

CHURCH RE-OPENING.—The re-opening services of Waddle's M. E. church will take place Sunday, Sept. 1st, at 10 a. m. Rev. H. L. Jacobs, of Altoona, will preside, assisted by Revs. Geo. Glenn, of Roaring Springs; S. S. Cornell, of Marysville, D. F. Kapp and the pastor.

Rev. Jacobs will preach in the morning and Glenn in the evening. The church has been repaired and beautified at a cost of $400.00.

All are cordially invited to these services.

The Grangers Asked to Work for the Picnic.

To the Masters and Members of the Granges of Centre County:

At the recent meeting of the Centre County Grange, the following resolutions were presented:

Resolved, That we cordially invite every Grange in the county to appoint several persons to recite, and five or six people to assist with the music at the meetings at the grange encampments, Sept. 14th to 20th, also that the committee of arrangements provide separate tents as headquarters for all the Granges in the county, where members can store their baskets, wraps, etc., so as to secure them against loss.

We would earnestly urge you to inform every member of your Grange of the foregoing arrangements. Come and show to the world that we believe in farmers organizing and standing together for their mutual protection. Inform the committee as early as possible as to whom you have appointed to recite and assist with the singing. They need not necessarily be Patrons.

Respectfully,
L. RHONE,
JOHN DAUBERMAN,
Geo. DALE,
Geo. GINGRICH,
G. L. GOODHART.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Sprankle, of Coleville, is visiting at Perry Cole's at this place.

The A. E. Meyer property at this place was sold last week to Mrs. Meyer for $730.

Quite a number of our people attended the woods meeting at Centre Hill on Sunday.

Insurance agent Jamison, of Spring Mills, made a business trip to our town on Tuesday.

Miss Katie Hutchel, of Philadelphia, is spending a few weeks with friends in our town.

Revs. J. F. Shultz, of Centre Hall, and G. W. Leisher, of Boalsburg, were in town on Tuesday.

The sick in this community are Mrs. Henry Zeigler, Mrs. Hester Long and Miss Valeria Gettig.

Mrs. J. A. Long, of Centre Hall, visited her aged and afflicted mother-in-law at this place on Monday.

Frank McClellan, who has been working in Illinois for a year or so, has returned to his home near this place.

Mrs. P. C. Bradford departed, this week, for York where she will spend a few weeks among friends and relatives.

Wm. Felding, who for the last two weeks was clerking in Joseph Bros. store in Bellefonte, came home to stay on Saturday.

Miss Mabel Irwin, of Pleasant Gap, returned to her home last week after a few weeks' stay at the home of Elmer Houtz of this place.

Messrs. Elmer Houtz and Jas. Ross Jr., were in Millheim on Saturday. Mr. Houtz contemplates going into the butcher business at that place.

Among those who transacted business in Bellefonte during the last week were Fergus Potter Esq., Messrs. Samuel Ripka, J. L. Tressler, Henry Zeigler and Miss Rhoda Potter.

Mrs. Davidson and daughter of DuBois, and Mrs. Wm. Rishel and sister, Miss Myrtle Williams, of Oak Hall, visited at the home of Robt. Corl and family of this place part of last and this week.

G. W. Smith, of Clearfield, was in this section last week buying up wheat. Mr. Smith's father used to run the grist mill at this place many years ago, and he remembers many of our older residents with whom he used to attend school.

The death of Arthur Crissman, the two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crissman, occurred on Sunday morning. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday morning by Rev. G. W. Leisher, of Boalsburg, after which the remains were taken to Millroy for burial.

The great convenience of the telephone was demonstrated to our citizens last week when the presence of Mr. Samuel Ripka was desired at Bellefonte to make oath to certain transactions between him and his lawyer. Mr. Ripka was unable to get to Bellefonte in time, so the telephone was brought in as a medium and he took the oath over the wire.

The Boalsburg baseball team passed through here on Saturday on their way to Centre Hall where they defeated the Centre Hall team by a score of 10 to 7. This team, under the management of D. W. Myers, is rapidly becoming one of the best teams in the country. Among the members of our team are Harry Lonberger and W. S. Wieland, of this place, to whose services the club is largely indebted for past successes.

Spring Mills.

Considerable fishing has been indulged in of late along Penns Creek, but with indifferent success.

In this neighborhood considerable oats have been more or less damaged, if not entirely ruined by the wet weather.

G. H. Long, of Steubenville, O., formerly of this place, was here last week and moved his family and household effects to his present location.

Hiram Kane, of George's valley, who has been in ill health all summer, was in town several times of late, but Mr. Kane says that he is far from being well.

Jacob Hazel had his handsome residence and the surroundings very artistically painted, and it presents a very charming appearance. That artist in housepainting, Peter Auman, and his two skillful sons did the work.

M. N. Miller and family, of Potters Mills, were here over Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Miller, who has been very seriously ill for the last three weeks. There is no apparent improvement in Mrs. Miller's condition.

The ladies of the Lutheran church announce a lawn festival for Saturday evening next. The beautiful side lawn at the residence of C. A. Krape will be used for the occasion and every effort will be made by the committee to insure comfort and enjoyment to all visitors.

I. C. Condo, of the Penn Hall carriage works, is manufacturing some very handsome buggies. Three were delivered last week that were pronounced perfect beauties. Mr. Condo has become quite celebrated as a builder of high grade vehicles. The works are running on full time and have been all summer.

Pine Grove Mention.

John Neese, of Penn Hall, spent Monday here.

Mrs. L. H. Osman is laid up with pulmonary trouble.

Mrs. J. B. Heberling is visiting friends at State College this week.

We are growing a twelve and a half foot corn stalk for the Bellefonte Pan-American.

Mrs. James Reed and Caroline Houseman are visiting their many friends up in Altoona this week.

Ex-sheriff J. P. Condo and wife, of Millheim, are here visiting among their numerous relatives in this community.

Mrs. George Smith, of Harrisburg, is at grandmother Smith's home on Water street for her usual summer's visit.

A. J. Tate has laid by his paint brush out at Scalp Level and come home to wield the birch over his last year's pupils at Pine Hall.

Frank McClellan, of Manhattan, Ill., is here for a month's visit with his brother-in-law H. W. Frantz and other relatives.

J. D. Nearhood, A. M. Brown, and Al Pletcher are a happy trio who are sightseeing at the Pan-Am. in Buffalo this week.

O. B. Krebs is home from Altoona superintending the picking and marketing of their enormous peach crop, which is now being handled.

We are indebted to Samuel A. Dunlap for some sample lots of new wheat. The varieties are Winter King and Multiplier and are perfect specimens of the kind.

Col. J. Hall Musser has our thanks for a copy of "The Sun" a bright new sheet which he is associated with as its editor and proprietor.

John D. Denny and family after enjoying a delightful visit of three weeks with his Centre county relatives departed for their home in Medina, O., on Monday.

M. E. Heberling is as proud of his new hammerless Remington gun as a small boy generally is of his first pair of boots. Woe be to the game that comes within its range.

Mrs. Edward Bowersox, who has been visiting her parents at Fairbrook for several weeks, returned to her home in Altoona much improved by her vacation.

There will be no services in the Lutheran church next Sunday as Rev. C. T. Aikens is going to Phillipsburg to install the Rev. D. E. Russell pastor of the Lutheran church of that place.

An elegant dinner was given at postmaster Hess' on Wednesday for the strangers that are now visiting in the town. It was in honor of Mrs. Wm. Riber and her daughter Mrs. Wilkinson, of Berrien Springs, Mich.

The new I. O. O. F. hall is nearing completion. Last week Messrs. Krumrine and Glenn, of State College, placed a new heater in the cellar and this week the outside is being painted while the inner walls are getting a coat of plaster. Hook, Harrison and Otto have the contract.

Albert and McAllister Myton, of Huntingdon, passed through here on Monday on their way to attend Mrs. Irwin Ross' funeral who was their aunt. They tarried here long enough to speak to a few of their old friends who realized at once that they still adhere to the straight Democratic doctrines of their father.

After an absence of forty-two years Mrs. J. C. Davidson is visiting at the home of her youth in Lemont. She is a sister of former post master John Williams, who came home from Patton to take part in the family reunion. Mrs. Davidson lives in DuBois and is naturally much impressed by the many changes that have taken place in her absence.

A new brick pavement is being laid in front of the residence of N. I. and Dr. R. M. Krebs. This completes the sidewalk on that street as far as the diamond so the mud wading is done for all time. There are other places in the town, though, that need improving badly and it is to be hoped that they will be fixed up before the 7th which is to be a red letter day in our history. The citizens are making preparations to decorate their homes and it is said that Charley Smith contemplates carrying off the prize for the most elaborate decoration.

Mrs. William Riber, her daughter, Mrs. Clara Wilkinson, and her grandson, of Berrien Springs, Michigan, who have been visiting relatives elsewhere in Centre county for some time are here for an extended stay. This is the first time that Mrs. Riber has been here since she and the Doctor went west over thirty years ago. He was then a successful practicing physician here but preferred the west and its greater opportunities. He died in Berrien Springs several years ago. Mr. Wilkinson is coming east later in the season to accompany them home and to the Buffalo exposition.

John T. Duff, a prominent resident of Spruce Creek, died at Leechburg two weeks ago after a long illness of Bright's disease. He was an attorney in Pittsburg, prospering until ill health compelled his retirement. Then he returned to Spruce Creek. Early in the seventies he was married to Miss Allie Lytle of this place and during the subsequent years they frequently visited their friends here. Early in life he joined the Baptist church and was ever an active and earnest church worker. He is survived by his wife, two children, a daughter who is married and living in Texas, and his son John a bright little fellow of twelve summers, two brothers and two sisters living in Ohio and Leechburg. Interment was made in River-view cemetery in Huntingdon.

Madisonburg.

E. H. Zeigler carries a smile of his own since the arrival of the new girl.

Our former landlord, S. B. Shaffer, now at Old Fort, spent Saturday in town.

Music dealer M. C. Gephart has placed a piano at the home of A. H. Vonada.

Our town was well represented at the Sugar valley campmeeting on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith paid a short visit to his aunt Mrs. Caris last week.

Our schools will open on Monday, Sept. 2nd, with Meyer and Limbert as teachers.

Presiding Elder W. A. Leopold preached in the Evangelical church Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eisenberg and children are paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hazel.

Prof. W. F. Zeigler again left for his old home where he holds the principalship of the Chelton High school.

It is rumored that we will have another store in town by spring. Our hope is that the report is correct.

Some of our farmers are ready for sowing. The soil is in good condition as we had plenty of rain, which is a contrast to last fall.

The Geo. Shaffer sale on Saturday was well attended and things, on an average, brought fair prices. Philip Caris purchased the home.

Rev. Petterolf, of Mercer county, is paying his father a visit. He preached an excellent sermon in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Mr. Harry Rishel came home last Wednesday evening, after spending a great part of the summer in the western part of the State, working at the carpenter's trade. He came home on account of sickness.

President Goble, of Central Penna. college, preached in well spoken words for the United Evangelicals on Sunday forenoon. Everybody was pleased with the clearness and logic of Rev. Goble. It was also the day celebrating the Lord's Sacrament.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The Ladies' Home Journal for September is the "Special Autumn Fashion Number" of that excellent magazine. In addition to an unusual number of interesting stories and striking features, it devotes seven pages to a complete setting forth of the styles-to-be in dresses, bodices, hats and wraps. The most important literary feature, perhaps, is the initial installment of "Miss Alcott's Letters to Her 'Laurie'"—letters which have never before been printed. They are edited by "Laurie" himself—now grown up. There is a delightful description of a day in the woods with Ernest Seton-Thompson, and a jolly recital of "The College Scrapes We Got Into," by "A Graduate." The fourth part of Miss Tompkin's "Alleen" brings that charming story near to its close, and Mr. Bok discusses the need for parental co-operation in education in his editorial on "The School Question Again." Three articles about "Cats That Draw Salaries," "Famous People as We Do Not Know Them," and "How a Village Changed Its Name" combine to make an exceptional page, and a double page is devoted to photographs of "The Handsomest Laces in America." "The New Wedding Stationery" is shown, also some of the photographs which won prizes in The Journal's recent rural contest. In addition to the regular departments there are valuable articles on "A Cleverly Planned Nursery," "Plants Which Can Be Raised in the House," and plans for an ideal $7,000 house. By The Curtis Publishing company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.
