So many planets will be bunched together this month, and all except Earth and Neptune on the same side of the heaven and almost in the same sign, it will be hard to tell just what will happen to old mother Earth, but we believe this strange meeting will cause the weather to play many tricks, and there will be some lively scenes in the financial, political and business world.

The danger from storm periods will be between the 2nd and 5th; 8th and 12th; 18th and 20th. As a Mercury period is central on the 22nd, many localities will be visited with sudden downpours of rain and great sleet storms from the 22nd to the 30th.

Dwellers along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts must watch out for hurricanes, tidal waves and cyclones this month. Would be well for navigators along the great lakes to also watch out for severe storms. Crimes. disasters, earthquakes and political trouble will run high. This month Jupiter (our financial planet) will pass between Saturn and the Sun. This unusual position of the planets will undoubtedly give us an opportunity to see some heavenly panoramic

A MINISTER IN A BAD RUNAWAY AT LOGANTON. - Rev. C. C. Mizener, of Mifflinburg, and a young lady companion had a narrow escape from being killed in a runaway accident near Loganton on 2 o'clock. Rev. The postoffice at Pennsylvania Furnace is undergoing repairs and being enlarged as the rural free delivery seems to demand more room. Postmaster Archey, who is a most obliging and efficient official, simply had to have more room. Our supervisors had better get a hustle on as Uncle Sam is about to demand better roads and that will mean more taxes, as good roads cannot be made with north wind and buttermilk whey.

George Borst died at his home at Pennsylvania Furnace on Friday night, the 27th, aged 57 years. He had been an invalid for ten years with spinal trouble but his death was hastened by an attack of dysentery. He was a member of the M. E. church and during the time that his health permitted he was an active and zealous church worker. He was a kind husband and neighbor and an indulgent father who enjoyed the respect and esteem of those who knew him. He leaves a wife and six children mostly grown. Funeral services were held at his home on Sunday at

A band of gypsy fortune tellers, who need watching, camped in the grove near town the beginning of the week. They failed to have the old time crowd anxious to know their fate and consequently did not stay long. Soon after they decamped merchant N. I.
