The Twenty-Fifth President.

President Roosevelt is spoken of as the twenty-sixth President, and more correctly as the twenty-fifth. The question is easily settled.

The usual printed lists in the almanac put McKinley down as the twenty-fifth President, and on a hasty glance one naturally assumes that Roosevelt is the twenty-sixth. The following is the list usually printed:

- First—George Washington. Second—John Adams. Third—Thomas Jefferson. Fourth—James Madison. Fifth—James Monroe. Sixth—John Quincy Adams. Seventh—Andrew Jackson. Eighth—Martin Van Buren. Ninth—William H. Harrison. Tenth—John Tyler. Eleventh—James K. Polk. Twelfth—Zachary Taylor. Thirteenth—Millard Fillmore. Fourteenth—Franklin Pierce. Fifteenth—James Buchanan. Sixteenth—Abraham Lincoln. Seventeenth—Andrew Johnson. Eighteenth—Ulysses Grant. Nineteenth—Rutherford B. Hays. Twentieth—James A. Garfield. Twenty-first—Chester A. Arthur. Twenty-second—Grover Cleveland. Twenty-third—Benjamin Harrison. Twenty-fourth—Grover Cleveland. Twenty-fifth—William McKinley. Twenty-sixth—Theodore Roosevelt.

The confusion arises from counting Grover Cleveland twice, because the interval of the Harrison term occurred between his first and second terms. If his terms had succeeded each other as in the case of other Presidents holding two terms he would have been counted as the twenty-second President, Benjamin Harrison as the twenty-third, as he was, and McKinley as the twenty-fourth.

If both Cleveland's terms are to be counted and he is to be called the twenty-second and twenty-fourth President, then other double terms should be counted also, and Washington be made the first and second President, and so on. This mode of enumeration would make Roosevelt the thirty-fourth President. By no reasonable mode of counting can he be the twenty-sixth. He is in fact the twenty-fifth person to fill the office, and consequently the twenty-fifth President of the United States, counting personalities and not Presidential terms.

The North American to Issue a Sunday Edition. So Promises the Sunday North American, the First Number of Which Will be Out Sept. 20th.

The North American announces that on September 29th it will begin the publication of a Sunday edition. Prevailing conditions demand of each metropolitan paper an issue every day in the year, and the North American is sensibly obeying that demand. Rumors of this innovation have already been heard and interest and speculation as to what it will be like is keen. The North American when it does anything, does it better than anyone else, and in the matter of a Sunday paper the same rule is expected to apply.

For one thing the North American promises that its Sunday edition will be "different." The standard of text and illustration will be as high as that of any monthly magazine. It will not be "cheap" in any sense. It will not magnify the trivial, neither will it make heroes out of the silly and the commonplace. The North American's motto is: "A sensible Sunday newspaper," and if it is such it certainly will be different and welcome.

It will strive, of course, to be interesting and entertaining. That goes without saying. The special writers and artists are of the first rank and the mechanical equipment of the North American insures perfect printing.

As to the details of the paper itself, this much is known. There will be four colored supplements in addition to the new sections and sheet music. There will be a supplement of eight pages in colors, devoted exclusively to women's interests, a comic section of four pages in colors, a magazine section of twelve pages in colors and a sixteen page supplement in colors explaining the involved and varied processes of making a newspaper. The sheet music will be like that on sale in music stores in every particular. The first Sunday North American will probably consist of seventy-six pages of which thirty-two will be used for news.

The Great Reading Fair. Berks county has always been noted for its large and highly successful agricultural exhibitions. The coming exhibition, to be held in the city of Reading, on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th of October, judging by the preparations in progress, will eclipse all previous efforts in that direction. Many special attractions have been provided, and the display in every department promises to be very fine. In fruit the county is well supplied, and a fine assortment of varieties may be expected. The races will be exciting and diversified by a special program of amusements. Ten large shows have been booked. The railroad companies have granted liberal concessions and will run excursions during the fair, and will also sell excursion tickets good for the week. Reading is one of the most attractive cities to visit, and is seen at its best during the week of the county fair.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Special Excursions to Pan-American Exposition. The Pennsylvania railroad company will run special excursions to Buffalo on account of the Pan-American exposition, from Philadelphia and adjoining territory, on Sept. 26th, Oct. 2nd, 8th, 17th, 23rd, and 29th. Round-trip tickets, good going only on special train leaving Philadelphia at 8:44 a. m., Harrisburg 11:50 a. m., Sunbury 1:05 p. m., Williamsport 2:30 p. m., Lock Haven 3:05 p. m., and on local trains connecting therewith, and good to return on regular trains within seven days, including day of excursion, will be sold at rate of $9.50 from Trenton, $9.00 from Reading, $8.00 from Philadelphia, $9.00 from Lancaster, $8.40 from Harrisburg, $7.25 from Altoona via Tyrone, $10.00 from Winchester, and proportionate rates from other points. These tickets will not be good in Pullman parlor or sleeping cars in either direction. Stop of 30 minutes will be made at Williamsport for luncheon. For specific time and rates, consult local ticket agents. 46-38-51.

A SHOCKING CALAMITY.—"Lately benefited a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kallet, of Whitford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Boils, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25c. Sold by F. P. Green.
