mrs. George N. VanDyke and her sister Miss Roberta Noll returned, Monday evening, from their sojourn at Ligonier and both were very much benefited by the stay at that resort.

—Miss Grace McClellan, of Allegheny City, Pa., who has been a recent guest of the Misses Amanda and Lucy Barnhart, at the Barnhart homestead at Roland, departed for her home on Saturday last.

—Miss Mary Olewine, who came up from Lewisburg Saturday to see her brother, Mr. John Olewine, who had been quite ill but who is encouragingly better, returned to her home Wednesday.

—Mrs. Harvey Yarrington and her little son Grayson, of Richmond, Va., are in town for a three week's visit. They arrived Sunday morning and are now guests at the home of Miss McClellan.

—Ira D. Garman, who is meeting with so much success since he opened his new jewelry store in Philadelphia, was in town on Saturday for a visit of a few hours with his father and brothers in this place.

—Secretary of Agriculture John Hamilton was in town on Tuesday and was closeted with Judge Love and W. E. Gray for several hours. It is supposed that they were talking over the local political situation.

—Mrs. Jack McClellan, of Sharpburg, who had been visiting relatives in this place for ten days, left for Philadelphia on Tuesday, where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. Albert Engels Blackburn for a few days.

—Maurie Jackson has returned from his summer outing at Oakland, Md., and if Maurie is to be believed that resort was so cool, while we were sweltering up here, that he had to wear his seal skin vest most every evening.

—Dr. Alfred Gordon, of the Jefferson medical college staff in Philadelphia, is in town visiting Mrs. Gordon and their child who are spending the summer with Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. Estelle Lyon, of Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gummo, of Buffalo Run, were in town on Monday doing some shopping. Mr. Gummo is just now trying to find the owner of an ewe and two lambs that came to his place some time ago and he is taking the lawful course to dispose of them.

—Mrs. W. C. Patterson, her daughter Mrs. A. L. Miller and little Miss Adaline stiller, who have been staying at the Patterson home at State College during the Rev. Mr. Miller's absence in California, leave this morning for Ocean Grove. They are going for a few weeks stay.

—Dr. Edward Harris, one of the interns at St. Luke's hospital, in Philadelphia, was home to spend Sunday with his parents in this place. He brought Mrs. J. S. McCargan up on Saturday evening and was very much pleased with the manner in which she underwent the trip, after her serious operation.

—Col. W. R. Teller, of Havana, Cuba, is in town visiting Jack Dale in particular and his hosts of other friends in general. The Col. seems to have found the pool, some where down in the Antilles, that Ponce de Leon was after, for every time he returns he seems to have grown younger.

—Edward Harper, of the firm of Harper Bros., grocers, went to Philadelphia on Tuesday and has entered the University hospital, where he will probably undergo an operation for the trouble with his side that has laid him up so much lately. He was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Linn.

—William R. Oatler and Oona A. Fallet, two missionaries of the Mormon church, held a picnic meeting in the Diamond here on Tuesday evening. Both are young men and fluent talkers. They attracted quite a crowd, especially men many of whom, no doubt, would hail the multi-wife idea with delight.

—Mrs. David Barclay and her daughters Rebecca, Margaret and Tessie, left yesterday for Philadelphia where they will visit for a short time before going to Boston to locate permanently. Mrs. Barclay's only son William is in business there and the family has decided to make it their future home. Jerre Nolan will take Barclay's house on Willowbank St.

—William Tressler, of Fillmore, was in town on Saturday on business relative to his duties as administrator in the Myers estate. Mr. Tressler has discovered that he is likely to have a life time job, as he has been made guardian of Dan Myers' minor children and two of the large coal tracts owned by the estate are under fifty years lease to other parties.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilkins went down to Sunbury on Wednesday morning where they met Mrs. Wilkins' father who is on the staff of the Governor of Virginia. The Governor and his party, accompanied by the Richmond blues, the crack military organization of Virginia, were traveling by special train to Buffalo and the Wilkins accompanied them for part of the trip.

—On his way home from a fishing trip up along the lakes Rev. J. P. Hughes, principal of the Academy, stopped off at Logansport, Ind., where one of the papers commented as follows on his visit: "J. P. Hughes, of Bellefonte, Pa., is in the city for a few days, renewing old friendships and seeing his former pupils. Mr. Hughes was the first instructor to take charge of the Presbyterian Academy, which is now Judge Baldwin's residence at the corner of Market and Seventh streets. His assistants were Judge Winfield and Luther Roberts. Mr. Hughes left Logansport in 1897. This is his first visit to the city since that date. While he is now in his seventy-fourth year he is hale and hearty, which he attributes to his fondness for all kinds of athletics—hunting, fishing, swimming, skating, field sports, etc. He introduced base ball and organized the first club in the city. He has been spending his summer vacation fishing in the lakes of Michigan."

—Dr. John F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, was in town on Tuesday.

—J. H. Agar and his daughter came up from Lock Haven last evening to attend the funeral of James McCulley.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees, with their son Fred, left for Atlantic City, yesterday morning. They expect to be gone a week.

—Mrs. K. G. Shutt and her two daughters from Kane, are visiting at the home of prothonotary M. I. Gardner, on Spring street.

—Mrs. F. W. Orier returned yesterday from an extended trip out over the lakes to Duluth, Minn., and through the West.

—Mrs. Samuel Milliken, of Plainfield, N. J., is visiting her sister Miss Marion Milliken who now makes her home at Mrs. Lou Harris', on Allegheny street.

—G. Ross Parker, the affable conductor of the Bellefonte Central railroad, with Mrs. Parker and their children, Ferguson and Eleanor, are in Somerset visiting Mr. Parker's family.

—Mrs. Ed. Cook returned to her home in Jeanette, yesterday, accompanied by her sister Miss Mollie Snyder, who is still on the invalid list and not able to superintend her store.

—Sheriff Brungard and Henry C. Quigley Esq., will go to State College to-day on LEGAL business. This is a little free advertising for Mr. Quigley who thinks some other lawyers are getting more than he is.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Fleisher and their daughter Margaret, of Philadelphia, are at the Bush house for several weeks. Mrs. Fleisher was Miss Flora Pennington and they are enjoying a kind of over the county visiting their relatives the Fleishers, Campbells and Millers.

—The venerable Wesley Pennington, who is only venerable in years—eighty-one or two—far be it from him to be of Philadelphia, and his daughter Miss Margaret are visiting Mrs. Isaac Miller. Isaac Miller Jr., is also home from Philadelphia enjoying his usual vacation.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Foman and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foman, with several of their children, made a jolly spring-wagon load of visitors to Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon. They all had a little business in town and made a kind of family outing of the trip. The former reports that Sunday's rain submerged an acre of sowed corn he had for silo so badly that it is almost a total loss.

—Tom Hamilton, who has been so long in New York, filling various positions of trust, came home on Monday to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hamilton, of Howard street. He is at present connected with the Equitable life company. Last evening his brother Clarence arrived from New York for his vacation and they are having the usual summer reunion at the Hamilton home on Howard street.

—Edward Loughrey, of Bald Eagle, the last of the trio of Loughreys—Thomas, Patrick and Edward—once so well known in this section as railroaders, politicians and all around representative men, was in town on Monday attending to some business that brings him down here about once a year. He is a division foreman on the valley and it needs but a look at his section of track to convince the most skeptical that the name of Loughrey usually means a job well done.

FOR THE WILLIAMS REUNION.

On account of the Williams family reunion that will be held in the grove 1½ miles east of Martha Furnace, on Saturday, August 31st, both morning and evening passenger trains, east and west, on the Bald Eagle valley, will stop at the grove.

This order does not include the two noon trains, neither one of which will stop.

AN EVENING IN SCOTLAND.

The ladies of St. John's Episcopal church will be glad to see all who enjoy the old Scotch melodies and recitations at the residence of Mrs. D. G. Bush, on Spring St., Thursday evening, Aug. 29th. Every one is requested to take a bright silver quarter along as compensation.

VISITORS TO ATLANTIC CITY.

You can secure pleasant accommodations at reasonable rates at the Ocean Queen hotel, conducted by Mrs. Helen A. Jones and Samuel Jones. Ocean end of Tennessee avenue. Fine location, comfortable rooms, good board, favorable terms. 46-32-46
